GATHERED BY OUR REPORTERS.

Short Items Dealing With the News of a Week.

—Of course you are going to see "Quo Vadis".

—Jailer Turner has 14 prisoners in Hotel de County.

—Mr. A. S. Hall has added some improvements to his residence.

—Col. W. B. Ballou has enclosed his residence with a nice new fence.

—Mr. Willie Howell has moved to the old Hunt residence in East Oxford.

—Mr. Len Pitchford is quite happy over the arrival of another little girl at his home.

—Bring your tobacco to Oxford if you want pinnace prices on each and every grade.

—Your attention is called to the Executor's notice of B. A. Capehart in another column.

—Mr. E. H. Crenshaw has had his residence on Front street nicely painted and otherwise improved.

—Some needed improvements, especially stables, have been made at the Home of the Aged and Infirm.

—It is reported that Parham Bros.
& Co., of Henderson, will open up a branch business in Oxford Jan. 1st.

—Mr. E. K. Howard is erecting a cottage on his lot on Rectory street.
It will be occupied by Chief Wheeler.

—Col. H. G. Cooper, the efficient Cashier of the Bank of Granville, has another fine boy at his home to pet.

—Large quantities of tobacco continue to be sold on the Oxford market and prices have an upward tendency.

—Thanksgiving occurs on Thursday the 28th, and you have ample time to fatten your turkey and bleach your celery.

—The Public Ledger continues to be a favorite with the farmers of this territory as 42 names were added to our list in October.

—Miss Mary Currin, who was sick several days the past week, is much improved which will be good news to her many friends.

—Mr. Irwin Green, of Gillsburg, Vance county, sold tobacco on our market Friday and was delighted with prices he received.

—The revival at the Baptist church closed last Wednesday evening and Rev. Cox left for his home in Richmond Thursday morning.

—Dr. E. T. White is having the storeroom to be occupied by Mr.
Wallace White, a clever young gentleman from Henderson, repaired.

—Messrs. T. B. Pendleton and J. T.
Sizemore, two neighbors, are running against each other on raising fine pigs and they have some fine ones.

—Mr. H. H. Latta, of Culbreth, was in Oxford Wednesday and said "lasses lickin'" was over and that corn shuckings was the order of the night.

—Our young friend Wesley Knott was in town Tuesday and rolled out in one of Taylor-Cannady's new buggies and Mr. Charley Bryan is happy.

—We learn that next year the Taylor-Cannady Buggy Co. will enter largely into the manufacture of wagons as well as buggies and phaetons.

—Brother Manning we greatly miss the Gold Leaf, one of the brightest weeklies in the State and one we delight to read, as it has failed to reach us for two weeks.

—Rev. F. W. Hilliard will hold service and preach in St. Paul's church, Goshen, on Sunday next Nov. 10th at 11 a. m. All persons are cordially invited to attend.

—The farmers and people generally will be pleased to learn the dam at the well known Cannady Mill on Tar River, has been repaired and is now busy grinding choice meal and flour and desires your custom.

—Aunt Charity Turner nursed the late Josiah Turner when he was a babe and attended his funeral. She says she is more than one hundred years old.—Hillsboro Observer.

—Mr. J. F. Cole will have his corn shredder in and around Oxford during the coming week and many of our people will have the opportunity to see this new machine work.

—If you are in search of the place to secure bargains when you visit Durham call at B. F. Kronheimer's Dry Goods store on Main street.
Read his advertisement on this page.

—Mr. John W. Hunt has resigned the position of farm manager at the Orphan Asylum, and is again at the Hardware Store of Mr. Frank Edwards ready to serve his old friends.

—Susan Bullock, who lives at Satterwhite, greatly desires information as to the whereabouts of Rebecca Thorp, who left her home about a month ago, without any cause. She is dark complexioned and about 20 years old.

—After more than twenty years work, Rev. J. A. Stradley has resigned the care of Rocky Spring church, in the Flat River Association. He began there with four or five Baptists at a little mission station; he leaves a good church with more than one hundred members.—Biblical Recorder.

—The Graded School continues to increase in numbers and popular favor with the people, and is the greatest institution ever established in Oxford.

—Mr. Wallace White, of Henderson, has located in the good and prosperous town of Oxford and is opening up a stock of dry goods and groceries in the store next to Landis & Easton.

—It is said that Mr. L. Thomas, who believes in good stock, has on his farm near town, the finest Berkshire Boer ever seen in this part of the State. His hogship weighs over 600 pounds.

—The brick work on the large planning mill and shop at the Oxford Orphan Asylum will probably be completed this week by Contractor Lawrence if the rainy weather does not interfere.

—Little Ophelia K., the 2-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams, of Oak Hill, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wilkerson, of near Oxford, died Thursday, October 31st.

—The painting fever is catching as Mr.
W. D. Lynch has become infected and has had his jewelry store painted inside and out. We hope the fever will continue to rage as a number of places in Oxford need repainting.

—Reserve seats for the splendid "Quo Vadis" will be on sale next Wednesday at Hancock's drugstore.
Secure them early and get choice seats. Reserved seats $1. Gallery 35c and General Admission 50c.

—The pews for the new Episcopal church have arrived from Grand Rapid, Michigan, Tuesday, and are being placed in the church. Work on the inside of the beautiful tower has begun and will be pushed to completion.

—Three great essentials needed to assure Oxford's onward progress: A new Hotel, Oxford & Coast Line Railroad and an Electric Light Plant.
Will not some of our capitalists move to establish these great essentials to Oxford's prosperity?

—Mr. Paul Cameron Graham, of Durham, and Miss Courtenay Chestney, daughter of Major and Mrs. T.
O. Chestney, will be united in marriage at Christ Episcopal church, in Macon, Ga., on Tuesday afternoon, November 19th at 5:30 o'clock.—Durham Sun.

—Superior Court Clerk Dr. J. G.
Hunt, is busy getting ready for court which commences on Monday the 18th, with Judge Shaw presiding.
The docket is a full one this time and will consume the full two weeks unless a number is postponed until the next term.

—Solicitor A. L. Brooks desires to meet every magistrate of Granville county and the Mayor of Oxford, Tuesday November 19th to discuss to them the duties of a magistrate.
This is an important matter and he hopes every one will make it convenient to be present at the meeting.

—Every day is good sales days on our Tobacco market where highest prices reign supreme. There was quite a lively sale at the Johnson Warehouse Monday and Zack Lyon wrapped the glorious banner of high averages around him and sent his customers home joyous and happy.

Fun Ahead For the Boys.

—All arrangements have been completed for the holding of the "Old Maids Convention at Oxford Opera House on the night of Nov. 18th under the direction of Anna L. Dunkel.
It will be under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church, and will be the funniest thing seen in Oxford for years.

Take It In.

—It is rare that the people of Oxford have the opportunity of seeing such a high grade play as "Quo Vadis," which will be at the Opera House, Saturday night, Nov. 16th, and we urge everybody to attend and encourage our fine young managers, Messrs. Peace & Hobgood, to get first-class companies to visit Oxford.

Needs Your Patronage.

—It seems some few of our business men have lost sight of the fact that we have a job office attached to the Public Ledger, and have their printing done elsewhere. While we are doing all we can to build up and draw business to Oxford we would be pleased to have you encourage us with your patronage. Give us a bid on it before you send your work elsewhere.

Council Twice Hanged.

—Louis Council, convicted of criminal assault on Mrs. J. H. West, white, a farmers wife, and who was resipit three times by Governor Aycock, was hanged at Fayetteville Nov. 2. The trap was sprung, but the rope broke and a second time the noose had to be adjusted. The negro actually stood upright on the trap during the second ordeal. He was absolutely cool.

Reliable and Gentle.

—A pill's a pill, says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill.
Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. J. G.
Hall.

PUNGO TOBACCO PUNCHINGS.

Mayor B. P. Alston and Constituents full of Praise for Walter Stark and the Oxford Tobacco Market.

Pungo, one of the prosperous sections of Vance county, was well represented on our market the past week and we found the farmers clever gentlemen and fine tobacco growers.

They are the warm friends of Mr.
Walter Stark and of course sold their tobacco at the Owen Warehouse and were delighted with the high prices received for their cutters. They pronounced Oxford a stunner on high prices, clever buyers and warehousemen, and will come again. The following is some of the prices scooped in for cutter grades:

T. W. Lassiter walked gladly off with $23, 12c, 20, 28, 25, 21c, 15c, 12c, 14c, 13, 10c, 12c, 17c, 25, 13, 9c.

Wilson & Remm were the next men who struck the buyers pocket heavy blows and smiling pocketed $16, 30, 28c, 25, 19, 13c, 25, 23, 24, 18c, 14, 18, 27c, 26c, 21c, 14.

J. H. Evans stepped up and pulled in $10, 23c, 20, 18c, 13c.

Weldon & Foster hooked on next and pulled the legs of the buyers for $14, 30, 24c, 25, 16c.

J. T. Weldon rolled up and rolled in $15c, 16c, 21c, 10c, 20, 21, 15c, 10c.

E. T. Finch had a bright smile on his face when he received $17, 16, 10c, 14c, 13, 10c, 12c, 17c, 25, 13, 9c.

A. R. Stanback let the boys know he was not behind in the race for big money and yanked up $8c, 14c, 21c, 9c, 15c, 25, 32c, 14.

Lewis Askwel struck the keynote when he received $38, 19c, 12c, 12c, 12, 17, 10c, 11c, 23c, 17, 20.

J. R. Lassiter came to the front and pulled off with $10, 19, 12, 15, 17c, 15c.

P. J. Stanback received $11c, 12c, 11.

Dr. B. P. Alston rallied around the boys with some medium grades and they shelled out to him $15c, 20, 17c, 15c, 10c.

J. T. Weldon stepped up again and received $9, 14c, 17c.

J. H. Finch was on deck and captured $20, 17c, 11c, 16, 11, 9c.

Dr. B. P. Alston, the veteran Mayor of the capital of Pungo, was on our fine market Tuesday and sold with Walter Stark. Of course he sent his old friend home happy with $400 in his wallet. Hurrah for the farmers of Pungo and if they want to continue to get pinnace prices for their tobacco why bring it to Oxford!

County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners met on Monday with all the members at the table.

There was not much business before the Board except the regular installment of rebates, and the rickety old rebate mill ground out a number of rebates.

Ordered that Daniel Halthcock be put on the outside pauper list at $1 per month.

Quite a number of persons were allowed to list their taxes at single rates.

It cost the county $105 65 to feed and take care of 16 prisoners in jail during the month of October.

Sheriff Sam Fleming reported the following taxes collected for month of October: State $1,020 66; Schools $1,177 63; County $1,551 87; Railroad $45 67—total $4,795 82.

After allowing a number of claims against the county the Board adjourned.

A Growing Business.

The new Clothing Department of Messrs. Landis & Easton has proved a great success. Their great variety of clothing, shoes, gents furnishings and hats they are showing the low prices they are giving is continually drawing in increasing sales. Their clothing are made up of the latest fabrics and styles and tailoring the best, and sold at bottom figures.

Their line of boys clothing is also up-to-date, and made of best material.

The cold North winds announce very pointedly the coming of winter and you are cordially invited to call at Landis & Easton's clothing department and let Mr. Sheeler, the very capable manager, assist you in winter wear, overcoat, shoes, hat, underwear, etc. at bed rock prices. We call attention to advertisement on 4th page of this paper.

The Child's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. G. Gorge, Winchester, Ky., writes our little girls attacked with croup last night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." J. G. Hall.

ing to work. Apply to B. M. Haubold, Superintendent.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

—active Biomo Quinine Tablets cure's cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25c.

Always Welcome.

—Bishop and Mrs. J. M. Horner and children, of Asheville, were the guest of Mrs. J. H. Horner several days the past week. Bishop Horner has just returned from the great Episcopal Convention at San Francisco and entertained the congregation of St. Stephen's church Sunday with a partial account of the work of that intelligent body.

Stole a March on His Friends.

—Mr. Sam Wheeler, our handsome and efficient chief of police, stole a march on his Oxford friends last Wednesday and went out to Providence and was quietly married to Miss Alma Piper, one of bright young ladies of that community. The editor joins their many friends in wishes them a prosperous and happy voyage on the sea of life.

The State Guard.

—The Adjutant General B. S. Royster authorizes the formation of a military company at Greensboro. He says he does not know to what regiment the company will be assigned.
There is only one vacancy this being in the First Regiment, but the adjutant general says there will probably be some transfers, as it is his desire to rearrange the regiments better geographically.

Will Make Oxford Her Home.

—Miss Ida Long, sister of Messrs.
James and Willie J. Long, arrived in Oxford a few days ago accompanied by her little niece, and is keeping house for her brothers. Their home has been nicely furnished and admirably fixed up. The editor welcomes Miss Long to Oxford and feel confident she will be pleased with our thriving town.

Marriage of Miss Mary Ferebee.

—This card has been sent to friends:
Dr. and Mrs. Nelson MacPherson Ferebee request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter, Mary MacPherson, and Mr. William Stamps Howard, on Thursday evening, November the fourteenth, nineteen hundred and one from half after seven until nine o'clock Director's House—Naval Hospital, Norfolk, Va.

Tom Parker Pardoned.

—Gov. Aycock last week pardoned Tom Parker, who was convicted at the April term of Granville Superior court of an assault with a deadly weapon and sentenced to twelve months imprisonment on the roads of Orange county. The pardon was recommended by Judge Council and the county officers. The prisoner who was in jail in Oxford was in very bad health.

Lost End of His Thumb.

There was another accident at Taylor-Cannady Buggy Company on Tuesday afternoon when Mr. Sandford Walker lost the end of his right thumb while sawing out some body timber. The saw in its rapid whirl struck a knot, jerked the piece of timber and went whirling in another part of the building, along with it the end of Mr. Walker's thumb, which entirely disappeared. Dr. S. H. Can-nady dressed the wound and Mr.
Walker suffered but little pain.

The Elections Tuesday.

A virtuous streak struck New York City Tuesday and Seth Low, Republican, was elected Mayor over Shepard, Tammanyite, by 30,000. This is a blow at Croker and the wigwag, and there will be a shaking up among the dry bones. Maryland swings back into the Democratic column and Gorman will return to United States Senate, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nebraska and other western States go Republican, while Virginia, Kentucky and Mississippi go Democratic.

Taking the Law in Their Own Hand.

Raleigh correspondence of Charlotte Observer says: The State Auditor was astonished Monday upon the receipt of a statement by a register of deeds, who said he and the county commissioners had decided to put the poll tax for pensions at the old figure, 16c, instead of the new one 12c. In the same mail there came another astonishing report from another register, setting forth that he had decided to make the public school tax 19c on the $100 valuation, instead of the 16c fixed by the Legislature.

Popular James A. Young Coming.

We take pleasure in announcing that Mr. James A. Young, as leading man in E. J. Carpenter's "Quo Vadis" will positively appear with the Company Saturday night Nov. 16th. Mr.
Young is well and favorably known in Oxford, having appeared here in Hamlet, Richline and Richard III, and is a widely known Shakespearean scholar. He is supported by an exceptionally strong company, and we hope the people of Oxford will show their appreciation of this first-class Company secured by Messrs. Peace & Hobgood by giving them a packed house.

—LCSST—One pocket book containing $13 and a few cents, also receipt for $70, between Oxford and Mr. West Brummitts. The finder will please return it to this and be rewarded.

ON THE WING.
