CLOTHING.

Every man and boy wants a nice spring suit of clothes that fits well, looks well, wears well and can be sold at a reasonable price. We have them. The ordinary clothing has nothing in its favor except its price and when the usual poor fit and wearing qualities are taken into consideration, it really isn't worth what it costs, either to the dealer or to the wearer. This is so because it loses its shape and fit after a short time, becomes shabby and makes the wearer dissatisfied with his purchase. Business isn't built through making dissatisfied customers. It is built through making satisfied ones. That is just what our brands of clothing does. Clothes Every garment is brimming over with "vim" and "go,"

The fabric, fit and finish are unsurpassed. "Don't fail to give us a look before buying,"
