Miss Gregory's Violet Luncheon. The Oxford correspondent of the Raleigh Post, writing under date of April 23, says:

One of the most beautiful as well as most delightful social affairs of the season was on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Janet Gregory gave a "Violet Luncheon" at her home on College street, this being the celebration of her eighteenth birthday. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. An exciting game of hearts was enjoyed, after which the guests were invited into the dining room, the color scheme being violet, the table decorated in lace with violets and lilac in profusion. A purple -Mr. A. P. Harris, of Virgilina, parasol was suspended over the table, from which was stretched streamers of violet ribbon.
