Marriage of Mr. J. D. Brinkley and Miss Mary Pearson. Seldom has the people of Mecklenourg county, Va., witnessed a more beautiful marriage than was solemn ized Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Luke's church, when Miss Mary Pearson of that county became the wife of Mr. J. D. Brinkley, of Oxford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stringfellow, witnessed by a very large number of relatives and friends. The maid of honor was Miss Lizzle Pearson, of New York City, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Frank Blalock, of Oxford. (We falled to get the names of the six couples who wafted on them.) The church was beautifully decorated for the happy event.
