S. W. MINOR, Mayor.

The postoffice at King's Mountain was entered by thieves who blew open the safe and secured seven hundred dollars worth of stamps and about $50 in cash.

Monroe Journal: Mr. John W. Gordon of Pleasant Grove has a copper teapot that is probably two hundred years old. It was brought to this country from Scotland about 1730 by the Pickens family and has since been handed down from generation to generation. Mr. Gordon's grand-mother was a Pickens.

At Raleigh June 11 Manuel Palmer, a negro lineman of the Interstate Telephone Company was killed by the breaking of a cable distributing pole. He was tightening the wires when the pole snapped in two below the cable box. Palmer jumped, fell to pavement and was instantly killed. Another lineman escaped by holding to the cross bars which was caught by the network of wires over a lower pole.

Mr. B. F. Thurber creates a sensation in republican senatorial ranks by testifying before the Cuban committee that Governor General Wood has paid from the Cuban treasury thousands of dollars to the New York Export Company for circulation of pamphlets advocating reciprocity with Cuba.

Politics are rarely mentioned among the people. We hear of a number of candidates for the office of Register of Deeds, and think there will be quite a number of aspirants for the plum.

Rev. E. R. Harris filled the pulpit of the Baptist church here Sunday and preached a fine sermon. Mr. Harris graduated at Wake Forest this year and he is a strong preacher for one so young.

Mrs. Hattie Rowland, of Middleburg, after visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Parham, left last week to visit friends in Raleigh.

We have had fine rains for which we feel very thankful, the crops are small but generally clean and is in good condition for rain.

Misses Lucile Aiken and Ethel Breedlove have returned from Littleton Female College. They receive a hearty welcome from a multitude of friends.

Salem Township primary to elect delegates to the county convention will be held next Saturday at Salem at 2 o'clock. Take due notice and be there.

Be sure and attend the celebration at Oxford the 24th; bring the children and let them see and hear the Orphans; it will be a day of joy and pleasure for all.

John Leigh Hunt, of Kittrell, won the Sallie W. Gray essay medal, and also the medal in Mathematics and Science at the last term of the Bingham School.

Miss Mamie Parham, of Salem, is representing the Home Society at the great gathering of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society being held in Raleigh this week.

Mr. J. P. Breedlove, Librarian at Trinity College, only spent a day or two at his home after the commencement; he then left for Baltimore where he will spend a month in the City Library.

Subscribe to your county paper, the Oxford Public Ledger, and see who dies, who marries, who comes, who goes, who stays, who sings, who preaches, who plants first and who cures first.

Managers of our factories, mills, warehouses and business men patronize our own folks, and have your printing done at home and by the Public Ledger, and let us pull together for the upbuilding of our town.

Mrs. R. F. Rice and three nice little sons are visiting Mr. W. L. Rice. Mr. Rice came with his wife and children but soon returned to his home at Greensboro. He holds and has had for years a responsible and good position with the Standard Oil Company.

From the best information I can get Salem is for Connor for Associate Justice. It will not do to give out who county the candidates for office will be yet. After our primary we can give a more correct idea of what and who the people want. Judge Graham is most prominently spoken of for the Legislature.

We had a young horse to get badly cut in a barb wire fence recently, he is improving now. The first night after putting the cows in the new pasture the boys brought them up and one of them hollowed out that the cow was spilling all the milk, and he ran with all his might and got one or two buckets and set under the cow till the milker could get there.

Mrs. J. M. Rhodes, of Littleton, Rev. W. S. Hester, and M. W. Hester are attending the great Missionary Meeting in Asheville this week. Dr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, the great Missionaries from China, will be the center of attraction at this meeting. Rev. W. S. Hester just returning from Texas and M. W. Hester from Asheville will reach home the latter part of this week. And also probably Mrs. Rhodes. A hearty welcome awaits their return.

Miss Lottie Barnes leaves us this week to go into the mountains of the west to teach school in some of the neglected Districts. She goes with but little hope or expectation of reward so far as this world's goods are concerned, but filled with the Holy Ghost, and a desire to help somebody she leaves home, friends, and aged grand mother and will follow the steps of the Master into the mountains. The best wishes and prayers of our people will follow her.

Little Willie Pendleton and sister, of Oxford, have been on a visit to the family of Mr. W. L. Rice. Mr. Rice lives at the L. G. Breedlove farm which joins this writer on the west. Last week Mr. Pendleton drove out to see the children and he went to Dabney and below Dexter looking for W. L. Rice; he drove across our farm and asked one of our boys the way to Mr. Rice. Raymond asked what Rice? He then said any Rice. He was directed and afterward found the place; he had been partly through two counties looking for, and it was only six miles North East of Oxford. Salem Township, through her correspondent, extends deepest sympathy and love to Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Booth, and also to the family and friends of Uncle Alf Hobgood. Uncle Alf and Miss Annie were strong personal friends of this writer and indeed they were friends of everybody. To the heart broken loved ones we can do no more than mingle our tears with yours, to pray to God to sustain you in this deep affliction and point you to him who doeth all things well. Dr. Booth has long been the family physician of this writer, and when he would go day or night we would say: Dr. wife very sick; want you to go at once, he would generally say, you can go ahead back and you will see me when you get home, and sure enough pass me before I get home. May the Lord bless and comfort you is my prayer.

Last Saturday night we were aroused at midnight by a noise; at first we knew not what it was, in a moment we recognized "Home, Sweet Home," coming forth from a splendid string band with a number of instruments and our front porch nearly full of people. As soon as we recognized the tune all fear was gone and we knew it was not the enemy; before the first tune was ended we had every member of the family up except baby Lala Hester. We had the windows up and we just drank it in; they played beautifully a number of pieces—all sacred music. Of all the very large crowd we did not recognize a single person, but we knew they were our friends. The music was indeed so grand and lovely that Dan and Charlie left a pasture inclosed with barb wire and were seen in the yard listening to the music. As the serenaders left they bade us good night to which we responded with many thanks, wishing them to scare us again before very long. Our best wishes to each one and all the company.

Knop of Reeds = Knots.
Miss Lizzie Vaughan visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. A. W. Woods, the saw mill man, is still pushing his lumber interest.

Messrs. Robert Goss and J. O. Veazey attended church at Bethel Sunday.

Protracted meetings are at hand and quantities of good fried chicken will be destroyed.

I am satisfied there is no country that passes a better set of people than this section.

Fairport Fables.

Miss Lillian Williams is visiting relatives in Oxford this week.

Mrs. S. P. Brummitt visited relatives at Gillburg Sunday.

Mr. Spotswood Burwell purchased him a nice pair of mules a few days ago.

Mr. W. C. Hight, of Henderson, was in this neighborhood one day last week.

We are sorry to chronicle the illness of Mrs. James Gresham and hope she will soon be up and about again.

There was quite a large crowd at Antioch Sunday and the Rev. R. M. Andrews preached an excellent sermon as he generally does.

The protracted meeting will commence at Antioch church the third Sunday in July there will be only one service on Sunday and two during the week.

Miss Cora Garrett and Maggie Smith, of Kittrell, and Miss Cary Grissom, of Henderson, were visiting in this community last Saturday night and Sunday.

Car River Cares.
Crops is looking very well in this section.

Miss Esther Overton, of Clay, visited here a few days ago.

The farmers are about up with their work at this time.

Mr. Ben Moss, of Skipwith, Va., visited his brother, Mr. J. E. Moss, a few days ago.

Miss Mary Andrews, who has been in our community for 1 year has returned to Raleigh to make her home in the future to the sorrow of her friends.

It is astonishing how differently the various nations of the earth will act in precisely the same circumstance. For instance when a fly is found in a glass of beer, just as the drinker is about to drink, each nationality pursues a different course of action.

An American will laugh, and order a fresh glass; a Spaniard will pay for the beer, but quietly move off without touching it; a Frenchman will pay and go, but make a tremendous fuss about it; an Englishman will empty the glass right away and demand a fresh one; a German will carefully hook out the fly with his little finger, and then swallow the beer; a Russian will swallow the beer fly and all; a Chinaman will first rescue the fly, eat it and drink the beer afterwards.

LUCK.

Dexter Dots.
The Public Ledger is always a welcome visitor in this community.

There is nothing of special interest to write, but Dexter is still a live town and is in the ring for prosperity and good wishes.

Last Saturday was tax-listing here, consequently a good crowd came in, some of the boys were rather lively when they returned.

Mr. H. C. Gill, of Stovall, drove in our town last Saturday with a nice pair of mules and rigged out in new harness, pulling him in a new Taylor-Cannady buggy.

The commencement exercises of Miss May Breedlove's School were held on the night of June 9th at the home of Col. B. I. Breedlove. The exercises throughout were pronounced to be the best of the season.

The children all did well, not a failure at all. Squire C. F. Crews was master of ceremonies; he made a nice closing address, in which he complimented teacher and children for the success of the concert and thanked the very large audience for the good order and strict attention. Little Edna Crews surprised everybody to see what heights she had attained in reciting and elocution. Mr. R. C. Puckett and Mr. Luther Wilkerson from Lewis' furnished beautiful music for the occasion.

The lives of the purest and most loved souls are not recorded. They are led apart from the noisy current of events and are known but to God and a little circle.
