Mr. Gooch Dead.

OXFORD, N.C. THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1904.

This morning there was a death on Lyon street in the Eastern part of the city. Mr. Russell Gooch, who was in the employ of Cole & Shipe, died of consumption. He was about 50 years old. The remains will be taken this afternoon to Oxford, where, tomorrow, they will be laid to rest in the family burying ground near that place.-Durham Sun, 14th.

Mr. Gooch was a former resident of Granville, a son of Mrs. Lucy Gooch, who died about two weeks ago in Charlotte, and a brother of Mr. Albert Gooch, who passed away about three weeks ago at his home in this county.

Our readers thing that anyone can demand for health will remember that Judge R. B. Pee- and cleanliness bles instituted these proceedings against the entire bar of Lumberton on account of alleged unfairness against him and failure to make up a calendar for his court. The case was called at Fayetteville Monday, but upon motion of respondents was moved to Robeson WHERE can your money buy more goods county which, of course, was the proper place for the trial. The respondents are very ably represented by a bright array of counsel and so is Judge Peebles. The demurrers to Il.
