BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY.

Resignation of Pastor Hardaway, Who Has Accepted a Call to Newman, Ga.

On last Sunday morning Rev. J. S. Hardaway, of the Baptist church, preached a special sermon to the Granville Grays. The company, which is composed of as handsome a set of young men as are to be found in the State, attended in a body, with Captain W. A. Devin, and also Adjutant General Royester, Col. S. W. Minor, Majors Willie Landis and W. E. Massenburg, and the other officers of the Grays, all dressed in uniform and looking "their best."

Mr. Hardaway delivered a very appropriate and able sermon, his subject being "A Good Soldier of the Cross," which was received with deepest interest by every one present.

After the sermon a special conference of the church was called, when Mr. J. S. Hardaway offered his formal resignation as pastor of the Oxford Baptist church. The announcement was received with deep regret by the church and was accepted with much reluctance, and only because it was known that Mr. Hardaway's resignation was a sacrifice which he followed in the conference meeting was enough to show the affectionate esteem in which the pastor is held. Almost the entire audience was melted in tears. The severance of so strong and tender a connection as pastor and people, and especially where a pastor was so much beloved as Mr. Hardaway, is indeed sad, especially after a pastorate of over twenty years. His departure from Oxford is a distinct loss to the town as well as his church. He is a strong and useful citizen and a true Christian gentleman, and is greatly beloved by all the people of Oxford without regard to denomination or class.

He goes to Newman, Ga., where he accepts a pastorate of Central Baptist church. Newman is a town of six thousand people and the church is a strong and growing one. He will leave Oxford about November 1st. The editor regrets to see Mr. Hardaway and his estimable family leave Oxford, but wishes them much pleasure and success in their new home.

DISTRICT MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Interesting Exercises Sunday in the Methodist Church.

The Woman's District Missionary Society of the Raleigh district convened at the Oxford Methodist church on last Saturday and continued through Sunday. There were a number of delegates in attendance. Among the best known missionary workers in attendance were Mrs. B. F. Dixon, of Raleigh, who is president of the district, and Mr. B. B. Adams, of Four Oaks, Johnston county. The discussions on missions by the ladies were of a very interesting character and were much enjoyed by the people of Oxford. Rev. Hino-bara, a young Japanese minister who is attending Trinity College, preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The service was held in America only that length of time, yet he speaks the language fairly well and was heard with interest.

On Sunday afternoon the meeting of the Bright Jewels was held. Miss Lillian Miller delivered the address, which was responded to by Miss Saddle Roberts, of Raleigh. A well arranged and interesting program, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., was rendered by the little ones and much enjoyed by the large assembly.

Mr. Galloway, of the Raleigh exercises was a missionary address by Mrs. Dixon, president of the missionary society, which was very instructive. A Woman's Home Missionary Society was organized with a dozen or more members enrolled.

Mrs. Dixon was elected president of the district society.

Miss Mary Pescud, of Raleigh, a missionary from Brazil, delivered an address Sunday night on missionary life in that country, which was followed by a short speech by Rev. Hino-bara.

Altogether the meeting of the society was a very successful one and much interest was manifested in the subject of missions.

Meeting at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Mr. Black, the noted Presbyterian evangelist, arrived in Oxford last Sabbath and occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and night. He comes to add the pastor in a meeting which continued through last week and will probably last through this week. Services are held at 10 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 at night. The public are cordially invited to attend these services. Mr. Black is a preacher of much power. His work has been greatly blessed in other towns where he has held meetings. We should make a rush for the double operation of all the people of the different denominations for without such co-operation no man can hope to accomplish much.

Reorganization of Cotton Mills.

The reorganization of the Oxford Cotton Mills on account of increasing the capital stock to $175,000 took place Monday afternoon. The new plan was a great deal for Oxford as a large number of our people are deeply interested in its success.

Mr. W. A. Erwin, the well known cotton mill man of Durham, was elected president, and Dr. E. A. White, late of Tennessee, was elected secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors elected are Messrs. W. A. Erwin, E. T. White, J. G. Hall, B. N. Duke and Lock Erwin, which is a fine array of business men, and the mill is now on a solid basis and ranks among the best mills of its size in North Carolina.

Mr. Lock Erwin, the secretary-treasurer, has a large experience in the management of cotton mills, and is an exceedingly pleasant gentleman, and in the name of the good and clever people of Oxford the Public Ledger extends a cordial welcome to Mr. Erwin and family to our pretty town, with the earnest hope that their stay among us will be both pleasant and profitable.

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get E. C. Bitters, it's guaranteed by J. G. Hall.

OXFORD FULL OF TOBACCO.

Largest Break Friday Seen in Oxford in Years.

Since the last issue of the Public Ledger large quantities of tobacco has been sold on our up-to-date market, and our warehousemen and buyers have been exceedingly busy. Each day our five large warehouses enjoyed good breaks, and fine tobacco reached as high as $45 per hundred, and many high averages were made in the face of low prices and a common crop of tobacco.

Friday's break was a record breaker as every warehouse was run over with the weed, and sales were continued Saturday. It is estimated that there was between two and three hundred farmers on the market who watched the sales very closely.

The Farmers Warehouse enjoyed the distinction of having the largest break, with 601 piles on the floor, with the Minor a close second with over 500, while the other houses were full. Prices so far as we could judge remained about the same. Mr. Eugene Crews, the auctioneer, performed the great feat of selling over 1800 piles of tobacco in 7 hours and 20 minutes, which is a hard to excel. Mr. R. J. Hart at the Johnson proved equal to the emergency and made a rapid sale. The amount paid out Friday by the banks in the face of low prices amounted to over $12,000.

Monday witnessed another fairly good break, while Tuesday was a regular old time warehouse being again full of the weed.

It seems that the farmers have determined to market their crop and they can always rest assured that our warehousemen and buyers will endeavor to reach the very highest prices obtainable at all grades, and hence it is to the interest of their pockets to sell their crops on the old reliable Oxford market which stand at the head of the list.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. You ask me how you should get the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.
