

What Indiana Will Know
(Washington Herald)

Indiana probably will be the Verdun of the coming campaign. The State has furnished a presidential candidate for the Prohibition party and vice presidential candidates for the Democrats and Republicans. Further, the State is to elect two United States Senators, one for a full term and the other for four years. After it is all over, Indiana at least will know it has been in the fight.

Good Record for the Sand Clay
(Winston-Salem Journal)

There is at least one cause for encouragement among all the reports of damage and destruction by flood in this section. The men in charge of road construction and upkeep say that the heavy rains of the last few days have not materially damaged any of the sand-clay roads.

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

WILSON AND HUGHES TO REAL- LY CONDUCT THEIR OWN BATTLES

Campaign Managers Will Be Mere Figure Heads.—Work on the Democratic Campaign Book is Progressing Rapidly—Mexico Will Be the Issue.

WASHINGTON—Within the next few days the presidential campaign will be on in earnest. At the permanent headquarters of the Democratic national committee here work on the Democratic campaign book is progressing rapidly.

The majority view is that Mexico will furnish the principle issue of the campaign and everybody is waiting to see what happens on the southern border before predicting the outcome. It is generally conceded that if war should come and if Wilson should prosecute it successfully, he ought to be re-elected. If, on the other hand, definiteness of action regarding Mexico is still lacking, the advantage will be with Hughes, since the best information here is that, while there is a tremendous "keep out of Mexico" feeling throughout the country, there is also a growing feeling that something like a definite policy should be established.

That Hughes will not delay a moment in taking up the Mexican situation is the general opinion of men who know him. They say he will be ready with a criticism and a remedy and will leave no doubt in the minds of the public as to what he would do if he were President.

Both sides are apparently more confident than usual. For the first time in many months both parties are united. William Jennings Bryan is in the Democratic camp and Theodore Roosevelt is in the Republican camp. The two famous trouble-makers are going to be good and this will undoubtedly help.

The belief is that Congress may get away about the 20th of August and if it does all the senators and congressmen will have time to go home and get into the campaign. Each side promises to fight from gong to gong and, unless something unexpected develops out of the foreign situation to distract the attention of the people, the hottest political campaign since 1896 is promised.

The Death of Captain Sallie

(Charlotte Observer) It is possible that among the readers of The Observer there are some Confederates who were cared for in the Richmond hospital of Captain Sallie Louisa Tompkins. If so, the news of her death will be sure to call up pleasant memories in connection with her hospital work. In order that she might continue the operations of the private hospital she had opened in Richmond during the early part of the war, Miss Tompkins was commissioned a captain of cavalry at the request of President Davis and she kept her hospital open at her own expense until the close of the war. She was one of the most noted women of the Confederacy and the story of her sacrifices is to be inferred from the fact that she died an inmate of the Home for Confederate Women in Richmond.

When the Strike Comes

(Greensboro Record) When the big railroad strike comes, and it is coming, it seems, wonder what a road like the Southern will do. One thing certain, the general public will be obliged to pay all the bills. That is the theory of the quasi-public railroad business in this country. The only trouble is the general public likes to fight against the inevitable until the service becomes wretched and the stockholder becomes beggared.

A Park for Women

(New York World) Kansas City contributes to sex discrimination a park exclusively for women. It will be interesting to discover whether women take better care of a park for their sole use than crowds of both sexes take of parks generally.

Keep on the Safe Side.

(Lumberton Tribune) There is some talk that should the Republicans get in power they would do away with the Federal Reserve Act which is one of the best laws ever passed. The safest thing is to keep President Wilson and a Democratic Congress for an other four years.

Very True.

(Durham Herald.) Even if the law did permit one to claim salvage for the recovery of property washed out by its flood it would be a mighty mean man who would take it.

STOVALL NEWS NOTES

(Correspondence Public Ledger) Miss Ruth White and Ruth Norwood were Oxford visitors Tuesday. Miss Bertha Earl and sister, Lelia accompanied by their cousin, Miss Merl Lythgoe, of Richmond returned home after a five week's visit to Richmond. Mrs. J. S. Kinnerson and son Allen who have been on an extended visit to Texas and Georgia and other States have returned home to the pleasure of their many friends.

Attend Re-Union

Messrs. John Dixon, John Currin, and W. P. Slaughter, accompanied by L. C. Wilkerson and sister, Miss Lillie and Miss Beatrice Williams attended the Reunion at Wilmington, spent the week and report a good time. They saw good crops from Selma to Wilmington. Morris T. Smith Camp was poorly represented as only three from the camp were there to tell the tale. The writer was made sad and glad, too. He has attended twelve reunions and this was the smallest crowd of all, only 386 registered out side of town, over 400 in all. Wilmington did all it possibly could to entertain the Veterans. There was plenty to eat and nice comfortable lodging. The movies were free to the Veterans and there was four as good as in the State. A free trip to the famous Wrightsville Beach with a ball in honor of the Veterans proved to be interesting features of the occasions. The Veterans enjoyed the old Virginia break-down and a square dance and everyone present enjoyed it to the fullest extent. The State Reunion will be held in Durham next. Gen. Julius S. Carr says he wants all the Veterans to come and bring their wives, sons and daughters and he will give them a welcome to Durham.

Miss Lucy Stovall was a visitor to Richmond and Keysville last week. Miss Mollie Hester has returned from LaCross, Va., after a pleasant visit.

Mr. Gillis Improving

At this writing we learn that Mr. H. M. Gillis, who was so brutally held up and robbed in Baltimore last week is slowly improving, but is not out of danger by any means. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Sallie V. Tinsdale who has been on a visit to her sisters near Mountain Creek church has returned home.

Miss Lillie Dixon is visiting her sister, Mrs. Luther Williams at Dexter this week.

Mr. L. G. Puckett and C. T. Hester will attend better acquaintance week at Richmond next Monday. They will also visit Washington and many other places of interest.

Mrs. T. T. Cutts is the guest of her mother this week Mrs. Lillie Crews Hicks.

Miss Cora Younger will visit friends in Oak Hill section this

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Oxford people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. O short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-i-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. J. G. Hall, Druggist.

MR. HUGHES ACCEPTS

however, to stating my personal views. As I said in my speech, I think it to be most desirable that the question of woman suffrage should be settled promptly. The question is of such a nature that it should be settled for the entire country. "My view is that the proposed amendment should be submitted and ratified and the subject removed from political discussion."

Extracts From Hughes Address

We desire that the Republican party shall be the agency of national achievement. * * * I mean America first and America efficient.

The dealings of the Administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders.

A short period of firm, consistent and friendly dealing will accomplish (in Mexico) more than many years of vacillation.

We stand for no aggression. We want none of its (Mexico's) territory. What does it avail to use some of the strongest words known to diplomacy if Ambassadors can receive the impression that the words are not to be taken seriously?

We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation. Utterly intolerable is the use of our soil for alien intrigues.

We are woefully unprepared. * Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security; it is a necessary safeguard of peace.

We believe in an upbuilding protection of our industries.

We must build up our merchant marine. It will not aid to put the Government into competition with private owners.

We demand a simple, business-like budget.

If extremes meet, why do so many people find it difficult to make both ends do the same trick?
