The best fight we can make is for Granville county. We are on the side of Granville county and her splendid people.

The 14th annual session of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association met at Raleigh last week and elected Dr. Archibald Henderson as President to succeed Dr. Few.

Two droves of turkeys numbering 1,500 were driven to Wilkesboro the past week and sold. As turkeys can travel only about ten miles a day it required three days to make the trip over the mountain.

"Every girl can make a name for herself," declares an exchange. They generally do. By being cute and irresistible, a girl manages to take some fellow's name and is better satisfied than if she had one all by herself.—Wil. Star.

By the close vote of 113 to 111 the Virginia M. E. Conference in session at Danville defeated the proposition to extend lay rights to women. The clergy voted by a majority of five in favor of the proposition, but the adverse majority by the laymen overcame the clerical lead.

The Memphis and New York passenger trains over the Southern Railway carry so many newlyweds the company has ordered the Pullman Company to manufacture a solid compartment car that will be named the "Honeymoon." Nothing but brides and bridegrooms will occupy this car. Each compartment will be richly furnished and decorated in gray, white, pink, blue, old gold and old rose.

To be truly fashionable this winter you must be prepared to risk both your life and limb by exposure. As if the slit skirt were inadequate to reveal sufficiently your nether limbs the slit stocking has been put forward to overcome any such deficiency. Slashed up the side to the height of your knee and airily laced with a silk cord finished with tassels it is dubbed the sailor stocking, possibly because it opens up the way to see.

Will You Do It?

We desire to make the Public Ledger intensely interesting to our readers. To do this we seek the co-operation of the citizen of Granville. Now do not be bashful. If you have friends visiting you, or any of your people going away, just 'phone the fact to this office—'phone 28. If you have a social function, or know of any of your neighbors or friends having one, phone or send it in; or give us the information so we can get it. We are not omniscient, and therefore any aid along the lines suggested will be appreciated, and it will help us to give you a newsy paper.

Take it In Farmers.

The short course in agriculture to be given at the A. & M. College in Raleigh in January should be better attended than ever before says the Times. With the awakening of North Carolina farmers for need for scientific information, and the necessity for supplying an ever increasing demand for food supplies, 1000 farmers would not be too great an attendance. It is a course that should appeal to adults, who are facing seriously every day of their lives the problem of making ends meet. Those who attend will find the difficulty of making ends meet lessened to the extent to which they apply themselves while in Raleigh. And that means that each student will get something worth gold to him.

Death of Railroad President.

Thomas M. Emerson, President of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, and one of the most able and popular railroad men in the South, died at his home in Wilmington Tuesday night following an attack of acute indigestion suffered on Sunday night at Dupont, Ga., while on an inspection trip of the system with members of the Board of Directors.

President Wm. Finley, of the Southern Railway and a leading figure in movements for the development of the South, died in Washington City as a result of a stroke of apoplexy which he suffered a few hours before. He did not regain consciousness after he was stricken.

Greedy Virginia.

Virginia cities that have for years reaped a harvest in dealing with North Carolina merchants are opposing the efforts of our State to get a reduction in freight rates. By reason of unjust discrimination these Virginia towns have grown prosperous off of us and now that they see a chance for reversing the situation to a small extent they are up in arms. If we had a freight rate on an equality with Virginia towns the cities of North Carolina would prosper to a larger extent and our products would move to the world with more profit to the producer. The Virginia cities are not very generous to North Carolina and should not be encouraged too much by North Carolina.—Salisbury Post.

Freight Rate Commission.

Newspapers and business men of the State have been congratulating Governor Craig on the personnel of the Special Freight Rate Commission recently appointed under the Justice Intrastate Rate Act. Says the Statesville Landmark: Governor Craig made a departure in the appointment of his Freight Rate Commission by naming a college president. The Landmark believes the departure is a wise one. Dr. Po-teat is a very able man, and while he may not have a practical knowledge of freight rates he has scientific knowledge which should be valuable to the commission. Judge Justice is an able lawyer and will furnish the legal knowledge, while Mr. Thompson is a business man and will doubtless be able to furnish the practical knowledge as to freight rates.

Back to The Farm.

The "back to the farm movement" appears to be gaining in popularity. The farm is not being regarded by young folks in the country districts as a good place to move away from to such an extent as in the past, says the Western Sentinel. Not only are young people of genuine ability staying on the farm, but many of those who have left are going back there. The farmer is indeed coming to his own. Excellent prices for farm products and improved living conditions in agricultural districts, along with other agencies, have been doing much to stop the drift from the country to the cities. The tendency is indeed an encouraging one. Says the Charlotte Chronicle, in discussing this subject: The product of the farm each year becomes scarcer. This makes the market quick and good for all farm products. The boy who selects a farm life as a vocation is far more independent than any other boy and is just as well fixed to invest in city enterprises as a city boy is. It looks as if the day of prosperity on the farm has returned.

Joy riding under the moon is not so funny unless one survives.

Almost anybody can forget an engagement with the dentist.

Yuan Shih-kai thinks that much of the republic of China is under his hat.

Among the terrifying possibilities of nomenclature is hydroaeroterroplane.

At least Newport has cut "rag" dancing. Possibly they are doing it for effect.

Though Cleveland is 117 years old, there is nothing decrepit about its ball playing.

No one really feels at home in a strange city till he gets his name in the directory.

Man seeks divorce because his wife's rat showed. Must have been a modest husband.

Astonishingly few of the young women on the rear seats of motor-cycles fall off.

The man who has enough patience to look for four-leaf clovers has no reason to be a bachelor.

Two joy riders have been handed prison sentences. After a while the others may take the hint.

The New Jersey bank that accepted two corsets for a loan probably considered them binding.

Still, if there were no rain where would the dollars come from to buy tickets to the baseball game?

Having abolished the offensive placket at the top of the dress skirt, woman now wears it at the bottom.

"There's No Excuse for Not Knowing How to Trim Hats."—Headline. That's what every husband knows.

New sun spots have lately been discovered besides those on the arms and shoulders of incautious bathers.

A Chicago pastor seems to have hit the mark when he said the heart, rather than wages was the cause of sin.

Another pet delusion was exploded when it was proved that the soft collar is hotter than the armor plate kind.

A man who lives in a modern flat building and gets acquainted with his next-door neighbor in a year is a mixer.

About the only way to inspire appreciation of the hobble skirt is to recall the day when women wore bustles.

Aviators in Providence can't drop handbills on the pavements from above. If they do the fly cops get after them.

It is strange, but the man who is just back from his vacation always wishes he had waited till later in the season.

Convicts complaining of their treatment in Sing Sing are not usually asked, "If you don't like the place, why don't you leave?"

Nobody has a better chance to lend money than an elevator man in a 20-story building, unless it is one in a 25-story structure.

To be perfectly frank, we have always wondered if the Liberty Bell is as great a drawing card for an exposition as it is cracked up to be.

Though this is a tender-hearted world, those pictures of hardships in the Antarctic would arouse more sympathy if exhibited in cold weather.

As few accidents from sportive rocking of boats have been reported this season, the satisfactory inference is that the foolkiller is at last on the job.

Many wives say smart things, but that one who called her husband by her affinity's name certainly deserves credit for arousing the height of indignation.

A thrice married New York man is being sued for nonsupport by his first wife. "Only he who is without a wife or has many wives rides far into the desert."

Red heads may be great people, as a certain eugenic professor has proclaimed. But we know many people who would prefer to remain unknown.

The Washington woman who says she was deserted by her husband on her wedding day has a just cause for complaint. He should have waited a week at least.

In New York during the past year over twelve hundred fires were traced to careless smokers and over sixteen hundred to carelessness with matches. The carelessness in these cases is apparently so slight and the results are so disastrous, sometimes fatal, that systematic public education on the danger arising from this one source is particularly timely in the day's important issue of prevention as an exact science.

DON'T DOPE A PUNY CHILD

Parents—don't give that puny, ailing, under-weight child any of those so-called "tonics" containing alcohol or dangerous drugs; such stuff won't give relief and health to grown people, let alone children. Its purpose is to stimulate for a short time after each dose, just as whiskey or morphine does, thus making you believe it is doing real good.

Give that child something that will really build it up—replenish the wasted tissues—feel the stunted, dwarfed, puny muscles—make it lively, strong, well—full of the animal spirits children are meant by nature to have. Give it Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is wholesome, nourishing, free from alcohol and dangerous drugs. It's the ideal nerve, blood and body builder. It does the work it is planned to do better than any other medicine we know of, and our faith in it is so great that we not only urge you to use it and give it to your children—but we guarantee that it will do all we say it will, or cost you nothing.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion should be given to children who catch cold easily. Begin right now, and use it to build up the child's system to such strong health that it can resist colds, croup, grippe, bronchitis, catarrh, pneumonia, and other cold weather diseases. You who are weak and run-down, and you who suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. You'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its pleasant taste, its strengthening, invigorating, building up, disease preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. J. G. HALL, 22 Main street, Oxford N. C. adv.
