Death of Little Child

Little Melvin Jones Dixon was born the twenty-third of October and died the twenty-sixth. His life on earth was very short but Jesus knew best. Now calmly and sweetly he is sleeping on his dear Saviour's breast. He took a little flower in each hand and went home to wear his crown. Dear parents, grieve not for him for he is waiting at the gate his loved ones there to greet.

Oh, my little darling,
How I loved you, no one can ever tell,
How it filled my heart with sadness
As I spoke my last farewell. S.

Mr. V. V. Veasey Dead

Winston Sentinel says:
"Mr. V. V. Veasey died suddenly of heart disease Monday morning at ten o'clock at his home on North Liberty street. He was not consciously ill for more than a few minutes before his death. He was about thirty-five years of age, and is survived by his wife, and by his father, F. J. Veasey, of Wilkins, and by two brothers, C. O. Veasey, of Wilkins, and J. A. Veasey, of Richmond, and by one sister, Mrs. Hattie Gully, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Veasey moved here several years ago from Wilkins and have made many friends in the city.

Mr. Veasey was employed by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, and held a responsible position with that company.

The remains were taken to Wilkins for interment.

Resolutions of Respect

Resolutions of respect in memory of the life of brother Jonie Breedlove:

Whereas, our Heavenly Father has seen fit to take from earth our beloved brother and fellow steward Jonie Breedlove, as a testimonial of his high christian character and faith in his piety, we deem it our privilege and duty to speak as follows:

Resolved 1, That in the death of brother Breedlove we miss a faithful member of the Board of Stewards.

Resolved 2, That the church at Bethel also loses a pious, consistent member and the community a good neighbor and excellent citizen.

Resolved 3, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family and pray that God in His mercy may comfort them.

Resolved 4, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, a copy spread upon the minutes of this Quarterly Conference and another sent to the county papers. Committee:

J. P. Hunt,
N. C. Crews,
A. J. Dickerson.
