BRIEF DASHES OF THINGS HAPPENING.

—Did you say that you had cleaned up your yards?

—The county commissioners will meet next Monday.

—Read sale of two tracts of land by S. H. Cannady and one by J. G. Hunt in another column.

—The Pension Board will meet in the Clerk's office next Monday at 10 o'clock to pass upon applications for pensions.

—Regular meeting Oxford Lodge No. 336, A. F. and A. M. Monday evening, July 3rd, when installation of officers will take place.

—Gen. B. S. Royster attended a joint picnic of three Masonic Lodges at Wake Forest Tuesday and installed the officers of each lodge.

—The dispensary was closed Saturday to the disappointment of the thirty who were forced to quench with lemonade and other cool drinks.

—Our two fine looking policemen, Messrs. S. M. Wheeler and L. E. Smith, present quite a handsome appearance in their new summer uniforms.

—Chief Wheeler has moved the rock crusher down on Raleigh street and his force of hands will soon be putting a road macadam on that muddy thoroughfare.

—Mr. Jackson, the health electric light man, has finished putting up the arc lights and is now decorating his line to putting in incandescent lights into business houses and residences.

—Mr. L. E. Smith continues to add improvements to the Exchange. Besides the grand old walk from the street to the steps he has tured the yards which makes the Exchange still more attractive.

—Two young women who appeared on the streets of Petersburg wearing old fashioned hoop-skirts were mobbed. Petersburg may not be long on gallantry but it is possessed of a fair amount of common sense.

—We call attention to the advertisement of the State Normal and Industrial School at Greensboro on the 4th page. It is one of the best schools in the south for young ladies. Write for a catalogue and terms.

—At the competitive drill of the militia on Monday night, Mr. S. M. Wheeler proved to be the best drilled man in the company and was awarded the medal. Mr. Wheeler is not a good officer but a good soldier.

—We call attention of the ladies to the important announcement of Messrs. Landis & Easton on the 4th page and say to them that now is the time to buy Millinery at greatly reduced prices during the next ten days.

—The venerable and greatly esteemed Dr. L. C. Taylor is now the only original inhabitant of Oxford, having made this his home since 1837. He has passed his 68th mile post in life's journey, and his familiar figure is on our streets daily.

—Maynard Mangum, who recently retired from the Platters' Warehouse in Durham, has made every arrangement for the opening of a new warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco at Greensboro. This new house will make the fourth at this place.

—All who intend to seek a health resort this summer cannot do better than to go to Chase City and stop at the "Mecklenburg" one of the finest and best equipped hotels in the South and get the benefit of the celebrated mineral water. Read advertisement on the 4th page.

—Mary Sandford, one of Oxford's industrious and well thought of colored women, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at her home in South Oxford. For many years she was a trusted employe of the Osborn House and was much esteemed by the white and colored people of Oxford.

—There will be Childrens Day exercises held at Sten Methodist church on next Sunday, same being July 2nd, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. Besides the above there will be addresses by W. S. Gooch and T. G. Sten. You are cordially invited to attend. Managing Committee Miss Hallie Jones, Miss Ada Bullock.

—Governor Glenn says that after his speech at Tammany Hall, July 4, he will take a ten days' rest at Atlantic City. Lieutenant Governor Winston will be notified so in case of emergency he can act as Governor and he will represent Governor Glenn in welcoming the International Convention for the Instruction of Deaf Mutes at Morganton.

—The editor had the pleasure of meeting in Oxford Saturday Mr. G. H. Wall, of Wake Forest section. He is of a long Red family as he informed the editor that his grand father, Mr. Bernice Wall, lived to be 128 years old. He lived 18 miles from Raleigh and at the age of 120 he walked to Raleigh and back in one day. He cut his second tooth and his eyesight came back to him the second time.

—We learn that Mr. A. W. Sikes, one of the old citizens of the Grissom section, passed into the Great Beyond on Wednesday of last week after an illness of several months. He was 76 years of age and much esteemed by his neighbors and friends. He leaves behind four sons, Dr. G. T. Sikes, and Messrs. J. M. Robert and Wiley Sikes and many relatives to mourn his death, to all whom we extend much sympathy.

Watched the Doings of People.

J. C. M. in Charlotte Observer says you would have been highly entertained if you had been at the Gattis-Kilgo trial and watched the doings of the people while the motion to non-suit was being argued. Mr. Gattis stuck pretty well to his seat, but even he preferred praise of himself to blame. He slipped out, explained by the defendant's discussions. But Dr. Kilgo and Mr. Duke came and went as the counsel alternated. When a plaintiff's attorney rose and said, "May I please your honor," to you might seek them, but they could not be found; but the moment one of their lawyers got the floor, in they came and sat it through. Why did they do so? Was it that they liked flattery, paid for though it was, and shrank from the rough treatment on the other hand, or is it explained by delicate courtesy which impelled them to leave while the plaintiff spoke, so that he might feel no embarrassment in saying what he pleased? What is a lawyer for, if he does not praise you and belabor the other fellow?

Dance Monday Night.

Monday night a dance was given in the barracks of the Horner School which proved a very enjoyable affair. Those dancing were: Miss Beale Traylor, of Raleigh, with J. C. Cooper, Miss Gant, of Burlington, with E. C. Howell, Miss Lily Wingo, of Hillsboro, with Bert Taylor, Miss Mary Barbee, of Raleigh, with J. E. Hongood, Miss Williamson, of Boynton, Va., with W. W. Cannady, Miss Mary Outlaw, of Elizabeth City, with Ben Lassiter, Lina Crews, of Durham, with M. K. Pinnix, Miss Lela Shannon, of Henderson, with George Cooper, of Henderson, Miss Florence Landis with Kerr Taylor, Miss Gertrude Landis with Baldy Williams, Miss Julia Winston with Eugene Lowellyn, Miss Janet Gregory with Linson Howell, Miss Lela Taylor, with Will Minor, Miss Anderson Taylor with Robert Moore, Miss Lucy Smith with James Horner, Miss Kate Horner with Will Taylor, Miss Irwin Stark with Mott Pinnix, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Massenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Stages—Brooks Farham, Benjamin Smith, and Leslie Perry, Henderson. After the dance Miss Kate Horner entertained a number of friends at an elegant luncheon.

Death of Capt. Robert D. Graham.

He died in Washington City, Tuesday, June 27th, 1905, Robert Davidson, fifth son of William A. and Susan W. Graham. Born to the historic and town of Hillsboro December 5th, 1827, he was prepared for college at the school of Dr. Alexander Wilson in Alamance county. He entered the University in 1850, but at the first alarm of war he enlisted as a private in Company D, 56th Regiment, Ransom's Brigade, and was much honored. He fell to his lot to command the detachment that day the trenchment where battle of the crator was fought in front of Petersburg and afterwards to participate in that battle. He was a strict disciplinarian, but ever attentive to the wants of his men in camp, and in battle was cool, gallant and fearless. Few officers ever had the affection and confidence of their men in a greater degree than did Captain Graham, and to this day the grizzled veterans speak with pride of their boy Captain. He was badly wounded at Harts Hill March 25, 1865, but when the lines were broken and the retreat began he followed on crutches, with the aid of a faithful family servant and returned to Petersburg to nurse a brother whom he had left dangerously wounded.

After the war he returned to the University and graduated in the class of 1868 with two of his brothers Dr. George W. Graham and Judge A. W. Graham, the only instance in the history of the University of three brothers receiving diplomas at the same time. He lived on his farm in Mecklenburg county and studied law and settled in Charlotte. He became Secretary of Civil Service Commission and afterwards Examiner in the Land Office of the Indian Department in both of which positions he earned the confidence and esteem of his superior officers, but upon the change of administrations he removed and then entered upon the practice of law in Washington.

Captain Graham possessed an intellect of a very high order and was a diligent student, especially of the history of his beloved State. He wrote the history of the 56th Regiment which is said to be one of the best found in the Regimental Histories of North Carolina.

He was a devout member of the Baptist Church and took much interest in church and Sunday School work. For several years he had a class of Chinese scholars in the leading Baptist Sunday School in Washington, and through his teachings and influence several of them joined this church. He lived the quiet humble life of a sincere Christian, and we hope and believe he has been given his reward.

Six brothers and one sister survive him as follows: Drs. Joseph and Geo. Graham, of Charlotte; Major John W. Graham, of Hillsboro; Major W. A. Graham, of Lincoln county; Capt. James A. Graham, of Washington (City); ex-Judge A. W. Graham, of Oxford, and Mrs. Walter Clark, Raleigh.

A TRAGEDY IN RALEIGH.

John Dockey Seriously Shot by Policeman Rogers.

Raleigh, N. C., June 24.—John Dockey, son of United States Marshall, H. C. Dockey, was shot and fatally wounded in the Tucker building this morning about ten o'clock by Policeman I. W. Rogers. At midnight Dockey was still living being in the Rex hospital, where he was taken immediately after the shooting, but his chances for recovery are exceedingly slim, the attending physicians saying that he has not more than one chance out of one hundred to survive the wounds.

Policeman Rogers made no attempt to escape, was taken in custody and is now in jail. The shooting was the outcome of family affairs, Rogers shooting Dockey because he had ruined a daughter of the policeman, Miss Lela Rogers.

The story of the trouble and shooting is as follows: Last night young Dockey, who is about 24 years of age, returned from Wilmington where he had been attending court. He then learned that Policeman Rogers and three sons of H. C. Howell had been looking for him and Claude Bernard, Ex United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina. This morning Dockey set out to settle the trouble and with one of the Howell boys went into the Tucker building with the idea of going to the office of Attorney James H. Poon. When he entered the building he saw Policeman Rogers at the head of the steps and sent Howell up ahead of him. Howell passed Rogers and Dockey in the policeman drew his pistol and fired two shots. Both took effect. His left arm and left shoulder blade were broken by one shot and the second shot entered the small of the back ranged downward and lodged somewhere in the abdomen. He is so weak that an operation has not been performed and the physicians say that he must die.

When Dockey was shot he fell backwards and landed on his back several feet down from Rogers. While in this position he managed to pull his pistol and fired one shot, this slightly grazing the leg of his slayer even with the right pants pocket. A crowd soon gathered Dockey was taken to the hospital and Rogers was arrested.

From what can be learned the story of the trouble and the circumstances leading up to the shooting are as follows:

Some weeks ago, one Tuesday in May, John Dockey and Claude Bernard went to the home of one Jennie May, carrying with them two young girls, the girl with Dockey being Lela Rogers and the one with Bernard being Bertha Howell. They were at this house another night the same week. On June 15, the girls, it is said, decided to run away from Raleigh but at the union depot met with some trouble in getting the tickets. They went to the home of Jennie Mays and were followed by one Will Parrish. He threatened to expose them by telling their parents and later told to Clarence Howell. Clarence Howell is a brother of the girl and in this way the story of the two girls' downfall reached the ears of their parents.

When this story was learned Dockey was in Wilmington and it was upon his return that he learned that Policeman Rogers was looking for him. The story of the tragedy is told in the above.

In the meantime a warrant has been issued for Claude Bernard. The warrant is issued under the father's act, under the old English law, which carries with it arrest and bail. The suit under this act, which is brought by H. C. Howell, is for $20,000. Subpoena Howell is for $20,000. Subpoena Howell is for $20,000. Subpoena Howell is for $20,000.

Marriage of Miss Lucy Webb and Mr. Joe M. Baird.

A beautiful home wedding occurred at the hospitable home of Mr. John H. Webb, near Stem, on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Joseph M. Baird, of Oxford, and the attractive Miss Lucy Webb, of Tally Ho; Sallie Cole, of Oxford. The pretty bride came in on the arm of her brother, Mr. Sam'l Webb, and was groomed in a lavender crepe de chene with hat to match. The groom entered the parlor with his best man, Mr. M. P. Chambliss, of Oxford. Miss Mattie S. Edmonson, of Mecklenburg county, Va., was maid of honor and came in with Miss Sue B. Daniel, of Satterwhite, and attired in white organza with white hat. The other brides maid were Misses Annie Morton, of Satterwhite; Mary Webb, of Tally Ho; Sallie Cole, of Oxford; Fannie Webb, of Oxford, all dressed in white organza. The flower girls were Lizzie Jones, of Culbreth, and Sallie Webb, of Oxford, Miss Mary Webb, of Oxford, well rendered the wedding march.

The parlor was beautifully decorated for the happy event. The present were many and beautiful.

A large number of relatives and intimate friends attended the marriage. After congratulations the happy couple drove to Stem and took the train for Asheville where they will remain about ten days, after which they will return to Oxford where they will make their home. The editor joins their host of friends in extending warmest congratulations.

Catarrh of the Bowels

Most Common in Summer.

Mrs. Geo. W. Taylor.

Mrs. George W. Taylor of Eaton, Gibson Co., Tenn., says: "I had had chronic diarrhea for six years. I tried everything I could hear of and had consulted several physicians without avail. My husband bought me a bottle of Peruna and I began to improve at once. I can do anything I ever could, and eat anything without inconvenience, and when I say if it had not been for Peruna I would now be in my grave, I do not think I exaggerate."

Chronic diarrhea is nothing else than catarrh of the bowels.

The remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in all locations, if it be an internal remedy, operating through the system. Peruna is exactly such a remedy. It is an internal specific for catarrh.

Send for free book on catarrh entitled "Health and Beauty." Sent to women only by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

Burning of the Peace Store.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock Wednesday morning the store of Mr. Leak Peace, just outside of the corporate limits of Oxford, on the Raleigh road, was destroyed by an fire in one end of the roof. The near by neighbors gathered and attempted to save some of the goods, but the heat proved too much for them, and the building with all its contents were consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is supposed that the rats had carried a match up into the ceiling and set it afire. The loss is about $800, with $300 insurance. It is the intention of Mr. Leak Peace to rebuild as soon as he can.

Notice.

The Board of County Commissioners will be in session Monday July 10 (the being the second Monday) to hear complaints as to valuation of property returned by the list takers of the several townships. Parties having complaints to make will take due notice.
