PAGT EIGHTEEN

GRANVILLE GROUND GROWS GREAT CROPS.

. WHO'S WHO IN OXFORD

OUR WAREHOUSEMEN.

Oxford is justly proud of the men who have care of our several warehouses and feel safe in asserting that by W. Z. Mitchell. Since its estabno market in this or any other State lishment it has enjoyed the confican show a list comprising men bet- dence of tobacco growers, which fact ter fieed for the work. They are our is attested by its increasing patronmost substantial citizens and are i- age from year to year. Mr. Mitchell dentified with the town and county. is a Granville county man and grew They know the trade and how to ob-jup in Duachville section where was tain the highest prices. The warehouse business in Oxford is conducted on a high plane. There are strict rules governing the market and these rules are for the protection of the farmers. These men sell tobacco by its worth. Whether it be owned by a man of influence or the property of the humblest citizen in our section makes no difference. The most friendly relations exist and the ruling and guiding principle is to keep our market at its present high standard. With five of the best ware- terprise at once stamps it as worthy houses to be found anywhere there, of confidence. The Banner is one of is nothing to keep Oxford from main- our largest and best equipped houses. taining first place. We commend to our readers the several warehouses attention to the business and leaves as in every way worthy of your pat- nothing undone to please customers. ronage and support; Oxford is thor- Ample accommodations, well equipoughly awakened and our people ped warehouse, good stables and a should stand by their home market. hearty welcome await you at the All of our warehousemen are buyers Banner. of tobacco in order that no single pile shall be bid off for less than its value. Our peopel can safely trust Lennard, bookkeeper, assisted by J. men of such character as these.

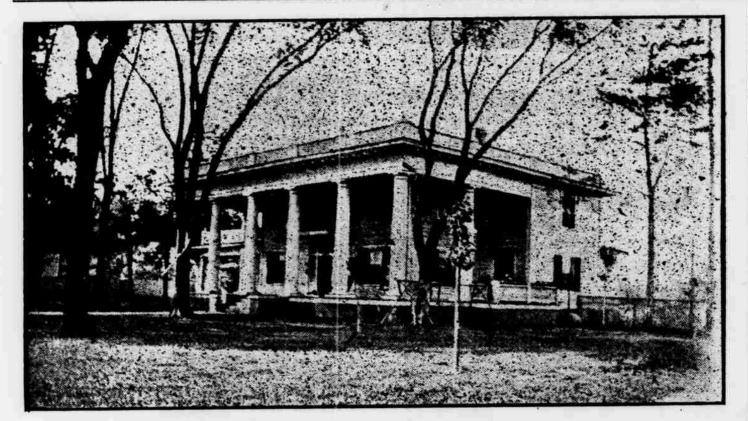

appointed Mr. R. S. Usry-Uncle others to make things pleasant and Dick-you know him, to see that the interesting are W. W. Currin and J. rules of the market are carried out.

THE BANNER WAREHOUSE.

The Banner Warehouse was built Member of the Firm of Long Comin 1887 and is owned and operated grown and cured the first bright tobacco in the country. In coming to Oxford he entered the, tobacco trade with that determination which has followed him since that time. He has learned the business in its every detail and is accounted one of the best posted men in the State. Mr. Mitchell comes of a fine tobacco raising ancestry and is well known in Granville as a man of the best business qualities, that the mention of his name in connection with any en-The proprietor gives his personal

Assisting Mr. Mitchell this year are: L. W. Stark, auctioneer; W. L. C. Howard and Frank Yancey. Elijah

W. Newton.

F. B. BLALOCK.

pany and Prominent Citizen. Mr. F. B. Blalock is one of the proprietors of the large dry goods firm in Oxford and for many years has been in the mercantile business. He was born in Granville county, son of the late Mr. Milton Blalock and resided on the farm in this county until about twenty years old. At that The Tobacco Board of Trade has Jones will be the floor manager, and age he came to Oxford which has been his home since then. His first year residence here was spent in the tobacco business working in the warehouse and buying tobacco also. Mr. Blalock then began to work in a dry goods store which has been his occupation continually since then. He first worked for Long Brothers about eight years and when the firm was changed to Long, Blalock & Haskins, he became one of the proprie-

THE OWEN WAREHOUSE

The Owen Warehouse has a unique place in the tobacco market of Ox- a tobacco market the Johnson wareford. There is no man in the trade house played an important part. Unwhose connections with our market outranks that of W. H. Fleming. proprietor of the Owen. Though young in appearance, but old and experienced in the business, Mr. Fleming makes a strong pull for the market. Before locating in Oxford and and spledidly arranged brick buildpurchasing the Owen Mr. Fleming ing was erected. On the retirement conducted a warehouse in Creedmoor and has to his credit a successful career in the other markets of the State and also in South Carolina. Our people know Will Fleming. In him we have a worthy type of the good old Granville stock, whose business sagacity and pleasing address makes him a favorite. By an inborn nature Mr. Fleming knows how to please tobacco raisers and they may depend upon his best attentions. Capt. E. E. Fuller has charge of the books, and this means much for the Owen. C. G. Powell will assist Mr. Fuller with the books. Mr. Sam Lumpkin is the auctioneer. These gentlemen are worthy of your patronage and we hope they may be encouraged to go forward. A personal superintendence of the business will Len Day the auctioneer. enable them to see that there is proper attention paid to every department. Comfortable quarters and future will probably give you cause courteous treatment await you.

THE JOHNSON WAREHOUSE.

In the early history of Oxford as der the management of A. Hobgood and others it was exceedlingly popular. In the general fire which swept our town in 1887 the old Johnson was burned, and at once the New Johnson, a handsome, well lighted of Z. W. Lyon, who ran the Johnson for twenty years, Irving Mangum and Sam Watkins formed a co-partneship, Mr. Mangum retired after the season of 1914, since which time Mr. Watkins has been the sole proprietor. Before engaging in the warehouse in Oxford Mr. Watkins served a long "apprenticeship" on the Danville market and was known as one of the best auctioneers on the market. He is a Granville county man and hails from Oak Hill. The floor space of the Johnson is the largest in Oxford and the light is all that can be asked. Mr. Watkins is strongly indentified with the best interests of the community. He will have as his helpers this year Mr. Tom Mullins, bookkeeper; Frank Yancey, clerk, and Why worry over the past? The enough.

RESIDENCE OF C. D. RAY

tors and remained in the store. He stayed with this firm five years and when it was reorganized under the name of The Long Co. Mr. Blalock remained one of its proprietors and was made secretary and treasurer of the company and still serves as such.

We work overtime to get ready to take a rest, then come home and work ourselves tired again trying to catch up with our work. Funny old life, is it not? It is.—High Point Enterprise.

BOOST! OPPORTUNITY! BOOST!

RESIDENCE OF N. N. CUPP.

YES, WE'RE BOOSTERS --- ALWAYS PULLING FOR THE HIGHEST PRICES!! WE WANT TO SEE YOU ON OPENING DAY.