Another Kansas town is trying to give an informal negro necktie party. The man who succeeds must strike the word "impossible" from his vocabulary. Kansas is always doing things to cause Brown's body to turn over in its grave. The Congressionalists have finally decided to hold on to Rockefeller's $100,000 gift of "tainted money."

A Washington man who is suing for divorce says that his wife proposed to him. Will men never learn to say "no"? The election of Jas. B. Frazier, of Tennessee, to the United States Senate, with Carmack will give Tennessee an able and distinguished representation in that august body. The Supreme Court has declared that a State cannot place a limit on the number of hours which a man can work unless it be in an unhealthy occupation, and then only as a safeguard to the health of citizens.

President Roosevelt has killed a bear and a bob cat. He is satisfied with his hunt for the biggest game the woods afford. To quote his own word, "I got what I was after. It was bully sport, and I hope it keeps up." A Washington young man eloped with a girl and after he had married her, he telegraphed his mother-in-law "I am married and all my troubles are over." Married men are possibly forbidden to laugh in their sleep at a young fellow who thinks matrimony will make an exception in his case.

The Governor of Wisconsin has signed the anti-cigarette bill, which recently passed the Legislature of that State. The measure prohibits the sale or manufacture of cigarettes or cigarette tobacco or paper, or the giving away of cigarette papers. It goes into effect on July 1. At Frankfort, Ky., about 400 indentured men charging the Standard Oil Company with failure to take out peddlers license as required by the Kentucky statutes, were returned by the Franklin county grand jury Tuesday. Similar indictments have been returned recently in several counties of the State.

New York World.—No. Methodist minister in the New York conference who is married may hereafter be appointed to any pastorate which pays less than $600 a year, according to a resolution adopted by that conference recently. Where such assignment is unavoidable a supplemental amount sufficient to bring the salary to $600 a year will be furnished by the Church Aid Society. J. A. Chiles, a colored lawyer of Lexington, Ky., has brought suit for damages against the Chesapeake Railway Company for compelling him to ride in the colored or "Jim Crow" compartment of one of the trains. He claims to have purchased a first class ticket from Washington, D. C. to Lexington, and alleges that the train crossed the Kentucky line at Ashland, Ky., he was forced to leave the car he was in and go to the car set apart for colored passengers. He sets up the claim that he was an inter State passenger and as such was entitled to ride in coaches for such passengers until he reached his destination.

THE SPIRIT OF PROGRESS. Compared with the work being done by the Whitney Reduction Company on the Jackson river in Staunton county, every other development in progress in the State appears insignificant; but a great deal is going on, in one line and another. The proposed South bound Railroad from Winston-Salem to some point on the Seaboard Air Line is going to be built; a railroad from Raleigh to Little Washington is in process of construction; the Southern is surveying a line from Marion to a point in Tennessee, and will build it; the Durham and Charlotte Railroad is moving slowly forward; an electric car line is being built from Asheville to Burnsville; the High Point Thomsville Narrows road seems assured, and the Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike, said to be the best graded road in the State, is making satisfactory progress, and there is talk of equipping it as an electric line; the Charlotte inter-urban railway is a hopeful enterprise these are not half, but the enumeration will sustain the statement that something is going on in North Carolina at present. There is development, improvement, in every direction; in ten years the State will not know itself. Note is taken here of only the larger, more general projects, in active progress or well provided for. Nearly every day some new mining or manufacturing scheme is undertaken and the diversification as well as the multiplication of industries is enlarged. The spirit of "commercialism," of doing things in a broad, and present by the words of the Statesman, "And though the sooner may mock at And while defaming her." —Charlotte Observer.

About Rheumatism. There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a variety of remedies are of any use. It has been suggested, to say that it can be cured, is therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by all druggists.

NORTH STATE HAPPENINGS. Mrs. Brooks, wife of Alexander H. Brooks, of Asheville, gave birth to three boy babies, Sunday. They weighed seven, seven and a half and eight pounds. A few more dastardly assaults like that made on Bob Deal at Wilkesboro will turn the eighth district back into the Democratic column with absolute certainty.—Raleigh Post. People speak of a thing sometimes as being a necessary evil. Why call it so? Is any evil thing necessary? The Bible tells us to abstain from all appearance of evil.—Roxboro Courier. Eighty-seven barrels of whiskey that was seized for irregularities from W. Y. Carver, at Roxboro, were released being duly stamped. The entire lot was sold to the Roxboro dispensary. The room of the idler is more to be desired than his company, and if the vagrancy law shall be so enforced as to put them all to work or migrate, then we shall say well done.—Raleigh Post. There is a question going the rounds: "What is the shape of a kiss?" and the answer is "Elliptical." The real thing in the occupation line, though, is the one like a circle in that it is neither beginning nor end.—Salisbury Sun. John Knox Hughes, sheriff of Orange county for 12 consecutive terms and who declined renomination last fall because of falling health died few days ago at the age of 68 years. He was well and favorably known throughout central North Carolina. With some Democratic swearing that Roosevelt is a Democrat; with other declaring Bryan is a socialist and that Parker is a Plutoer and anything but a Democrat, we wonder were the party is "at" anyway.—Greenboro Record. Miller County (Mo.) Autogram: The woman who can make good for the darn, darns to frazzle, cook a meal that tickles her husband clear to the waistbands, and keep the children's necks and ears clean seldom figures in a divorce case. While Ezekiel Horatory, of Graham, was taking a number of horses to Roxboro, one of the animals kicked him on the leg, shattering the limb and necessitating its amputation. It was hoped to save Mr. Hornary's life but in spite of every attention he died of the shock. Geo. Pritchard, son of Judge Pritchard, has been appointed a cadet to West Point by Congressman Judger, of the tenth district. The appointment it seems was not a piece of favoritism, young Pritchard winning it by making the highest average in competitive examination. It has been sufficiently demonstrated that we have writers in North Carolina who can write history. Why does some one not attempt a popular history of the State? If it is written in an attractive style and has the further merit of brevity we believe that it would be widely read.—Winston Sentinel. A. W. Biggers, a Lincoln county farmer, widow, aged 61, and Mrs. Anna B. Chapman, of Saginaw, Mich., aged 58, were married in Charlotte. The marriage was brought about by an advertisement which Biggers inserted in a matrimonial journal. After correspondence and an exchange of photographs the couple met in Charlotte and were married. Salisbury Sun: For a piece of dirty cowardice the attack of two revenue officers on Editor Deal of the Wilkesboro Chronicle, caps the climax. When two burly ruffians in the employ of the United States government jump on a frail weakly citizen for telling the truth it is time the law butted in and took a hand. This is what happened at North Wilkesboro and the people of that community are greatly enraged and justly so at the manner in which the editor was beaten.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY. Obituary. Mrs. Louise F. Daniel, wife of R. A. Daniel died at her home at Lyons April 16th. She was the daughter of a well known family of the county, Northern Granville and was born March 14 1835, and departed this life April 16th, 1905, making her stay on earth seventy years, one month and two days. Mrs. Daniel, during the last few years of her life, was much afflicted but bore it all with great patience and courage. Her illness which leads us to believe she has gone to a better world where pain and sick ness may never enter. She leaves a devoted wife, a kind and loving mother and several grand children to mourn her death. A FRIEND.

Resolutions of Respect. Oxford, N. C., April 18th, 1905. Oxford Lodge, No. 103, O. G. W., adopted the following preamble and resolutions: "Though east down, we're not for Though afflicted not alone. Thou didst give and Thou hast taken. Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done." Though today we're filled with mourning, Mercy still is on the Throne; With Thy smiles of love returning, We can sing, "Thy will be done." Whereas, it has pleased the All-Wise God to send and respect into his vineyard and taken into Himself in the very bloom of his manhood the life of our beloved brother, Lester E. Wright, and Whereas, Our late brother did ever exemplify the watch words of our order: "friendship, Love and Truth," and Whereas, his death has been a loss to the members wear the badge of mourning for a period of thirty days. Resolved, That Oxford Lodge No. 103 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows do hereby extend to the bereaved family and loved ones our sympathy and love in their time of trial, and while it is with heavy hearts we contemplate his absence from our midst and know that the Reaper Death has browned great sorrow and suffering to those left behind, yet the teaching of our order make it plain that he would not desire to be remembered until the last day when the trumpet sounds and he will join the souls of heaven in a happy and worthy and well qualified. And be it Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Order and be read at the next meeting also to the Public Lodge, and the members wear the badge of mourning for a period of thirty days. J. F. LONG, J. F. EDWARDS, Committee.
