ROYAL Baking Powder Saves Health

The use of Royal Baking Powder is essential to the healthfulness of the family food.

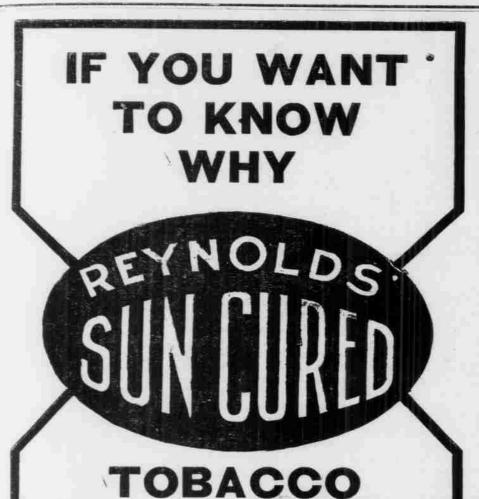

> Yeast ferments the food. Alum baking powders are injurious.

Royal Baking Powder saves health.

ROYAL BAKING FOWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ct. ht cents g'ven as a joke on a reaveling man by his companions. travellag men in Iowa.

lieve you'd be late at your wedding." started a $200,000 fund that will "Ah!" murmured the man. "And a be used to build a national home for lot later, too, if I got the chance apples, 77%; peaches, 84%.

is the largest seller, cut out this advertisement and send, together with 2c stamp, to R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C., and they will mail free a 5c sample of this tobacco. Write your name and address plainly.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Chat Hillitcher. sonal supervision since its intancy.
Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregorie, Drops and Scothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic sabstance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years.

LISTEN!

Being the largest buyer of Furniture of any firm in this section of the state, having purchased five car loads this season, you can easily understand why I can sell at such low thing more than $30,000 were anfigures. I have the exclusive agency for feveral large furni- nounced. It was announced that by going up the last two steps and ture firms, and each piece I put out I fully guarantee—if not Mr. B. N. Duke had recently given as represented return it and get your money back.

My Undertaking Department

is full and complete and equipped with all the modern conveniences. Promp service any hour, day or night.

J. Robert Wood,

HILLSBORO STREET.

THE OXFORD PUBLIC LEDGER.

on hand—Letter Heads, Bill Heads, Visiting Cards, Wedding Invitations, Pamphlets, Legal and Commercial In order to accommodate 40 more in Printing. Everything in the Job mates. The contract was awar led Printing line. Get the best—we to C. A. P. gram, of Raleigh, he best—we guarantee ours.

WADE H. BRITT, LOCAL EDITOR.

NORTH STATE HAPPENINGS.

Rev. E.C. Caldwell, a son of Rev. A. as it was felt that this was a much S. Caldwell, of Bartum, was last needed improvement. licensed to preach by Orange Presbyelections have been carried in the usual for folks to do so. Mr. J. W. past few days for the establishment Parham, a few days age found a suit of graded schools.

Watson, of the Episcopal Church. There was also a top shirt, a pair of who died at Wilmington recently, heavy buckskin gloves. They seemwas left to the diocese of Eastern ed to have been left there by some North Carolina. The estate amounts one who simply wanted to change to about $20,000.

The State Department of Agriculture has issued the crop report, show- er He found a dollar bill on the "Late again, Mr. Brown! Late ing the state of the average prospect ground near by. Who ever it was again!"chirped the manager "I be for crops to be as follows: Tobacco, 95 6-35; peanuts, 112 3 10; wheat, 97%;

> The Sentinel says one of the jury men who served at the last term of Forsyth Superior Court drew his pay-$10.25-and turned the whole amount over to the jalloy to be used to buy tobacco for the prisoners.

> It is reported from Norfolk that the Standard Oll Company has pur-Eastern North Carolina, from which oil barrels will be manufactured at a point on the line of the projected wire ginia and Carolina Coast Railroad.

Ferguson, of Goshen, was in town to the place, Afterdeliberating about this week. He tells us that he has five minutes the jury answered the not lost a meals yictuals in eighty issue in favor of the son .- Lexington years on account sickness. He is as Dispatch. jovial and lively now as a boy of sixteen. If you want to live happily o'clock the residence of Mr. Whi always, just come and live on the pure fresh air of Wlikes.

by disreputable women were fired ing given and the hose company was and one burned to the ground. The promptly on the ground, but as inmates were absent at the time, there was no water supply near The Mt. Airy Leader says the con- enough to be brought into play. duct of these places had been unbear- nothing could be done to save the able to those living near by, and as building. Nearly all the furniture the law falled to provide a remedy and contents of the house were indignant citizens took the matter saved, however; the crowd working into their own hands.

near the Cape Fear river, tried to the flames and the intense heat. Exdrown herself Tuesday afternoon on actly how the fire originated was account of grief over the arrest of not made known, but it started in her son, Will Guthrle, charged with the kitchin and made rapid headway highway robbery. When the wo-through the building.-Henderson man's purpose was learned, friends Gold Leaf. pursued her and by force prevented The adoption of the plan to securgroes felgaed illness and when the bor, tenants or share-settlers to re captured.-Wilmington Messenger. An over zealous degree team in a degree with the candidate that proand Ed Mabe, the candidate. was quired to open a land registry and badly burned and is under a physi- publish lists of properties offered for clan's care. He will sue the boys who sale and send out the literature. initiated him for criminal assault and bring civil suit against the order. On the 7th $50,000 in bonds, the same to be used in maintaining the present roads of the county and in building new roads, was voted There was not a single vote cast against the bond issue outside of the city and in Wilmington only 24 votes were cast against it. The total registration was 749 and 539 votes were east for the bonds and 24 against. It required 375 votes to carry the election so the majority 164.-Wilming

A large congregation gathered at the funeral of Mr. John Fleppin ten miles from Pilot Mountain, Sunday. He cut his throat a few days ago while ploughing corn. His boys found him just as he was dying. The prodigal brother mule was hitched and the manlay in a puddle of blood near by. This is the third member of the family that recreation and rest. died with a cut throat, his sister having committed suicide in this hand, a strong hand, an uplifting hand, manner, and his mother was found a hand filled with mercy and help. dead with her throat cut after being missed for several days. There was a small fire at Colonel Hood's place on church street last Saturday afternoon. The fire occurred in the buggy house to the rear of who was noted for his activity. Capthe residence, containing a new buggy and harness and a considerable amount of feed. The building and taken; but, as there were forty-one contents were totally destroyed, but steps in the flight, he found after takthe prompt action of the fire cons ing twenty hops that he was left only pany prevented any further spread one step to negotiate and had lost. He of the flames. The origin of the fire accused Captain M. of sharp practice, is a complete mystery, as no one was but the latter replied: known to have been near the building-Henderson Gold Leaf.

Trinity gifts amounting to some then hopped up forty steps in twenty dormitory for the Trinity Park school and to make improvements try as the source of his unparalleled in the main building at that school. ambition and achievements, but said, It was also announced that Mr. B. N. Duke and brother, Mr. J. B. Duke, once said to Cicero, "You are a plebe had paid the college the interest on bility of my family begins with me; $100,000 for one year, this being the that of yours ends with you." Better support of the law department.

Hamby tells us that Joseph Calo- make your family proud of you than be Ridge above Parsonville, just across the Ashe line, has 100 acres in corn and that 65 acres of it are in one field. Think of a field of 65 acres all in corn on top of the lofty Blue Ridge! The energy in the course of a year than the rows are a mile and a half long. Mr. woodchuck. He feeds upon the best in Tonic. You know what you are taking. rows are a mile and a half long. Mr. Caloway is one of the wealthlest men in Ashe county and has made it by farming on a mountain farm. He bas 55, head of cattle, seven horses by farming on a mountain farm. He has 85 head of cattle, seven horses and mules and other stock in properties.

Whiter comes on he forgets all care and of fair education to travel for a firm of first application gistation gist

Soldiers' Home composed of Julian S. Carr, A. B. Andr ws, B. F. Dixon and A B Stronach, met there and Complete line stationery always opened bids for fitth g up the second leg the lowest bidder. Steam heat, etc. will be provided and the rooms will be ver, comf reable indeed. The committee is f gar ng, on installing elec ric lights in place of the ker sene

lamps which have at voys been in use

The executive committee of the Gastonia Gazette: Snakes shed their winter clothes in the woods In both Lincolnton and Newton and old fields, but it is something unof winter underwear in the woods The entire estate of the late Bishop about 650 yards from his house. from winter to summer clothing. Mr. Parham has no clue to the ownseemed to have had a fire to disrobe by. There were also about a dozen cigarette stubs scattered around.

A novel case was tried in Foravth Superior court at Winston Friday. It was to decide whether Martin Peopl s or his stepson were entitled to one thousand dollars for the rebuilding of the home of Mrs. Peoples, destroyed by the reservoir disaster last fall, The Issue presented to the jury was that if they found that Mrs. left a pint of it. Hand me a glass chased 106,600 acres of timber land in Peoples was killed instantly in her until I try it." home, then they should find that the son was entitled to the home, but that if the wife and mother lived after the reservoir disaster, they should Wilkesboro Chronicle: Col. Harve | decide that the husband wasentitled

On Tuesday morning about elever Swain on Fairground street was to tally destroyed by fire. A very larg In Mt. Alry two houses occupied crowd gathered upon the alarm behard and heroleally until driven from Mrs. Wm. Guthrle, a widow living the building by the rapid spread of immigration to North Carolina is de Twelve out of negro jail birds clared to be in response to the inter choked and overpowered Jailer Capps est of Governor Glenn and Senator at midnight Sunday night and made Simmons. The board adopted a resgood their escape. One of the ne- olution inviting all who wished injaller opened the cage door to hand cord their needs with the departin medicine the negroes sprang upon ment, the secretary to perfect the him, quickly overpowered him, and best arrangement possible for sup escaped. Most of the men were re- plying the persons so applying with the class of immigrants desired; that a charge of $3 for each man, $2 for Woodman camp at Morganton after each woman and $1 for each chile under fifteen be made against the applicant and the money so collected duced disastrous results. The side paid to the agent supplying such per degree was the hot metal chair test son or persons. The secretary is re-

LEND A HAND.

Lend a hand to the tempted. Lend a hand to souls in the shadow. Lend a hand to those who are often Lend a hand to the soul crushed with unspeakable loss. Lend a hand to the poor fighting the wolf from the door.

Lend a hand to those whose lives are narrow and cramped. Lend a hand to the boy struggling bravely to culture his mind.

Lend a hand to the young people whose homes are cold and repelling. Lend a hand to those whose surroundings are steadily pulling them

Lend a hand to the prodigal sister.

Her life is as precious as that of the Lend a hand to the girl who works, works, works and knows nothing of Lend a hand-an open hand, a warm Silver Cross.

Won Each Time,

About thirty years ago a remarkable bet was made between Captain M., a racing celebrity, and another officer tain M, bet £50 that his fellow officer would not hop up a certain flight of stairs "two at a time." The offer was

"Well, I'll wager you another £50 i | you?" The officer, thinking to get back his At the graduating exercises at money, again accepted. Captain M.

Napoleon never pointed to his ances-"I am my own ancestry." A patrician ian." "I am." said Cicero. "The nobe the foundation of a new pyramid North Wilkesboro Journal: H. M. | than the apex of an old one. Better

The Woodchuck Is Lazy. There is no animal that exerts less and mules and other stock in pro-like the bear, falls asleep, not to year and expenses; paid weekly. awaken till spring.—St. Nicholas.

Mr. Bowser's Tonic An Old Friend Sends Him Some Elderberry Wine--His Wife is Skeptical and warns Him Not to Drink it, But he is Persistent. [Copyright, 1904, by T. C. McClure.] N hour before Mr. Bowser came ion jug with his name written on the tag, and Mrs. Bowser took it in without even having the curiosity to does it?" smell of the contents. When he arrived he pulled a postai card from his pocket and said: "My old schoolmate, Tom Barlum living up the north part of the state, writes me that he has sent me down something for my annual rheumatism.

Has anything arrived today?" "A gallon jug," was the reply. "That must be the stuff."

"Does he say what it is?" "No, but I'm sure it's elderberry wine. There's enough so that you can have a glass or two." "Thanks," she replied, "but I prefer to know what I'm drinking. It doesn't say elderberry wine on the tag, and if I were you I'd go a little slow. Even if it's elderberry wine I don't want any. It's the most sickish stuff I ever

"Um!" said Mr. Bowser as he lifted knew what I was hinting at and has sent it along. If he had marked it wine the expressman wouldn't have you?"

"I'd take it to the druggist or some body and make sure. "And I wouldn't. When I get to that pass that I can't tell elderberry wine from hard cider I'll call in the neigh- sure?" bors. Um, um! Say, that's the real old quill. It carries me right back to my boyhood days. I'll bet I have gathered and you'd be dead before I had time

"I said so because I helleve so, but nevertheless the taste is a little queer. up to dinner the other evening Perhaps he put too much sugar in it. the expressman brought a gal- I've had a cramp or two, but they came from the change of the weather, of cause that he knew was hopeless. He course. My face doesn't look very red,

> "Not so very, but I should say you were in pain. I can see perspiration on On seeing Slade she paled, but recovyour forehead. I to'd you not to drink ered herself at once and cordially inany of that stuff until you were sure what it was. It smelt more like horse liniment to me than elderberry wine." Mr. Bowser got up and got his hat, and then descending into the basement and perturbed when he entered the store, and the druggist asked if anything was the matter down at the up. During the interview she was ill at "No, nothing the matter down there," he replied, "but I wish you woulld tell me if this is elderberry wine? It was the drug store. He was looking pale sent me by an old friend up the state, and I have begun to take it for my "Then you have begun to be a fool!" the jug to smell of the contents. "It's was the blunt answer of the man of surely elderberry wine, and if you drugs. "Elderberry wine would have don't like it you can let it alone. It no more effect on such an ailment doesn't say wine on the tag, but Tom than so much coffee. Indeed it isn't half so good as bettermilk. So you have been wiggi s it down, have with anger.

"Only three glasses." "Well, you have made an ass of yourself, as usual. This stuff is some kind of horse or cow liniment and not elder berry wine at all. Why in the dickens did you begin on it before you were the situation to Hutchinson, Alene was "I-I dunno. Is it poisonous?" bitterly cognizant of it. Stepping be-"I couldn't say without an analysis, tween them, she held the palm of a a hundred bushels of elderberries for to make it. There's sugar of .ead mother to make wine of. Yes, that here for sure and perhaps laudanum Mrs. Bowser said no more, and din back home as soon as you can and ier was put on the table and eaten,

Mr. Bowser drank a second glass with his dinner, and, though he screwed his mouth around as if the taste was not | the house and been sent to the store. exactly to his liking, he made no remarks. When the meal had been finished and the sitting room reached he

"I must buy Tom a present of some kind and send it up. It was mighty good and thoughtful of him to remember me, and, do you know, I've got the greatest faith in it as a reme-

"A remedy for what?" absently que ried Ars. Bowser. "For what? That's a queer question to ask me. You know I've been a sufferer from rheumatism for the last twenty years. I believe if I should once get cured of it you would be mad

"Nonsense. In the first place, you have only got neuralgia and very little of that, and in the next you are too ready to pick up with any sort of remedy. Our druggist will tell you that timothy hay boiled in sweet water has just as much virtue as elderberry

"Then he's an infernal fool! If it isn't the best thing out, how is it that I feel better after taking only two glasses? Things have come to a pretty pass when you get jealous and show it in every word because my dear old friend Tom sends me down a little present. Mrs. Bowser, I wouldn't have your disposition for all the money in town. It's nag, nag, nag, and if you had some husbands they wouldn't stand it as I feel better," she answered as she out more'n forty different aches already. By the time the gallon is gone again. I think I'll try another glass." He went down in the dining room and helped himself, and when he returned he lighted a cigar and took up the evening paper. At the end of ten minutes Mrs. Bowser noticed that he was hitching around as if he had something on his mind, and after two or three minutes he asked:

"You don't think Tom could have made any mistake about that jug, do "You said it was elderberry wine,"

And Mrs. Bowser held the camphor bottle to his nose and smiled.

Seaboard Railroad Excursions on St.

John's Day to Oxford.

Excursions trains from Raleigh,

C. H. GATTIS

Traveling Pass. Agt, Raleigh, N. C.

Paul Morton will retire as secretary of the navy July 1 and will be suc

A GUARANTED CURE FOR PILES.

Itching, blind, blee ing or protruding piles. Druggist refund money if PAZO OINTMENT tails to cure any case, no mat-

Baltimore, Md.

The Childrens ravo.ite. For coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc., One Minute Cough Cure is the childrens favorite. This is because it Durham and Weldon to Oxford contains no opiates, is perfectly harm will be run on account of Saint out all the lighting companies in the less, tastes good and cures. Sold by

A FEW WORDS TO THE LADIES. One of the most important ac. Raleigh 8 a m, Durham 8 a m, Weljuncts to a household is a sewing don 6:45 a m. Rate of $1 to apply machine, and I am ready to sell you a Standard, Domestic, White, New from Raleigh, Durham and Weldon Home or Wheeler & Wilson machine, graded down the line to 50 cents from all of which are furnished with latest | Henderson, For further information attachments. Offer big bargains in see posters, or address, second-hand machines and it will pay you to examine them. Repairing a

HAS STOOD THE TEST 25 YEARS The old original Groves Tasteless Chill

or opium, and your best plan is to get send for"-

He was interrupted by the arrival of a telegraph boy who had called at Mr. Bowser trembled so that he could not tear open the envelope, and the druggist took the message and read it and said:

"It's from some one who signs himself Tom. He says he sent you the wrong jug by mistake, and this preparation is for external use when one has been poisoned by ivy. Get home, old man, and send for your family doctor and his stomach pump. I'll bet dollars to cents Mrs. Bowser advised you against drinking the stuff without being sure what it was. If your death occurs tonight I'll call around in the morning and offer my services. Have you got a lot up in Green-

Mr. Bowser didn't wait to answer. He flew home at a gait of twelve miles an hour, and as he burst open the front door and made his way down the hall be called out:

"Get to that telephone and get our doctor here without the loss of a minute or I'm a dead man!" "Is it that elderberry wine?" asked

"Never mind what it is, but tell the doctor it's a case of life or death!" The doctor found his patient in a state of collapse. After tasting the contents of the jug he made up his mind that no great harm had been done but it was an opportunity to point a moral, and he made the most of it. For two long hours Mr. Bowser was pumped and dosed and drugged, and when the doctor let up he "Well, I hope the wine will make you was so weak that he would have to remain in bed for a couple of days to get his strength back. He was in "Make me feel better. Of course it | humble and contrite mood as long as will. Those two glasses have driven the danger lasted and he was being dosed, but no sooner had the man of medicine departed and Mrs. Bowser I shall feel like a four-year-old colt asked if he was feeling a wee bit better than he sat up in bed and pointed an accusing finger at her and exclaim-

> "The nipsty-seventh attempt to assassinate me in the last fifteen years! tealousy you put rough on rats or some cockroach powder into the jug to end my days! Tomorrow, womantomorrow we will telephone our respective lawyers and-and"-

M. QUAD

John's Day and return by the Sea- city of Mexico, and will spend $40,000,board Saturday June 24th. Tickets 0 0. being good on Special train leaving

CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought

Butler has scored a big point on ceeded by Charles J. Bonoparte, of Blackburn in regard to the establishment of their respective Republican dally papers in Greensboro by secur ing the Associated Press service for the former's protected daily.

"When I was a boy," says Jacob Ris, "I thought women were angels.

A NOBLE LIE During that period of the American Revolution when Washington was at Morristown, Captain Leon Slade fell desperately in love with Alene Mac-Ardle, the comeliest maiden of that New Jersey village. But the young GOOD POTATOES lady's heart was already given to The-BRING FANCY PRICES odore Hutchinson, a Tory lieutenant in One evening Captain Slade went to call upon Miss MacArdle to plead a Potash rapped several times with the brass knocker before being admitted, and then it was Alene who opened the door.

SEABOARD

GERMAN KALI WORKS

New York-93 Nassau Street, or Atlanta, Ga.-221/2 South Broad S

AIR LINE RAILWAY.

...Direct Line ...

North, East, South, Southwest,

Leave Oxford 11:25 A. M. 4:30 P. M. He had scarcely uttered the words, Ar, Henderson 12:25 Noon 5:30 P. M.

Trains connect at Hendesson with through vestibule trains for

sald, "to come into our lines to call me NORFOLK, RICHMOND, WASHINGTON BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK, BOSTON, and COLUMBIA, WIL-MINGTON, CHARLOTTE, ATLANTA, JACKSONVILLE, SAVANNAH and al points North, South and South-west. -1-

> Trains composed of Pullman's latest Drawing Room Sleeping Cars, Vestible Day Coaches and Cafe Dining Cars, For information call on or address.

> > Oxford, N. C.

here. Being in civilian's dress, you will be arrested and hanged." W. M. BULLARD, Agent, The remark brought Slade to his senses. He was conscious that Miss C. H. GATTIS, T. P. A., MacArdle had stated his duty exactly. Raleigh, N. C. A change came over his face that bespoke his thoughts.

vited him into the living room. The two seated themselves before the great open fireplace, on which blazed a heap

of logs, and Slade used every argument

at his command to induce the girl to

She was an ardent American, but she loved Theodore Hutchinson and declined firmly though kindly to give him ease, constantly casting glances over her shoulder, as if expecting to see semething she dreaded. To lose the girl, without whom his life would not be worth living, through a redcoat worked the young man into a frenzy, and he vowed that he would go into the British lines, call his rival out and shoot spoken in the heat of passion, when the closed door opened, and Theodore

Hutchinson, in citizen's dress, stepped

"You do not need Captain Slade," he

While the two men stood regarding each other defiantly, their choler rendering them oblivious of the danger of hand to each, meaning to forbid their

"Theodore, are you mad? Suppose

Captain Slade should consider it his duty to inform upon your presence

for what you are a spy. If you die, you cannot carry back information of

"Agreed," said Hutchinson, with Alene stood aghast. At that moment

the front door opened, and the commander in chief walked into the house.

He was in frequent consultation with

Mr. MacArdle and came and went at his pleasure. Entering the living room,

he bowed deferentially to Miss Mac-

Ardle, returned Captain Slade's salute

with a nod, glanced at Hutchinson, whom he had never seen, and asked

Miss MacArdle if he could see her father. She managed to gather sufficient voice to say that he was not at home. The general was about to with-ance of every one of the party arrested

"I have not been introduced to your

"My friend, rather, general," he said.

"Mr. Parks is a friend of mine whom

I have brought to call upon Miss Mac-

The general looked from one to the other. "These are citical times," be said, "and it behooves us to be guarded. But since you vouch for the gentleman, Captain Slade, I am satisfied.

Only pledge him if he does not belong here not to reveal our condition when he leaves. He has the face of a gen-

With that the commander withdrew.

"Splendid man! He suspected us, but was content to leave the matter in our hands. Promise me, Theodore, that you will reveal nothing you have seen."

"Not before I have expressed my gratitude to the rival who held a terrible vengence in his hand and instead of casting it upon me told his commander the noblest lie ever uttered by

"Since I have your promise," replied

Slade, "a promise which I have no doubt you will keep, and the implied permission of the general in chief to permit you to return to your lines, I will be happy to insure your safe exit

through our vedettes by escorting you myself. You owe your life to the man come here through love or friendship."

The men left the house together, and Hutchinson was passed through the American lines. He lost his life soon after at the battle of Monmouth, and

Slade afterward married Miss MacAr-

dle. She had been won from the mo-

Some time in October Prince Louise

of Battanburg will visit this country

A Canadian syndicate has bought with a squadron of British warships.

MARY T. ELLIOTT.

ment he had told his splendid lie!

As soon as he had gone Miss MacArdle

tleman and can be trusted."

"Now go," said Alene.

said hurriedly:

draw when the embarrassed appear-

ever increasing wrath.

his attention.

Hutchinson.

out, his eyes flashing and his face hot

out. I am here to give you all the satisfaction you require."

meeting, and said:

he picked up the jug and started for give up her Tory lover and marry him.

SAW MILL

HEACOCK KING FEED WORKS NUMBER AND BOILERS, WOODWORKING MACHINERY, COTTON GINNING, BRICK MAKING AND SHINGLE AND LATE MACHINZEY, CORN MILLS, ETC., ET GIBBES MACHINERY CO., Columbia, S. C.

PENNYROYAL PILLS Original and Only Genuine SAFE, Always made Ladies, as Bruggis for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISE
in REB and Gold metalic boxes, sealed with blus ribbos. Take no other. Refuse Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Bruggist, or send 4e. in friend," he said to Miss MacArdle, Sale of Valuable Land. looking scrutinizingly at Lieutenant By virtue of a power of sale contained a deed in trust executed to me on There are times when a noble man the 25th of January, 1903, by J. M. M. Greg by nature will temporarily look above ory, registered in Book 58, page 5, of Public There are times when a noble man his duty. Captain Slade's nobility came > at the Court House door in Oxford expose to the highest bidder, a certain tract of land situated on the waters of Grassy Creek, in nore or less, and known as "Elmwood." it O Gregory lived, adjoining the lands of Henry Bryan, John Chavis, John Currin, the children of R. O. Gregory and the children of C. A. Gregory, The sale will be nade to pay the principal and interest due on the notes mentioned in said deed in trust no payment, neither of principal or interest, having been made on either of said

THE GIBBES SHINGLE MACHINE

This May 20, 1905. R. B. PEEBLES, Trustee. Notice,

North Carolina, | In the Superior Court, Granville County. Nannie Nora Riley, Plaintiff,

A. M. Riley, Defendant. The defendant above named will take noice that an action entitled as above has een commenced in the Superior Court of Granville county wherein the above plain iff seeks a divorce, and the defendant will orther take notice that he is required to appear at the next term of the Superior art of Granville county to be held on the th Monday before 1st Monday in Septemper, 1905, in the Court House of said counin Oxford, N. C., and answer or demur o the complaint in said action, or the plain tiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This May 20, 1905. Clerk Superior Court. who knew by instinct that you had Wm. H. Harrison, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of R. T. Brinkley, deceased, late of Granville county, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 27th day of March, 1906, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. Ail persons indebted to said es-This April 6th, 1905.

J. A. BRINKLEY, ate will please make immediate payment.

Administrator's Notice.

The undersigned having this day duly qualified as administrator of G. M. Bragg, deceased, of Granville county, N. C., so-tice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them, duly authenticated for payment on or before the 4th day of May, 1906, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. Immediate settlement of all accounts due the estate is also desired. W. A. BLACKLEY,

Wm. H. HARRISON, ATTORNEY & COUNSELOR AT LAW,

This May 4, 1905. B. S. Royster Attorney.

OXFORD, N. C. The criminal practice and the S.ttlement of Estates specialties,

Office in Hicks Building next door to law office of A. A. Hicks.