Later he was taken to the residence of Mr. T. B. Pendleton and improves very slowly.

OSBORN HOUSE BURNED.

Caught From Kitchen and Totally Destroyed.

About 3 o'clock Tuesday morning the two-story kitchen of the Osborn House was discovered enveloped in flames and the alarm was sounded. Owing to the lateness of the hour a large number of our citizens did not hear the first alarm and did not arrive until the hotel was being eaten up by the fire. Those who were first on the scene helped the hotel people to save some of the furniture, etc. We understand that there happened to be no transient guest that night as all had left on the afternoon train: The old wooden buildings burned rapidly and heat was intense, but by hard work the brick law offices of Messrs. Graham & Devin were saved, and in the burning of the Osborn House, Oxford loses one of its ancient landmarks as it was used as a residence many years prior to the civil war.

The property was owned by Messrs. Willie Osborn, of Greensboro, and R. W. Lasswell, of Oxford, and it probably will not be rebuilt owing to the surroundings. They had $2,500 insurance, and Mrs. Carrie Wilder, who run the hotel, had $1,000 insurance on furniture, which did not begin to cover her loss. The loss on the building is estimated at about $4,000.

The libraries of Judge Graham and Mr. W. A. Devin were damaged to some extent in removal, and Mr. J. M. Winstone, of Oxford, who roomed in one of the office buildings and who was looking after the ladies of the house, neglected to look after his own effects in his room until it was too late and they were burned, his loss amounting to about $50.

To The Voters of Granville County. Having seen the card of Mr. J. J. Renn in the Public Ledger in regard to charges made by some person that the Democrats of Tally Ho Township would not attend the July 27th meeting, I am sorry to inform the public that no such report was circulated by me.

I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of Register of Deeds at the hands of the Democratic party, but would prefer defeat rather than a nomination secured by misrepresenting facts. E. B. COZART.

The G. O. U. B. P. There exists in Oxford the Grand Order of Unanited Blackberry Pickers. Of this order there is but one member. Chieftain Ray is also whole county candidate as well as by-laws provide that no one else shall join. The annual festivity of the order occurred on Wednesday, the unlucky day of July, 1904. Here are the names of those who were given special invitations to attend: Messrs. Ed and Bob, chaperones; Misses Iky No. 2, Pet and Klessy; Mr. Mory, grand secretary to the chieftain. These along with the high sway apex, with faces by the other members of the order scattered over the fields they wander, gleefully chattering away. On reaching their journey's end the sun hangs low, so on their return homeward they meet, go. The webin rings with their music galore, and on reaching home they are a little sore. To their dwellings they promptly go, and soon in chigoodem they are supinely at unrest. Thus the eventful occasion ends, long to linger in the selection of all who were in attendance.

Meeting of Democratic Executive Committee. Pursuant to a call of Gen. B. S. Royster the Democratic Executive Committee of the county met in Oxford Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in the commissioners room. The following precincts were represented: Belmont—W. W. Brummitt. Denton—D. G. Brummitt. Wilton—A. A. Blackley. Grissom—W. T. Hockaday. Wilkins—A. A. Lyon. Tally Ho—J. J. Renn. Geneva—G. H. Fausette. Berea—W. A. McFarland. Howard—R. W. Hobgood. Oak Hill—J. S. Watkins. Buchanan—D. T. Winston. Stallard—Chas. L. Lewis. Bullcock—G. H. Fausette. Salem—N. G. Crews. North Oxford—H. M. Shaw. South Oxford—E. T. White. Central Executive Committee—J. T. Britt, J. G. Hunt, A. W. Graham, S. W. Myers, and one from each of the precincts represented except Creedmoor.

Col. W. A. Bobbit, one of the old time party heroic workers in the party in Granville, who now makes his home in Clinton, was invited to the room and was cordially invited to take a seat among the committee. The time for holding the primaries and convention was discussed at some length, some in favor of an early convention while others advocated a late one. Messrs. R. W. Hobgood, J. J. Renn, H. M. Shaw, D. G. Brummitt, M. L. Coley, J. G. Hunt, E. C. Harris, E. T. White and G. H. Fausette made remarks as to the best time to hold the primaries and convention. The motion to hold the primaries on the 30th day of July at 3 o'clock p. m. at the voting precincts and the meeting of convention at 11 o'clock a. m. on August 6th, at 11 o'clock a. m. was carried by a vote of 11 to 8.

There was much interest manifested in the meeting and every Democratic precinct was in good spirits, along with the six candidates for Register of Deeds, who were lined up on one side of the room. The meeting was a pleasant one, and after some discussion on the subject of voting for candidates at the primaries the committee adjourned.

ATTENTION CANDIDATES.

Democratic Primaries and Convention Called by the County Executive Committee.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Granville county, held at Oxford, Tuesday, it was ordered that the primaries in the several voting precincts of the county for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, be held on SATURDAY, JULY 30TH, 1904, AT 3 O'CLOCK P. M. and that the county convention be held in Oxford on SATURDAY, AUGUST 6TH, 1904, AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.

Under the Democratic plan of organization a vote must be taken at every precinct primary for the different candidates for the several offices whose names may be presented before such primary meeting and the delegates to the county convention shall be the voters of the primary in accordance with the vote thus taken; that is to say each candidate shall receive that proportion of the vote to which the precinct may be entitled which he receives in the precinct primary, and it shall be the duty of the Chairman and Secretary of each precinct meeting to certify to the county convention the vote received by each candidate at such precinct meeting.

Each precinct shall be entitled to cast in the county convention one vote for every 25 Democratic votes, and one vote for fractions of 13 Democratic votes cast by the precinct at the gubernatorial election in 1900.

The chairman of the precinct committee shall preside at all precinct meetings. In the absence of such chairman any other member of the precinct committee may preside.

It is earnestly desired that every Democratic elector attend the precinct primary and participate in the selection of delegates.

By order of the executive committee, this July 19, 1904. B. S. ROYSTER, Chmn. S. W. MINOR, Sec'y.

Happy Fishing Party. Judge Graham and Messrs. J. B. Mayes, C. H. Easton, R. H. Stark, S. W. Cooper, W. E. Massenburg, Robt. Moore, John Niles and W. A. Devin, of Oxford, joined Messrs. Walter Hobgood, Graham Daniel and others on the banks of the Tar Thursday morning near Gooch's mill for a good old fashion fishing frolic. They at once launched out down the river and long before dinner hour had a plenty of fish for the cook, who had located at a spring near the river. After enjoying a fine dinner and a good rest the party again entered the river and seined until nearly sundown and succeeded in catching another three fish, one concluding there occurred quite an exciting incident. While drawing the seine in and every one was doing their best to catch some chub that were jumping to get out of the seine, a big eel about three feet long, concluding it was getting too hot around there for him and he must hide if possible, so he darted up one of the pant legs of Mr. John Mayes and made lightning speed up to his body, concluding that around it was a good place to rest to which Mr. Mayes protested. There was a lively time for awhile in the water between Mr. Mayes and the eel, but after a brave fight Mr. Mayes, assisted by others, succeeded in capturing the slippery visitor. The eel closed the day's enjoyment, and after dividing up the finny tribe amongst their bugles and rolled home, much fatigued from their day's sport.

A Retraction. In the May number of the Ladies' Home Journal was published an article in which it was said that "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription" contained among other ingredients tincture of digitalis, tincture of opium and alcohol. Immediately upon publication of this article the R. V. Pierce Medical Company instituted suit against the Journal based upon the claim that none of these ingredients was contained in the medicine.

The Ladies' Home Journal now retracts every word they said and testifies to the purity of the medicine. They say: "We employed three leading chemists in different cities to make an analysis of the preparation from bottles bought in the open market. These analysis, one and all now show to us conclusively that not a single one of the ingredients mentioned by us in the analysis quoted—that is, ether, digitalis, opium or alcohol—was contained in the medicine." We are therefore convinced that the editors of the "Company" were absolutely truthful in their claim that not one of these injurious ingredients was contained in "Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription."
