More About Typhoid Fever

One hundred and fifty people took the typhoid vaccine in my office one day recently. Seventy-eight took it at Adoniram on the 18th. Practically all the white children of school age in the Adoniram section are taking the treatment. About one-half the white children in Oxford of school age have taken or are taking it.

Typhoid fever is a disease of young people. It is rare in people under five or over fifty years of age. It is, therefore, especially desirable that the school children take the preventative treatment.

Only four cases of typhoid fever have appeared in Oxford this year. These cases were all mild. There have been no deaths and at present there is not a case in Oxford.

We should remember two things. First, typhoid fever is called autumnal fever, which means that it is most prevalent in the fall of the year. Second, there is a great deal of typhoid in the South this year, many of our neighboring cities suffering from severe epidemics. This is a typhoid year.

It is possible to keep typhoid fever out of Oxford for the rest of this year and in all future years. How? By the use of pure drinking water, clean milk, no flies, sanitary closets, clean hands on the part of cooks, bakers, butchers, etc., and the use of the typhoid vaccination. Let us get busy.

There have been six cases of typhoid fever at the Orphanage this summer and two deaths. No new cases have developed there during the past three weeks.

Two deaths from typhoid fever have occurred among colored people in the country near Oxford.

THIS WILL STOP YOUR HAIR FROM FALLING

It was Dr. Sangebund who first discovered that dandruff and falling hair were caused by microbes.

And now that Parisian Sage, the wonderfully delightful preparation that kills the dandruff germs can be secured at all drug and toilet counters, the clean people of this country have awakened to the fact that dandruff is unnecessary; that falling hair and itching scalp can be quickly stopped, and that anyone who frequently uses Parisian Sage should never grow bald.

To every reader who wishes to eradicate disgusting dandruff, stop falling hair, and have an immaculately clean scalp free from itchininess, we strongly recommend Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is sold for not more than 50 cents a large bottle. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed liquid, free from grease and stickiness, and will cause hair to grow lustrous and luxuriant. J. G. Hall always has a large supply and guarantees it to you. 30-6

Feeding New York City

The country has been more or less alarmed for the past few days on account of the threatened strike of the four brotherhoods of trainmen. It would bring a tremendous blow to the whole country, but to the big cities where such a great population is housed in such a small space and all largely dependent upon what the railroads bring in for their subsistence, the blow would be a staggering one.

Take New York City for instance, with its four to five million people. It takes something to feed these folks. Some idea of what a strike of the railroad folks would mean to them is gained when we are reminded of what the railroads bring to them daily in the way of foodstuffs. Here are some of the things the trains bring in each day, according to the New York World:

Seven thousand two hundred tubs of butter, 3,500 boxes of cheese, 399,000 dozen eggs, 2,250,000 quarts of milk.

Meats—3,000 crates of poultry, three million pounds of fresh beef, pork and mutton.

Fruits—Four thousand barrels of apples, 60,000 crates of grapes, lemons, pears, oranges, peaches, pineapples and plums.

Vegetables—13,000 barrels of potatoes, 6,000 crates of onions, 5,000,000 cans of peas and tomatoes, 300 carloads of cabbage, lettuce, carrots, etc.

Grain and Cereals—46,000 sacks of barley, 70,000 bushels of corn, 3,000 sacks of corn meal, 3,000 barrels and 21,000 sacks of flour, 6,500 bushels of malt and 298,000 bushels of wheat.

Miscellaneous Items—44,000 sacks of sugar, 1,650 barrels of wine, 60,000 tons of coal, 1,500,000 gallons of kerosene, gasoline and benzine, 1000 tubs of lard and 3,000 barrels of molasses.

The foregoing will show to the reader something of what it takes to feed the New Yorkers for one day. And the most of this material must come from outside the city.

OXFORD

By C. F. C.

Here's to you Oxford, our town, and our home,

Blessings upon you, from cellar to dome;

Long live your people in health and prosperity

Standing together in public sincerity, cheers for our town.

Here's hoping that progress, with swift, steady bound.

May life and propel our dear little town.

That peace and good will may all malice outstrip

And bind us together in true fellowship.

Here's to you then, our home of renown

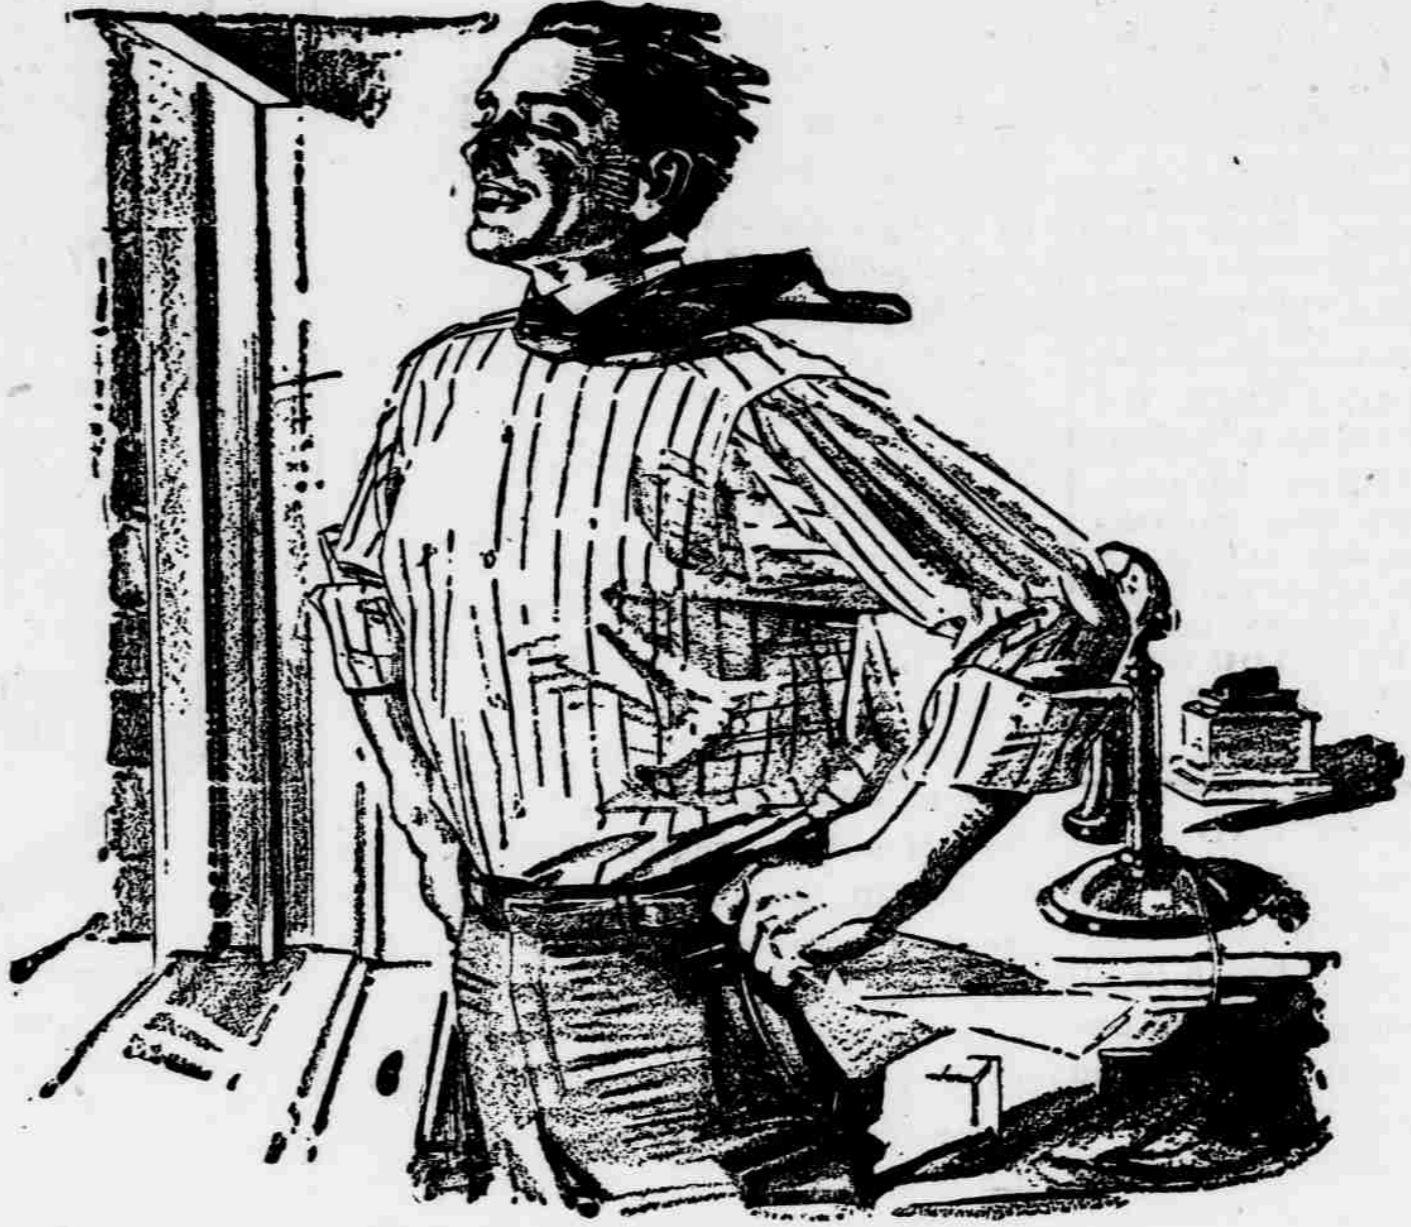

Three cheers for old Oxford, three cheers for our town.

Liver Trouble

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa. "I had pains in my side and back and an awful soreness in my stomach. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no signs of pain." Obtainable everywhere.

Mrs. Louise Mullen is suing a firm of Harrison, N. J., undertakers, for giving a shock to her nerves. She asks for $1,000 damages because they carelessly took a dead woman into her house and were industriously embalming the stranger when she, Mrs. Mullen, arrived home. She fainted immediately, she adds, and the house has never seemed the same to her since.

KINTON FORK NOTES

(Correspondence Public Ledger)

Farmers are making some right good tobacco cures around here.

Messrs. G. S. and Steven West and Miss Mattie Leigh West of Virgilia were visitors here Sunday and Monday. Mr. Stephen West was on his way home from curing tobacco near Greenville and said he made some excellent cures and the weed was selling high.

Mrs. Nannie Noblin of Nelson spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. S. T. Loyd.

Mrs. Lucy G. Kinton is on an extended visit at Norlina.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Satterwhite of Durham are visiting their mother, Mrs. Rosa Ragland.

Mr. Carlton Sizemore and sisters, Misses Maude, Mattie, Lou and Annie were Kinton Fork visitors recently.

Mr. Commodore Kinton returned Monday from Norlina where he spent several days. His reports are, tobacco is good, lots of large watermelons and a splendid time.

Secretary of State Lansing states that the department has again called upon Great Britain to reply to this government's protest against British interference with American mails on the high seas.

Following the injunction laid down in the old law of Moses, the third brother of the family of a fast fading tribe of Choctaw Indians, in Lake county, Mass., has married the widow of his two older brothers.

The proposal to sell the Danish West Indies to the United States has been rejected by the Danish land-thing, says a Reuter dispatch from Copenhagen.

Powerful Japanese shipping interests have succeeded in securing a monopoly of the passenger aid freight trade of the Pacific coast of South American and a big snare of the trade on the Atlantic coast.
