—Mrs. J. C. Howard, of Stem, was in Oxford Wednesday.
—The American Tobacco Co. has a new dray on the streets.
—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Hearst who has been seriously ill for some days is no better.
—The attention of our readers is called to the change in the advertisement of J. G. Hall druggist.
—We are glad to learn that Mr. C. D. Osborn, who has been quite sick during the past week, is much better.
—Your attention is called to the change in the advertisement of John P. Stedman the great liver pill manufacturer.
—Dr. S. Rapport, the eye specialist, can be consulted at the Osborn House Wednesday November 4th. Glasses skillfully adjusted.
—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper Friday night Oct. 30th. Don't forget the date and be sure and come.
—Superintendent Fleming and his road force have moved out on the Salem road and are now busy putting the worst part of it in first-class order.
—Mr. Dorsey Mangum, of the Creedmoor section, now pulls the reins over one of the finest pair of dark bay horses in the county, and he is quite proud of them.
—A western religious conference adopted resolutions asking the legislature to abolish capital punishment. They are known as the "strong door." Judge Peebles is the man for the business.—Greenville Reflector.

—Miss Mary Pseud, a returned Missionary from Brazil, will be at Salem church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. It is hoped that a large audience will be present to hear her tell of the people in that heathen land.
—Mr. J. P. Bradsher, of the Shady Grove section, who had the misfortune two weeks ago to fall from a scaffold badly spraining his right ankle as well as hurting his back was in town Monday on crutches accompanied by son Willie.
—Oxford is a regular hummer as a tobacco market as our warehouses again enjoyed large breaks Monday and Tuesday. There is no use talking farmers will sell their tobacco on the market that "coughs up" the highest averages, which Oxford never fails to do.

—The following averages were made Tuesday at the Banner Warehouse is emphatic proof that Bullock & Mitchell are hustlers after high averages: R. J. Jeffreys $44.75, 12%, 37%, 11%, 5.50. Averaged 17 cents. Walker & Mitchell $6.10, 11%, 40, 24%, 9, 5.60. Averaged 21.10. Mrs. M. E. Newton $5.10, 8%, 40, 11%. Averaged 25%.

—Mr. W. H. Hunt and Miss Cora Bobbitt were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bobbitt, in Fishing Creek township, by Rev. J. R. Pace. After the ceremony the wedding party left for the home of Mr. D. Y. Hunt where a sumptuous supper was served in honor of the happy couple.

—It is a pleasure to the editor to learn that the Taylor-Cannady Buggy Co. captured the first prize on buggies at the State Fair, which is proof that this up-to-date plant cannot be excelled in the manufacture of high grade vehicles. The fine exhibit was under the admirable supervision of Messrs. Hillman Cannady and T. W. Winston.

—Good averages continue on the Oxford market as will be seen from the following loads of tobacco sold at the Owen Warehouse Monday and Tuesday: E. W. Wilson $7.30, 15, 10%, 9%. C. G. Mangum $6.60, 8%, 9%, 20, 28, 38. W. W. Grissom $7.94, 42%, 20, 10%. Average $25. A. T. Moore $7, 20, 14%, 30, 8. R. L. Burnett $10.15, 35, 9, 8%. D. G. Crews $6, 10, 40%, 24, 12—averaged $23.

—One of the fine Poland China pigs of E. B. Cozart, near Stem was missed on the 2nd instant and given up as lost or stolen, was found on Sunday, 25th hung under a fence, still alive, making 22 days without food or water. Mr. Cozart supplied promptly food and water and the pig is doing well. This is a remarkable case, and shows the endurance of Mr. Cozart's breed of Poland China hogs.

—In the last issue of the Public Ledger it was stated that the children from the Oxford Ophan Asylum would attend a complimentary matinee given by the Ted E. Faust Minstrel Co. at the Opera House Monday afternoon, but after more mature consideration, Col. Hicks, the Superintendent of the institution, decided that it was best to decline the offer, which was done with thanks to the company for its kind and liberal proposition.

—At the trial Monday at Creedmoor before Squire J. N. Tilley Mr. Robt. Hester, who was charged with being implicated in the robbery of the store of Mr. L. T. Buchanan, proved by his mother and sister that he was at home at the time the robbery was committed and was discharged. The editor is glad to learn such is the case, and it should be a warning to young Hester to shun all bad company in the future in order that such charges cannot be brought against him.

At both these entertainments choice refreshments were served. Our young people have commenced the season with a round of social entertainments which will be kept up during the winter.

—North Carolina continues to go to the front in the States. Rev. W. B. North, now presiding elder in Missouri, has received the degree of doctor of divinity.—News & Observer. The Public Ledger is much pleased to note the promotion of Rev. W. B. North to such a responsible position as a large church as carried the highly accomplished Miss Roxie North, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stem, of this county.

—If Judge Peebles sentences his editorial critics for contempt of court, the North Carolina Press Association will have its annual meeting in jail instead of in Washington. Our only defense is that it was impossible for us to express our contempt of the court.—Charlotte News. To which the Public Ledger says amen! If Judge Peebles was a Republican judge the few papers that are now as dumb as an oyster would be up in arms for his impeachment.

Death at Creedmoor.

The many friends of Mr. R. D. Royster, who passed away Monday night suddenly. His death was a shock to the people of Creedmoor, although Mr. Royster's health had not been good since the death of his wife some months ago. He was a resident of Oxford for out two years, moving here from the Berea section and entering the grocery business, and made many friends among our people. He was a brave Confederate soldier, a warm-hearted, generous man, member of the Missionary Baptist church and greatly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a quiet, good citizen, kind and affectionate father, and leaves behind three daughters and one son to mourn his demise.

The funeral and burial took place at Creedmoor Wednesday attended by a large number of relatives, neighbors and friends. The editor joins many friends in extending heartfelt condolence to the bereaved ones. May he rest in peace.

Sudden Death of Mr. H. R. Gooch.

The people of Hester section of Granville county were deeply shocked Monday about 1 o'clock when it was announced that their neighbor and friend, Mr. H. R. Gooch, had suddenly passed beneath the shadows while out in the lot feeding his pigs. It was oh, such a sudden blow to his loved ones, and almost impossible for them to realize that he had fallen "in Jesus" with almost a smile on his face, as he worshipped at the shrine of the Great Redeemer. It is supposed that Mr. Gooch died from heart disease while feeding his pigs, closing forever on earth his exemplary life and sent the keen arrow of grief to his wife and children, family, neighbors and friends. To the bereaved wife who now sighs "for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still" and two sons the editor, who greatly esteemed the departed, sends his deepest sympathy. But words are so cold when the "heart bleeds in the valley of death."

Mr. Gooch was about 65 years of age, a consecrated member of Bullock Methodist church, and a steward for 20 years, and a prominent Mason. Many people knew what a brave Christian he was, what a brave soldier when his country called, that he was a successful farmer, that he was faithful in all the relations of life, with a cheerful social nature and kindly, gentle heart. Generous to the poor, charitable to the stumbling, and one on whom people could depend. He was a useful citizen in many ways, as well as a good man, and will be greatly missed in his community.

He leaves an affectionate wife and two devoted sons, Messrs. W. S. Gooch, member of the Board of Commissioners, and Walter Gooch, a most exemplary young man, to mourn his sudden death.

The funeral and burial took place Tuesday at the grief-stricken home, conducted by Rev. W. H. Puckett, in the presence of a large concourse of neighbors and friends, the closing ceremonies being conducted by his brother Masons. As the mound was finished they sadly left our much esteemed friend with the "winds by day to mourn his solemn requiem, and the evening stars by night to keep over him their eternal vigils."

"What is death?"
Past its dark mysterious portal
Human eye may never roam;
Yet the hope still springs immortal
That it leads the wanderer home.
Oh, the bliss that lies before us,
When the secret shall be known,
And the vast angelic chorus
Bids us welcome at the throne."

ON LIFE'S JOURNEY TOGETHER.

Pretty Marriage of Miss Willie Skinner and Mr. Dempsey Grimes.
One of the prettiest marriages in Oxford for years was celebrated at St. Stephen's church this Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock when Miss Willie Skinner, one of Oxford's sweetest and most attractive young ladies, became the bride of Mr. Dempsey Grimes, a popular and talented young lawyer of Washington, and brother of Austin Grimes, of Washington, John Hill Tucker, Ed Landis and Robt. Lassiter, of Henderson, and Frank Plunk, of Oxford. Next the dame of honor Mrs. Willie Crews, sister of the bride, entered the church handsomely attired carrying a bouquet of flowers.

The pretty bride elect then entered accompanied by her brother Mr. Hugh L. Skinner, of Smithfield, elegantly gowned in beau de crepe embroidered applique, veil caught up in her hair, a nosegay of flowers, a shower bouquet and a basket of fruit. From the vestry room came the many groom elect accompanied by his brother, Mr. Junius Grimes, of Washington, who acted as best man. At the church the groom received from his brother who gave her away, when the impressive marriage service was performed by Rev. R. B. Owens, assisted by Rev. Francis Hilliard.

Leaving the church to the music of Mendelssohn's march the bridal party left for the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Skinner, where many warm congratulations were extended the happy couple, after which they left for the Seaboard depot and took their departure for the home of the groom at Washington followed by the very best wishes of a host of friends and neighbors. The presents were numerous, costly and handsome and especially the chest of silver by the Grimes family. Those who attended the wedding from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Skinner, of Smithfield; Mrs. Smith, of Raleigh, sister of the groom, and with Hon. Bryan Grimes, was the guests of Judge and Mrs. A. W. Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Landis, of Henderson.

Final Sermon and Review of Work.

Rev. J. S. Hardaway preached his final sermon at the Baptist church last Sunday morning to a large and appreciative audience, which was a very impressive one. He reviewed briefly his work in Oxford for the past twenty-one years showing the progress made and the hindrances encountered. He thanked his church, as well as the people of Oxford, for their many kindnesses to him, and gave to the church some wise words of fraternal counsel for the future, asking them to love and stand by their future pastor. A large portion of the congregation wept freely during the sermon. His work for the Oxford Baptist church has been most successful—one of the longest and best pastorates in the State. As he enters upon his new field at Newton, Ga., he does so conscious that he has not labored in vain for the cause of Christ while in Oxford.

On Sunday afternoon at 3:30 about fourteen persons were baptised by pastor Hardaway and admitted into the church which was a fitting close of the great and lasting work he has done in Oxford for the cause of the Blessed Redeemer.

A High Class Show.

The appearance of the Ted E. Faust Minstrels at the Opera House last Monday evening was one of the most successful theatrical events of the season. A packed house greeted them and the applause was intense throughout the performance. The general opinion here is that this was the best minstrel show ever given in Oxford. The scenery was beautiful and the entire program was of interest. The singing, dancing and the jokes were all up to the highest standard in minstrelsy. Few shows on the road of this kind have such a splendid band. The jokes were new and "catchy" and the show throughout was without an unrefined feature. The acrobatic performance was new and novel, the actors all being children and very young men.

The leading comedians, "Gov." Bowen and "Pop" Carr, were among the best we have seen on the stage. They were cheered several times, as were also Castle, Collins and Glen de Bruin. We hope this very excellent show may come to Oxford again, where they will always receive a hearty reception.

Stomach Trouble Causes Heart Trouble.

Heart trouble is almost always caused by stomach trouble. The stomach fails to digest all the food, and the residue ferments, forming excess of gas which distends the walls of the stomach, causing a pressure on the nerves and arteries that lead to the heart. This causes the heart to palpitate or skip a beat occasionally, or both, which is usually very alarming, causing grave apprehensions. Rydals Stomach Tablets will prevent this trouble. They digest the food and prevent gas from forming in the stomach. If there is no gas in your stomach your heart will not trouble you. J. G. Hall.

—Misses Mary and Edna Wood, two of Clarksville's fascinating young ladies who were the pleasant guests of the Misses Gregory the past week, returned home Monday.
—Mr. Walker, of Danville, and Supervisor of buyers for the Continental branch of the American Tobacco Co., was on our market Thursday, but we are glad to say his presence on the sales did not make tobacco sell lower.

There was a very large attendance of friends and relatives of the very popular couple to witness the nuptial. Preceding the entrance of the bride party there entered in couples 18 fair young ladies, friends of the bride, dressed in white organdies wearing black picture hats, and took their seats on the chancel, these being: Misses Annie Taylor, Charlotte Britt, Lullie Biggs, Fannie Gregory, Mrs. B. K. Hays, Misses Belle Thorp, of Oak Hill, Susan Hays, of Graham, Margaret Hilliard, Maud Parham, Rosa Crews, Bennett Gregory, Jeannette Biggs, Lena Taylor, and Misses Sue Roberts, Magdalene Landis, Nannie Landis and Carrie Landis, of Henderson.

Mrs. H. W. Lassiter presided at the large pipe organ and rendered with ease and grace the wedding march as the beautiful bride party entered the sacred edifice. The young ladies were followed by the ushers: Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, of Raleigh; Messrs. Austin Grimes, of Washington, John Hill Tucker, Ed Landis and Robt. Lassiter, of Henderson, and Frank Plunk, of Oxford. Next the dame of honor Mrs. Willie Crews, sister of the bride, entered the church handsomely attired carrying a bouquet of flowers.
