NEWS FROM MURPHY TO MANTOE AND RETURN

Many North Carolina Items of General Interest Condensed into Brief Paragraphs

Smallpox in the Wake County Jail put an end to Wake court, which was convened Monday by Judge Frank A. Daniels for one week's term for criminal cases. There is only one case in the jail, it is said, and five cases in the county.

The fact that the bill to create the new county of Jarvis got an unfavorable report, was not because the advocates of this measure did not put up a good fight. The advocates will not give up, but next Legislature will see them stronger than before.

Mr. Samuel L. Rogers, of Franklin, was confirmed Wednesday as director of the census, succeeding William J. Harris, of Georgia. Mr. Rogers' appointment is due to the untiring efforts of Senator Simmons. His place carries a salary of $6,000 a year.

At the annual meeting of the Virginia Sons of the Revolution, held in Richmond on Washington's birthday, Mr. Richard M. Jackson, formerly of Raleigh, was elected first vice-president of that organization. Mr. Jackson was treasurer of same society for many years in this State.

Ted Sullivan, of Chicago, baseball man, one time big league ball player and manager of the New York Giants and White Sox on their tour around the world has purchased a farm in Camden county. The farm is suitable for stock and poultry farming, and Sullivan proposes to equip it with blooded stock.

The annual banquet of the Southern Society of Washington took place last Saturday night, with members of the Cabinet, Supreme Court Justices, Congressmen and others as guests. Among the speakers were Attorney General Gregory, Secretary Bryan and Congressman Small, of North Carolina.

Whiteville had a visit last Saturday from a globe-trotter, E. F. Lambert, familiarly known as "Black Diamond." He stated that he is on the last lap of a 250,000 mile walk, and is now walking the last 30,000 miles, which if completed by December 27, 1917, he will receive $10,000 provided he has kept conditions.

For the second time within a week yeggmen did work in the vicinity of Charlotte. Saturday morning early they entered the postoffice at Mount Holly, taking between $1,100 and $1,200 in money and stamps. No explosion was heard as a pick and crowbar was used. Only a few nights before an attempt was made to loot the post office at Matthews. No arrests have yet been made.

Dr. Carl V. Reynolds, of Asheville, is asking for some change in the compiling of vital statistics, as regards the health resorts of the country. He believes the death of every person, regardless of where he or she dies, should be charged to the place of legal residence. It is unfair, he says, that Asheville should be charged with the deaths from tuberculosis among her visitors.

Wilmington is now using 2,300,000 gallons of water daily, but through the efforts of Councilman Loughlin, in charge of the water department, the city determines to use less water. Leaks in pipes will be stopped and the people impressed with the needless waste of water. If this can be done, the enlargement of the water-works plant will not be necessary now.

Hearing that an illicit distillery was in operation near Hamlet, on the line between the two Carolinas, Sheriff Patterson, of South Carolina, and Deputy Sheriff Brown, of Richmond county, and three other officers made a raid on the still Friday night. Near the still they met a man carrying a 35-gallon still away. On arresting him, three of his companions ran out and opened fire, the officers returning the fire, killed Colon McIntosh. The deceased and the man Fry, who had the still, were brothers-in-law. At the coroners inquest the jury exonerated the officers from any blame.

BASEBALL

A very interesting game of baseball was played on the grounds of the Boy Scout Park, Wednesday evening, March 4th. Each of the contesting sides battled hard and played excellent ball. This caused the game to be very interesting. The sides were uneven, the Boy Scouts having a few better players than Oxford, as all its players did not come. When six innings had been played dark was near at hand and the players decided to stop. The score stood 24 to 14 in favor of the Boy Scouts.

Mr. C. P. Dickerson, who has been clerking for the Stem Mercantile Co., for the past six months, left Monday for his home near Dickerson where he will spend the summer months on the farm. He is a popular young man and made a host of friends in this community who regret to see him leave.

On Saturday Feb. 27th the angel of death entered the home of Mr. W. R. Cox, of near Oxford, and claimed as his victim his beloved wife in the 83d year of her age. She had been sick only three weeks but for several months had been in declining health her death being due to the infirmities of old age. All that loving hands could do were cheerfully done for her but of no avail. Mrs. Cox was converted in early womanhood and united with the Baptist church and lived a consecrated christian life until her death. Because of her beautiful traits of character she won the confidence, esteem and friendship of a host of acquaintances. She was affectionate, kind and unselfish. Every one who knew her intimately loved her as a sincere friend. She has gone home but has left us a legacy. No one can look back on her memory without feeling that there is such a life as a God filled life. Her many friends feel that she is happier and we are all made better in heart and richer in soul, when we reflect on her blessed life. We believe that she could say with Paul, "For me to live is Christ, to die is gain." She was the mother of eleven children, eight of whom are living, viz. Mr. W. C. Cox, of Clays Station; Mr. T. B. Cox, of Wendell; Mr. Elijah Cox, of Roxboro; Mr. Dorsey Cox, of Rocky Mount. Her daughters are, Mrs. Lee Matthews and Mrs. Henry Matthews, both of Knott's Grove section; Mrs. Alice Jacobs, of Hester; and Mrs. Addie Cox, of Oxford. The remains were carried to Knott's Grove church on Sunday, where the funeral was preached by her pastor, Rev. T. A. Tatum, after which the interment was made in the cemetery at that place. In obedience to her request her grandsons, Messrs. J. E., G. L., W. G. and H. K. Matthews, Mr. J. E. Jacob and Mr. W. C. Redmond, acted as pallbearers.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we love is still, A place is vacant in her home, That none can ever fill.

It is with profound sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mr. A. J. Honeycutt, which occurred at his home in Durham last Saturday morning at 3 a. m., in the thirty-third year of his age for the past two years he had been in declining health but kept up and about and was in his place of business until Wednesday when he suddenly became critically ill with an attack of diabetes which resulted in his death. Mr. Honeycutt was raised near Elmwood, N. C., but about six years ago he came to Granville county and became manager of the Kimball Roller Mills, he being an expert mechanic and machinist. On Dec. 24th, 1910, he was united in marriage to Miss Naomi Cash, of Tally Ho, by whom he is survived with one little boy, Orin Briant, three years of age. From his youth up Mr. Honeycutt lived a clean, honorable life some of its characteristics being honesty integrity and sobriety, which won the admiration and respect of all who knew him. He was a devout christian and a member of the Presbyterian church of Durham and of the Baraca Sunday School class of this church. The day before he died his pastor visited him to whom he expressed himself as being willing to die. Truly in his life was the life of Christ exemplified. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Hillsboro, and the Odd Fellows fraternity of that place. At the time of his death he was manager of the Liggett-Myers Tobacco Co., of Durham. The funeral services were conducted in his home by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Layman, Sunday morning at the conclusion of which the remains were carried to the Southern depot and accompanied by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends, were brought on the afternoon train to Stem and taken in charge by undertaker, J. Robt. Wood, of Oxford, and the Masons of Tally Ho Lodge and conveyed to the Walter's burying-ground near the home of his wife. Despite the inclement weather a great throng of people had gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. The solemn service of the Masonic Lodge was beautifully carried out. The floral offerings surpassed anything that has ever been seen in this community. Those sent by his employers, the Liggett Myers Tobacco Co. and also the wreath presented by those over whom he superintended, were simply beautiful. After the burial the grave was literally covered with flowers of various kinds. He leaves behind to mourn their loss his father and mother, of Elmwood; two sisters, Miss Iva Honeycutt, of the latter place and Mrs. James Pike, of Greensboro; and three brothers, Mr. Ralph Honeycutt, of Washington, D. C., Mr. Orin Honeycutt, of Greensboro, and Mr. Elmer Honeycutt, of Elmwood, all of whom except his parents, were present at the funeral. To our finite minds it seems hard to understand why he was taken away in the prime of life but let us remember that "God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform" and that He makes no mistakes but doeth all things well. Our heartfelt sympathy is with the bereaved ones, especially the young wife and little son in this their hour of sore affliction.
