

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, excite the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, souring and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. J. G. Hall.

Health is a magnet which irresistibly draws the man to the woman in life's mating time. Health does more than tint the skin with beauty; it puts music into the voice and buoyancy into the step, as well as happiness into the heart. A great many women covet beauty and are constantly seeking aids to beautify them. Let a woman first seek perfect health and all other charms shall be added to her.

There can be no general health for women while there is disease of the delicate womanly organism. The first step to perfect health is to cure womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. E. M. Stewart, of Mount Hope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreadful disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Every one who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. To-day I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicine cured me."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A negro who assaulted two white women in Knox county, Ind., was taken from the sheriff by a mob who intended to lynch the man if he is identified by his victims.

H. T. McIntyre, St. Paul, Minn., who has been troubled with a disordered stomach, says "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do me more good than anything I have ever taken. All Druggists."

Fires at San Francisco destroyed the Southern Pacific boat and ferry slips; loss over $450,000.

ARE YOU A GOING MOTHER? ARE YOU EXPECTANT?
MOTHER'S FRIEND
makes childbirth easy by preparing the system for parturition and thus shortening labor. The painful ordeal is robbed of its terrors, and the danger lessened to both mother and child; the time of confinement is shortened, the mother rested, and child fully developed, strong and healthy. Morning sickness, or nausea arising from pregnancy, is prevented by its use. As pregnancy advances, the breasts enlarge, become swollen and hard. Long before the child is born, they are preparing for the secretion of milk. It is important that they receive early attention. Mother's Friend softens the skin and facilitates the secretion of Life Fluid. Undeveloped breasts, hard-caked shortly after delivery, are the result of non-treatment, and likely to culminate in Mammary Abscess, from which so many suffer excruciating pain and are left with these organs permanently impaired. Softness, pliability and expansion are given to the muscles and sinews, thus bringing comfort and causing an easy issue of the child. Free. Of Druggists $1.00. Our book "Motherhood" free. THE QUEEN OF MY HEART.

(By Percy Bysshe Shelley.)

Shall we roam, my love,
To the twilight grove,
When the moon is rising bright?
Oh, I'll whisper there,
In the cold night air,
What I dare not in broad daylight!

I'll tell thee a part
Of the thoughts that start
To bring when thou art nigh;
And thy beauty more bright
Than the stars' soft light,
Shall seem as a welf from the sky.

When the pale moonbeam
O'er tower and stream
Sheds a flood of silver sheen,
How I love to gaze,
As the cold rays stray,
O'er thy face, my heart's throned queen!

Wilt thou roam with me
To the restless sea,
And linger upon the steep,
And list to the flow
Of the waves below,
How they toss and roar and leap?

Those boiling waves
And the storm that raves
Resemble the strife
That, from earliest life,
The passions have waged in my breast.

Oh, come, then, and rove
To the sea or the grove,
When the moon is shining bright,
And I'll whisper there,
In the cold night air,
What I dare not in broad daylight!

HAIR-PIN-PICK-UPS.

How the world admires a girl who is not boy struck?

Nowadays fathers are blocks—of the young slip.

Some men seem to think that women are nothing but pincushions.

A girl who has a round, jolly laugh has something to make the world happy.

The hardest woman to please is the one who doesn't know what she wants.

—The diet of love is a flower for breakfast, a smile for dinner and a kiss for supper. Isn't that light enough for any taste?

Meeks—The man who tries to change a woman's views is a fool.
Weeks—How do you know?
Meeks—My wife told me so.

Awoman cannot be said to have on a dress that is made in the latest style unless every one who sees her in it does not wonder how she gets it on.

Gerald—"As it is to be a secret engagement it would not be wise for me to give you a ring at present."
Geraldine—"Oh but I could wear it on the wrong hand."—Judge.

"I hear your son is reading law."
—No sir. It's a mistake. My son is sitting in the back office, with his feet on a desk smoking cigarettes."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Doctor's Little Girl—"Your papa owes my papa money." Lawyer's Little Girl—"That's nothing; papa said he was glad to get off with his life."—Baltimore American.

Doodley—Is Miss Pechis at home?
Servant—Yes, sah.
Doodley—Is she engaged?
Servant—Yes, sah, but de gentleman ain't byan dis evenin', sah. Step right in, sah.

"She's the worst sort of a gossip."
"I never heard her retelling any scandal."
—No, she leads you on until you tell it to her by wholesale, and she'll never tell you any in return."

Ida—Mabel's father thought he would discourage that young man from calling by saying that there was no coal to heat the parlor.
May—Did the scheme work?
Ida—No. The young man brought a few lumps in his pocket.

"Mum Sociables" is a diversion in the West where a fine of five cents is imposed on a person for each word he or she may utter within a given period. A drummer attended one of these affairs the other evening, and his fines aggregated seven hundred dollars and a half in five minutes.

Miss Maud Barr, an actress, has achieved fame by performing an act never before accomplished by any actress in this country. She swallowed her watch, and did it in her sleep too. She could do that in her sleep and without trying, she could probably swallow the town clock if she wanted to and went at it earnestly.

Cousin Nell—You know you told me you were going to propose to May when you called on her last night. Did she say "Yes"?

Jack Polk—Yes, she said "Yes."
Cousin Nell—Well, you don't look very happy about it.
Jack Polk—No. You see, she said it to Tom Rapidine, who got there about half an hour before me.

An Arkansas printer in making up his forms the other day got a marking notice and a grocer's advertisement mixed so that it read as follows: "John Brown and Ida Gray were united in the holy sour kraut by the quart or barrel. Mr. Brown is a well known young cod-fish at the per pound, while the article, Miss Gray has nice pig's feet which will sell cheaper than at any store in town."

Stepped on a Hot Stove.
A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment, and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. All Druggists.

Boys and Girls Married in this Country.

When the census enumerators made their last rounds in the United States they found 667 boys under 15 years who were married. This is one of the interesting facts disclosed by the census reports on the conjugal conditions of the inhabitants of this country. There were 3,785 girls under 15 years of age who were married. The infant widowers under 15 years of age numbered 43, and the infant widows 126. There were 7 divorced boys and 30 divorced girls in New York and Pennsylvania led in the number of boy husbands, each having 14. Texas led in the number of girl wives, with 37.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

The loss a man has to say in his own house the more some women will let him know he ought not to say it.

Some women are so deceptive that when they are swearing they can make you think they are singing hymns.

Widows are a rich diet highly seasoned.

Guess the serpent in the Garden of Eden was never snake to take up as much room as a fat woman.

Falling in love doesn't make as much trouble for the average man as falling out again.

Time will tell—that the woman with a secret never gives time a chance.

Girl Duped by Matrimonial Agency.

Advice received from Hickory, Miss., an inland town in Newton county, gives an account of a Mississippi girl's being duped by a matrimonial agency in Chicago.

The young lady answered an advertisement in a matrimonial paper met a man through correspondence, and finally the young man sent her a ticket to Chicago and money to pay her expenses on the trip. She left for Chicago, but upon her arrival there the young man failed to meet her at the depot.

The officers took charge of him, but upon paying the young lady $100 for her return transportation home, he was released. Accounts say the young lady has returned to her duties of her country home, and is answering no more matrimonial advertisements.

A Wedding—Family Reunion and Birthday Celebration.

The home of Esq. J. S. Coleman was the scene of a much merriment last Thursday, the 13th. Children, grand-children, relatives and friends had gathered to rejoice with Mr. and Mrs. Coleman in a birthday celebration, family reunion and wedding.

Miss Lila Reed skillfully presided at the organ and Rev. G. T. Watkins performed the ceremony. Mr. Edgar Veazy and Miss Carrie Burch, Mr. Marshall Waller and Miss Amelia Wilson, Mr. Roger Wilkerson and Miss Jennie Veazy, Mr. Herbert Washington and Miss Belle Veazy, Mr. Arthur Wilson and Miss Hattie Veazy were the attendants. Miss Coleman is pronounced one of the most charming daughters and Mr. Veazy is a worthy son of old Granville. This happy couple start in life under most favorable circumstances.

The contracting parties were Mr. Clarence Adolphus Wyche, of Roanoke Rapids, and Miss Lemme McKenzie Jordan, of Petersburg, and one of Mrs. Thaddeus R. Manning, and one of Henderson's most beautiful and accomplished young women.

The church was artistically decorated with palms and with growing chrysanthemums bearing gorgeous rainbow-tinted blooms.

Miss Emma W. Averett presided at the organ rendering Mendelssohn's wedding March as the bridal party entered the church.

The ushers marched up the three aisles in pairs as follows: Messrs. C. A. Lewis and John B. Pinner, of Suffolk, Va.; J. T. Alderman and Col. W. L. S. Burgess, of Granville; J. H. Bridgers and A. C. Zolliecoffer, of Portsmouth, Va.; Robt. Davis, of Petersburg, Va.; with Miss Maud Jones, of Farmville, Va.; Richard Wortham with Miss Margie Urquhart, of Lewiston, Va.; Wilson Mulen, of Roanoke Rapids with Miss Amy Butler.

Little Miss Katherine Pinner, fairy-like, in pink silk and lace, was flower girl, and Master Rives Manning, in picturesque costume, bore the wedding ring in a small silver tray.

The bride, who was handsomely gowned in white silk tissue, accented with over white satin, with pearl trimmings, and whose beauty was enhanced by the delicate flowing bridal veil and shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden-hair fern, entered the altar.

Miss Minna Dunlop, of Baltimore, Md. Miss Dunlop wore white silk and lace and carried pink carnations.

The groom and his best man, Mr. David Traynham, of South Boston, Va., joined the bride and her maid of honor at the altar.

Immediately after the ceremony a handsome reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents. This was quite an elaborate social function, as over 300 cards of invitation had been issued.

Bad Taste in the Mouth

When you get up in the morning with a coated tongue and a bad taste in the mouth, you may or may not be seriously ill, but if there is any disease going, your system is just right to catch it.

We know what you think—first you are half persuaded to try Vinol, and then you say to yourself: "That's the same story all the medicines tell; I've heard it before."

But Vinol is not like other medicines. If it were, we shouldn't be talking about it in any special way.

If you will regulate your bowels with Vinol and take Vinol to improve your digestion and assimilation of food, these troubles, with the headache, "liver complaint," neuralgia, rheumatic pains, and nerve troubles will disappear as by magic.

We pay back the money if it doesn't help you.

Capt. W. H. Snow, postmaster and the veteran manufacturer of High Point, died at his home there Tuesday night of last week at 11 o'clock. He had been in failing health for several months.

It is asserted by some persons who say they have inside information that F. H. Whitaker, who was during the last campaign chairman of the independent movement in North Carolina is to succeed Oscar J. Spears as assistant United States district attorney.

President Roosevelt says: "The question of the so-called trusts but one of the questions we must meet in connection with our industrial system. There are many of them and they are serious, but they can and will be met. Time may be needed for making the solution perfect, but it is idle to tell this people that we have not the power to solve such a problem as that of exercising adequate supervision over the great industrial combinations of today. We have the power and we shall find the way. We shall not act hastily or recklessly, but we have firmly made up our minds that a solution and a right solution, shall be found and found it shall be."
