How Exquisite.

Women of fine tastes show ter paper, and the color, texture, seal crest, or date or local name may all reflect this. tant meetings next Monday. There is immense variety of sorts of elegant and correct letter paper as textures in goods.

A Good Beginning

Is half the battle in an oral or writing argument. You can't pen or old thick ink. You want the best. The stationery must be right, and every made or handled.

your selection.

Hall's Drug Store,

Main Street, 'Phone 72

"We Hold Thee Safe."

THE FIRST

Oxford, N. C.

will always be considered and cause to complain of places to find fall hats for they have them from taken care of.

on savings deposits.

LYNCH'S

Jewelry Store.

Fobs, Chains and Lock- former Superintendents. ets, in solid gold, gold There was a fair break of tobacco don't it? filled and silver.

A fine selection of ladies' and gents' rings.

Special attention to repairing. Yours respectfully,

W. D. LYNCH,....

little Pick-ups.

Some Interesting ₩ News Items in This Column.

-The roof of the Furniture Factory has been repainted.

"-Durham and Henderson are in the midst of campaigns against the

-Be sure to attend Miss Mary to-day (Thursday). -The non-taxable property of Granville county amounts to the large sum of $300,000.

these refinements in their let- been quite sick some days, we are supposed to have been the work of glad to learn is some better.

—The County Commissioners and Board of Education will hold impordesign and color, and as many tion as they seem to be determined to improve the streets of Oxford.

-Two of the old buildings near the jail were bought by Ed Ridley, and have been torn down and removed. -Mr. H. H. Eatman commenced work being in charge of Mr. A. B.

-It is to be hoped that the street cordially invited to attend. leading from Main to the Seaboard depot will soon be opened as it is

-Mr. J. D. Kinton, near Oxford, do yourself justice with a poor brought to this office Saturday a to- tracted illness. He was 58 years of Thence north-east to Will Hicks' bacco leaf that measured 36x21 inches age and had made his home in Dur- corner. 1 and weighed half pound.

-The son of Mr. Lee Caviness, of Hester, who was injured last Wed- morning. adjunct of the proper charac- nesday by a frisky mule, is all right now we are glad to learn.

-A lady from the country, accom-Our stationery, inks, pens panied by her little daughter, brought and pencils are the best ever a load of tobacco to market Friday Mayes who is ever alert for the good

You will enjoy looking over -The street in front of the Presby- his work rapidly and well. our fine stock and making terian church and Seaboard depot the Baptist church will be macad-

The editor is much pleased to hear so many people speak in high praise of the work done on the public Ledger to say that in the past few Mr. N. H. Fleming.

-Mr. Charles Parham, near Oxford, who has reached his 87th year, and regretted to lose them, while no doubt delivered speeches on conglomerated display of notions consisting in their old neighbors accorded them subjects in true ethiopian style. Al- hosiery, corsets, hamburgs, handkera warm welcome to their old home. together it was a very good show.

-Mr. John Webb has completed the improvements to his nice residence on Main street, and is now numbered among the most convenient in town.

which to select what is wanted.

Four per cent. interest paid —Don't allow money to lie around.

It is easier to spend it and easier to lose it. Save money by keeping it in Remember that the U.S. a safe place such as the National Bank of Oxford When you have a bank account you will be anxious to add to it, rather than decrease it. per cent, interest paid on time de-> comfort to realize that he is again at home and his services can be secured ders for hats. Yours to please, LONG BROS. by the large and appreciative constituency he ministers to.

—The number of the beloved boys and girls attending the Graded School has run up to 120, and still they come. We have just received a new lot of Brooches, Scarf Pins, Buttons, The editor asked one of the pretty girls how she liked the new management of the school, and she replied: "All right, but Superintendent Kitterli was stricter than either of the terms."

> stiffer. The editor can say that Ox- gallons. ford has the credit of being the best averages on all grades of tobacco, and you've got to pay twice as much await the next term of court. so our farmers would do well to bear for putting it on. this particular fact in mind.

Broke Into His House,

S. Le Quinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of New Life Pills broke into his house, his other $54. trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at J. G. Halls,

-And new suscribers still come the Public Ledger way every day. Send along a dollar bill and capture a A large supply of stationery at rea chance at the $65 buggy the editor duced prices at Hamilton's drug Jeweler. is giving away, in the advertisement of R. L. Hamilton, Druggist, on this page.

-John G. Hall wants to sell you your stationery as he has received a an elegant assortment. Read adver- The Postmaster, tisement on this page.

-Don't forget to send in your dollic Ledger is giving away. -There is certainly enough money spent on the road to ruin to keep it in thorough repair, and yet it is as bad as a Granville county road in the Jackson's is the place to buy choice as follows: confectioneries, fruits and stationery Belle Gregory's millinery opening and we ask you to read his advertisement in another column.

-Mr. A. S. Jones, who lives near Grissom, lost his feed room one day Thence north to the corner of last week containing a large quantity -Mrs. Preston Farabow, who has of feed and farming utensils. It is an incendiary.

-The Public Ledger is authorized to say that the people along the Durham & Northern Road in South Granville hereafter need have no fears -Hurrah for the town administra- about making connection in the mornings at Dickerson's for Oxford as arrangements have been perfected to insure connection.

-Rev. J. E. Wool, the earnest pas- Area covered (square miles)....... 23 work on his new house Monday, the work being in charge of Mr. A. B. commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The regular series of meetings in the church will begin on the 11th and continue to the 18th. The people are

-Mr. Baldy Hatchett, a wellknown old newspaper man and Con- Thence north to Critcher's corner 2 federate Veteran, died at the Soldier's | Thence north-east past Dexter P. Home, Raleigh, Sunday after a pro ham for many years at which place Thence west to O'Brien's corner the interment took place Monday Thence south to Blackwell's cor-

-Prof. J. C. Howard and most estimable lady have moved to Stem, Thence double back to Crews' and his new school opened up on Monday in a nice new building under Thence south-east to Critcher's very favorable auspices. Mr. John and sold it at the Farmers Ware- of his community, was chairman of the building committee, and has done Thence south-west to Hester's

-The Banner Warehouse is not beand the block on Spring street up to hind on selling tobacco as will be Thence double back to Oxford seen by the following good averages made Friday: E D Lyon, one load roads under the superintendency of days several large orders for Gran-there is a better feeling as to prices. This will be good news to the farmers who had the misfortune to fall in and they can rest assured that they May and break one of his legs, is gradually improving.

and they can rest assured that they will reach pinnacle prices on all grades by selling on the Oxford Market. by selling on the Oxford Market.

Sunday morning and night. Quarpresent Mr. Wm. Bullard, as he is so the solution of the second beautiful present Mr. Wm. Bullard, as he is so the solution of these routes will be good news to the farmers and we trust the average railroad man is void of, they will do all they can to make or at least take particular pains not | them a success.

-The first show of the season to Musical Comedy Co. Tuesday night her fall opening Thursday Oct. 1st and the four Bullocks proved charm- and cordially invites the ladies of the He has added a good basement and the building is heated by hot air.

—Sheriff Fleming and family are now fully settled in their old home at Hester after 4 years residence in Oxford and their many friends here received several encores. The little Miss Bullock proved a charming actives and did her part to perfection. Senators Hardback and Wayback of price possible. There will also be a received speeches on conglomerated display of possible. There will also be a delivered speeches on conglomerated display of possible.

-The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.

W. A. Parham, Jr., died last Wednesof the Board of Education of our prompt and polite attention Invites your business. No account too large, none TOO SMALL; same attention paid to all.

It was about 3 months old and had never been in good health. The editor joins their many friends in extending deep sympathy to the best to all.

county to say that a contract should be made with every teacher employed to to teach in any public school in the county. A copy of said contract shall be written in the record book of the district in which said teacher to the district in which said teacher to the state.

Our Fall Millinery Opening

Well, don't I?

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y. has two houses alike and in same condition.

Better go by the name. Yours truly F. W. DEVOE & Co.,

New York.

store.

-You are asked to read the change FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PEOPLE.

Three More Delivery Routes Out From

Oxford, Granville Co., N. C. Sir:-You are hereby authorized to lar and secure a chance in the $65 extend Rural Free Delivery Service Taylor-Cannady Top Buggy the Pub- from your office, to commence on Monday, November 2, 1903, with three additional carriers, at a salary of $600 per annum, each, including horse hire. The routes to be followed, as laid down by Acting Special Agent Veazey in a report dated April 15, 1903, and which will be known as Routes No. 4, No. 5 and No. 6, will be > Beginning at the post office in Oxrier will go Lewis' station.....

> Thence south to west of Puckett's corner 2 Thence northerly to Mountain Creek bridge...... 5 Thence westerly to Bally shop Thence southerly to Satterwhite's

Total length of route 231/4

residence to post office...... 51/2

Beginning at the post office in Oxford, said county and State, the carrier will go Thence north-east to Mrs. Parham's corner.....

O. to Green's corner

Thence west to Breedlove's mill corner corner 2 Thence south to Breedlove's cor-corner Thence south to C. H. Landis' corner..... 1 post office..... 1½

Thence south-west to Tally Ho.....10

Millinery Opening. appear at the Opera House was the Miss Mary Belle Gregory will have chiefs, belts and neckwear, etc. Call on Miss Gregory before buying as prompt and polite attention.

to all.

—All the millinery stores in town are making preparations for a grand display of fall fashions at their openings today. The ladies of Oxford and sured that THEIR interests will always be considered and save to complain of places to find. colored citizens of the county, was going home from carrying her fath-er's dinner about 1:30 o'clock, she was met in a path by John Bass, col-To be a brilliant spectacle of art and ored, a married man, who made an beauty today (Thursday.) Our millinder proposal to her. He seized her by the hand and pulled her back tion-will shine brightly. It is alto-down the path while she hollowed gether natural to associate our store and tried to get away from him, but with ideal and correct headwear. Its Bass held her fast. Ed Jones, anstandard has been very high; its mod- other colored man of the neighborels the acme of millinery skill, and hood, happened to be on the other the delight of those who know and side of the bushes, on his way home, Dosits.

—Dr. and Mrs. B. K. Hays returned dial invitation is extended to the ladiscovered what was going on and Sunday afternoon from Buffalo dies of both town and country to at- ran up and took the girl from Bass Springs, where Dr. Hays has been tend our opening to-day, Thurday, and accompanied her home. He then scene of joy and gladness Tuesday afresident physician for the summer. and our Miss Wellman will take pleas-It is no doubt a great pleasure and ure in showing you and receiving or-her father who left for home at once, 100 neighbors and friends from Granand after hearing the circumstances ville and Person counties assembled of the assault from his young daugh- to join the family in celebrating the ter returned and had a warrant is Golden Wedding of the aged and Letter to L. F. Day, Oxford, N. C. sued for Bass who was soon in the greatly beloved Mr. and Mrs. How-Dear Sir: The way to reckon the custody of Sheriff Howard.

cost of paint is to put both costs together; the cost of the paint and the cost of putting it on.

It would save this country hundreds of millions of dollars a year; it would save you alone (if you happen would save you alone (if you happen to be save you alone the cost of paint is to put both costs are was much indignation expressed by both colored and white at the bold act of Bass. The trial were the recipients of many valuable presents which attested the very high esteem in which they are held by their many friends. Choice reto be a victim) several dollars a year. B. S. Royster appeared for the pros-See how it works. It costs as ecution and Senator A. A. Hicks for enjoyed by all present. The editor much to put on one paint as another,

There was a fair break of tobacco
Tuesday and prices were a little Tyes, if you use the same number of

The same number of the Wood considered the evidence suffi- wishes for them many more years of cient to send Bass on to court and happy wedded life. They are among allround market in the State and is always in the front rank on highest lons of adulterated paint as of Devoe; he failed to give and went to jail to loved people.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our litt'e daughter had an almost fatal Painted one house with Devoe, 6 gal- attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," dice, I consulted a number of physicians lons. Painted the other house with writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no a paint that was half adulterated, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed relief Then I began the use of Electric 12 gallons. Same painter, Geo. Gil- we saved her life with Dr. Kings New Dis- Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a Chronic Constipation. When Dr. Kings bert, did both jobs. One cost $27, the covery. Or neice who had consumption in disease that had me in its grasp for twelve an advanced stage also used this wonderful years" If you want a re isble medicine for medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's 118. Dr. King's New D scovery as to no other guaranteed by J. G. Hall. medicine on earth, Infallible for coughs P. S .- J. F. Edwards sells our paint. and colds. 5oc and $1 bottles guaranteed by J. G. Hall Trial bottles free.

> Another big lot men's and boys' cent linen collars at Medford's.

7riends & Strangers.

An Interesting List ¥ Of Those Who Came & Went,

was in Oxford Wednesday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Hicks Overton, of Creedmoor, were in Oxford Friday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burwell, of ford, said county and State, the car- Sunset section, were in Oxford Mon-

-Mr. and Mrs. John Niles left yesterday on a visit to relatives in Wash-in town Monday and called on the Public Ledger.

terian minister of Vance county, was on our streets Tuesday. Long Bros. again, and his old friends are glad to see him back.

-Mr. Frank Kelley, of Knap of Reeds, was in Oxford Monday and called on the Public Ledger. -Misses Hales and Harper, of Smithfield, were the guests of Mrs.

H. H. Eatman the past week. -Mrs. G. A. Coggeshall, of Henderson, was in town Monday visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Niles.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. V Wade, of the editor enjoyed a visit from Mrs. have stationery in boxes or in bulk Messrs. A. G. Fleming, successful use. merchant at Northside, and B. T.

Harris, a pleasant merchant at Hester, were in town Tuesday. -Misses Pattle and Annie Boyd, ho were the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

very efficient Register of Deeds, is —It is a pleasure to the Public ford, said county and State, the car-Ledger to say that in the past few rier will go

Beginning at the post office.

Beginning at the post office.

Miles.

Miles.

The post office in the post office in the post office in the post office. Beginning at the post office in Ox- again at his post after spending two

Thence east to Oxford P. O 1 Prof. and Mrs. F. P. Hobgood. The editor is much gratified to learn that

The many friends of Mrs. B. C. Allred in Granville will be pained to learn of her critical illness at her home in Jonesboro. Several members of the family are at her bedside.

—Presiding Elder Moore occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church Synday morning and night. Overcomes a benedict and makes some good lady happy.

Confederate Veterans. Monday, October 5th, is the date for the meeting of the Confederate Veterans of Granville county to complete their arrangements to attend the Reunion at Raleigh October 20-22. It is hoped there will be a large attendance and Granville will send a good delegation to Raleigh, All Confederate Veterans living in the county are invited to attend.

A. W. GRAHAM, Commander.

The editor learns with regret that

Rev. R. B. Owens, Rector of St. Stephen's church, has accepted a call and will soon move to Rocky Mount, where he will take charge of the Episcopal church. Mr. Owens came to Oxford five years ago. Under his care St. Stephen's has greatly prospered, and the membership steadily increased. It is with much reluctance that the church gives him up as its members all recognize his efficient service in the church. Since his connection with the parish the handsome new church has been erected, and largely through his untiring efforts. Mr. Owens has made a host of friends in Oxford who will regret to see him and his estimable wife and bright little son leave Oxford. We hope they may be pleased with their new home, and that Mr. Owens may be as successful there as he has been

Rev. R. B. Owens to Leave Oxford.

Celebration of Golden Wedding. The old home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Howard, near Culbreth, was the Confessions of a Priest.

"For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaunhave ever handled are on display in our stationery department. You should see them before you buy. HALLS DRUG STORE.

Secretary Audubon Society.

We are glad to learn that Prof. T. Gilbert Pearson, of Greensboro, Sec. retary of the Audubon Society, will be in Oxford at an early day in the interest of the Society and will probably deliver an address upon the aims and purposes of the Society which is seeking to protect the birds of the State.

He will see to the appointment of a game warden for this county whose duty it will be to see to the enforce--Mr. A. J. Harris, of Henderson, ment of the law. We hear that several parties have already been shooting partridges, though the season does not begin until the 15th of October. The grand jury will probably -Miss Hallie Mayes, of Stem, has have considerable work along that entered Greensboro Female College. | line at the November Term.

Largest Break of the Season.

On Friday Oxford assumed its old -Mr. James Cobb, of the American time business air as the farmers roll-Tobacco Co., was in Oxford Thurs- ed in from every direction with tobacco and the turn of the trucks on -Mrs. John Hunt is on a visit to the five warehouse floors was sweet music to the business man's ears, her father, Mr. Thomas Pittard, at while broad smiles covered the faces of the warehousemen. Large crowds attended the sales and some good averages were made as better types of tobacco were of--Mr. R. T. Critcher, of Berea, was stiffer and the demand for the crop has greatly increased as several large School Supplies, orders have been placed on the Ox--Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott and children, of Oak Hill, were on our streets Friday.

-Rev. E. P. Bradley, a Presby--Rev. E. P. Bradley, a Presby- our farmers will be certain to reach the highest averages obtainable on Book Bags, the Oxford Market. From what we can learn good wrappers will fetch The pleasant Mr. D. Hunt is with as high or higher prices than last year as Granville county produces. the finest wrappers grown in the

Our farmers are aware of the fact that the buyers on the Oxford Market always take pleasure in paying the limit on all grades, and hence it is money in their pocket to sell their crop on this market.

A man is known by his letters, and it is important that the letter you send be written on good paper. You must use clear ink and a good pen Stem, were in Oxford Tuesday, and that makes the letter a credit. We and plenty of other things for writers HALL'S DRUG STORE.

> The most beautiful collection of JAPANESE WARE ever brought to Oxford is on sale at STEDMAN'S DRUG STORE.

The ladies are especially invited to see this ware.

Oranges, at Jackson's.

and Crackers.

CAPUDINE CURES Also sea sickness and Travelers Nausea, diz-ALL HEADACHES releadache, neu-ralgia. Has no effect on brain or hea. 10c, 25c and 50c a bottle, (Liquid.)

Resources Over $300,000.00.

SAVINGS BANK.

holders Over

$165,000.00.

Responsibility of Stock-

ABSOLUTE SAFETY.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, Interest compounded Stationery twice each year,

And writes Fire and

4 PER CENT.

Life Insurance. We appreciate any business entrusted to President. Some of the handsomest goods we E. T. WHITE, Cashier.

Drugs, Candies, Toilet Articles,

Perfumes.

And in fact everything desirable in the line of Drugs, Stationery and Toilet Articles can be found and purchased at the lowest reasonable prices at HALILTON'S DRUG STORE.

Don't forget the Special Rebate Offer extends to Nov. 1st. R. L. Hamilton.

FRUITS.

MALAGA GRAPES, first of the season, nice Mellow Eating Apples, Bananas,

Cakes

Sponge Lady Fingers, Na-biscos. Social Teas, Cheese Biscuit, Mushroom Crackers, Milk Biscuit, Uneeda Biscuit, Carolina Mixed Cakes and Pretzels at Jackson's.

Candies.

Our line of Candies is complete, and every pound is guaranteed fresh or your money back. Don't be fooled by candy offered as "just as good," but come to the only confectionery in Oxford—that is

Jackson's.

And school supplies constantly received. We can suit you in this line.

Next to Bank of Granville,

Oxford, N. C.