Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Gertain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws, But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weak-nesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and Marys, come home to enjoy Easter.

—Mr. Standard Mrs. H. T. Norwood, of Williamsboro, were on our screets in Stamps to pay expense of the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and lils—Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in tilese cases, to meet with those in which his treatment falls by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in tilese cases, to meet with those in which his treatment falls by reason of the patient of such that the mother is called upon to the authority of the maker of that world here from periods and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his relation to enable her to Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only.
