STATIONERY

How Exquisite.

Women of fine tastes show these refinements in their letter paper, and the color, texture, seal crest, or date or local name may all reflect this. There is immense variety of design and color, and as many sorts of elegant and correct letter paper as textures in goods.

A Good Beginning

is half the battle in an oral or writing argument. You can't do yourself justice with a poor pen or old thick ink. You want the best. The stationery must be right, and every adjunct of the proper character.

Our stationery, inks, pens and pencils are the best ever made or handled.

You will enjoy looking over our fine stock and making your selection.

The Oxford Canning Co. is doing a good business their first season. They shipped a car load of tomatoes to Raleigh Monday.

Strayed off—Red sow, weighs 200 with two rings in her nose. Last seen going toward Jordan place. Reward for return to Louis de Lacroix.

The dispensary in Raleigh was carried by 194 majority, and Henderson is expected to fall into line as it is the best solution of the liquor question.

Mr. Wm. H. Harrison has moved his law office up stairs in the Hunt building over Littlejohn's barber shop, where he will be glad to see his friends.

Mr. A. A. Hicks has purchased from Mr. R. W. Lassiter the Banky Gee store house on Hillsboro street, next to the Hunt building, and will some time next year build a nice law office on the ground.

Miss Zada Ferguson and Mr. Calle Tippett, of Wilton, surprised their relatives and friends Sunday by riding off to Mt. Carmel church and getting married. The editor joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

The streets of Oxford were thronged last Thursday with ladies attending the attractive millinery openings of Landis & Easton, Long Bros. and Miss Mary Belle Gregory. The displays were the finest witnessed in Oxford for years and met with many compliments at the hands of the fair ladies.

The editor is gratified to learn from Superintendent Worth that the Oxford Cotton Mills will start up again Monday and the hands are working in daily. This is good news as our cotton farmers can sell their cotton at the mills at the highest market price as they are in immediate need of several hundred bales.

We call attention to the quarterly report of the Oxford Dispensary made by Treasurer H. M. Shaw and Manager R. Broughton elsewhere in this issue. This report is very good considering the dull season which it covers. We dare say that no dispensary in the State is better managed than the Oxford Dispensary.

Attention! lest you forget the fact that this is the last chance you will get at a $65 Taylor-Cannady high-grade top buggy given away by the Public Ledger, so you had better send along your order right away if you want to stand a chance to win the buggy. Who knows but what you may be the lucky winner?

Thomas Downey, colored, who was caught in the store of Mr. L. T. Buchanan at Creedmoor Sunday night, was brought to Oxford Monday morning by constable Cash and lodged in jail. He implicates other parties in the robbing of the store on two separate occasions. Wonder if they are not the same parties that entered the residence of Mr. W. H. Daniel?

The Rev. Wm. Black, evangelist of the Synod of North Carolina, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock and again at 7:30 at night. He will continue through the week preaching twice each day at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Mr. Black is a forceful speaker and a fine preacher. The public is cordially invited to be present at all the services.

Two Sundays ago while Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daniel, who lives near Creedmoor, were from home attending church some person entered their residence and stole a small amount of money only. It seems they did not want anything else as the money was the only thing missed. This is proof that people should not keep money around the house, and should deposit it in one of the safe banks of Oxford.

It seems that some people who do business in Oxford prefer to patronize out-of-town firms than to leave their dollars with those who are doing all they can to build up and push the town forward. It is the burden duty of every good citizen to first patronize the business enterprises of his own town thus keeping money in circulation among the very people whose patronage he daily seeks. Why not help build up the town you make your living in instead of other towns?

Another Rural Delivery Route has been established in Granville and will be put in operation the first of November. It will go out from Hester and take in the Mt. Energy and Wilton sections. Mr. Ed Dalby will be the carrier. By establishment of this new route Southern Granville will enjoy first-class mail facilities, and the Public Ledger feels sure that the people along the new route will render Mr. Dalby every encouragement and help make it one of the best routes in Granville.

Letter to Oxford Cotton Mills, Oxford, N. C.
Dear Sirs: This story cuts two ways, and teaches two sets of people. Father Galvin, Westley, R. I. had his church and residence painted. Good job; and this is how he went at it. Measured all carefully—seems to have known Devoe.

Then got bids from the painters, paint to be supplied by them and by him. Saved $70 by using Devoe. One of those painters ought to have got that money.

Yours truly

OXFORD A LIVE MARKET.

Good Breaks and Highest Averages the Watch Word.

The farmers have commenced to market their tobacco in earnest and the warehouses enjoyed large breaks Thursday, Friday and Tuesday. The sales are live from the start in the morning until late in the afternoon, as there is strong competition on the Oxford market. The Oxford Ledger is very glad to note that prices are some better and good averages are being made. It cannot be denied that Oxford is the best and most reliable market in this territory as it has a corps of warehousemen and buyers that cannot be excelled. The Friday's sale was a particularly live one as two of the American Tobacco Co.'s general buyers were in Oxford and bought the weed right and left. Tuesday's sale was a regular hummer, and a number of fine averages were made, as from $18 to $45 were scooped in for wrappers. Common grades continue to sell very well and upon the whole the Oxford market is now in fine shape, ready to buy all the tobacco that comes. But let it much better not to make Tuesday's and Friday's special sale days and overwork the warehouses, when they can sell just as well Wednesday's and Thursday's. Be certain to remember the important fact that no tobacco can be sold in the Oxford market on high averages and kind treatment of the warehousemen and buyers.
