

Story of Local Events.

Moving Pictures of a Weeks Happenings.

—Mr. A. Baker is putting up a new fence around his garden.

—The Oxford Graded School has received $100 from the Peabody Fund.

—Good afternoon to you, Mayor Devin, and the Board of Commissioners!

—Dr. S. D. Booth is now calling to see his patients in a new Taylor-Cannady Buggy.

—Mrs. C. D. Ray delightfully entertained the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon.

—Miss Mabel Royster is teaching a pay school in the Graded School building and has 20 odd scholars.

—Mr. Sam Hobgood has purchased the Collins cottage and will remove it to his lot on East Front street.

—Mr. E. W. Jones, who has been numbered with the sick for a week, is out to the pleasure of his friends.

—Read change in Jackson's advertisement as he has made important changes for the benefit of the ladies.

—Quite a number of improvements are contemplated in different parts of Oxford during the summer and fall.

—Dr. T. L. Booth has put up a new fence around his back yard and is building a bath room at the end of his residence.

—Dr. and Mrs. B. K. Hays are now occupying the old homestead, and Mrs. Holly has moved back to the Hays cottage.

—With a nice new Hotel, Electric Lights, Water Works and mudless sidewalks Oxford would be strictly an up-to-date town.

—The commencements of Oxford's fine schools will take place the last two weeks in this month, and are all ways largely attended.

—Mr. E. C. Harris exhibited to us Monday a young chicken with 4 well developed legs, the two extra ones were on the rear of the back.

—The editor was delighted Saturday to meet on the street little William Webb, the bright and pleasant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Webb.

—Prof. S. H. Hodgkin, superintendent of the Oxford Graded Schools, has purchased a lot in Greensboro and will build a residence in the future.

—Pleased to learn that Mrs. J. B. Williams, who has been real sick, is some better. Her daughter, Miss Temple, of Washington, is at her bedside.

—Franklin Classical Institute closing exercises will take place May 11th and 12th. North Carolina's great Educational Governor will deliver an address on Tuesday the 12th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

—We call attention of our readers to the advertisement of sale of a real valuable tract of land by Mr. L. Thomas, which is in a high state of cultivation, nice dwelling and all necessary outbuildings.

—We are of the opinion that the recommendation of the Grand Jury at the last term of the court as to the enlargement of the jury box in the court room is timely and needed. It can be done at little cost.

—Clerk of the court Wm. Russ says that there are now 250 civil actions pending in Wake county. The calendar was never more crowded and lawyers are telling their clients that they cannot get a case tried inside of a year.

—Mr. E. C. Beddingfield, of the Corporation Commission, will be in Oxford next Wednesday, 13th, to meet the County Assessors and instruct them as to the assessment of real estate. Don't forget to attend Mr. Assessor.

—Dr. Moore, one of the fine ministers of the Methodist Conference and Presiding Elder of this District, filled the pulpit of the beautiful Methodist church Sunday morning and night and his sermons were interesting and instructive.

—The closing exercises of the Colored Graded School will take place at the Opera House Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, 11th, 12th and 13th, under the direction of Rev. W. A. Pattillo and his excellent corps of teachers. You are cordially invited to attend.

—Rev. Mr. Joyner, Dean of the Raleigh Convocation, was in Oxford Sunday and occupied the pulpit of St. Stephens church Sunday night, while Rev. Royal Shammouhouse, of Statesville, who with his charming young wife is on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Lacroix, occupied the pulpit in the morning and preached a capital good sermon.

—Elaborate arrangements are being made for the entertainment of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows upon the occasion of its annual meeting in Wilmington on May 12th-14th. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, a past grand master in the order, has consented to deliver the address of welcome in behalf of the Odd Fellows of the city and Mayor W. E. Springer will welcome the visitors in behalf of the city at large.

—Mr. John Mayes organized the string Club Monday afternoon and instructed the members in the art of using a string in many different ways. Commissioner Nat. Daniel was present and showed the boys how to make Jacob's ladder. No doubt some of the single members of the club will have a number of strings to their bows during the beautiful days and evenings with captivating and entrancing summer girls.

—What is the matter with "Old Grover"? Is he actually bidding for the Presidency again? We are opposed to him, as we verily believe he is responsible for the Republicans being in power to-day.

—It seems that friend Daniels, the versatile editor of the News & Observer falls to glance over the Oxford Public Ledger as he has here for a long time written for extra copies of the "Public Liar," as our dear Populist friends in ye olden days use to call it.

—Dr. S. D. Booth, who has so faithfully served for two terms as Health Officer, was re-elected Monday by the Sanitary Board for another term. Dr. Booth is vigilant and progressive in the discharge of his duties, and the health of the county is safe in his hands.

—The Sunday's Edition of the News & Observer was a patriotic one, white and blue and red (and all over). Friend Daniels continues to be progressive and the News & Observer continues to grow in the hearts of the liberty loving people of the Old North State.

—Mrs. John Booth and her musical class gave a most enjoyable entertainment at the Graded School building Monday night which was largely attended. The program was interesting and well rendered, which showed that the young ladies had undergone most excellent training under the skillful Mrs. Booth.

—There was a run-away marriage at the Exchange Hotel Sunday morning, when Mr. H. C. Fore, of Fort Mitchell, Va., and Miss Georgia H. Harris, of Saxe, Va., became one. Rev. J. B. Williams performed the ceremony in the parlor of the Hotel. The couple was accompanied by Miss Susie Harris and Mr. J. A. Oliver friends of the bride and groom.

—We thank Prof. F. P. Hobgood for an invitation to attend the annual commencement of Oxford Seminary, which will commence Sunday morning May 17th in the Baptist church. Rev. R. C. Beaman, the distinguished divine, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon, Monday at 12 o'clock. Gov. Aycock will deliver an address before the Literary Society.

—The Oxford people, both white and colored, had their time occupied Monday night in attending different kinds of meetings as follows: Series of meetings at Methodist church, Masonic Communication, Military Drill, while our colored people attended in large numbers the first night commencement exercises at the Opera House of the most excellent Mary Potter School.

—The May number of the Cosmopolitan is an interesting one, presenting a fine list of contents, handsomely illustrated. The ladies especially will be interested in the article entitled "Power and Beauty in Woman's Eyes," (copiously illustrated), while the agriculturist will find much information in the article "Marvels of Corn Culture." These are but two of many attractive articles. Address "The Cosmopolitan, Irvington, N. Y."

—Temperance Lecture Sunday Afternoon. Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, Vice-President of the North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will address the people of Oxford on Sunday, May 10th, in the Methodist church at 3 o'clock p. m. The public is cordially invited. Front seats will be reserved for children.

—Mrs. Cartland is a native Carolinian, a woman whose fine native ability has been cultivated and enriched by a liberal education and whose conception of mind and soul since her early childhood to the cause of God, home and humanity have given her an influence wide and beneficent. For eight years she was the President of the State W. C. T. U. and in this capacity has given the best efforts of her life to aid in the destruction of the liquor traffic and the upbuilding of the home. She is a graceful, forceful and pleasant speaker and always leaves the moral standard higher and the moral atmosphere purer wherever she works for the Master. Let Oxford give her a fine audience.

—Charter Carried. The Charter for the Graded School was ratified, as it should have been and as we knew it would be. There was only one vote cast against the school charter. It will be seen from the above that it was carried almost "unanimously." We are glad to say that more and more our people are impressed with the importance of public education, and especially with the importance of good Graded Schools. This is, indeed, the foundation stone on which rests the progress of a town. No town can build up which has not a progressive spirit. There can be no progressive spirit without a graded school.

—FOR RENT.—Two-story dwelling of Mrs. Lyon on Raleigh street. J. B. ROLLER, Agent.

—Glad to learn that our old friend R. W. Day, who has been quite sick, is a little better.

—Superintendent Fleming is getting in some good work on Philpot hill with his road force.

—Mr. Eugene Crews is adding another story on the back part of his dwelling on Broad street.

—The Cotton Mill is now getting right down to business and is turning out a large amount of yarns.

—Superintendent Worth at the Cotton Mills has a young high bred mare that can out trot any thing in these parts.

—The hot municipal fight that was on in Durham between the "wets" and "drys" resulted in a victory for the latter at the election Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rogers and daughter, Miss Estelle, of Creedmoor, and nephew were in Oxford Tuesday. Miss Estelle is only 9 years of age and weighs 157½ pounds.

—Rev. F. W. Hilliard will hold service and preach in St. Paul's church, Goshen, on Sunday next, May 10th, at 11 o'clock a. m. All persons are cordially invited to attend.

—Ho for the Carnival at Raleigh over the Seaboard Road! A special train will leave Oxford Thursday morning at 7:30 for Raleigh returning that night. Get ready and go.

—What is the matter with "Old Grover"? Is he actually bidding for the Presidency again? We are opposed to him, as we verily believe he is responsible for the Republicans being in power to-day.

Mary Dean Wheeler, Contralto.

The Southern States Lyceum Co. will present Mary Dean Wheeler, Contralto, in her choice selection, "The Holy City," which will be illustrated with $52 ft of moving film at Opera House this Thursday night. This film was made expressly for her and is copyrighted. The second part of the entertainment will consist of a beautiful, illustrated, descriptive program entitled "A Tour of the World" and "A Voyage to the Moon," after which Mrs. Wheeler will entertain the audience in a series of classical and illustrated ballads. Read advertisement in another column, and be sure to attend as you will hear something good.

Greatly Pleased With Oxford.

Col. Hugze, General Superintendent of the Seaboard System, accompanied by Division Superintendent Hicks, General Engineer Gwaltney and Roadmaster Elmore, was in Oxford Saturday afternoon inspecting the terminal of the Seaboard road here. Col. Hugze, in company with Judge Graham, rode over a portion of Oxford and he expressed himself as greatly pleased with our town. Col. Hugze said to the editor: "I had no idea Oxford was as large and attractive as it is, and I imagine that it is a delightful place to live in." We found him a pleasant gentleman, naturally most quite popular with the people and employees, which accounts for the popularity of the great Seaboard system.

Pleasant Entertainment.

Some of the young men of Oxford gave a most enjoyable party on Friday evening at the graded school building, and many games were enjoyed by the young people. Choice refreshments were served during the evening. Among those present were Misses Annie Crews, Antoinette Taylor, Janet Gregory, Addie Jackson, Emma Steed, Ethel Clements, Mary Felt, Sophie Taylor, Louise Mitchell, Edna Spencer, Irene Hines, Elvora Williams, Mildred Taylor, Mary Taylor and Jeannette Biggs. Messrs. Crawford Cooper, Marlon Taylor, Ben Smith, Henry Cooper, Eugene Crews, James H. Hester, Mark Taylor, Ike Brown, Leon Hines, Marshall Pinck, Nick Cannady, Bert Taylor, Roy Wright, Ernest Bragg, Henry Taylor, Edward Fort, Baldy Williams, George Rawlins, John Williams, Will Moore and Edward Cannady.

Their Crystal Wedding.

We received with much pleasure, the news of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daniels, of Raleigh, which took place on last Saturday evening the 2nd inst, being the 15th anniversary of their marriage. We regret very much that we were unable to attend. We learn that the occasion was a most pleasurable one and very largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels were the recipients of over 300 handsome presents, which attests in a small way their popularity. The reception held was attended by hosts of friends from different parts of the State. During the evening delicious refreshments were served.

May many more years of happiness be allotted to our good friend and his estimable wife and may all their years to come bring to them joy and prosperity in the sincere wish of the editor.

At Work on the Roads.

The county convicts, with Supervisor Fleming in charge, are now at work on the public road beyond the cotton factory. We are glad, indeed, that work has at last commenced on Granville county roads. This work was never more needed anywhere and we hope it may be prosecuted with vigor.

As our people remember, there have been two attempts made by Granville County Commissioners previous to this to work the roads of the county by convicts. But each attempt was shortly abandoned by the people demanding better roads; and of any consequence was done. Let our worthy Commissioners not allow this to occur again. Let them not grow fatal or indifferent in the great work they have undertaken. We certainly need better roads and the people demand better roads; and it is the duty of our Commissioners under the law to give us better roads, which we feel sure they will do.

Let the whole people, our Commissioners and our Supervisor pull together towards this end.

Mary Potter Memorial School Commencement.

This has been a gay week for the colored people of Oxford, the occasion being the commencement of the Mary Potter Memorial School. The commencement exercises this year, commencing on Monday night and continuing through to Wednesday night, have been full and very interesting. The students of this excellent school acquitted themselves in a manner which is highly creditable to themselves and to Rev. G. C. Shaw and his corps of teachers. Those who attended the exercises say they were of a most interesting character.

We are glad to know of the continued success of this splendid school for the colored people. Rev. Shaw deserves much credit for the work he has done. He has the confidence and respect of the people of both of the North and of the South. We rejoice at his success in Oxford. He is a wise and safe leader for his race and has done a good work for their advancement. He is a great believer in practical education, whether it be in a school or in general technical education. In his sphere he occupies the same position as Booker Washington and does largely the same work.

We are glad to note that every year his school is increasing both in number and in efficiency. It is the result of real merit and well-earned popularity among his race. We wish for him and his school continued prosperity.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes Dr. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe, only 25c. at J. G. Hall.

Royally Entertained.

The Thursday Afternoon Club was was royally entertained on Thursday last by Mrs. E. T. White in her pretty home, assisted by Mrs. Kate White. The house was handsomely decorated with palms, evergreens and roses. Flinch was enjoyed and the refreshments were elegant and delicious.

The guests were Mrs. Wm. Devin, Mrs. S. H. Cannady, Miss Hall, Mrs. Massenburg, Miss Horner, Mrs. A. A. Hicks, Mrs. Dalby, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Emmett, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Roller, Mrs. Chewing, Mrs. C. H. Easton, Mrs. Henry Hunt, Miss Mary Outlaw, Mrs. Rawlins.

Municipal Election.

The election for Mayor and Commissioners in Oxford Tuesday was the greatest ever known as no body seemed to take any interest in it as there was no opposition, and Mayor William W. Davis was re-elected. The voters were: John W. Mitchell, W. H. Hunt, C. H. Landis, J. R. Wood, and E. H. Crenshaw had a regular walk over. There was a light vote cast as many people failed to register.

The vote on bonds for water works and electric lights was also light, 80 being cast for bonds and 33 against. Water works will prove a great blessing to Oxford in many respects and between water and electric lights we believe a large majority of the people prefer water works in case both are to be put in.

Hurrah for Oxford and our progressive Mayor and Board of Commissioners.

Below are given the prizes awarded in the graded school so successfully conducted under Prof. S. H. Hodgkin.

A prize of five dollars in gold, given by J. T. Britt for the highest average in scholarship, attendance and deportment, was won by Miss Allene Minor, with a grade of 99.25-56. She was neither absent nor tardy during the entire session.

The prize for most improvement in drawing, given by Miss Daniel, was awarded to Mr. Charlie Dorsey.

A prize of two dollars and a half in gold was given by Mrs. Fleming to Master James Taylor for best scholarship in second grade.

A prize of $1.00 was awarded to James Ellington of the same grade for most improvement in writing.

Letter to W. T. Potress, Oxford N. C.

Dear Sir: You naturally want to make your own and your customer's money go as far as possible. So, in the general interest, we tell you why fewer gallons of Devco Lead and Zinc will paint a house than mixed paints.

Let's suppose you are using lead and oil. Instead of lead and oil you put in four fifths whitening, lime, water, and other stuff that doesn't paint at all, but that against a gallon of lead and oil, and what will it do? One-fifth as much.

How much of your labor is wasted? Four-fifths. How good a job will it make? Non-comparison. How much good will it do you in your business to turn out such a job?

And so on.

Devco Lead and Zinc paints a house with fewer gallons than mixed paints, and wears twice as long as lead and oil.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devors & Co.,
New York.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gulleidge of Verbeia, Ala. was taken from a horse from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucken's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It cures aches and kills pain. 25c at J. G. Hall.

Meeting at the Methodist Church.

A series of meetings have been in progress at the Methodist church here during the past week. Rev. J. D. Pegram has been doing the preaching and our people have been more than delighted at the very strong, practical and eloquent sermons he has delivered. For some time we have known of the excellent work Mr. Pegram has been doing as pastor on the Granville circuit, and have regarded him as a good preacher, but until last week our people did not know of the wonderful gifts of a thinker and preacher, having not had the pleasure of hearing him many times before. By common consent the splendid series of sermons he has preached here lately stamp him as one of the strongest preachers in the North Carolina Conference.

His sermons are vigorous and logical and full of gospel truth. His methods are safe and he is never sensational. He resorts to no clap-trap methods, but preaches the plain gospel, depending upon the Holy Spirit to do the work.

Our people are, indeed, fortunate in having so true and so gifted a man to preach to them, and our friends of the Granville circuit are also fortunate in having so excellent a pastor and preacher to minister among them. He has done a great work for his churches in the county. Such a man is a mighty power in any community.

The meeting will continue through this week. Presiding Elder Moore preaching at night and Rev. J. D. Pegram in the afternoons at 4 o'clock.
