Superintendent J, Y. Joyner Coming.

We are very glad to learn from the clever Superintendent Connor, of our Graded School that State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y Joyner has accepted an invitation to visit Oxford and make an address to our people at the close of the Graded School on May 9th. We congratulate the school on having obtained Mr. Joyner's consent to come and feel sure that the Oxford people will have a great treatin store. Mr. Joyner is an old friend of the editor and glad that he said in his letter of ac ceptance that he is much interested in the school work in Oxford and is glad to have the opportunity to speak a word of encouragement to our people.

The prisoner heard the verdict without apparent emotion.

When the verdict had been received

Judge Jones said: "It is sadder to me than you, Mr. Wilcox. The jury found the facts, I gave the law. You have had a fair trial. Part of the public were afraid to give it to you. I am informed that the movement in the court house here Friday when a crowd marched out was pre-arranged. I hope such was not the case. If it was true and the offenders were brought before me I would send every man, woman and child to jail for contempt, If the move was for a purpose it was a disgrace to the fair name of the county. I hope it did not influence you gentle-
