

OXFORD PUBLIC LEDGER.

VOL. XV--NO. 21. OXFORD N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1902. $1 PER ANNUM.

J. G. HALL,
DRUGGIST
SEEDSMAN
 AND STATIONER.

Pure drugs, Medicines, fine chemicals, pharmaceutical specialties, dye stuffs, druggist sundries, toilet and fancy articles, face powder, perfumery, combs and brushes. Cigars, finest and choicest on the market.

STATIONERY.
 Writing paper, envelopes, plain and fancy, boxed stationery, writing tablets, pencil tablets, writing inks, fine Pens, pen holders, pencils, muclage.

Our Ice cold drinks are refreshing and invigorating. When you drink drink at our fountain we serve good drinks, only the best.

J. G. HALL, Druggist.
 Phone 72.

THE LEADING CANDIDATES.

If it is Drugs you want HAMILTON'S is the place. Here you find only fresh, pure drugs of best quality and largest quantity for your money.

Toilet Articles.
 If it is Toilet Articles you want HAMILTON'S is the place. Here you find a brand new and well-selected line of Dental preparations, Tooth brushes, Nail brushes, Military hair brushes, fine Toilet soaps, Talcum powder, all the best brands, Bath sponges, etc. Don't buy elsewhere and then regret your mistake.

Stationery.
 If it is Stationery you want, HAMILTON'S is the place. Never have you seen a larger and more up-to-date line of Stationery at so low prices in Oxford. You save money when you buy here.

Cold Drinks.
 If it is Cold Drinks, Ice Cream and Soda you want, why, everybody in Oxford knows right where to go to get the best. HAMILTON always serves the best and only the best. His clerks are polite and accommodating, always anxious to serve you with the good things of life. If you have not yet tried his crushed fruit creams, and Pineapple Gem. Don't let the season pass you further till you learn what good things there are in Oxford.

Politics
 We are trying now, and all the Candidates will remember that HAMILTON'S Fountain is Headquarters for Campaign drinks.

R. L. HAMILTON,
 Oxford, N. C.

Oxford Seminary for Girls.
 OXFORD, N. C.

33rd Annual Session Opens
 Sept. 3, 1902.
 Board and General Tuition $135
 Apply for catalogue to
PRESIDENT HOBGOOD.
 June 26

Agents Wanted
 Life of T. DeWitt Talmage, by his Son, Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage and associate editors of the Oxford Herald. Only book endorsed by Talmage family. Numerous profits for agents who sell. Order on Oxford, N. C. Write immediately to LARK & CO., 225 S. 4th St., Philadelphia, Pa. Mention this paper.

NOTICE.
 North Carolina, In the Superior Court, Hesse County, vs. Hesse County, Civil action for Divorce
 The defendant above named will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Granville county, North Carolina, for the purpose of securing a divorce from said defendant, Mrs. Hesse, and said defendant will defend the same. It is required to appear at the trial of this case on the 11th day of July, 1902, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in the Court House at Oxford, North Carolina, and answer to the complaint in said action or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief requested in said complaint. This 10th day of July, 1902.
 J. G. HUNT, Clerk Superior Court

A. W. GRAHAM,
 Attorney at Law
 OXFORD, N. C.

Practices in State and Federal Courts. All business entrusted to my care will be promptly attended to.

Story of Local Events.

Moving Pictures of a Weeks Happenings.

—The thermometer reached the 100 mark in Oxford Sunday.

—Organ for Sale on reasonable terms. Apply to Darius Eatman.

—Read change in insurance advertisement of Leon B. Jones in another column.

—We are pleased to learn that Mr. Sid Hunt is rapidly recuperating his health at Buffalo Springs.

—One of the sweetest and prettiest little tots in town is Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock.

—Our old friend Abner Overton, of Cannady's mill, was in town Wednesday and dropped in to see us.

—Your special attention is called to the change in advertisement of R. L. Hamilton as it is worth reading.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Easton on Monday. The editor extends his congratulations.

—The tent meeting at East Durham has proved one of unusual power as over 250 professions have been made.

—Mr. Zack Allen, of Providence, was in Oxford Tuesday and taken sick, but was able to return on the afternoon train.

—The Board of County Commissioners met on Monday and Tuesday, and will publish proceedings in our next issue.

—We are pleased to learn that Mrs. A. W. Graham, who has been numbered with the sick, has almost entirely recovered.

—Elmwood Cemetery is quite a beautiful place now, as Mr. Joe Hall, chairman of cemetery committee, has had it nicely cleaned up.

—North Carolina is to the front in the matter of furniture factories, having more than any other State, and having more cotton mills.

—Clinton was visited by a terrible fire Sunday. Two business blocks and many residences burned and total loss is about $75,000.

—The editor is very glad to learn that Mr. W. T. Allen, of Tar River, Academy, who has been quite sick with fever, is slowly improving.

—About 12:30 Wednesday afternoon a mattress in one of the rooms over Broughton's Restaurant caught fire from the stove pipe and was promptly put out.

—A Kansas farmer has been made the father of four sets of twins in six years. There seems to be a general overproduction of everything in the State of Kansas.

—Mr. Cam Easton, who had a pet chicken to peck him in one of his eyes on Thursday, from which he has suffered intensely, is out again attending to his business.

—The sympathies of the editor are extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Satterwhite, of Satterwhite, in the death of their dear little babe, which occurred last Wednesday.

—G. W. Bradley, 94 years old, a native of Lynchburg, Va., is the oldest living Confederate veteran. He walks with two canes, one of which was once the property of Daniel Boone.

—Our old friend, W. C. Peed, of Hargrove, who accidentally shot himself in the left leg two weeks ago, is getting along very well. We were much pleased to see him in town on Monday.

At the target practice of the Granville Grays Saturday afternoon the contest between Messrs. Sam Wheeler and Barney Dixon for the medal was very close, the score standing 13 to 14 in favor of Wheeler.

—If you ever take a notion to a widder, Mr. Pilgreen, don't sit round waitin' for her to forget her first husband," said Mr. Johnson. "It's right nice to have such feelin's, but somebody else'll get the widder."

—The Board of Pensions met in the Clerk's office in the Court House Monday, and passed upon 44 applicants of brave confederate soldiers and 3 widows. The old veterans are fast passing away, as the number decreases each year.

—The crown of long and faithful service is end enough for any right built man. There are few finer to be had. And the ages have testified well the truth of the Scripture. Who is faithful in a few things shall fall not of being ruler over many.

—Messrs. R. F. Knott, Jr., and Edward Cannady, of the firm of Cannady, Knott & Co., who will conduct the Capital City Tobacco Warehouse this season, have arrived in Raleigh. Both are welcome additions to the city's young business men.—News & Observer.

—Mr. L. Thomas proposes to give Judge Graham a $5 pig for a ride on the Oxford & Coast Line Railroad to Dickerson's by the first of September, and if he does not the good natured Judge is to roll him there in a wheel barrow. Wonder if he is a doubting Thomas?

DEATH OF MRS. LUCY COOPER,

Another one of Oxford's Sainly Women Gathered Home.

"Asleep in Jesus, bleesed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep. A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes."

Another saintly character has fallen asleep in Jesus and our town is saddened with mourning, yet in the midst of death we mourn not as those who have no hope. On last Monday morning the death angel again visited Oxford and carried to its eternal rest the spirit of one of the most estimable ladies we have ever known, Mrs. Jas. Crawford Cooper, aged 75 years, being born on August 12, 1827.

Mrs. Cooper had been very ill for several weeks and her death was not unexpected.

She was the widow of the late Jas. Crawford Cooper, for many years President of J. C. Cooper & Son Bank and leading business man of Oxford.

Mrs. Cooper was the daughter of Mr. Henry G. Williams and Elizabeth Arrington, of Nash county. Her only living sister is Mrs. J. H. Mills, of Thomasville, and her brothers were Hon. H. G. Williams, of Washington, D. C., Col. Sol. Williams, Hon. A. H. A. Williams, Capt. Jno. A. Williams, and Messrs. Thos. and Willie Williams and Capt. Samuel Williams.

She leaves seven children, Mrs. Chas. G. Elliott, Mrs. W. H. White, Miss Belle Cooper and Col. Henry G. Cooper, Mr. L. E. Cooper, of Wilson, Mr. Sol. W. Cooper and Mr. Crawford G. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper was for 47 years a consistent and leading member of the Oxford Presbyterian church. She was always zealous in everything effecting the progress of her church, and was a leader in every good work. The poor and needy never left her door without receiving help. "She despised not one of God's creatures."

She drew around her a large circle of friends, by reason of her amiable nature and her engaging social qualities.

She was possessed of much force of character and was therefore a lady of influence both in the social circle and in church work.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Jno. E. Wool, from the Presbyterian church. A large concourse of friends were present to witness the last sad rites. The floral offerings were beautiful and profuse. Mr. Wool read a selection of scripture from Psalm 45 and made some appropriate remarks, but preached no regular funeral sermon.

The choir rendered during the services, Jesus Lover of my Soul, Lead kindly Light and Asleep in Jesus.

The services were concluded at Elmwood, where the interment took place at 11 o'clock.

The pall bearers were: Dr. E. T. White, Messrs. Wash Lynch, W. B. Ballou, J. G. Hall, A. W. Graham, J. G. Hunt, Chas. W. Bryan and S. W. Parker. The honorary pall bearers were: F. P. Hobgood, L. C. Taylor, Bishop J. M. Horner, J. M. Curran, Rev. R. H. Marsh, M. V. Lanier, T. D. Clement, R. T. Smith and C. D. Osborn. The ushers were Messrs. Jno. Webb, Willie Landis, W. J. Howell, and John Booth, Undertaker J. S. Hall.

Our whole town as well as her loved ones feel the loss of such a character as Mrs. Cooper. To her own dear ones the loss is of course greatest, but her death has also left vacant a place in the heart of many a friend and admirer.

We are aware that words cannot console her loved ones in such an affliction as this; but we assure them all that they have our heartfelt sympathies.

We Thank our Friends.
We thank our friends most sincerely for the many kind expressions we are receiving, both verbally and by letter in regard to our candidacy for Clerk of the Superior Court. We are constantly in receipt of letters urging our claims and assuring us of support. We wish to say to our many friends and supporters that their support is most heartily appreciated. We shall not forget these expressions of kindness, and shall in the future, as we have tried to do in the past, so conduct ourself towards our friends and our party, that we may ever receive their approval.

In this connection we would say, in answer to many inquiries as to whether in the event of our nomination and election to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court we would still run and edit the Public Ledger and give our personal attention to the Clerk's office. To these enquiries we would answer, YES. Whether in victory or defeat we shall publish the Public Ledger and will further promise that it shall ever be, so long as we own it, the exponent of pure Democracy, and use its best efforts for the upbuilding of Oxford and Granville county.

Announcement.
I announce myself a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Granville county, subject to the endorsement of the Democratic convention. If nominated and elected, I promise to serve you to the best of my ability.
Respectfully,
W. A. BRIMPASS,
Oak Hill Township.

Passed Away.
—Mr. William Elliott, who has been in declining health for several months, passed beneath the shadows on Thursday evening last. He was the oldest son of Mrs. Sarah Elliott, and possessed a warm heart, and when he realized that his stay on earth was short he told his loved ones that he was ready and willing to be at rest. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Wool Friday afternoon from the residence of Mr. D. A. Moore, and the interment was in Elmwood. Peace to his ashes. To the bereaved mother, sister and brother we extend our condolences.

Death of Mrs. W. T. Chandler.
Some two weeks ago God in His Wisdom sent His holy angel into the home of our highly esteemed friend, Mr. W. T. Chandler, at Buchanan, and the angel's whisper was heard by his devoted wife, who answered the call by being quietly wafted into immortal life. Mrs. Chandler was a devoted christian, wife, mother and friend, and kind neighbor, and greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was ever ready to nurse the sick and aid the distressed, and will be greatly missed in her neighborhood. To our deeply stricken friend and relatives we offer our condolence, and must believe that her death has drawn them nearer Heaven, she has brought Heaven nearer them.

Another one of Oxford's Sainly Women Gathered Home.
"Sleep in Jesus, bleesed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep. A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes."

Another saintly character has fallen asleep in Jesus and our town is saddened with mourning, yet in the midst of death we mourn not as those who have no hope. On last Monday morning the death angel again visited Oxford and carried to its eternal rest the spirit of one of the most estimable ladies we have ever known, Mrs. Jas. Crawford Cooper, aged 75 years, being born on August 12, 1827.

Mrs. Cooper had been very ill for several weeks and her death was not unexpected.

She was the widow of the late Jas. Crawford Cooper, for many years President of J. C. Cooper & Son Bank and leading business man of Oxford.

Mrs. Cooper was the daughter of Mr. Henry G. Williams and Elizabeth Arrington, of Nash county. Her only living sister is Mrs. J. H. Mills, of Thomasville, and her brothers were Hon. H. G. Williams, of Washington, D. C., Col. Sol. Williams, Hon. A. H. A. Williams, Capt. Jno. A. Williams, and Messrs. Thos. and Willie Williams and Capt. Samuel Williams.

She leaves seven children, Mrs. Chas. G. Elliott, Mrs. W. H. White, Miss Belle Cooper and Col. Henry G. Cooper, Mr. L. E. Cooper, of Wilson, Mr. Sol. W. Cooper and Mr. Crawford G. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper was for 47 years a consistent and leading member of the Oxford Presbyterian church. She was always zealous in everything effecting the progress of her church, and was a leader in every good work. The poor and needy never left her door without receiving help. "She despised not one of God's creatures."

She drew around her a large circle of friends, by reason of her amiable nature and her engaging social qualities.

She was possessed of much force of character and was therefore a lady of influence both in the social circle and in church work.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Jno. E. Wool, from the Presbyterian church. A large concourse of friends were present to witness the last sad rites. The floral offerings were beautiful and profuse. Mr. Wool read a selection of scripture from Psalm 45 and made some appropriate remarks, but preached no regular funeral sermon.

The choir rendered during the services, Jesus Lover of my Soul, Lead kindly Light and Asleep in Jesus.

The services were concluded at Elmwood, where the interment took place at 11 o'clock.

MASONIC PIC-NIC AT CORNWALL.

Fine Speeches, Splendid Dinner, Large and Orderly Crowd of People.

In company with Senator Hicks we had the pleasure of attending the Masonic Pic Nic at Cornwall, Friday, July 4th, which was in every way a pronounced success.

This pic nic is held annually on the "glorious fourth," of July and is always an event which brings much pleasure to many people in Granville and adjoining counties. Everything favored the pic nic except the weather was somewhat oppressive, but in spite of this there was a large crowd present and everybody seemed to enjoy the day. The crowd was estimated at from 1,000 to 1,200 people, and one of the nicest we ever had the pleasure of mingling with.

Of course there was a good dinner well prepared and plenty for every one present.

Everything was well arranged and good humor and good order prevailed throughout the day. The officer of the Masonic Lodge installed were as follows: J. R. Hart, W. M.; Sam Watkins, S. W.; John N. Watkins, J. W.; John A. Watkins, Treas.; John Watkins, Sec'y; J. T. Hart, Deacon; L. S. Elliott, Junior Deacon; H. A. Hart, Tyler.

General B. S. Royster delivered a fine address on Masonry which was well received and highly complimented. It was a telling one and aroused the people. Short and interesting speeches were made by Rev. R. H. Marsh, Senator Hicks, Colonel Frank Hobgood and Mayor S. W. Minor all of Oxford.

The people of that section of the county seem to be in high spirits. They are a thrifty, hospitable people and always make those who come among them feel at home. For ourselves we will say that we greatly enjoyed the day, and all our people from Oxford and elsewhere enjoyed themselves.

The good citizens had made ample preparations in every way for the occasion, and the deft hand of the good women of the community had played a large part in the arrangements and preparation, as is usually the case. For no occasion of this kind can be a success without the softening influence of the gentler sex.

We left for home feeling that we had been benefited by mingling with these good and hospitable people. We say hospitable, because wherever known the Watkins, the Harts, the Winstons, the Chandlers, the Elliots, the Ragsdales, Wilkersons, and other well-known families of that section of Northern Granville are noted for their hospitality, and to this generous quality we can heartily testify. Many of the truest, best friends of the Public Ledger live in Northern Granville, and the editor has always greatly appreciated their warm support.

Romantic Marriage at Oxford.
Winston-Salem, July 3.—Quite a romantic marriage occurred in Oxford yesterday morning, the contracting parties being Miss Lottie Miller and Mr. Will O'Brien, both of whom are well known in this city. The marriage was quite a surprise to the many friends of this popular couple, only their most intimate acquaintances having any cognizance of the affair. Miss Miller had been visiting for several days at the home of her sister in Oxford. Mr. O'Brien arrived yesterday morning and the marriage was promptly celebrated at the residence of Mr. Jackson. The popular couple arrived in the city on the 8:50 train last evening.—Charlotte Observer.

A Delightful Lawn Party.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ray, on College street, was the scene of pleasure and joy on Friday night when the friends of Miss Annie Lee Curran were gathered to enjoy a lawn party, to which invitations had been issued complimentary to her guests, Miss Male Whitfield, of Henderson; Miss Foushee, of Durham, and Miss Conlors, of Youngsville. The beautiful lawn was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns and the guests spent a most charming evening. The choice refreshments were charmingly served and enjoyed.

Among Miss Curran's guests were: Miss Barbee, of Durham; Miss Reed, of Roxboro; Louise Helen White, Mamie Steed, Louise Buchanan, Jeanette Gregory, Evelyn Howell, Emma Steed, Ethel Clements, Hattie Lyon; Messrs. Will Minor, Sheppard, Pender, Josiah Cannady, Ben Hobgood, Mott Plinnix, Frank Lyon, Oscar Hawley, Tommie Howell, Frank Fort and Ben Brown.

The Best in the Cheapest.
Beware of assessment insurance. Secure a policy in an old line company. Call on Wm H Harrison, C. Howell, or Ben F. Hobgood, Jr., agents for the Maryland Life, one of the oldest and best companies in the U. S.

Will Keep You Cool.
Don't forget the fact that I am ready and waiting to supply you with good ice for the summer in large or small quantities.
May 15. R. BROUGHTON.

On The Move.

Items About People Who Come and Who Go.

—Miss Julia Winston is on a visit to relatives at Selma.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Massenburg are at Virginia Beach.

—Mr. T. Cheatham, of Youngsville, was on our streets Monday.

—Master Nick Cannady is visiting relatives in the Wilton section this week.

—Mr. C. P. Hester, of Clay, was in town Tuesday and called to see the editor.

—Major Montgomery is on a visit to Oxford, and his friends are glad to see him.

—Mr. D. P. Peak, of Berea, was in Oxford Monday and called to see the editor.

—Mr. J. Y. Husketh and mother, of Wilton section, were in Oxford Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crews spent Sunday with relatives in the Tar River section.

—Mr. Frank Blalock is at Wrightsville this week enjoying the delightful sea breeze.

—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Blalock, of Culbreth, were among the visitors to Oxford Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tilley, of Knap of Reeds, were the guest of Mr. J. R. Walters Monday.

—Miss Bemis left a few days ago to spend two months among relatives in Massachusetts.

—Mr. Matt Lqoman, who is now at work in Richmond, spent Saturday with his family.

—Miss Sue Bettie Reed, of Mt. Tirzah, is the guest of Miss Hettie Lyon on College street.

—Prof. Jack Howard, the able young Superintendent of school, was on our streets Monday.

—Miss Kimball, of Hargrove, and Mrs. B. C. Alred, of Ashpole, were on our streets Saturday.

—Mrs. H. A. Crenshaw and daughter, of Lonsburg, are visiting Mrs. Johnson on College street.

—Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Owens and fine little son left yesterday to spend a short time at Beaufort.

—Messrs. A. A. Hicks and S. W. Minor are in Asheville this week attending the Bar Association.

—Mr. C. H. Parham, of the Carlton section, was in town Saturday and called on the Public Ledger.

—Miss Josephine Wood has returned home from Windsor where she spent several months with her sister.

—Mr. W. J. Curran and two little sons, of Berea, were in Oxford Saturday and called to see the editor.

—Mr. John Paris joined Mrs. Paris at Buffalo Springs Sunday and they returned home Tuesday afternoon.

—Our old friend, W. L. Robards, of Cozart, was on our streets Saturday and dropped into see us on business.

—Messrs. West Brummitt and Ben Fuller, of Fishing Creek, were in town Tuesday and called to see the editor.

—Mrs. Tuck, who has been on a visit to her brother, Mr. T. W. Winston, returned to her home at Selma Tuesday.

—Mr. Dave Faucette has returned to Oxford from Chase City, and is again with the Taylor-Cannady Buggy Company.

—The many friends of Mr. James Osborn are glad to see him in Oxford again. He is on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Osborn.

—Mr. Ben Hobgood, the pleasant and efficient clerk in the post office, and sister, Miss Jessie, are on a visit to relatives in Norfolk this week.

—The editor was glad to meet in Oxford Monday, Mr. Leo Lyon, one of the promising young men of Dutchville Township, and a good farmer.

—Mr. Ike Breedlove, of Salem, was and Oxford visitor Monday and called to see the editor. Glad to see him out after a hard fight with Col. Chill.

—Mr. C. F. Burnett, of Hester, one of the purest and best men in the county, was an Oxford visitor Monday and we were glad to meet him in our office.

—Mrs. A. A. Hicks and youngest daughter left Tuesday afternoon for Knoxville, Tenn., where Mrs. Hicks will attend the Teachers Institute for about 30 days.

—Misses Nelle and Maggie Crnrrin will leave next Tuesday to join their mother and sister at Colorado Springs, Colorado, and we wish them a pleasant trip.

—Messrs. D. Y. and J. D. Cooper, Mrs. Jane Young and Miss Ethel Dorsey, of Henderson, attended the funeral of Mrs. Lucy Cooper Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

—Rev. W. S. Hester, who recently returned from several weeks visit to his sons at Waco, Texas, was in town Monday. He had a delightful visit, and was much pleased with Texas. He will hereafter fill his appointments.

Sam Jones' Latest.

Atlanta Journal: Watterson's on-slaught upon Cleveland reminds me of the old woman who went to her pastor for counsel and said to him, "I want to know what to do. My old man fusses and fusses and fusses at me all the time and I have come to you as my pastor to know what I must do." The good preacher replied, "My dear sister, go home and heat coals of fire upon his head." "My God Almighty," she said, "I have tried hot water and that done no good."

—Miss Florence Brem, of New York, accompanied by Miss Joy Hicks and sister, arrived in Oxford a few days ago, and will spend a few weeks at the pretty Hicks home near town.

—Rev. Skinner Laester, one of the most scholarly men ever raised in the State, and daughter, of New York, are on a visit to his mother and brother, Mrs. Lassiter and Mr. R. W. Lassiter.

—Mr. F. B. Hays, the brilliant editor of the Southern Drug Journal at Atlanta, Ga., in on a visit to his old home. His host of friends in Oxford are much pleased to see him. We think Atlanta must agree with him as we never saw him looking better.

—The editor was pleased to meet in Oxford Monday Prof. Frank Parham, who is now numbered with the fine faculty at Columbia University, New York. He is another one of the Granville county young men who has brought much credit upon his county and State. He is at home on a visit to his parents near Oxford.

Old Soldiers Fight.
At the Soldiers' Home Thursday two of the inmates, James Pittman and Pittman Harris' cousins from Franklin county, had a fight in which Pittman cut Harris' throat. The injury may prove serious. The cut is long but not deep. Surgeon Hives sewed up the wound. Harris is in the hospital and Pittman is confined to his quarters until the result of the injury is ascertained. The executive board went to the home at once and made a preliminary investigation. It will make a fuller one after the result of wound is known. The men, each nearly 70 years of age, quarreled about a pencil, which one accused the other of taking. Harris, the larger and stronger of the two, had Pittman down, when the latter in self-defense drew his knife and did the cutting. It is the first serious fight of the kind at the home and of course caused quite a sensation among the 90 inmates.

All the ladies are buying crystal crepe paper. Jackson has it, only 10c.

Tax Payers of Granville.
Equalization of Values.
The Board of County Commissioners will be in session second Monday in July same being 14th for the purpose of revising Tax List and Valuations. Those having complaints will come before the Board on that date.
C. F. CREWS, Chairman. 2t.
June 23rd 1902.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

The strike situation in the Poochontas fields was more encouraging Thursday than at any time since the strike began.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE
Taking when you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

If your chickens are troubled with lice call at this office and get a can of "Lee's Lice Killer" and relieve your fowls. Price 35c a quart. Cyphers Incubators and Brooders are the finest on the market. Write for catalogue that will give full particulars. Wade H. Britt, Agent.

Consul Livingston at Cape Hayten has cabled a request for an American warship to be sent to that place to protect American interests during the revolutionary interests.

SO SATISFYING. JACKSON'S, Old Fashion ICE CREAM.

Every one that tries it is delighted. We have all flavors. Claret is the leader just now.

OUR FOUNTAIN
is the best kept in Oxford. Quick service, the best drinks, clean glasses.

EVERY GLASS
Washed in fresh flowing water.

Comfortable seats for all.

Our line of Lowneys Candies is always complete.

T. W. JACKSON,
May 22, 1902.