THE SHRINERS

Dignified Citizens in Convict and Other Garb Forced to Appear in Menial Roles.

More than 2,500 Shriners gathered in Raleigh this week in annual conclave and made merry. Messrs. Joe Baird, Hal Holeman, R. L. Brown and A. H. Powell, of Oxford, were used as "fresh meat," subjected to the lash and tortured according to the customs of the ancient order. Other Oxford citizens were present to see the Arabian Knights cut capers.

The News and Observer states that several Raleigh candidates were especially singled out for the public sacrifice and the great crowds that filled the streets enjoyed the enforced plight of the victims immensely. From head of the police to street scavenger in the twinkling of an eye was the fate of Chief Koonce; from the editorial chair to selling papers on the street befell Edward E. Britton; from grappling with the transportation problems of a great railway system John West was the passenger agent and train hand pushing a street scavenger's can.

Leading a Dog's Life

A candidate leading a dog by a string carried a banner with this inscription: "I am leading a dog's life today."

The "Fresh Meat" band was made up of forty-eight candidates whose musical instruments consisted of tin whistles, tin flutes and similar burlesque things. Some of these had on their coats wrong side out, others had articles of feminine underwear on over their regular clothes.

One candidate who was expected to be overcome with heat was on a two-wheeled truck which had an electric fan in front which shot its breeze on the candidate. The vehicle was drawn by fourteen candidates lined up on either side of a long rope.

The Oxford "Fresh Meat" were met at the station, it is said, and placed in a patrol wagon and escorted to the Yarrowhouse House.

Next Sunday, the Fifth after Easter, is often called Rogation Sunday, that is the Sunday before Rogation or Asking Days. On Thanksgiving Day we thank God "For the fruits of the earth." At this time we ask Him to Bless the growing crops. Either Season is incomplete without the other. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week are Rogation Days.

Thursday next is Ascension Day, called also Holy Thursday. It closes the Forty Days from The Resurrection, Acts:1:3, and has always been regarded as of the highest class of Holy Days. In the fourth century it is referred to as one "of the Days the Lord hath made" and traced to Apostolic days.

THAT RAINY DAY IN LIFE

You have no doubt heard of the fellow who didn't know enough to go in when it rained. Foolish, of course, but how about people who know enough to go in but have no place to go? That's worse—and more of it, isn't it? The rainy days of life come to every one, and wise is the man who prepares for it in advance. When storms of adversity strike you, there is no refuge equal to a snug sum at the bank. Open an account now, while the weather is fine.
