THE RULES AND REGULA-TIONS

Everything Moving Along Nicely and a Large Crowd Expected

We approach the fourth fair held by our association with greater confidence and expectation than ever before. We trust the people of the county will do their part in making the exhibits. And we promise that members of the association will do all in their power to make the 1913 fair the largest and best of the four. The following are the rules and regulations: 1. The gates will be opened for admission to visitors at 8 o'clock a.

m. each day and close at 6 p. m. 2. All the employees of the fair, including police must be promptly on hand at their posts at 8 o'clock a. m. each day of the fair and remain on duty until 6 o'clock p. m., except night force. 3. Every reasonable effort will be made by the officers of the Society and those in charge of the grounds to protect the property on exhibition from loss or damage, but the Society will not be held responsible should loss or damage occur. 4. Drunkenness, quarreling or the use of profane or obscene language will not be allowed on the ground; nor the presence of fireworks, petroleum, gunpowder, or any other dangerous or objectional material whatever. 5. Persons desiring space for the exhibition of articles or machinery not entered for competition should apply to the Secretary as early as possible giving the name of the exhibitor and article, place of residence and the amount of space required. 6. No peddling, hawking or selling of any kind will be Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lyon and allowed in the buildings or on the obtaind from the Secretary of the
