

SCROFULA

I bequeath to my children Scrofula with all its attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young.

This treacherous disease dwarfs the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties.

Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body.

S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely effective, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong, and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise and help you in every possible way to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases free.

OXFORD PUBLIC LEDGER.

The Present Legislature.

Mr. A. J. Maxwell, Chief Clerk of the Senate, writing to his paper, the Anglo-Saxon, says: "There are some distinguishing features of this legislature. The most notable is the predominance of the young men. But there is an abundance of good talent, sense and experience. It is made up more largely of men of one political faith than any which has assembled since the war. There was something said a few days ago about its being 'drunk with power.' But nothing could be said which was further from the truth. Its conservatism is most notable. Instead of being 'drunk with power,' it rather appears to have been sobered by a sense of its power. This is always true of sensible men when entrusted with authority."

The Monticello, N. Y., woman who tired of her husband, had a very effective way of disposing of him. She cut up the body and cremated it while the bones were ground up and fed to the chickens. We never heard before that ground husband's bones would make hens lay, but perhaps this lady has a new recipe.

Advice is like castor oil—it is one thing to prescribe and another thing to take it.

It's an easy matter to fill teeth; all you have to do is to kick a savage dog.

Society people are seldom punctual. Even their clothes are of the latest style.

Eight fires were raging at the same time Wednesday in Tampa, Fla.; the total loss was about $50,000.

This Will Interest Many.

B.) quickly cures old ulcers, scrofula, eczema, itching skin and blood humors, cancer, eating, festering sores, boils, carbuncles, pimples or offensive eruptions, pains in bones or joints, rheumatism, catarrh, or any blood or skin trouble. B., thoroughly tested for 30 years in hospital and private practice, and has cured thousands of cases given up as hopeless.

A salesman for a New York jewelry firm committed suicide in New Orleans Wednesday.

The Easy Pill.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers do not grip nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation and inactive livers, by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organs involved, and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble. J. G. Hall.

Negro servants came under the head of unbleached domestics.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

The only positive cure for blind, bleed, itchy and protruding piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema and all abrasions of the skin. DeWitt's is the only Witch Hazel Salve that is made from the pure, unbleached witch hazel—all others are counterfeits. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is made to cure—counterfeits are made to sell. J. G. H. II.

Most men who consider themselves big guns are only smooth bores.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING

When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic be sure the formula is printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

A Weak Stomach

causes a weak body. A stomach disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures and strengthens the stomach, and wards off and overcomes disease. J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." J. G. Hall.

A Legacy of the Grip

Is often a run down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys.

Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves built up the system, and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. G. Hall.

THE OLD RELIABLE

For The Women.

Fashion's and Other Items of Interest.

Kissing Girls.

Some folks may recall the fact that a few years ago a collection of rather amusing stanzas of doggerel went the rounds of the press on kissing. These stanzas purported to give briefly, if not poetically, the manner in which the fair damsels of various cities go through an osculatory performance, and they were interesting, at least to those of the male persuasion. Recently a Peoria (Ill.) "poet" has constructed some doggerel along similar lines which are decidedly cute. Here they are:

"The PEORIA girl says never a word, 'And you'd think she was rather tame With her practical view of the matter in hand, But she gets there just the same."

"The ABINGDON girl the pride of the State, In her clinging and cheerful way, Absorbs it all with a yearning look As sweet as the new-mown hay."

"The ELGIN girl gets a grip on herself As she carefully takes off her hat, And grabs 'em up in a frightened way, Like a terrier shaking a rat."

"The CHICAGO girl on tiptoe stands, Her lips so rosy, tempting and red; You take her cheeks in both your hands And let her go Murphy—Gallagher's dead."

"The KANKAKEE girl catches a man's mustache With a grip as tight as glue; And opening a little her ruby lips, Pulls the kiss on like a shoe."

With due apologies to the Peoria poet, I would like to add the following doggerel to his outburst:

The CONCORD girl wastes no time on frills, Nor does she stiekle for style, She grasps her admirer around the neck And the "smack" can be heard a mile.

The CHARLOTTE girl, in her sweet, trustful way, Takes 'em slow, as her soft lips quiver, A soft light in her eye, and a prayer and sigh—"That this rapture could last forever!"

The RALEIGH girl takes careful aim For fear the mark she'll miss, Then throws back her head, shuts her eyes And giggles—"Oh joy! Oh, bliss!"

The WILMINGTON girl is the girl for me, It's a chance o'er which she'll groan; She gathers her skirts, with a cry of glee, And plunges right down your throat.

You Will Be Happy if Well.

Paine's Celery Compound

Bestows that Health and Vigor that Makes Living a Pleasure.

If you are sick and out-of-sorts, it is in your power to make yourself healthy, strong, and happy.

There is not the slightest reason why you should go through life feeling sickly, miserable, languid, and melancholic. To be well and strong, means happiness and true joy.

If you are sleepless, rheumatic, neuralgic, dyspeptic, or have the shadows of disease hovering over you; if you are not as bright, energetic, and strong as you were some weeks ago, the use of Paine's Celery Compound will tone up and fortify your whole system, cleanse the blood, correct digestion, sharpen the appetite, and conduce to restful sleep. Thousands once in a half-dead condition owe their present good health to the use of Paine's Celery Compound. Mr. Wm. S. Gibson, of Pleasantville, Ky., who, through sickness and suffering, was brought near the dark grave, writes as follows, regarding his marvelous cure:

"I have been broken down in health and strength, nervous system shattered, kidneys out of order, had nervous and trembling spells off and on for the last ten years. I have taken three bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound and all of the above-mentioned troubles have left me, and I can now do a good day's work. I go about my business all day long and it don't worry me, and I now feel better than I have in ten years. I have a good appetite, and can eat and get around on foot as active as when I was a boy. My age is 65 years."

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy. Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. All Drugists.

Greatest Thing in the World.

The love of a man for a maid has been sung in song and exalted in story from time immemorial; the devotion of a mother for a child has been held by novelists and dramatists to be "The Greatest Thing in the World," but it remained for a recent American writer to point out the greatest of all love—the love that endureth forever, viz: the love of a father for his daughter. The writer in question, H. T. Peck, says this, in his contribution to the February Cosmopolitan:

"The love of a father for his daughter is, I think, the very purest love that earth can know, the love that comes the nearest to what we all imagine the divine love to be. The love of a husband for his wife when it endures the storm and stress which mark the period of mutual adaptation, is wonderfully beautiful; yet it had its birth in passion, and the memories of its early years remain to keep it very human. The love that is given to a father or mother is strong and deep and lasting; yet it lacks the exaltation and supreme emotion which are necessary to the love that has no flow. The love of a father for his son is intense and overmastering; yet there is a touch of personal pride, of almost conscious egotism, in it, which renders it not wholly selfless and serene. But the love of a father for the girl child who has been born to him is more than any other love on earth, in its purity, its unalterable constancy, its power of self-sacrifice, its profound delight, and its infinite tenderness."

And the father, who can gaze fondly upon the baby girl nesting in his arms, or hear the pattering of the tiny feet and the exultant cry of delight as she toddles forward to the door to welcome "daddy" home, will exclaim, with Lord Byron, "He calls this love, and it is love."

THE NEW YEAR!

The Johnson Warehouse, Oxford, N. C.,

Has been given up as the place for farmers to sell their tobacco. Each pile, good or bad, fine or common, brings top market price every sale—no piles neglected, no piles overlooked. Glad to say that wrappers continue to sell well and, along with other grades, always bring top-crust prices on the Johnson floor. The rich and the poor, the big farmer and the little farmer, receive equal justice at the Johnson. I have no "special pets" but am surely a true friend of all. If hard work during the new year, honest dealings and highest market prices for every pile and all grades of tobacco count for anything, then everybody should sell at the Johnson. Sure as you are born the Johnson Warehouse is the place to sell tobacco. I take this opportunity to warmly thank my farmer friends for their very liberal patronage during the year just closed, with the hope that I shall continue to merit their confidence and esteem. Wishing each and every one a happy and prosperous New Year, I am,

Yours very truly,
T. W. LYON, Prop'r Johnson Warehouse.
