-The editor is gratified to learn from friends who have received letters from Mr. J. M. Currin that he and family are in the best of health and are greatly enjoying their visit to Sidney, Australia. They will start for home early in September and we join with their host of friends in wishing them a pleasant and safe journey home. -Mrs. John B. Booth's School of Music will reopen on Tuesday, Sept. 6th. A thorough and complete course in both vocal and instrumental music.

-WANTED--One large or 2 small furnished rooms, with first class board by a family of three. PROMPT PAY. Public Ledger Office.

-Since the convention we have heard but little county politics. -The town was flooded with watermelons Saturday and sold low. -Owing to a break down of our engine we rescheduled one day in the publication of the paper.

-We are much pleased to learn that Mrs. E. W. Jones, who has been quite sick, is rapidly recovering. -Attention Democrats. Don't sleep on your laurels. Keep your eye on the Republicans. They are at work. -Mr. L. F. Smith has at last cut down the box bushes in front of the Exchange Hotel, which is a decided improvement.

-A large quantity of flies rolled out last week and are now furnishing heat to cure tobacco in all parts of the county. -Messrs. E. T. Crews and Ira Howard are now quite busy making out the tax list and in no doubt dream of figures at night. -Mr. C. J. Turner was on double duty last week. He played polka man as well as jailor as Chief Wheeler was at the campment.

-Look sharp ladies and don't forget to take a chance at getting a sewing machine, cook stove and set of china on account of subscription to the Public Ledger. -Dr. Kellum, the noted cancer and tumor specialist of Richmond, will be at the Exchange Hotel Monday, 22nd of August. All examinations free. It is Dr. J. CURRIN, Agent.

-Our warehousemen are all experienced tobacco men and know the value of every pile of tobacco placed on their floors, therefore they are in position to secure the highest price obtainable for the weed. -Wonder if no influence can be brought to bear on the Seaboard Railroad authorities to make prompt connection with the morning train from Durham which is of such importance to the business interest of Oxford?

-Mr. R. W. Boyd, of Clay, succeeded Mr. Elijah Bragg who resigned as carrier on Rural Route No. 6, and the people will have to bear with him until he becomes thoroughly acquainted with the route. He is quite a clever gentleman and will do his best to please his patrons. -Well, since the Democratic county convention the Republicans are quite busy looking around for candidates to nominate for county offices and the Legislature. It is not known whether they will be able to find any disgruntled Democrats this time to run or not and be slaughtered as they were two years ago.

-It is said that the old line Republicans want to put Dr. Sikks against Judge Graham for the Legislature. The doctor is an exceedingly clever gentleman and one of the strongest opponents of Republicans in the county. Of course he would be defeated as there is no showing for the election of a Republican in Granville. -The people of Granville are right in sticking to Judge A. W. Graham for the House. There was no better, abler, and truer friend of the people in the last Legislature than the Judge. The people need just such men. People of Granville, when you quit sending him let it be to send him to a higher place.--King's Weekly.

-We take pleasure in copying from the Raleigh News and Observer of August 7 "Judge Graham Renominated." Everybody in Orange county, men women and children, of all classes and conditions, loves Gus Graham. The friends of Mr. Graham will strongly urge his name for presiding officer of the House.--Hillsboro Observer.

-Ex-Senator Marion Butler will stump the State for Roosevelt. It is expected in Washington circles, coming out as a straight republican. His hide is as tough as an elephant's, we know, but let him come on. Probably he has not heard that Bob Glenn is running for governor this year. Come on Mary Ann, we have a dose of catnip tea for you.--Durham Sun.

-There was quite a good break of primings on our market Friday and sold from $3 to $9 per hundred. One farmer said, "Why I did not expect to get more than $8 or $10 for my load of ground leaves, but after the sales I was delighted to get a check for $20." The farmers can just bet on Oxford every time, as it is given up to be the highest average market in the State the year round.

-What is to keep any young American from being a millionaire? We were talking recently with a young man aged 36, who owed $200 on his own education when he graduated at the age of 21. In four years he had made and saved $10,000 by teaching school and in other avocations. Last year he cleared up $15,000 more on a real estate deal, and is hustling for more. Instead of having "a good time" like most young men.--Wilmington Star.

-There are a lot of men all over the county who have been borrowing and reading The Public Ledger since it was established, not because they are too stingy or too poor, but because they don't want to patronize the paper. Then they occasionally say, when they get a chance, that they don't want the paper. No they don't, but they read one that somebody else is paying for. This is the goal we respectfully ask our subscribers to please not loan The Public Ledger to such fellows. If you refuse them you will do us a favor.

-Suicide prevented. The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system or depression invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great stomach, liver and kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

-Farms for Rent. I have a good two-horse farm for rent near Berea. Also a three-horse farm for rent near Satterwhite. Apply to W. T. YANCEY, at Bank of Granville, July 14th.

-There is nothing so tiresome as the man with a grievance. -It's a pity cigarette fiends can't smell themselves as others smell them. -Gossip has about as much use for truth as a blind man has for spectacles. -Opportunity makes special friends of those who save. Oxford Savings Bank in the Bank of Granville.

-The boys and girls will soon have to begin to get their books together as school days are near at hand. -Kapton & Allen, the Main street bargain dispensers, are receiving a choice line of early fall goods and if you want to know what they are why read their advertisement on the fourth page. -Miss Myrtle Shamburger gave a party Tuesday night in honor of her pretty cousin Miss Fannie Dockery of Rockingham, which proved a most enjoyable affair. Dainty and tempting refreshments were served during the evening.

-Messrs. Frank Spencer, Crawford Cooper and Oscar Hawley sought Gregory's pond early Wednesday morning in search of the many tribe. As they are champion fishermen it is taken for granted that they caught as many as they could eat. -Mr. Thomas W. Uzzell, of Seven Springs section of Wayne county, and Mrs. Margaret Sears, of Fishing Creek township, will be married today at the home of the bride. The groom is 28 and the bride is 24. The Public Ledger wishes them much happiness the balance of the way along life's journey.

-Monday quite a large crowd assembled at the court house at 12 o'clock to attend the auction sale of some of the carnival horses and mules attached for debt. The gray jacks were purchased by T. L. Davis, the kicking mule and wagon by Mr. J. B. Mayes, the white horse by Mr. John Webb, and the other horse was purchased by Jim Harris. All of them were in good condition and sold fairly well.

-At Morehead City. Governor Aycock, Adjutant General B. S. Royster, of Oxford, and staff and troops are at the popular resort, Morehead City, basking in the sun this week and enjoying the other beach and the delicious sea air. The season and place. Gen. Royster, we notice, reports that the troops are in splendid condition--being well drilled and well disciplined--and the service in every way in the best of order. The officers, and especially Gen. Royster who has every part of the military system in the best order. We are proud of the record he has made in the office of Adjutant General which he has so successfully and capably held for two terms. He is admitted one of the very best Adjutant Generals the State has ever had and we are proud that he is a Granville man and an Oxford man.

-Capt. Devin and the Granville Grays are in splendid trim and show good training and discipline and, we are glad to learn, are having a royal good time. Some of "we girls" will be glad to see them return as they will break camp Friday.

-Another Mark of Enterprise. The News and Observer came out Sunday in another one of its special editions, which was, as usual, splendidly executed both mechanically and in a literary way. In this edition the history of the "Old Reliable" was carefully reviewed and sketches of the nestors of North Carolina journalism who had been its editors and contributors were given.

-As is well known the old Raleigh News and the Raleigh Observer were consolidated into the News and Observer. The News was founded by Uzzell & Stone and edited for a long while by Capt. Samuel Williams, who was a brother of Capt. John A. Williams and Hon. A. H. A. Williams.

-We congratulate Editor Daniels on the enlargement of the paper and its increased usefulness. It is now a mighty power in the State's material, educational, moral and political development. Daniels--like all successful men--has had to stem the tide of opposition and the abuse of enemies but has in each conflict landed "right side up," and we are glad to see him successfully every year to strength and popularity. Long live the News and Observer.

-A Sudden Death. The Minor mill community was greatly shocked Thursday morning to learn of the sudden death of Mr. J. B. Knott, which occurred while he was sitting in a chair on the porch as he was curing tobacco. It was early in the morning and Mrs. Knott had joined him at the barn. Mr. Knott told a negro boy to go and see how the heat stood, and about that time Mr. Knott gave a gasp and all was over with him. It must have been heart rendering when his devoted wife turned and found him in the arms of death. Neighbors were quickly summoned and his body was taken to the house and prepared for burial.

-He was a most excellent young man and highly esteemed by his friends and neighbors and his sudden taking away with apoplexy has cast a gloom over the community. He was very industrious and had made a fine crop, and when called upon to answer the last summons was engaged in curing his tobacco. -The funeral and burial took place at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Mr. W. T. Hunt's Friday, conducted by Rev. J. D. Pegram, and largely attended.

-To the suddenly bereaved wife and other relatives the editor extends his sincere condolence in the hour of deep grief. -Later--Wilmington is still right up with her usual energy, if about 1,000 negroes did leave. -A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or pony boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It is the best salve on earth and will prevent faciality, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c at all druggists.

-New lot clover seed just received at Hamilton's.
