BRIEF DASHES OF THINGS HAPPENING.

The rock crusher has not commenced to crush. The man who has a scolding wife wants but little head below. Mr. C. D. Ray has enlarged an outhouse on his pretty lot.

Mr. L. B. Turner has had a new roof put on his hoghead factory. Oxford is now in the growing stage and rapidly coming to the front.

You can keep Lent by accompanying every friend who desires a loan. The best news print of spring is to print a kiss upon the lips of your sweetheart.

Farmers bear in mind that Parham Bros. Co. are headquarters this season for high grade fertilizers. Mr. Cam Easton has rented and moved into the Hunt house on the corner of Raleigh and Front streets.

Little Miss Lola Shumaker, who has been numbered with the sick, we are pleased to learn is much better. Dr. Sam Booth has just equipped his automobile with a substantial rubber tire buggy of the Taylor-Cannady make.

Dr. S. D. Booth has the champion roped calf he has been cutting it for a week to feed his already fat horses on. March came in lamb like, remain like a lamb for 31 days and went out gentle as any lamb that was ever seen.

Mr. J. J. Renn has rented the Ira Lyon dwelling on College street, and will soon move his family from Sten to Oxford.

Mr. Sharp and family after spending the winter in Oxford returned to their farm in Vance county one day the past week. Mr. Sim Smith, who wheels over the South, was in Oxford Wednesday and Thursday to the pleasure of his numerous friends.

The work of putting down the water pipes goes merrily on and Mr. Millner has his openings every day with pick and shovels. The county people still complain that nearly all the work done on the public roads by Col. Roberts' road force is in Oxford township.

The walls of the stannery of the Imperial Tobacco Company rises higher as the days roll by and will be completed in time for the new crop. Spring has given us a pop call, and we suspect she is only waiting for our attention to take off her bonnet, and spend quite a while with us.

A good road enables the lazy farmer to loaf longer at the village store, and it makes it possible for the thrifty farmer to get back and get another load.

Mr. Hillman Cannady has purchased from Mr. Joe Baird his cottage on Main street and will improve it before moving his family from Charlotte to Oxford.

April is here and so are the peach, pear and apple blossoms, and if it will keep warm enough to head off the late frosts all other short comings will be forgotten.

Did you say "granolithic"? No, but the Power Commissioners did. They are liberal—if you don't put it down in front of your place of business they will do it for you.

The cook room of Mr. Morris (greenhouse) was on fire Monday from the flue, and was extinguished by a neighbor, who with the aid of axe and water soon had it out.

Every girl who marries should know how to make bread, says a lady magazine writer. Such advice as this will make a girl look around for a husband with plenty of dough.

Easter hats will carry smaller flowers this year, so it is said, but there is no indication that they will be any innovation in the account rendered to the man who pays the freight.

Judge Graham has so far recovered as to be able to be about the house, while Mrs. Graham is still quite sick. It is hoped that they will be well enough to come home soon.

Mrs. J. D. Williams has rented and has moved into the Eastern renter on Main street, and Mr. Luther Stark will now move into his own residence, which was occupied by Mrs. Williams.

Mr. Mayor the new vazarant law is very plain and stringent, so throw your drag net out and fish up some of the old lineers who have no visible means of support, and let Mr. Wheeler put them to work.

Mr. Allen, the careful and popular engineer on the Seaboard Road, has moved his family from Henderson to Oxford and occupies the residence vacated by Mr. Bullard on Front street, and we extend them a cordial welcome to our pretty town.

The Town and County authorities have joined hands and will commence in a few days to cut down the big hill under the railroad at the cotton mills, and will grade and put that part of the county road in first class condition. Some of the individuals who are deeply interested in that part of the road have subscribed to the fund.

We are pained to learn of the death of the devoted wife of our highly esteemed friend Amos Dean, formerly of Granville but now of Wake county, which sad event occurred on the last day of March after a long illness. She was one of the best of women and she was loved by all who knew her. Her death was a great loss to the bereaved husband, children and relatives.

Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock the home of Nannie Lassiter, one of our most industrious colored seamstresses who lives in what is known as Brown Town, was discovered to be on fire, and if a ladder and water had been accessible could have been put out, but were not at hand and her nice little home was destroyed. She saved most of her furniture and the dresses she was making; we are informed that she had an insurance policy on her house of $700, which will replace the building.

For Sale—White Lechorn and White Wandotte egg. Guarantee eight eggs to hatch. If you do not get eight chickens will sell you another set at half price. Price $1.25 for 15 eggs. Apply to W. H. Britt, Oxford, N. C.

AFFAIRS OF COUNTY.

New awnings are beginning to spring up. There is not a vacant store or residence in Oxford.

We all have money coming, but it seldom arrives on schedule time. Sunday and Monday parts of Colorado was covered with 5 feet of snow.

The Easter hat will be no joke, but a sad reality—to the man who has to pay or it.

The change in the driver of the once fine looking town mule seems to be rather tough on the mule if we have to judge from appearance.

Mr. J. G. Hall is preparing to put up to date fixtures for freezing cream in order to supply the great demand for the excellent quality he puts up.

Just now the water works and electric light contracts are the most attractive Milliners in town if some of us do kick a little bit as to the openings for poles.

The tobacco breaks get smaller as the days roll by and the 1904 crop is about marketed and Oxford has proved, as she always does, the best market in this section of the State.

The Buggy Body Factory is pushing right ahead under the working management of Mr. R. S. Ury who is giving it his attention, and many out of town orders are being filled.

With Teddy, Sr. going to Colorado to hunt wolves, Teddy, Jr., hunting in West Virginia, and Taft "sit-ting on the fence" in the pine for pine for excitement—News and Observer.

As a result of the great revival meeting at the Baptist church about 400 persons have been cutting it for that church, while some 20 others onced themselves with the other churches.

It will be seen by the fine showing that the dispensary makes in its annual statement elsewhere that the sales of the different grades of Nervine have increased under its most excellent management and the sales of ardent spirits keep pace with the improvements of the town.

Mr. B. V. Morton and Miss Hixie Morton, of Charlotte county, Va., arrived in Oxford Tuesday afternoon over the Southern road and stopped at the Exchange Hotel. The Register of Deeds was sought who issued a marriage license and in a short while the young couple were married by Rev. F. M. Sham burger.

Capt. Lovell, of the Oxford and Clarksville road, suffered a stroke of paralysis on his train near Stem Monday and Dr. Cannady was notified who met the train on its arrival in Oxford and accompanied the stricken man as far as Keyville and made him as comfortable as possible in the hospital at Richmond and is completely paralyzed on one side.

Death at Tar River. Mrs. Lillie Adeock, wife of Mr. Moses Adeock, living near Tar River station, died April 2nd, 1905, in the 38th year of her age. She had been a professed Christian and a faithful member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church for about 4 years.

Before the ceremony Miss Kathleen Ballard sang, "Constancy." This was followed by Mendelssohn's and Lohen grin's marches rendered by Miss Mabel Vann.

The couple left on the noon train for a trip North. They will make their home at Tar River.

Death of a Bright Little Boy. Wm. McKinley, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, died Saturday after an illness of about 4 weeks and his funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Pleasant Grove, and was largely attended. The interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

He was a bright little fellow and the youngest of 14 children, and was dearly beloved by the family as well as by the neighbors. Everything possible was done to stay the hand of the disease but without avail. He was really worse until the end, and much sympathy is extended Mr. and Mrs. Brown in the deep loss they have been called upon to sustain.

"O savior, friend of all who weep! Let comfort come unto these mourning ones. Their love one Thon dost keep."

Stone-Britt. Franklinton correspondent News and Observer March 29th, says: There was an event of special interest here today when Miss Daisy Britt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Britt was married to Mr. Adolphus B. Stone.

Owing to the fact that her bridegroom was a quiet home marriage, only a few intimate friends and near relatives being invited. Rev. J. B. Shore performed the ceremony promptly at 3:30 p. m. Mr. W. F. Joyner rendered the wedding march, also "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony.

The ride was handsomely gowned in a blue going away suit with hat to match.

Immediately after the ceremony they took train No. 43 for Raleigh where they will be at home on North person street to their many friends.

The bride is a woman of a sweet and bright disposition and universally loved here where she made her home since childhood. Her departure will be a loss to Franklinton, but a great gain to Raleigh. Mr. Stone is a business man of that city, engaged as a representative in the piano and music business.

Among the guests presents were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stone, of Raleigh.

Tax Listers and Road Supervisors Appointed.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday and Tuesday upon which all the members were in attendance, along with the attorney and efficient clerk the rebate mill did the heaviest work it has done for more than a year and Chairman Crews was quite exhausted when he got through turning the rickety old crank.

C. F. Crews was appointed a committee to look after road right of way near Dexter.

Ordered that Bass Hart be put on outside pauper list at $1 per month. The contract for building a bridge over Mountain Creek was awarded John S. Watkins for $150 complete.

Martha Latta was granted a special allowance of $3. Mary Blalock was put on outside pauper list at $3 per month.

N. E. Cannady was exempted from working on roads on account of disability.

James Dement and Cora Jones were put on outside pauper list at $1 per month.

On motion the Board accepted the proposition as made by the Town Commissioners through Dr. J. P. Stedman, representative, to join the county in the cutting down of cutting down of trees now known as cotton factory hill, and the work will soon commence.

The road will be macadamized and cherted and when completed will be a joy to all who travel that way. Superintendent Luther Roberts was instructed to add 3 more mules to his force and to order and buy them to the best advantage.

The salary of W. W. Fuller, Foreman of Road Force, was raised to $25 per month.

The following tax listers for the respective townships were elected: Fishing Creek—E. G. Brummitt. Brassfield—J. Jenkins. Dutchville—M. B. Waller. Tally Ho—J. C. Howard.

Wainwright—C. G. G. Phiswell. Oak Hill—D. T. Winston. Sasfras Fork—S. J. Carrin. Salem—L. G. Bredlove. Oxford—S. V. Ellis.

Each tax lister will receive as their township was paid last year. The Board decided to hold back $5 from each list takers pay until the Register of Deeds and the county tax collector have examined the county tax book in order to see that each one had correctly made out the list.

Each tax lister had supervisors were elected under the new law: Fishing Creek—J. R. Renn, J. E. Pissant and E. G. Phiswell. Brassfield—W. P. White, Sr., G. L. Allen and W. H. Garner. Tally Ho—W. D. Bumpass and G. B. Royster. Sasfras Fork—C. L. Lewis, W. B. Royster and I. T. Bredlove. E. A. Hunt and R. C. Puckett. Oxford—A. C. Parham, J. K. Wood and W. L. Ragland.

Promotion of Good Man. It seems that the Seaboard Railroad will promote faithful and prompt employees as was proven last week when they transferred to the Seaboard from the Oxford to Sanford where the pay is much larger than here. We must say that our people deeply regretted the loss of the Seaboard's interesting family, and they are followed by their best wishes for their happiness and prosperity.

Before the Seaboard Mr. Bullard proved a very popular official and won the high esteem of our people as he was ever courteous and obliging and enjoying their company, he made many friends for the Seaboard.

It is a pleasure to us to say that no railroad ever had a more faithful and loyal family of employees than Mr. Bullard as we know he studied the interest of his company and is an exception among railroad men as to the easy and kind consideration, which is a winner every time.

The editor congratulates friend Bullard upon his promotion but deeply regrets to lose him from Oxford, and trusts his lines may ever fall in pleasant places.

Mr. Bullard is succeeded by Mr. Elwood of Henderson, quite a pleasant young man who we hope will ever study the interest of his patrons as well as that of the fine company he represents.

Sudden Death of Mr. Lester Wright. Verily it is a true saying that in the midst of life we are in death, as our people were shocked Thursday morning about 8:30 o'clock to learn of the almost sudden death of Mr. Lester Wright, which carried deep sorrow to the hearts of his many friends and relatives.

He was out on the streets Tuesday morning, which carried deep sorrow to the hearts of his many friends and relatives in the best of health, but some time that night was attacked with acute indigestion and he was confined to his bed Wednesday. He felt better Thursday morning and was up about the room when he had another attack and died in a few minutes surrounded by his grief-stricken wife, daughter, son and son in law, to all of whom the deepest sympathy of the community go out in the hour of sudden bereavement.

Mr. Wright was 55 years of age and a member of the Methodist church and was numbered among our best citizens. He was a merchant in Oxford for a number of years and later clerked for the E. H. Greenhaw Co., and most highly esteemed by all who knew him. He has a host of friends in the county and his death will bring sorrow to their hearts.

He leaves behind a devoted wife and two sons, Cortez Wright, of Burlington, Roy Wright, and one daughter, Mrs. S. C. Averett to grieve over the loss of their father.

Mr. Wright was an Old Fellow and honored among his brethren, and no doubt his funeral and burial will be conducted this Friday afternoon under their supervision.

Town Convention. The Democratic Convention of the town of Oxford is hereby called to meet in the court house on Tuesday night April 11th, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor and Town Commissioners.

The Millinery Opening.

Wednesday did not prove favorable for the various millinery openings as the day was dark and rainy, but never the less a large number of ladies were out to behold the beautiful and elaborate of all millinery exhibitions and unmatched beauties of the milliners art.

At Long, Blalock and Haskins the room was most artistically decorated and the display of millinery was elegantly gotten together, charmingly planned and beautifully carried out by Miss Nobles, the head milliner which elicited many compliments.

At Landis and Easton's their new millinery parlor was a scene of real spring beauty which proved a joy to the ladies as they feasted their eyes on the charming display of all the latest things which go so far in adding to the attraction of the millinery, the Misses Bickers and Pearson, the new milliners, proved to the ladies that they were up-to-date in the artistic art.

Mrs. Lanier (formerly Miss Mary Belle Gregory) display was up-to-date and very attractively arranged and brought forth many compliments from the visiting throng that visited her tastefully decorated store.
