

ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS

Mrs. Lyon Sick—The many friends of Mrs. Z. W. Lyon will regret to learn that she is quite sick.

Mrs. N. C. Daniel and children are on a visit to Beaufort where they will remain about two weeks.

Good Crops—The farmers from various parts of the county tell us that the crops are looking good. With favorable conditions the tobacco crop will be normal, they say.

Get In Line—Remember the soldier boys, who answered their country's call, by seeing to it that something is done to protect their dependents who are left at home.

Marriage License—Mr. J. B. Powell, Register of Deeds, issued a marriage license Thursday to Mr. J. S. Hart and Miss Lula Beasley, both of Granville county.

The Reserves—It is pretty generally understood that the most of us who did not respond when the President issued his call for troops, will do so in the event it is necessary for him to issue the second or third call.

Fine Showing—We call attention to the financial statement of the National Bank of Granville, elsewhere in this issue of the Public Ledger. Figures are always interesting and in this instance are most cheering.

To Asheville—Mr. Phil Kearney one of Oxford City Carriers returned Wednesday from the State Convention of City Carriers in Asheville. Phil reports a good time and that the mountain scenery was wonderful.

Bank Statement—Elsewhere in this issue of the Public Ledger will be found the financial statement of the First National Bank. It is gratifying to note that there is an increase of business over that of last year.

Stricken With Paralysis—We regret to learn that Mr. Joe Puckett, of Route 4, was stricken down with paralysis last week. The stroke is confined to the left side. We are glad that her chances of recovery are good.

Died in Chase City—The family of Mr. J. R. Sneed, received word Sunday of the death of Mr. H. F. Jeter, of Chase City, father of Mrs. Sneed, which occurred in that town early Sunday morning. Mr. Sneed and family attended the funeral and burial which was in Chase City Monday.

Fine Hams—Mr. J. H. Renn, the splendid farmer who "lives at home" on Route 6, sold in Oxford Wednesday some of the finest hams ever seen on the market. The hams ranged in weight from 35 to 50 pounds each. Mr. Renn has sold over 1000 pounds of bacon since Christmas and his smoke-house is by no means depleted.

Fine Strawberries—Major P. H. Montgomery is meeting with rare success in the cultivation of strawberries. Perhaps the Major got his plants while on some of his trips to the Rocky Mountains; at any rate nothing like it was ever before seen here. The vigorous vines are loaded with large, luscious berries, some of them in various stages of ripeness and at the same time there being a profusion of blooms.

Huge Potatoes—Mr. A. P. Hobgood is undoubtedly the champion Irish potato grower of Granville county. He brought to the Public Ledger office this week a large smooth tuber of the Irish Cobler variety that weighs about two pounds. We could see that Mr. Hobgood was somewhat worried when he entered the Public Ledger office and we hastened to ask him what troubled him. "Well, I had a couple much larger than this one," said Mr. Hobgood, "but the cook couldn't get them in the pot and she cut them up before I saw her." These potatoes were grown in a lazy bed.

Mr. Wood Appreciative—While in Mr. J. Robert Wood's furniture store Wednesday we saw him handling a box of fine cigars. "Rather extravagant," we suggested, but Mr. Wood explained that as Chief of the Oxford Fire Department, Mr. P. J. Contos, proprietor of the Candy store on the corner of Hillsboro and College streets, which was destroyed by fire last week, gave him the box of cigars as an appreciation of his earnest effort as chief to save the contents of his store. Mr. Wood appreciated the gift all the more because it is the first time since his long affiliation with the Fire Company that any one had expressed their gratitude in a like manner.

Fine Old Gentleman—Our old friend Mr. William Matthews, of Bullock, now eight-six years of age, writes a letter to the Public Ledger and renews his subscription for another year. He writes a very plain and distinct hand. "I don't know how it will be with me in another year," says Mr. Matthews. We hope he will live for many years, but should the end come we know that it will be well with our venerable friend.

Automobile Thieves—During Monday night last parties broke into the garage of J. T. Chappell, Creedmoor, and carried away one of his best demonstration cars. Creedmoor parties think that the thieves made their escape via Wilton and Oxford. There was no license number on the car, but the thieves took the license tag from another car in the garage and attached it to the stolen car.

Removal—R. W. Brown has removed his bicycle and repair shop from the postoffice corner to the new brick building opposite the Armory on Hillsboro street. This enables "Dick" to enlarge his ever-expanding business. Motorcycles, bicycles, sundries and repairs of all kinds is his line. See ad elsewhere in the Public Ledger.

In the Trenches—We would remind the big tobacco men that the humble farmers are fighting a hard battle in the trenches. The grass is about to take the best of them.

Same Here—The general business the country over is good, say reports coming from Washington based on those from the Southern Reserve Bank districts.

Services at Goshen—Rev. F. H. T. Horsfield will hold Service and preach on Sunday next at St. Paul's church, Goshen.

Public Sale—If you want one of the best farms within one hundred miles of Oxford, don't fail to attend the sale of the Chandler estate on July 15th, announcement of which will be found pages 4 and 8 of this paper.

Missionary Society Meeting—The Maria Brown Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon, July 10, at 5 o'clock with Mrs. D. K. Taylor. A full attendance is desired. A.V.C.

Abolish Government Seed—By a vote of thirty-three to twenty-one Monday afternoon the senate adopted an amendment to the agricultural bill, abolishing government free seeds.

Missionary Union
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Oxford Baptist Church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Baptist church Monday, at 5 p. m. The meeting will be led by Mrs. W. H. Upchurch assisted by members of Circle No. 4. All members of the Society are urged to be present.

Notice of Vacancy
Notice is hereby given that a vacancy has occurred in the Oxford Fire Department and all those wishing to join will have to send in a written application and a Fee of Five Dollars. Address all applications to Wade H. Britt, Foreman, Oxford Fire Department.

Oxford Library
During the summer for benefit of the teachers, a three month's subscription will be given for fifty cents. Books taken out for five cents each must not be kept over a week. H.W.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC
Mrs. G. R. Harrison has moved her cleaning and pressing business from the burned building on the corner of Hillsboro and College Streets to the second story over the office of Hicks & Stem, where she will be glad to see her many customers. 8-2t

The Ambon of St. Stephen's Parish
The Christian Year formerly sets aside two hundred and three days out of each year, for some kind of public or private recognition, on our part, of the facts, and demands of our Christian Faith. The Prayer Book presents annually "a moving picture" of the history of the Saviour, as a spiritual drama of His Life, and a remembrance of His companions on earth; it is framed to catch the eye, and to stir the imagination of the most careless.
Oxford observes two of these Church Days religiously: Easter and Christmas; two secularly: Monday in Easter Week, and Monday in Whitsun-Week; one for Social Service; St. John Baptist's Day; one in merriment: Halloween, or the Eve of all Hallows, All Saints Day. Our English Civilization had its roots in the ordered Services in the parish Church, and the religious pageantry, and games on the village Greens on festival days.
Third Sunday after Trinity—Holy Eucharist 7:30 a. m. Sunday School, Men's Bible Class, and Young Women's Bible Class, 9:45 a. m. Morning Service and Sermon, 11 o'clock. Meeting of Congregation after Service. Evening Prayer and Sermon at St. Paul's Goshen, 3:30 p. m.
Wednesday—Litany, 11 a. m.
Friday—Evening Prayer, 6 o'clock. Choir Rehearsal 8:15pm.
