

THE ST. STEPHEN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

DR. G. T. LUMPKIN.

Beloved Pastor of Oxford Baptist Church.

For the last three years Rev. G. T. Lumpkin has been the efficient and popular pastor of the Oxford Baptist Church. He is a native of Virginia and spent the early years of his life on the farm in that state. After receiving his preparatory education he entered Richmond College from which he graduated and then went to Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky., where he received his theological training. Having finished his course at the seminary Mr. Lumpkin began his first pastorate which was at Weldon, N. C. From Weldon he went to Scotland Neck where he was pastor for a few years. He then went to Winston-Salem and was there pastor of the Brown Memorial Baptist church for a few years. It was during his pastorate there that the new $40,000 church building was erected. Three years ago Mr. Lumpkin was called to the Oxford Baptist church and accepted the call, since which time he has been an able preacher and enthusiastic worker. The church work has grown rapidly in every department under his leadership and Oxford is fortunate in having such a man in its midst.

A. H. POWELL.

Live-Wire Real Estate and Insurance Man.

Mr. A. H. Powell for several years has been one of Oxford's live business men and most progressive citizens, always taking an active interest in every thing that pertains to the progress of the town. He is a native of North Carolina, his birth place being Whiteville, Columbus county. After spending the early years of his life at that place he went to Horner Military School and from there to Wake Forest College at which institutions he received his education. Having pursued his studies at college Mr. Powell left North Carolina when about twenty one years of age and for several years was engaged in business in several of the large cities of this country including Mobile, Ala., Chicago, Ill., and New Orleans, La. In 1908 he came to Oxford and since that time has been with the Granville Real Estate & Trust Company of which he is now serving as president. Besides his business prospering, Mr. Powell has served in more than one way to do his share in building up the town. He is at present a member of the town board of commissioners. He was one of the organizers of the Granville Commercial Club and has served as president and vice-president of that organization. He was also instrumental organizing the Granville County Fair of which he is now a director. Another business enterprise of which he was an organizer is the Oxford Building and Loan Association.

DR. F. H. T. HORSEFIELD

Able Rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Rev. F. T. H. Horsefield has been well known in Oxford for the last nine years where he has served as the rector of the Episcopal church. He is a native of New York City and after attending private schools of that city he attended St. Stephen's College from which institution he graduated. Mr. Horsefield then went to the General Theological Seminary of New York City and graduated from that institution. After leaving school he was rector of St. Luke's church of Cambridge, N. Y. for a while. Sixteen years ago he came to North Carolina and was first located at Wilmington where he had charge of St. James church. From Wilmington Mr. Horsefield went to Golsboro where he was rector of St. Stephen's church for four or five years. In 1907 he came to Oxford which has been his home since that time.

Important.

"My dear, what shall I buy you for your birthday?"
"Consult our jeweler. He knows pretty well what my tastes are."
"And did you tell him anything about the state of my finances?"—Kansas City Journal.

DR. S. K. PHILLIPS.
Popular Pastor of Oxford Presbyterian Church.

Among the able and highly esteemed pastors of the Oxford churches is Dr. Samuel Knox Phillips, who for the last four years has served as the pastor of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Phillips was born in Burgaw county, N. C. in 1885 but spent his boyhood days in Alabama and Tennessee. After receiving his preparatory education in 1907 with the Bachelor of Arts degree. He then entered the Union Theological Seminary of Richmond, Virginia, and completed his theological training at that institution in 1910. Mr. Phillips then began his first pastorate which was at Berryville, Virginia. After he had been there two years he was called to Oxford and accepted the call and came here in 1912. Since this time Mr. Phillips has been the able and popular pastor of the Presbyterian church and under his leadership the work of the church has grown in all its departments. He is a man that takes part in all phases of the town life that are good and wholesome and does all he can for the good of the town and the people.

DR. B. K. HAYS.

County Health Officer and One of the Best Physicians in the State.

Dr. Benjamin K. Hays is one of Oxford's most progressive citizens and is known as one of the most learned men of his profession in the State. When a boy he attended Horner Military Academy and later took his medical course at the Richmond Medical College. After completing his medical course at the institution he continued his studies in Europe. Since he began active practice he has made a success as a physician and besides the work of his profession he has been prominent in other things.

THE OXFORD BAPTIST CHURCH

For several years he served as a member of the State Board of Medical Examiners and for six years was secretary of this board. While serving on this board Dr. Hays introduced new requirements in connection with its work that not only became State and national but have become international. He has also served a few years as secretary of the State Medical Society. He is now the efficient health officer of Oxford and Granville county and as such is very active toward improving the health conditions. Dr. Hays has been called upon to deliver addresses of importance, among which were the graduating addresses at Richmond Medical College and the graduating address at the Medical College which was at Charlotte before it was removed from that city. He has also delivered addresses at big State High Schools including Fayetteville and Raleigh.

J. ROBERT WOOD.

The Up-to-Date Main Street Furniture Dealer.

Eighty years ago the grandfather of Mr. Wood was a dealer in furniture. The business was handed down to the son, the father of Mr. J. Robt. Wood, who is left to maintain the enviable reputation of his forefathers.

The Main street furniture establishment of Mr. Wood ranks high in the State. He carries a large stock of furniture, matings, rugs, pianos, Victrolas and records. The prices are always right at J. Robt. Wood's establishment. Mr. Wood is also a funeral director and embalmer. See his announcement elsewhere in this paper.

Sure Fire Stuff.

"Think your new play will go?"
"Can't help but go. The leading plays one act in Pajamas."—Kansas City Journal.

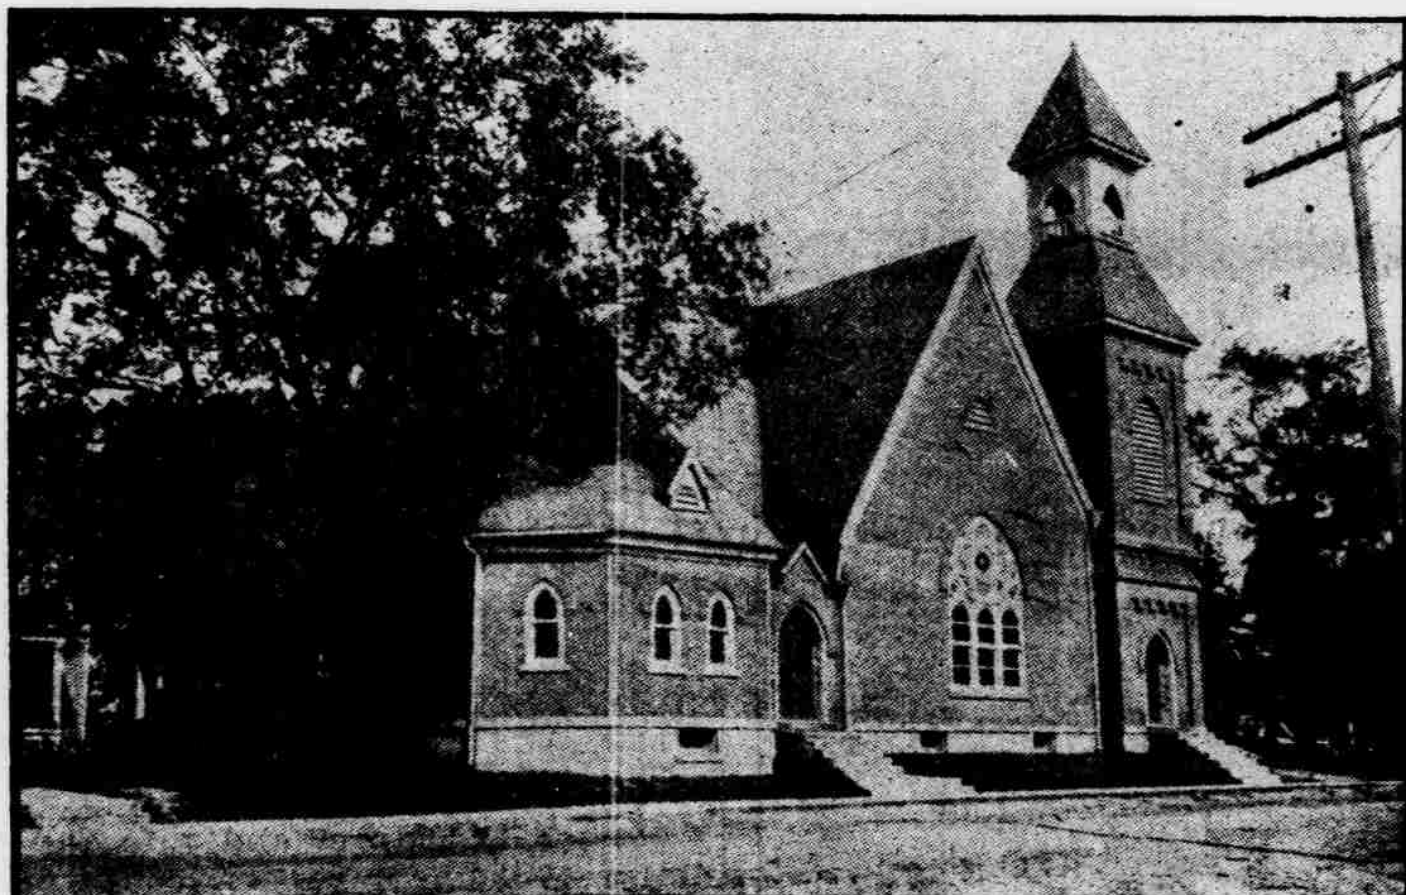

THE OXFORD METHODIST CHURCH

LANDIS & EASTON

ANNOUNCEMENT

Our system of purchasing goods throughout the year will enable us to adhere to former prices excepting a few lines, which are scarce and somewhat higher.

Our Mr. Will Landis is now on the Northern Markets and our New and up-to-date stock is arriving daily.

THE OXFORD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH