OXFORD PUBLIC LEDGER.

Working for Baptist University.

Oxford Furnishes Another Cashier.

Mr. A. W. Peace, recently book

February Cosmopolitian.

its fiction for February. Stories of Benefit of Graded School Library.

Otho Wilson Should Not be Content.

counter demanding his share?

A Cluby Town.

erary Club, the Book Club, the

the Bachelors Club, the German Club

Judge Graham's Residence.

ated on Horner Heights it will be when completed one of the prettiest houses ever built in Oxford. It will be finished with the greatest care

The Judge and Mrs. Graham are to this office.

away with the performance.

highly complimented.

-Rev. A. D. Hunter, binancial Sec-

VOL. XIV-NO.49.

OXFORD, N.C. THURSDAY, JAN. 30, 1902

$1 PER ANNUM

Standard Remedies.

What do you want in old reliable druggist.

a Drug Store? Here is a splendidly equiped and carefully conducted prescrip tion department. Here are all the recognized efficacious forms. Here are toilet articles of all descriptions, for all purposes of health and beauty.

You can get what you want at our store at the right price.

J. G. HALL, Druggist.

Goods promptly delivered.

Phone 72.

Will in a considerable measure depend upon the SOLIDITY,

LIBERALITY AND PROGRESSIVENESS Try them and be convinced.

of the bank with which you keep your account.

We offer you these advantages with the advantages of a National Bank and invite you to do your banking business with us during the New Year. We pay 4 per out and see him. cent interest on time deposits. R. W. LASSITER Pres.

C. D. RAY Vice-Pres. W. H. Hunt Cashier. The First National Bank of Ox- are cordially invited to attend. ford.

WANT YOUR TRADE.

ANXIOUS TO SERVE YOU. Stationery! Stationery!

The largest and most up-to-date line of Box paper pound package paper, envelopes stationery sandries just received at Pamilton's Drug Store, Hancock's old stand,

MEDICINE! MEDICINE!

ton's Drug Store.

Prescriptions

Specialty day or night. Anyone wishing my service between the hours 10:30 p. m and 7 a m.

GARDEN SEEDS.

I have a large and cooplete line of fresh garden seed, peas, beans and onion sets. e c. Come to se- me before you buy. Remember everything is fresh and new. I will give you best goods and best prices. Yours to please,

R. L. HAMILTON.

Druggist and Seedsman, Hancock's old stand, Oxford, N. C.

E T. White, J. M. Currin, H. G. Cooper, Vice-Pres.

THE BANK OF GRANVILLE, rented. Oxford, N. C.

Capital Stock Additional Responsibility

$60.000 at 8:30 o'clock. of Stock Holders

Security to Depositors $120.000

We solicit every c'ass of business and guarantee every reasonable accommodation to our customers.

Our Motto-Safety and Courtesy. stead of 1:20 p. m.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

GATHERED BY OUR REPORTERS. Short Items Dealing With the News of -The County Commissioners meet next Monday.

a Week.

-Mrs. Isaac Harris is quite sick at er home on Raleigh street. to learn, is recovering from a week's

-You are invited to read the change dwelling is occupied.

-Mr. B. M. Haubold is one of the happy men of Oxford as a new boy has brightened his home.

-The oyster supper Friday night remedies in their best and most given by the ladies of St. Stephen's Church proved a success.

in dry goods and groceries why call bers will attend in a body. -If you are in search of bargains on Wallace White on Main street. -The inside work on the new addition to the residence of Mr. Jos. S Brown continues to go forward. -The new 5 feet brass crossfor the and has been placed on the top of the been happily married. -President Venable, of the State University, will lecture before the Horner Cadets this Thursday night at 8 o'clock. er, Dr. Melville Dorsey, at Henderson, is improving,

to all customers. right of way through her lot front book-keeper and will be a good one. ing the end of Broad street.

-Parham Bros. Company are of--Mr. W. H. Smith, the Tailor, who was forced to quit business on acount of a very sore foot, is rapidly improving and will resume business.

-The celebrated hypnotist, Prof. Lee, will highly entertain the people you wish to enjoy a good laugh go

-Rev. F. W. Hilliard will hold service and preach in St. Peters church, Stovall, on Sunday next, Feb. 2nd at 11 o'clock a. m. All persons

-Remember that the Public Ledger is ready to serve you with all kinds of Job Printing at lowest possible prices. Give us your work and we will do our best to please you.

be of interest to the public don't keep | because the editor's opinion cannot | min Franklin Keith, are getting reit to yourself. Send it to the Public be twisted to suit theirs. It is one Ledger for publication. We will appreciate it and so will our readers.

-The Bank of Granville has change of advertisement in this issue to match, pen and pencil pads for school use, which will pay you to read as it composition books, peas, pencils, ink mu- concerns money-the great and only cilage, and paste. Also blank books and lever that sways the world and men with it.

landmarks of Fishing Creek town- stauces. He got out of the stables ship, died at his home Friday and and was trying to be gotten back, For all kinds of patent medicine, chemi- was buried Saturday. Will publish and his muleship was quite spirited cals, drugs and druggist sundries, go Hand'- next week an excellent obituary by and in his race around the lot run one of his neighbors.

The Presciption of any Physician will be will put money in your pocket to sell fore he pulled it out. The mule lived Shakespeare Club, the Woman's Litcarefully compounded from the purest drugs the balance of your crop on the Ox- about an hour afterwards. ford market, bad roads or no bad can find me by phone No. 43 at Mrs. Hughes residence. I will be glad to servo

-Chief Wheeler and Lonnie Smith are now quite happy over the splen did calaboose the Town Dads have fixed up. They have a steel cell a ers get on the war-path.

-Some of our business men are somewhat agitated over the rumor of removal of the postoffice from the ment against its removal.

-Would it not be a grand thing for Oxford if the owners of the old Superlor Court Next Week -- 50 Criminal shanties on what is known as "Lawyers' Row" would pull them down and erect nice offices in their places? We feel sure they would be quickly

-There will be a marriage this It is reported that Mr. T. S. Rogers Wednesday evening which will be will return and stand trial, as a large quite an event in our colored society. number of witnesses have been sum-$60,000 Thos. H. Bullock and Cecil, daughter moned. The Attorneysfor Rogers are of Jasper Ridley, one of our best col- Ex-Judges A. W. Graham, Robt. W. ored citizens, will be happily married | Winston and Ex-Senator A. A. Hicks, > his friend, Mr. D. Y. Cooper, one of the H. Pou, of Raleigh, T. T. Hicks, of and no pains or expense will be spared who has been seriously sick for some Frank Hobgood, of Oxford. It promdays, is improving, and we join his ises to be a very interesting trial as host of friends in wishing him a rapid a number of young ladies have been

-On Sunday last the schedule on and it looks like one week term in The Savings Department the O. & C. Railroad and O. & H. Road underwent a slight change. pays 4 per cent interest on de- The train from Keysville arrives in Oxford at 3:10 p. m. instead of 1:37 p. any stationery but the right sort. You m. and the O. & H. train at 1:40 i - can get the right kind of stationery

-Mrs. Charley Bryan is out again after several days sickness.

-If you need the very latest Dictionary consult our advertising columns as it has no equal. There was quite a large break of tobacco on the market Tuesday, and mission. He will be in the Flat River many good averages were made. Mr. Titus Currin captured one at the pastors and churches will take up Johnson Warehouse.

-We are pleased to say that the little son of Mr. W. B. Ballou, who -Mrs. Cam Easton, we are pleased has been critically ill all the week and constantly watched over by Dr. Tom Booth, is a little today, Wednesday.

-Prof. Harding must be putting in advertisement of J. G. Hall, the in some mighty good work at the is occupied, so far as we know every ford Public Ledger would be glad to which is done in other towns.

as the sequal to the Old Maid's Con vention is coming, and you can get Of course the Old Bachelors' Club of another bank. The prompt, acwill suspend the rules and the mem- curate and faithful service of the

-The Old Maids, just back from Klondike, will hold another convention in the Opera House on Friday evening Feb. 7th. Don't fail to see them as they will have many interesting experiences to relate. Since new Episcopal church has arrived their departure some of them have

-Look here! you old, stingy,mes back borrower, stop spunging or your neighbor, and come up like a ger. The amount you have to cough nobler feelings, in "The Valley of -Mrs. Emma Lynch, who was ta- up will not send you to the Poor Dead," Thomas A. Janvier pictures, ken sick while on a visit to her broth- House, as it is only one dollar a year the struggle of a dasning young enand fifty cents for six months.

-Mr. E. W. Worth, an up-to-date MacGlowries Widow," is the title of -Mr. Len Pitchard is nicely fixed mill man, has been elected superin a Western story in Bret Harte's hapup in his new quarters on Hillsboro tendent of Oxford Cotton Mills in piest vein and "The Fish" is one of street and extends a warm welcome place of Mr. Paul Collins who was E. W. Kemble's best humorous each theatre both matinee and night. forced to resign on account of illiskits. -The Furniture Company has pur- health. He will arrive next week and chased of Mrs. Mary C. Cannady a take charge Mr. Ira Howard is

-Two weeks ago in giving the names of the Board of Directors of fering very close margin bargains in the splendid First National Bank of formance at the Graded School last play moved the audience greatly. It all classes of goods for spot cash. Oxford we overlooked the names of Messrs. J. H. Gooch, of Stem, and C. D. Ray, of Oxford. This Bank has been a success from the start and is proving a great benefit to our people.

-Mr. Ollie Parham, our old bache lor friend of Carlton, was in Oxford Tuesday selling the last of Parham of Stem this Thursday evening. If Bros. crop of tobacco. The whole crop averaged over $23 plant round, other accomplishments. Mr. stradwhich is proof that these gentlemen are successful tobacco growers It is hinted that Mr. O. is willing to resign as President of Carlton Bache lor Club if he can persuade some fair one to be his companion for life.

Still Increasing.

-The Public Ledger rounds up the first month in the year with 43 new subscribers, and yet there are a few narrow-minded men in Oxford who -If you know anything that will have ceased to extend it patronage Messrs. Harrison Skinner and Benja of the impossibilities to run a paper to suit everybody and it is an exceedingly small piece of business to withdraw patronage on that ac-

Mule Killed.

-Mr. Joe Morris, of Sunset, had the misfortune to lose a fine mule a against a sharp piece of white oak -Tobacco continue to bring top- running it into his side 27 inches. notch price on our market, and it strong man made two attempts be- lowing: The Atheneum Club, the Public School Apportionment.

-There are 99 School Districtsin Granville county, and recently $11,-703 was apportioned to the Public Schools. The whites received over the Hypnotic Club, the Boozy Club piece to fill up when the law-break- $7,000 and colored over $4,000. Would the Domino Club, etc. Beesides these give the exact figures but have not there are various other independent Education in the days of the able they do not wish themselves men Prof. W. H. P. Jenkins published the tioned. Added to all these we have apportionment to each district for lodges and fraternal insurance compresent location, and a petition has the benefit of the public, but under panies galore. Verily Oxford is well been sent to the Postoffice Depart- the new regime they have to find out bound together in fraternal ties. the best way they can.

Cases.

- Granville Superior Court convenes next Monday with Judge Neal and will contain about 14 rooms presiding. The term is only for one week and few civil cases will be tried. section of the State. It is not of the and for Miss Harris the able Solicitor -The editor is glad to learn that Brooks, assisted by Messrs. James summoned as witnesses. There are arranged, will be one of the beauties write us with a view to business. some 50 cases on the criminal docket of the place. Granville will not fill the bill.

Your message ought to be properly home they have planned. addressed, you cannot afford to use at Hall's Drug Store.

COME TO THE FRONT.

retary of Baptist University, greatly | The Electric Light System and New Hotel pleased the brethren at Enon and Badly Needed. Grassy Creek last Saturday and Sun-

The air is too still on the proposed day with his noble spirit and great electric light plant for Oxford, as it is also on the much-needed new hotel. Association but a short time, but the Since our last article we have heard the work and press the claims of the private parties speak of putting in an electric plant, but not even a University to completion. This is a mutter as to the hotel has been wafgrand institution and one of the ted on the breeze, while the traveling most deserving and popular enterpublic continue to complain of Oxprises of the Baptist State Convenford's poor hotel accommodations.

Who will be the first to speak out and speaking to move. Talk without action is dead. Let some of Oxiraded School, as we never hear any keeper in the Bank of Granville, hav- ford's leading men put on foot a plan | son, was in town a few hours Mon -Every store in Oxford save one thing from him these days! The Ox- ing accepted the position as Cashier for the town to secure these enter- day. of the Bank of Chapel Hillleft Oxford prises. It would pay the town well publish the honor roll of the school on Monday to make that place his and pay the projectors doubly for home. He carries with him the best the investment. Would not only pay day. -There is fun ahead for the boys wishes of this community for his fu- themselves, but increase the value of ture prosperity. This is the third their other property. Business men time a book-keeper in the Bank of think on these things! It will pay ready to split your sides laughing. Granville has been appointed Cashier you and help build up your town as well as increase your own business.

Worder if some more patronage will be withdrawn because we advo-Bank of Granville could not be more cate these enterprises? You can do it if you will but Public Ledger wil continue to work to build up Oxford The Cosmopolitan is fortunate in love, adventure and humor from the The great moral drama"Ten Nights pens of famous authors make the In a Bar Room," which will be pre-'Midwinter Fiction Number' vitally sented at the Opera House February interesting. "S. Cohn & Son" by 24th by the famous Geo. L. Palmer's Zangwill deals with the Auglicization Co., is one of the strongest attractions of a Jew and the mevitable tragedy on the road to-day. The company of his love for an English girl whose man and subscribe to the Public Led- race prejudice triump is over her is playing to packed houses every where, and the following is only one of the many complimentary press gineer between love and duty. "Mr.

A Treat In Store.

"Thanksgiving brought with it cause for thanks in which all three local managers joined. The Standing Room Only sign was displayed at Manager Stainback offered the only novelty in Ten Nights In a Bar Room. It was presented by Geo L. Palmer's Co. and was offered at the matinee Our talented friend, Mr. Walter P. Strauley, who is a bright member of and night. The Auditorium was last Hypnotic Club, gave a hypnotic per- night crowded to its capacity. The Friday night. The proceeds was for is intensely emotional and the purthe benefit of the Graded School Li- pose was excellently carried out, as brary and a nice sum was realized. the tears shed were sufficient to float The children and others were carried a steam yacht. The revival is made in four acts. It is well staged and We knew that friend Stradley was the company is deserving of favorable a fine orator and powerful on the mention, the acting of W. N. Hamhustings and well versed in the ora- mett deserving much praise."-Memcles of the law, but we did know that phis Commercial Appeal, Friday Nov. he had added this new science to his 20th.1901.

Runaway Marriage Sunday.

ley is a remarkable man. His influ--Mr R. B. Neal and Miss Lizzie ence over the youth of both sexes constantly increases as he grows Dowling, of Mecklenburg county, Va., was soon procured and the happy Charlotte Observer says, it is poor couple were made one by Squire W. testimonial to the ambition of S. O. T. Lyon at the residence of Mr. C. A. Wilson, Esq., that he should be con- Carroll. It was a runaway marriage tent to run a government distillery and witnessed by quite a number of out in the woods of Wake county our people. They returned to their when gentlemen of his kidney, like home at Baskerville, Va., Monday. Value of a Well Patronized Paper.

Dr. Talmage, who is man of obserlief. Is not Otho, likewise, entitled vation and information and knows are glad to see him again. He is the are enabled by our recent purchases to relief? Did not he too whoop it up for the sub-Treasury, for 16 to 1, what he is talking about, says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow and for $50 per capita, issued direct with ads of business men has more to the people? Yes, verily, that's influence in attracting atttention to what's he did. What ails him then that he should be satisfied to sit and building up a city or town than down and watch the crystal sowpaw any other agency that can be emtrickle from the worm which dieth ployed. People go where there is -Mr. R. A. Tunstall, one of the old few days ago under peculiar circum- not, instead of practicing the pie business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a Oxford is pre-eminently a town of newspaper well patronized, and its Clubs. Among the many Clubs here power should be appreciated." we at present call to mind the fol-

A New Fuel.

A locomotive engineer, of Omaha Neb., has invented a fuel which he claims "to be cheaper than coal, to the Left Over Club, the Old Maids consume more nearly its total weight time in his office. Whistling Club, the Magazine Club, and to be superior in heat-producing Club, the Whist Club, the S. S. Club. power, pound for pound, to good Reidsville, are the guest of Mr. and coal." The basis of the fuel is clay, the Courting Club, the Whitling Club, which is saturated with the cruder Dr. Brooks' many friends in Oxford that in places 1,000 miles from an oil health, and trust his visit to our got them at hand. The Board of Clubs, whose works are so peculiar field it can be produced for $2 per ton, while near an oil district the cost will not exceed 40 to 45 cents per ton. Ex- Y., is on a visit to Mr. R. W. Lassiter, perts say that Mr. Hoffman's claim and will remain for two weeks. He arrangement made with the Southern Agents for the Websters international Dictionary, whereby reveals no great improbability so far is interested in Northern Granville a copy of the as the chemical side of the problem copper mines and the Public Ledger is involved, and it is stated that cordially welcomes him to Oxford Reference tests of the invention on a small and feels sure he will enjoy his visit scale have been so successful that in Judge Graham's new residence in-February two railways and several reases in beauty as it nears complelarge western packing plants will tion. It will be three stories high give it a trial. If it is recognized, the fuel proves of commercial value, it and will be one of the finest in this will likely reduce the cost of nearly every manufactured article in daily who wish him much success in busicheap showy kind, but is built of the use, so far as the producer is conbest material and is a model of sim- cerned-and the consumer also, unple elegance. All the framing is of less the tariff is made to come to the Granville county timber. Well situ- rescue of the former. Will Take Pleasnre in Serving You. The First National of Bank Oxford wants your account and you shall of him as he is an old Oxford boy and be accorded the utmost courtesy and rejoice at the success he has achievto make it in every respect a model is that of the largest corporation or home. It will be lighted with gas, and heated throughout gas, and fully believe no State has a betmost enterprising men in Henderson Henderson and W. A. Devin and Col. to make it in every respect a model is that of the largest corporation or and heated throughout with a fur- of an individual. Remember we pay ter one. nace. A beautiful lawn, tastefully 4 per cent interest on time deposits. Will be pleased to have you call or R. W. LASSITER, President W. H. HUNT, Cashier.

> be congratulated on the beautiful offer for sale a tract of land northwest of Creedmoor, known as this line. Phone 72. One Chainless Columbia for sale the Vaughan place. Has dwelling cheap. In good condition. Apply at and out houses on it. Apply to W. L. PEACE. 4t pd.

ON THE WING.

The Varied Movements of a Number of People.

-Mr. Pete Thorp, of Oak Hill, was in Oxford Monday. -Dr. G. T. Sikes, of Grissom, was on our streets Saturday. -Mr. J. T. Stark, of Townsville, was on our streets Friday.

-Mrs. Vaughan, of Lenoir county, is visiting the Misses Hilliard. -Dr. G. A. Coggeshall, of Hender-

-Assistant Adjutant General Willie Landis returned from Raleigh Saturday and Sunday with friends in Dur--Mrs. John W. Hays is on a visit to her son, Mr. J. W. Hays, in Peters-

-Mrs. Jerome Horner spent Satur-field, is visiting Miss Annie a Illiams on Front street.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Osbern and children, of Wilson, are on a visit to home folks in Oxford.

was among the large number of farmers in Oxford Friday.

-Dr. Pecot, of Littleton, was in Oxford Monday to see the critically ill son of Col. and Mrs. W. B. Ballou. -Mrs. W. C. Tyree, of Durham with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. -Miss Maud Morgan, one of the bright gems of the City on the James, is the pleasant guest of Miss Neile Currin on High street. Vance, was in exford Tuesday selling tobacco, and the editor had the pleasure of a visit from him. -Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hawkins returned Sunday from their bridal trip to Florida, and have been receiving the congratulations of their friends. -Mr. C. E. Steineson, of Charlotte, the General Agent for the New Home Sewing Machine, was in Oxford Friday and we enjoyed a visit from

-Messrs. B. F. Dean, of Sunset, James Elliott, of Cornwall, and J. H. urday and dropped in to see the reached Oxford Sunday afternoon on Guard Convention at Washington Presidency. -Mrs. W. S. Hundley returned a few days ago from a protracted visit > panied by two nieces, Misses Bessie and Bulah Bryant. stationed at Newsom's, Va., is on a visit to Oxford and his old friends The prospect is it will go lower. We to her old home at Jefferson, accom-guest of Mr. W. S. Hundley. -Mr. E. V. Umstead, quite an intelligent farmer of Flat Riversection, was an Oxford visitor Friday. He was here taking advantage of our high prices for tobacco.

-Messrs. H. H. Latta, of Culbreth, J. T. Hart, of Oak Hill, J. W. Harris, of Wilton, and W. C. Peed, of Hargrove, were on the tobacco break until May. Plant a barrel for your Tuesday and called on the Public Led-hogs. J. R. Pace, Oxford, N. C. Tuesday and called on the Public Led- hogs.

-Mr. Frank Kelley, one of the ex cellent farmers of the Knap of Reeds section, was in Oxford Monday on Hall's Drug store. business and the editor had the pleasure of meeting him for the first

-Rev. and Mrs. John R. Brooks, of Mrs. Walter Stark on Raleigh street. and cheaper oils, and it is asserted are glad to note his improvement in Websters town will prove beneficial to him.

-Mr. E. B. Howard, of Buffalo, N.

-Mr. Nat Faucette, who is going in business at Wilton, left Tuesday for Baltimore to buy a stock of goods. store for home library indeed it will be found to Nat during his stay in Oxford at the Hardware store of J. F. Edwards

-Mr. J. R. Young, who has made the State Insurance Department a state Supt of Public School: I have always used it with great satisfaction. T. F. Toon. noted success, visited Oxford yesterday and the editor was pleased to meet him. We naturally feel proud at Howells old stand February 4th.

Our stationery, inks, pens and penells are the best ever made or handled. Come to Hall's Drug Store ontaining 156 acres lying 1% miles and you can get what you want in Martin & Hoyt Company,

> Remember the auction sale of shoes at Howells old stand February 4th.

His Sweetheart's Letter.

A colonel, on his tour of inspection NOW SOME, BUT NOT ALL. unexpectedly entered the drill room. when he came across a couple of soldiers, one of them reading a letter aloud, while the other was listening, and at the same time stoping up the ears of the reader, says Tid-Bits. "What are you doing here?" the puzzled officer inquired of the for-

"You see, colonel, I'm reading to Atkins, who can't read himself, a letter which has arrived by this alternoon's post from his sweet-

"And you Atkins, what in all the world are you doing?"

"Please, colonel, I am stopping up Murphey's ears with both hands, because I don't mind his reading my weethearts letter, but I don't want him to hear a single word of what she has written."-Ex.

CASH TALKS AT PARHAM BRUS. CO.

The impression seems to prevail that we do a credit business in preference to cash, but such is not the case, and if you will only give us the -Miss Mattie McGuire, of Smith- opportunity of making you prices on wnatever you want we will convince you that we can save you money. We want the best trade in Granville county, and if low prices and square dealing will get it we have no fear of our future among you. In saying we sell everything we are not far -Mr. W. W. Hart, of Oak Hill, wrong. Our line embraces dry goods, dress goods and notions. Shoes for all kinus and conditions. Hats and caps, gents furnishings of the newest styles and noblest type. Hexter Brothers celebrated summer clothing, groceries, heavy and fancy, Patapsco superlative patent flour, hay, bran and leed stuffs of all kinds, buggles of renowned quality and superior spent several days the past week nnish, Hackney Bros., Rock Hill, Corbitt and Babcock, Old Hickory & Piedmont Wagons and the greatest line of harness on earth. High grade lertinzers aspecialty. We have just received a car load of young, sound horses and mules and would be pleased to have you call at Mr. R. W. Days stable and examine them We -Representative W. B. Daniel, of are leaders for cash or credit and ask for your patronage on to sell you what you want at a lower price than others.

Remember the auction sale of shoes at Howells old stand February 4th.

The police of Chicago have discovered a "divorce mill" in that city where one may secure a divorce certain and absolute, with no scandal or publicity, for twenty-five cents.

A Protitable Investment.

"I was troubled for about seven years with ny stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Denack Somerville, Ind. "I spent Morris, of Sunset, visited Oxford Sat- about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by -General B. S. Royster returned what you eat, but by what you digest and Friday from attending the National assimilate. It your stomach doesn't digest your food you re really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cur. does the stomach's work the 3:10 train, and a marriage license City. He was honored with a Vice- by eigesting the took. You con't have to olet tarally a wart Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all st mach troubles. J. G. Hall.

Sugar on the Decline.

While Congress is hammering on the Sugar Bounty question the American refiners are reducing prices. Su--Rev. J. R. Griffith, who is now gar has possibly reached a lower point within the last few days than at any time within the last 4 years. to quote you American Standard granulated at FIVE CENTS per lb. in small quantities. When you want round lots get our special prices.

Your truly, E. H. CRENSHAW CO.

FOR SALE-A good mule, and also I wish to buy a good horse. 10 barrels Jerusalem or White French Artichokes, $2.25 per barrel. Will keep hogs fat from 1st of November

Our note paper is a delight to people who can appreciate it. We want you to see, enjoy, and buy at

Remember the auction sale of shoes at Howells old stand February 4th.

For Sale-Several milch cows and beeves Will exchange them for dry cows. M. F. ADCOCK, Beck, N. C. International Dictionary. The Public Ledger announces to its readers an

History

may be obtained on monthly payments of $3 per We call attention to the endorsement give herewith and do not hesitate to commend he a librar itself.

Supreme Court of North Carolina writes: We ake b easure in saying that we deem Webster's or cited by us. We unhesitatingly recommenand indorse it.

Contents.

1 A Dictionary of the English Language. 3 A Dictionary of Grography 3 A Dictionary of Brography. A Dictionary of Foreign words, Phrase, etc 5 A Reference History of the world B 6000 to A D 1902. 6 A Dictionary of tains 29'0 : ages Should you desire a copy of the Webster's International Dictionary

Remember the auction sale of shoes Reference History Edition write the outhern agents for pasticulars, men-to that y n are a sub-criber to the Public ledger to be assured of the spicial concessions field our readers. Addr as The Atlanta Georgia.