BRIEF DASHES OF THINGS
HAPPENING.

The county commissioners will meet next Monday.

If you have any business in court of course you will be on hand next week.

Mr. Alex. Crews who has been quite ill for several days, is reported some better.

One lone large rock is yet visible on main street, and that is the property of the town.

Mr. W. S. Hundley, who has been quite sick for two weeks with the grip is getting better.

Glad to learn that the family of Mr. L. E. Smith, who have all been sick, are now much better.

Mr. A. A. Hicks after a week's sickness with the grip is almost himself again and is at his office regular now.

Mrs. C. H. Easton and Mrs. Wade H. Britt, who have been confined to their homes with the grip, have about recovered.

Interest on money is better than most. Oxford Savings Bank in Bank of Granville pays 4 per cent. compounded twice a year.

Mr. J. T. Sizemore bade his old store farewell Monday and moved across the street to the store recently vacated by Mr. C. A. Carroll.

We are glad to learn that the traveling public are greatly pleased with nice manner in which they are entertained at the Exchange Hotel.

A box of churn power fixtures is holding down the curb stone in front of the court house. Friday night which was greatly enjoyed by our music loving people.

The Woman's Literary Club met with Mrs. J. G. Hall Tuesday afternoon and a number of excellent papers were read, and the meeting proved an enjoyable one.

Master J. B. Badgett, aged 9 years, cultivated the past year a patch of tobacco, and sold his crop in Oxford Wednesday and was quite proud when he received a check for $14.

Joe Moore and Junbo, the 2 big hogs of Granville county, will be in town the coming week, and you are invited to go and see them and hear their tremendous grunts. One of them weighs 975 pounds.

Miss Wellman, who has many friends in Oxford and Granville, was happily married in Baltimore Wednesday to Mr.
Scott. He is to be congratulated upon winning the heart and hand of such a charming young lady.

We learn from our Sten correspondent that Mr. Ed Brodzon, of that section stands ahead on killing large hogs this season. He killed one a few days ago that weighed 715 pounds.
We must ask the question: Who can beat it?

Married at the Curran Hotel, Monday, Jan. 30th, by J. K. Wood, Justice of the Peace, Eugene Oakley, of Sten, and Miss Lillie Mary Bell, of Durham.
After being bound in the happy bonds of matrimony the couple went to Durham by the Seaboard railway.

Miss Lucy Jarvis, the highly cultured daughter of Bishop Jarvis, of Connecticut, head of the Mission study classes of Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church, will address the Woman's Auxiliary in Oxford on Tuesday afternoon.

The Villaford Club, recently organized by our young men, has already become quite a popular resort as the club is admirably conducted. It is somewhat of a surprise that it has been in existence for so long a time as the young men spent most of the evenings setting around the stores talking.

Mr. Wm. Jones, a cripple of Tally Ho township, who has been in the State Hospital once, attempted a few days ago to kill his mother with an axe, and would have done so if some one had not caught the axe. He was so violent he had to be brought to jail until he could be returned to the asylum.

There occurred a runaway marriage at the Exchange Hotel Wednesday evening when Mr. J. A. Harper, of Crews, Va., and Miss Grace Blanton, quite a youthful looking lady of Black stone, Va., were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. E. Wool. They left Thursday morning for their home over the Southern Railway.

J. F. Meadows, proprietor of the Farmers Warehouse don't fail to get top notch prices. Below we give some prices obtained by him for the past few days. P. C. Adcock, 10.21.40.13.9 average $23.10. Sidney Green, 8.13.
24.45.15.10. — $22.25. B. E. Green, 8.4.
11.42.1.2.35.9. — average $24.80. Harris and Thomas, 8.14.11.14.45.37.1.2.13.12 8.12. — average $25.02.

There were large breaks of tobacco in Oxford Friday and Tuesday, and the warehouse floors were crowded with farmers. The break Tuesday was quite large and the sales continued until late in the afternoon, and the farmers faces were devoid of bright smiles, they complained of low prices.
They said instead of prices getting better they were getting worse for the producer as a whole.

Messrs. Landis and Easton have an important change in their large advertisement on the 4th page which is dollars in your pocket if you will read it and keep moving until you reach their stores and take advantage of the low prices they are offering on goods. The ladies are deeply interested in new white goods as spring is coming on and their special attention is directed to this part of this reliable firm's advertisement.

Mr. H. L. Millner, who contracted to put in water works and electric lights for the town, is here to begin work. The outfit for driving a deep well came yesterday also a car load of cement to be used in laying the foundations for the water tower in town.
Just as soon as the weather opens up people may look for work to begin in earnest. From the plans now on file at the First National Bank it can be readily seen that we are to have a plant second to none.

Great Hamburg Sale.
During the month of February, I will sell at greatly reduced prices my entire stock of faces and hamburgs.
Come and see the great 5, 10 and 15 cent bargains.
MISS MARY BELLE GREGORY.

Mr. Duke is Said to be Improving.

It is learned that the condition of Mr. Washington Duke who recently fell and broke a bone in his hip, is so much improved that his friends hope that he may soon be able to leave his room. It is learned that the account of his age of the gentleman that it would be sometime before he would get around. This will be good news to his many friends in the city. —Dm. Sun.

A Quiet Home Marriage.

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of Mr. Alex. Baker Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, witnessed by a few friends and relatives. The contracting parties being Miss Calla Baker, the oldest daughter of Mr. Baker, and Mr. Jeter Brinkley, of Dutchville township. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. F. M. Shamp burger. The editor joins the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Best on the Market.

Every farmer who raises tobacco naturally desires to buy the best Granville manufactured in order that he may be able to produce fine tobacco, and it is said that the old Reliable Obers brand is the best on the market. The best results always follow the use of the celebrated Obers brands and the farmers can secure it this season in any quantity they desire from Parham Bros Company, Oxford, as they are selling agents. For further information as to this tobacco fertilizer we refer you to Parham Bros.
Co's advertisement in another column.

Squally Time.

Mr. Abner Newton, of the Wilton section, was on the large tobacco break last night, and found the store a novel experience he had last Thursday night. He heard one of his chickens squalling at a rapid rate, and went out as soon as he could dress to see what was the trouble. About 10 o'clock he got out side near the tree where some of the chickens roosted one commenced to squall and flutter on the ground some distance from him. He went to her relief and found that an owl had the hen, and had to kill his owlship before he loosened his grip on the hen.

Death of Mrs. Johnson.

After a illness of several months Mrs. Mollie Johnson, relict of the late John Johnson, died at the home of Mrs. M. Y. Lacy Thursday morning at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Episcopal church and until her health failed was a regular attendant upon the services. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kate Crenshaw, of Louisburg, was with her when she died.
The funeral services will take place today and the interment will be in the Elmwood cemetery.

Wood-Mize.

A beautiful wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mize on Wednesday, Feb. 1st at 3 o'clock when Mr. Willie Wood led to the hymenal altar the beautiful and accomplished Miss Hettie Mize. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Marsh withnessed by neighbors and a number of friends. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wood left for their home in Oxford where a sumptuous supper was served in honor of the joyous event.
Mr. and Mrs. Wood are two of the most popular young people and we wish for them a long life of joy and happiness. — A FRIEND.

Death of Miss Jennie Best.

Chapel Hill correspondent of Charlotte Observer of January 31st says: Miss Jennie Best died this morning about 10 o'clock. Her death was due to lung trouble and though it was unexpected by her relatives and friends, as she had been an invalid for practically 4 years it is a peculiarly sad one. Just 4 months ago a brother of the deceased died also of lung trouble. Miss Best was a very attractive young lady, beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Baptist church and an ideal Christian.
The deceased leaves to mourn her death a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Best and 3 brothers, Mr.
Theo. Best of Chapel Hill, and Mr.
Charles Best, of Oklahoma.

Against Increased Salaries.

Tuesday the senate bill increasing the judges salaries to $25,000 was up before the judiciary committee of the house. Mr. Warren of Jones, favored the bill, and so did Mr. Biggs, of Oxford. Mr. Graham, of Granville, opposed it, saying that the insane schools, the Confederate soldiers must be looked after first, that if the state could not pay all its obligations these salaries should not be increased, that the people complained of taxes.
He thought that the best talent could be had on salaries of $10,000. Mr.
Winborne, that with $31,000 just stricken from the receipts by the finance committee he desired to know where this $15,500 was coming from.

Letter to J. F. Royster, Oxford, N. C.

Dear Sir: You ask how many square feet a gallon will cover. Depends on conditions of building.
There is a great deal of lying on this point. The stock claim of lying paint is 300 square feet, two coats. Its lie as a rule.
Devote covers 300 to 300, our agents think. We think 300 too low and 300 too high; though doubtless, they both cover.

How much the other paints cover is equally doubtful; we guess 100 to 400.
The truth is found in another colum. Devote is all paint, true, paint, strong paint, and full measure; the others in general are, at the best, diluted, adulterated and short measure.
They cover according to body measure. You can't paint with clay lime chalk sand barytes water or air—no body in them. Truly Yours truly
F. W. Devote and Co.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING.

The Pretty Miss Ruth Ferebee Becomes Bride of Dr. B. R. Kennon.

The crowning social event of the midwinter season was the marriage Wednesday of Miss Ruth Ferebee and Dr.
Beverly Randolph Kennon, of Norfolk Va. The ceremony was performed in an impressive manner by Bishop Randolph, of Virginia, cousin of the groom, in the parlor of the home of the brides parents, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Ferebee.

The spacious home had been elaborately decorated for the occasion in stately palms and trailing snailax with a profusion of cut flowers in every room, jonquils prevailing. The groom entered from the hall with his best man Dr. J. B. Davidson, of Richmond, Va. The bridesmaids, wearing white carrying ribbons to form an aisle, they were Miss Nancy Kennon, sister of the groom and Miss Girdie Chamberlayne, of Norfolk, wearing white organdies and bearing jonquils. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Mattie Ferebee, wearing white organdie and carrying a bouquet of white hyacinths. From the library the bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away. She was exquisitely robed in white satin and lace with well gracefully caught with orange blossoms.
The bride is possessed of remarkable beauty, fine traits of character and is well known in the social life of Washington City, Philadelphia, Norfolk and other places where she has spent much time. The groom is a good physician of Norfolk, where he is very popular and has a bright future before him. After the marriage an elegant reception was given to which many were invited; only relatives and intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. The guests were met in the hall by Mrs. Henry Sherley, of Towson, Md., among those in the receiving parlor were Mrs. W. H. Venable, of Norfolk, Mrs. Beverly Randolph Kennon, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennon, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Stamps Howard, of Norfolk, and a number of other guests were invited to the library, where punch was served by Miss Bessie Kennon and Miss Susan Graham.
The dining room elegant snacks and delicious cakes and were served by Mrs. E. T. Rawlins, Misses Fannie Gregory and Lillie Biggs, coffee was served by Mrs. W. H. Venable, of Norfolk. In the gift room presided Mrs.
Mannie Hargrove, Miss Nannie Gregory and Miss Mary Horner where the handsome presents attested the popularity of the bride and groom.
The presents were very numerous and beautiful, conspicuous amid the bright array of cut flowers, and chest of silver, was the gift from the groom's relatives of the rich and massive silver service of the Randolph family. Beautiful china, costly ornaments, and dainty centre pieces and ornaments of newest designs, a mahogany table of rare old handwork, beautiful jewels made a lovely scene.

Many costumes of those present were very elegant. Mrs. Nelson Ferebee, mother of the bride, was handsome in a gown of white organdie silk.
Mrs. Kennon, mother of the groom, wore elegant black silk. Mrs. Stamps Howard's costume was of white silk, and she wore a most charming one.
Miss Gregory wore black lace over black tulle. Mrs. H. A. Pennix black silk.
The following were the out of town guests: Mrs. W. H. Venable, of Norfolk, Mrs. Beverly Randolph Kennon, Misses Bessie and Nancy Kennon, Mr.
Chas. Kennon, of Tablets, Va., Mrs.
W. H. Venable, Mr. H. M. Kerr, of Norfolk, Mrs. Venable, of Norfolk, Louis Dobe, Richmond, Dr. Hugh Nelson, U. S. Navy, Mr. William Towne, Richmond.

An Afternoon Reception Greatly Enjoyed.

A most charming reception was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert C. Strong on Blount street, the occasion being a card party that was a delight.

The event was in honor of her guest, Mrs. Shirley, of Baltimore, and her lovely home was artistically decorated with a color scheme of blue and pink and blue, the parlor decorations being especially lovely.

The receiving party was composed of Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Shirley, Miss Susan Graham. Delicious punch was served by Mrs. H. W. Miller and Mrs. George Strong, while coffee was served by Mrs. J. A. Timberlake, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Miss Susan Clark and Miss Gertrude Winston. Dainty refreshments were served. The amusement was cards—the games being full interest, each participant entering heartily into the spirit of the contest. There were present about 75 guests and the occasion was a most charming one, reflecting the greatest credit upon the gracious hostess. — News and Observer his old friends were glad to see him.

He made the editor a pop call, and we were pleased to see him looking so well.

—Mr. J. L. Clay, of Church Roads, Va., was among the visitors on Saturday and the editor was pleased to receive a call from him, and to learn that he was prospering in the Old Dominion.

—Messrs. J. S. Watkins, of Oak Hill township, W. J. Badgett, of Sunset; A. M. Cash and S. Frazier, of Walton Grove township, were in town Wednesday and visited the Public Ledger office.

—Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Bullock, of Hester, were in Oxford Wednesday and will today take Masters Dorsey and Theodore Lynch to their grand parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kingsbury at Wilmington, where they will make their future home.

—Messrs. J. E. Frazier, of Sassafras Folk township, W. M. Moss, of Tar River; E. M. Sherman and Jessie Will-ford, of Berea, D. N. Knott, of Oxford township, L. M. Carrington, of Oak Hill township; R. V. Wade, of Sten, were in Oxford Tuesday and called on the Public Ledger.

—Dr. N. C. Daniel, who has practice ed medicine in Oxford for several years, has decided to stop practicing for the present and has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a wholesale drug house. His many friends in Oxford and Granville regret to give him up and wish him every possible success in his new line of work.

—Mr. W. A. Adams, who has been in the employ of the Japanese Government for 4 years in the Agricultural Department at Tokio, arrived at his home in Oxford a few days ago and there was a happy meeting with loved ones. We are indeed sorry to learn that he is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism and unable to get out and mingle with his old friends, who will be glad to meet him and get him back to his home.
