Clay Comments.
Mr. G. O. Pitts was in Durham last Monday on business.
Messrs. James Tippett and J. R.
Gordon were in Oxford Monday on business.

Mr. J. A. Overton makes frequent visits to the southside of the river these days and "her bright smiles haunt him still."

Last week happenings will be long remembered for the closing of the bloody war between Japan and Russia, and the capture of a moonshine still which has been running in the quiet neighborhood of Corinth vicinity for some time. We trust that the last one of these red moonshiners who have endeavored to degrade and destroy the peace and prosperity of this and other communities will all be captured at an early date.

The many relatives and friends will regret to learn of the sad and somewhat sudden death of Mr. J. M. Hayes which occurred at his home last Friday morning. Mr. Hayes had been in declining health for sometime and was 90 years, 1 month and 27 days old, and his death was caused from a second stroke of paralysis. The burial services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Puckett, of Oxford. He leaves a devoted wife and three boys and two daughters to whom the widow extends sincere condolence in the sad hour of bereavement.

Live Local Laconics.

BRIEF DASHES OF THINGS HAPPENING.

—Rev. John E. Wool will preach at Geneva next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

—Mrs. J. M. Baird, who has been numbered with the sick, is better.

—Rumor has it that several of our pretty young lads will be married this fall.

—Our big cotton farmer, Mr. H. H.
Eatman, is now busy picking out the fleece staple.

—Read administrator's notice of Messrs. Frank and Willie Taylor in another column.

—Owing to an error in the statement of the Bank of Creedmoor we republish it this week.

—The Dalley quartette, so we are informed, will not be in Oxford as announced last week.

—Work has commenced on the residence of Mrs. C. G. Elliott and Miss Belle Cooper on Hillsboro street.

—A little girl was born unto Mr. and Mrs. Morris Green a few days ago, and mother and child are doing well.

—Miss Hettie Lyon, who has been sick for some days, continues to improve to the pleasure of her many friends.

—There will be preaching at the Arbor near Mr. James Davis' at 4:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon by the Rev. J. E. Wool.

—Rumor has it that Oxford will have another big manufacturing enterprise. Why not an up-to-date Wagon Factory?

—Master Bixler Hohobog is at the delivery window of the post office, and we trust will prove a polite and efficient attaché of the office.

—Mrs. A. W. Graham, who has been quite ill for several weeks, we are pleased to learn is now able to set up for a few minutes at a time.

—Little Miss Sunshine Hicks and Master Edward Hicks handsomely entertained their little Oxford friends Saturday afternoon at Brantwood.

—Mr. Robert Roggan, of Salem Township, it is said wears rather a solemn smile now on account of the arrival of twins at his home—a boy and a girl.

The Minor Warehouse is splendidly located for a manufacturing enterprise, and suitable for the manufacture of chairs. Why not have a chair factory in Oxford?

—An orphan boy by the name of Medlock died at the Orphan Asylum Monday after a few days illness, and was buried Tuesday afternoon in the Orphan cemetery.

—We learn by way of grape vine telegram that one of ex-Presidents of Stems's Bachelors Club will soon become a benedict and will cease to croak on the joys of single blessedness.

—Mr. L. F. Smith, who has been on the police force for several years, has resigned and will devote his entire time to making the Exchange Hotel a pleasant resort for the traveling public.

—In order to be able to meet all demands for a supply of water the Oxford Water & Electric Co. have commenced the sinking of another well, which will be deeper than the one now in use.

—We are pleased to learn that Stovall is going ahead building up.
The large store of Messrs. Veazoy, and the nice dwellings of Dr. W. L.
Taylor and Mrs. Younger are nearing completion.

Macadamizing Front street is progressing very well, and when completed will give the farmers a macadam street in every direction to enter the town with tobacco and other products.

—Smelling Sheriff Howard is out on the search again for taxes, and wants you to go down into your jeans and fork up the "cold hard stuff" for the support of the schools, state and county government.

—Rumor has it that the Taylor-Cannady Buggy Co. will build a large addition to their factory fronting on Gilliam street running up to the Seaboard depot, in order to meet the demands of their growing trade.

—The question is being asked now many times a day: "When will the Water Company level the streets where they put the water pipes down?" We hope it will be done soon as water is coming on and red mud is a bad thing to walk over.

—Mr. R. Broughton is greatly improving his residence by the addition of an L with 4 rooms and a splendid basement along with a large and roomy back porch and hall running through main building. When completed Mr. and Mrs. Broughton will have a very convenient home indeed.

—We understand there are yet quite a number of vacancies in the county schools, and teachers desiring work with Superintendent R. G. Kittrell, who will take pleasure in securing positions for those who are qualified to teach.

—At the meeting of the Board of Town Commissioners Monday night Mr. Ernest Bragg was elected night policeman in place of Mr. L. F. Smith resigned. As a day policeman was needed temporarily Mr. Smith consented to serve as no one else seemed to desire the job.

OXFORD TOBACCO MARKET.

Has Seven Independent Buyers With Large Orders.

It is a pleasure to the editor to inform the farmers that Oxford is in a better condition than for several years as to independent buyers as we now have seven who hover over a pile of tobacco with large orders to fill. Along with the most excellent tobacco combine buyers we can confidently look forward to an exceedingly live market this season.
The highest averages on all grades will be the watchword on our warehouses floors, and of course the farmers will be sure to take advantage of the great opportunity to locate in their jeans big money for their crop.
Sales continue now every day, but Friday was a regular hummer as all the warehouses had good breaks, and the town was alive with our farmer friends. Stalk tobacco is taking the place of printings, and sells well. Most of the offerings were medium grades which are selling higher than last year.

It has long since been given up that the Oxford market reaches the highest averages throughout the crop than any in this section of the State, and farmers will put money in their "pocket book don't you know" by selling their crop in Oxford.

Landis & Easton's Fall Announcement.
One of the most reliable business houses in this section is that of Landis & Easton. It is liberally patronized by a good class of customers and the goods to be had at their two stores are of the best and most reliable quality. Their fall and winter dry goods, dress goods, notions, millinery, shoes, clothing, carpets, etc., have arrived and the two stores present a very attractive appearance indeed.
The ladies, men and boys are extending a warm invitation to call and examine the extensive stock of fall and winter goods, comprising all the latest fads of the season's production.
Now is the time to buy and avoid the rush. Read their message on the second page as this old reliable firm is anxious for your trade and will treat you right.

Elegant Entertainment.
"Brantwood" the elegant suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hicks, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was the scene of a happy gathering Thursday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Joy entertained at a euchre party, in honor of Miss Leah Perry, of Henderson. Four hand euchre was played and the first prize, a handsome pocket book, was won by Miss Charlotte Britt. The second prize, a string of amber beads, went to Mrs. Luther Stark. To each guest, silver bodkins, "souvenirs of Brantwood," were presented. After an interesting game, dainty refreshments were served.
Those present were: Miss Leah Perry, of Henderson; Misses Fannie and Net Gregory, Julia Winston, Willie Stark, Irwin Stark, Lullie Biggs, Helen White, Daisy Minor, Charlotte Britt, Annie Furman, Mrs. J. A. Niles, Mrs.
Luther Stark, Mrs. B. K. Hays, Mrs.
W. E. Massenburg and Mrs. James Powell.

Death of Mrs. Joseph L. Haskins.
The sad departure of this good woman, who died at her home near Hester, Granville county, August 18, 1905, has cast a gloom over her entire neighborhood, that only time can remove. Her death was a peculiarly sad one, she seemingly was only suffering from a bruised finger for several days, when blood poison set in, and she became unconscious and only lived a few hours. Mrs. Haskins was the second daughter of the widow A. K. Montgomery, and was 45 years old. Beside her mother she leaves a devoted husband and children, also brothers and sisters to sorrow over her death.
She was a consistent member of the Tally Ho Baptist Church, and lived to see several of her children made members of the same church. She was not only a devoted wife and loving mother but ever ready to administer to the sick and needy.

May the God of Love sustain and strengthen the bereaved ones in their time of grief. The interment took place at the home of her mother near Hester where her remains were consigned to the tomb near her little baby who had gone before. J.

A sudden attack at night of some form of of pimples and blackheads. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has driven them away.

People hardly know me. I'm looking fine." 35 cents. Tea or Tablets, J. G. Hall.

Over 30,000 bars of cotton were marketed in Union county during the cotton year just closed.

Like Finding Money.
Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and cold dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr.
King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At R. L. Hammons drug store; 50c and $1; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A Wisconsin woman describes her missing husband as "an active Bik." He is probably herding with the dears.—Washington Post.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

Is Generally Catarrh of Kidneys.

Mrs. M. J. Danley, Treasurer of the Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., writes from 124 First street, N., Minneapolis, Minn.: "Anything I can do to tell the world of the merits of Peruna I will be only too glad to do."
"I was afflicted for several years with kidney trouble which became quite serious and caused me considerable anxiety.
I spent hundreds of dollars trying to be cured, but nothing gave me any permanent relief until I tried Peruna.
It took less than three months and only ten bottles to effect a permanent cure, but they were worth more than many hundreds of dollars to me. I am fully restored to health, know neither ache nor pain and enjoy life."

MRS. M. J. DANLEY.

A Prominent Southern Lady's Letter.
Miss Laura Hopkins, of Washington, D. C., niece of Hon. E. O. Hopkins, one of the largest iron manufacturers of Birmingham, Ala., writes the following letter commending Peruna. She says:
"I can cheerfully recommend Peruna for indigestion and stomach trouble and as a good tonic."

LAURA HOPKINS.
If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
