

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brummitt of Fishing Creek township are in receipt of their first letter from their son, Sergt. Nat. C. Brummitt, now "Somewhere in France." Sergt. Brummitt landed in England some weeks before the signing of the armistice, is now in France and will probably be attached to the army of occupation. He writes that he is in good health and enjoying himself immensely.

Lieut. and Mrs. R. S. Pruett, of Wadesboro, who spent a few days this week with Mrs. Pruitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hancock, returned home today. Mr. Pruitt is a brilliant lawyer of Wadesboro and is associated with Mr. Caudell, one of the State's best men.

Miss Elizabeth Hilliard, principal of the High School of Canton, has come to spend the Xmas holidays with her sisters, Misses Margaret and Katherine Hilliard.

RED CROSS NOTES.

The Granville County Chapter has a large allotment of refugee garments to be made, and the ladies of the town and county are urgently requested to call at the work room on Main street and assist in this work. These garments are badly needed and it is hoped that the ladies will volunteer their services. If you can't spend the time in the work room, won't you take some of these garments home with you?

Acknowledgement is made of a donation of $3.00 from Mr. M. W. Hunter.

Cartaret Literary Society.

The president of the Cartaret Literary society called a meeting Friday, December 6, 1918, in the Oxford High School buildings, the debate for the evening was, Resolved: That the United States should observe the present rules for conservation, so that the surplus may be used for the relief of the central powers (Germany, Austria, etc.) The affirmative was upheld by Joe Renn, W. B. Ballou, Jr., and Harvey Magee and the negative was upheld by Roy Upchurch, Irvine Jackson, and David Adcock. The judges decided in favor of the negative. A declamation was given by Herbert Roundtree.

Why Not

buy the form of policy which will satisfy you ten, twenty, thirty years hence as completely as it does today?

If a general statement is required, we would say that 50 years' observation of the practical working out of insurance convinces us that the policy which covers the most needs in the largest number of cases, and covers them to the greatest satisfaction of the insured, is a policy which protects the whole period of the insured's expected active career and then becomes payable to him for its face value in cash should he survive that period—or, if desired, it may be paid as monthly income.

The premium for such a policy in the Provident is, for the younger ages, little more than the premium usually charged for an Ordinary Life policy.

Such a policy can also be written upon the Twenty Premium Plan, in which case the premium charged by the Provident will, for the younger ages be little more than the premium charged for a Twenty Premium Life policy.

Full information, without solicitation or importunity will be readily given.

The Weekly Ambon Of St. Stephen's Parish

THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

The Saviour comes to this world in several ways, certainly through His Ministry. This Sunday commemorates that fact, and refers to the Ministry of Christ as "Ministers and Stewards of Thy mysteries". This fact sustains the need of authority for a valid Ministry, and justifies a research into the credentials of those sending others as Messengers of Christ, a research extending back to the primal authority of Him who, commissioning His Apostles with a part of His own authority, St. Matt. 28: 19-20, did not make provision for unauthorized claims upon the same. No Church quarrel, by Scriptural warrant can originate a new Ministry to guard God's mysteries, nor justify the dream of a new Ministry growing around a supposed or real rehabilitation of Doctrine or Practice. Our calling of Rectors by Vestries of laymen violates our own belief, and ancient custom, but this disorder crept in during trying times. But even so, the rector still represents the whole Church as a channel of grace, and does not represent the members thereof.

"GOOD WORK!"

The Red Cross badge of membership is a delight to the soul of the man in khaki, or navy blue. He knows its true significance in war as well as peace.

So do the thousands of American mothers and wives and sisters who have had their loved ones with the colors.

So do the hundreds of thousands of men, women, and children of war-torn Belgium, France, Italy, Roumania, Serbia, Russia, Palestine and wherever Red Cross work has been going on.

It is up to every man and woman in free and happy America to see to it personally that the American Red Cross continues to carry on its great work of love and humanity.
