

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Executor of the will of the late Benjamin P. Thorp, I will offer for sale, by public auction at the Court House door in Oxford, N. C., Sept. 27th, 1915, at 12 M. the following half of the tract of land owned by the said Benjamin P. Thorp by a line running nearly North and South, dividing his tract of land into two tracts of near equal size. The said land will be sold in three separate tracts and will then be offered as a whole. A plat of the same and full description is now on file with Hicks & Stem, attorneys, of Oxford, N. C.

1. The first tract contains 28 1-3 acres on the northern end of the tract, adjoining Andrew Peace on the west and north and R. S. Hart on the east and adjoins the other land known as lot No. 2 on the south.

2. The second tract contains 116 acres, and is bounded by Andrew Peace on the west and north and lot No. 1 on the north, bounded on the east by "B. P. Thorp home place," and bounded on the south by the New Goshen road and lands of Emily Bullock.

3. Tract No. 3 contains 69 1-3 acres and is bounded by the said New Goshen road on the north, the B. P. Thorp home place on the east, J. W. Morton on the south and Andrew Thorp on the west.

This is valuable land and is well timbered and persons desiring to buy land will do well to examine it before the day of sale. Terms one-half cash and balance in twelve months. This August 25, 1915.

S. V. MORTON, Executor, Of the Will of B. P. Thorp, deceased. Hicks & Stem, Attorneys.

FOR SALE ONE SAW MILL

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain chattel mortgage recorded in book 98 at page 193, I shall on sell by public auction for cash in front of the Court House door in Oxford North Carolina the following described personal property, to wit: One Gesier and peerless traction engine, thirteen horse-power, one iron wheel truck and other small tools and appliances used in the operation of a saw mill, this outfit is mounted and ready to go to work. Time of sale about the hour of noon. This 3th day of September, 1915.

I. H. HOBGOOD, Mortgagee. B. K. Lassiter, Attorney.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Granville County, North Carolina, in the special proceedings entitled Wilkins Stovall and others, ex parte, the undersigned Commissioner appointed in said order, will offer for sale, for cash, at the Court House door in Oxford, about noon on the Mrs. Lucy Carrington tract of land, in an and near the town of Stovall, said county, containing 246 acres, more or less, being the tract of land mentioned in clause 3 of the will of the late John W. Stovall. Said land adjoins the following properties On the north by Mrs. M. F. Stovall and D. A. Burwell; on the east by D. D. Wilson; on the south by D. G. Gholson, John Matthews, B. W. Butler, and Dr. W. L. Taylor; on the west by Blacknall & Royster, Mrs. Joe Davis, Dr. W. L. Taylor and E. C. Earl. This tract will be divided into three separate tracts, and then sold separately and as a whole, so that purchasers may buy a part or all of the original tract. The land is sold for division, and while the terms of the sale says "cash", I believe that extended payments may be arranged at the time of the sale. This is a valuable tract of land, and well located and watered. This August 25, 1915.

H. M. SHAW, Commissioner.

Danger Signals of Tuberculosis

IN a previous article, it was stated that nearly everybody has tuberculosis at some time or other during his lifetime. Autopsies on people have shown that hardly a single human being reaches mature life without a scar on his lungs or elsewhere showing where tuberculosis had attacked him, and he, by his normal resistance and vitality, had warded off the continuation of the attack.

Because tuberculosis is so widespread, every man, woman and child should give the most careful attention to those signs of the disease which point out danger. The treacherous disease germs may enter the body in early childhood and may not cause any serious trouble for ten or fifteen years. Then, all of a sudden, when the body is weakened by overwork, worry, sickness, or bad living and working conditions, these sleeping germs wake up and become active in the destruction of the lungs or other organs. The working man or woman, therefore, cannot be too careful in the safeguarding of health and in watching out for those symptoms which indicate that the disease of tuberculosis is actually present. What, then, are some of the danger signals and what should be done about them?

(1) First of all, there is a cough that hangs on and will not clear up. If it lasts for a month or longer, it is a red light, a danger signal, which you cannot afford to ignore. It may start with wet feet or some other insignificant circumstance, but no matter how the cough started, if it does not go away, see your doctor at once. Colds frequently weaken the bodily tone and resistance, so that it is easy for the lurking germs to get a foothold.

(2) Loss of weight, accompanied by a loss of appetite, and a certain amount of "stomach trouble" is another danger signal, which you must not pass unheeded. Sometimes loss of weight may come from some other cause than tuberculosis, but it pays to be on your guard. You may not have a cough, and you may experience very little trouble except a sort of chronic weariness. You ought to know what your normal weight should be. If you begin to lose five, ten or more pounds without any apparent reason, look for sound medical advice at once. Sometimes with loss of weight goes a loss of appetite, and trouble with bowels and stomach, even running to diarrhea. Whether you are losing much weight or not, look out for this danger signal. It is a warning that something is wrong.

(3) Then there is that run-down, all-the-time-tired feeling. Most people have days when they feel unusually tired, for some reason or other. Such an occasional period of "spring fever" or "lazy liver" may not be at all dangerous, but when every day for two or three weeks you hate to get up and dread to do anything but lie around and be lazy, there is danger ahead. This is Nature's warning to you that some enemy inside your body is sapping your vitality. Don't ignore the warning signal!

(4) Anyone of the three symptoms just mentioned may occur singly or all of them may come at one time. When, to any or all, there is added a fever in the late afternoon or during the night, accompanied possibly by sweats, beware of this danger signal. It is a bright red flag which Nature waves before you, cautioning you to give immediate heed. Anyone's temperature may rise at times, some people's more easily than others. But when for a week every afternoon about four or five o'clock you've felt feverish, or when night after night you wake up in a dripping sweat, you may rest assured that there is nothing normal about that. Go to your doctor at once and tell him about it. You may have no cough and no other sign of disease, and this may be the only warning you'll get. Give heed to it at once.

(5) If you have a cough and in spitting you find streaks of blood in your sputum, you may rest assured that something is wrong. It may not be a direct sign of tuberculosis, but whatever it is, you should attend to it at once. You cannot afford to waste time putting it off. Nature may give you that more emphatic warning of the presence of tuberculosis, a hemorrhage of the lungs. If so, don't be scared unduly. It is a danger signal, and if you heed it, you may be safe.

There are other danger signals, some which you can see and some which only a trained physician can detect. Your safety lies in getting medical attention as early as possible. Tuberculosis can be cured if it is discovered in time. The time to discover it is when the first symptoms show themselves. Don't take chances with Death. You'll lose every time.

Go to a good doctor, if you notice any of these danger signals, and insist that he examine you stripped to the waist. If you can't afford a doctor, go to a free clinic and be examined. It may cost a few dollars to be examined, but it may save you hundreds of dollars, untold suffering, and possibly your life and that of your wife and family.

"SAFETY FIRST" is a motto that applies to tuberculosis, especially when it is first showing itself.

GOOD NEWS

Many Oxford Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Oxford are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading: Mrs. Frank Young, New College St., Oxford, says: "A couple of months ago I had backache and suffered a great deal. I could hardly get around and if I stopped, I couldn't straighten without awful pains shooting through my kidneys. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They made my back stronger and made me feel better in every way." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Young had. Because of the unusual advance of the boll weevil north and eastward this season to the very limits of the Sea Island zone, Senator Smith of South Carolina announces that he will again urge Congress to establish a non-cotton growing zone in front of the cotton fields at present infested. Senator Smith urged such a measure unsuccessfully two years ago, when the weevil had advanced only a short distance in Alabama.

It was a curious coincidence that the other day two public men turned out the same epigram almost simultaneously. Dean Inge said that in imperialistic matters nothing fails like success. Dr. C. W. Saleeby said that in the life story of many nations nothing failed like success.

MORTGAGE SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of a certain mortgage executed to the undersigned by Neverson W. Adecock and Carrie F. Adecock his wife and Wortham Adecock on the 4th day of November, 1912, which is duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Granville county in book 94, page 271, which said mortgage contains a power of sale in case of default in the payment of the debt secured thereby. Default having been made in the payment of said debt, by consent of the makers of said note, I will sell for cash by public auction at the court house door in Oxford on Monday, 18th day of October 1915 at 12 M. the tract of land described in said mortgage to wit: The Neverson Adecock place on the Fishdam road: Beginning at a stake on the Fishdam road corner of dower lot, running thence by a line of dower lot N. 87 1/2 W. 44.77 chains to a stake in J. Anderson's line; thence by his line S. 1/2 W. 10.05 chains to a stake in his line; thence S. 87 1/2 W. 44.77 chains to a stone in the Fishdam road; thence along the road to the beginning, containing 45 acres. See Special Proceedings Book 3, page 26. This piece of land extends from the Fishdam road entirely across the Kimball's Mill road and is very fine tobacco land. There is one settlement on it. This the 13th day of September, 1915.
