

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal them by the use of washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, bleeding, cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the removal of the ulcer and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, bleeding, cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

In February, 1899, I noticed a small lump on my lower lip. The doctor cauterized it but another came and broke out into an open sore. I began to take S. S. S. and after I had taken seven bottles the place healed entirely and no signs of the disease have been seen since. W. F. Brown, Hollands, S. C.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great medicinal and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and remove the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free.

The Proper Style of Skirts. A Decidedly Novel Sleeve.

This gown combines all the new features of the current mode. The Eton has loose fronts that open over a vest embroidered with beige and pale blue Corticelli filo silk, similar embroidery adorning the deep peloric collar. The sleeve is decidedly novel and deserves special mention. It is cut with a point edged with a band of stitched voile and is completed with a kind of under sleeve of cream liberty silk formed into puffs with straps of beige velvet. Beige velvet ribbon in a darker shade adorns both the jacket and skirt. The latter shows the fashionable sheath effect and in addition to the velvet a trimming of straps-inverted scollops stitched with Corticelli silk.

The new skirts are fitted closely at the hips but flare very much indeed below the knees. A great many skirts with hip yokes are shown, either of shirring, tucking or thin bands, joined with a fancy open stitch. Some very attractive skirt models in sheer materials are laid in narrow box-plaits from the waist to the knees and below that there is a prettily flounce with insertions of cream lace and a garniture of narrow gathered ribbon.

Marriage is not a matter of a license and a ceremony and Mendelssohn March and gaping crowds and a tour. "And do they never quarrel?" asked the girl in white. "Never," replied the girl in blue. "Then what's the use of being engaged?" —Chicago Evening Post.

But she never did any bicycle scorching. At 102 she is up and about and is watching patiently till some fellow runs an air ship so she can take an excursion in that.

The man who has a good and industrious wife has reason to get down on his knees three times a day and thank God. A good woman can bring more sunshine and happiness into a family circle than a gold mine or a barrel of cider, and can make all around her happy and contented as well as being the same herself. The nearest to heaven that a man gets on earth is when he comes home to the bosom of his family where peace and happiness reigns and where discontent and turmoil enter not. —Exchange.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube, when this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound of imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of the system the Deafness will remain. Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where it has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yanketown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Files yield it at once. Beware of Counterfeits, J. G. Hall

THE SHIRT WAIST.

I have seen shirt waists constructed in a thousand different ways, and been thoroughly instructed in the fashion's waistly maze; I have seen them long and bottled, I have seen them short and stout; I have seen them cut with bias, I have seen them without; I have seen them done up glossy, I have seen them in the rough; and I've seen them thin and flossy, and I've seen them thick and tough; I have seen them high in collar, and so low they made me laugh; I have seen them worth a dollar or that didn't cost a half; I have seen them tucked and plaited, I have seen them finished plain; I have seen them, when completed, ripped apart and made again; I have seen them in repose and I have seen them on parade—I have seen more, I suppose, than any mortal ever made. Wisdom For Women.

Men praise or abuse women too much—never so much, however, as women do. Love is a human law, duty is a social one. Love is greater than duty. Happy the men and women who can obey both laws. Women die twice. Their first death takes place on the day they cease to be attractive. An old woman who tries to be beautiful is like a corpse that tries to look alive. In matrimony love is only a hors d'oeuvre; friendship is the piece de resistance. Foolish are the married people who do not retain friendship when love becomes out of season. The heart of a good woman is a well of love. She has a smile for all joys, a tear for all sorrows, a consolation for all miseries, an excuse for all faults, a prayer for all misfortunes and a word of encouragement for all hopes.—New York Evening Telegram.

ROMANCE AS IS ROMANCE.

How a Tramp Won a Maiden and Proved to be Wealthy in Tatters.

Here is a thrilling romance that has filtered its way out from Parkersburg, West Virginia. Whether it is a reality or merely the product of a "pipe dream" of an imaginative writer, it has a Laura Jean Libby flavor.

Under date of the seventh of May the article tells how, disguised as a tramp Harry Williams, an alleged wealthy young man of high social position, won a beautiful bride at Montrose, W. Va., on Tuesday a week ago.

He met her first through an anonymous correspondence, started in fun. After some time a meeting was arranged. Before the meeting the tramp appeared at the young lady's home and was given employment. His manner captivated her, but on account of his apparent lack of social position and money she told him when he spoke to her of love that she could not consider him at all as a lover, although she frankly confessed that she thought well of him. The man she expected failed to appear at the time arranged for the meeting, but instead the tramp appeared again and told her once more of his love for her. Upon being again refused on the ground of his being a tramp he tore from him his disguise and stood before her, young and handsome, the very man she had arranged to meet. Their courtship was of short duration and after a couple of days they were married. He is reputed to be very wealthy and she has always been a popular society girl in her community.

Why He Did not Move.

The new clergyman had been asked to Sunday dinner by one of the families of his congregation, and had accepted. "You are a real good boy!" he said to the small son of his host at table. "Me?" said the boy, surprised at unsolicited commendation from any source. "Yes," went on the minister. "I watched you all through the sermon this morning, and you hardly moved." "O!" exclaimed the lad, as a light broke upon him. "Well, you see, I was afraid of waking pop up."

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens. Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made. A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking
