Mighty Romance-Ben Hur to be Presented in Richmond

Arrayed in all its splendor Klaw of the letest styles, weaves and make and Erlander's stupendous production of Gen Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur" nery, Trimmings, Notions, Clothing, will inaugurate a week's engagement will inaugurate a week's engagement at the Academy of Music. Richmond. at the Academy of Music, Richmond Va., on Monday evening, April 24th There will be a matinee on Wednes day and Saturday during the week. Of all the spectacular productions of modern times, none has been credited with so long a run of prosperity as this great and popular religious his toric romance. "Ben Hur" is today crowned with a record of nearly 1,900 performances in a little over 5 years. and has been seen by more than four million people.

Reviewing "Ben Hur" as a play it is one of the most stirring and impres sive stories ever given to the stage, and while the keenest admiration and astonishment have been manifested for the marvelous scenic and mechan ical effects that are unfolded in its en actments the impression that lasts and lives, and that which has been responsible for the wonderful success scored, is the beautiful, fervent and highly dramatic story, so forcibly and truthfully told with its endowment of grand music supplied by Edgar Stillman Kelley.
Richmond is the only city in the State that "Ben Hur" will be present ed in. The Company numbers over 350 persons. Ten 60 feet baggage cars are required to transport the scenic effects and two stock cars are pressed into service, two cars for the horses and camels used in the production.
