A Quiet Marriage.

At Berea on last Sunday evening Sept. 4th, at 6 o'clock there was a quiet marriage at the home of Mr. I. T. Murray's when his grand-daughter Miss Addle Hicks became the bride of Mr. S. L. Green, The words that made them one were spoken by Rev. Beam, of Bethel Hill. Only a few friends and relatives were present to witness the marriage. The bride is a most popular young lady and is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hicks. The groom is the son of Mr. S. A. Green, of Vance. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Green all the joy that life can bring.

542 1-2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902. I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suf-fered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely pros-trated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a cnange for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the week. After inheteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

We are ready for your tobacco and all of our buyers seem anxious to buy. Prices are starting off all right, and we think the prospect is good for this crop to bring good prices. We have sold nearly all of our last year's purchases; so we are in good shape to handle your crop for you, and if you will sell your tobacco with us, we will see that you get the top of the market. It does not matter what kind it is, for we want all grades from the commonest primings to the finest wrappers. Our market is in good shape, as our buyers have sold their old stock and want to invest the money in new to-bacco. We are determined to sell your tobacco for you, if high prices and fair dealings will do it. We haven't any drummers or any on running around trying to buy your tobacco, but we are here at all times to look after it ourselves and see that it is packed and put on the floor to the very best advantage, and we will see that you get the very best prices possible at all times.
