Sale of Land.

By virtue of authority conferred upon me by a decree of the Superior Court of Granville County in the special Proceeding entitled "A. J. Veazey and others vs. P. W. Walker and others," I will on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27th 1906 sell to the highest bidder for cash one-fourth undivided interest in and to the following described tract of land, in Dutchville Township Granville County, adjoining the lands of A. J. Veazey on the north, A. J. Johnson on the east, Mrs. Isabella Waller on the south, and Mrs. S. J. Veazey on the west, containing 116 1/2 acres, it being the same land devised by Elizabeth and Mary Walker to A. J. Johnson and to James and Daniel Walker.

NICE RESIDENCE BURNED.

The Beautiful Home of Mr. Fred Currin Destroyed Sunday.

The editor deeply regrets to learn that the nice country home of Mr. Fred Currin, near Enon church, was totally destroyed Sunday morning about 10 o'clock by fire, along with most of his furniture. Mr. Currin and his family had gone to the church to attend Sunday school leaving no one at home but the cook. They had not been gone long when the kitchen, attached to the house, caught on fire. A hurried messenger was sent to the church and informed Mr. Currin, and all present hurried to his home and succeeded in saving a part of the furniture and most of the clothing before the building fell in. The well was so close to the house and on account of the intense heat, no water was available, the large crowd of neighbors and friends had to stand and see the nice dwelling devoured by the flames along with one out building.

Mr. Currin is one among the best men in the county, and much sympathy is expressed on all sides for him and his most estimable wife in the destruction of the pretty new home.

Mr. Currin was insured for $2,500 which will not cover his loss.

Mr. Currin request us to return his many thanks to all who rendered him assistance during and since the fire.

Death of an Aged Lady.

Mrs. Jane Stem, one of the oldest and best women of Tally Ho Township, passed away Saturday morning at the ripe old age of 82. She was ripe for the harvest as she lived a pure christian life, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. The funeral and burial took place Sunday afternoon and was largely attended.

The Successful Candidate.

And now at last the tumult stops; The heebers and the thugs depart; The candidate his forehead mops; And calms his palpitating heart. He is elected, his the fight; The opposition has been flayed.

But what of wrongs that he would right? What of the promises he's made? My worthy friends, keep at him yet, Lest he forget, lest he forget.

Walker to Hang.

Within less than four days after the murderous assault upon Mr. L. Banks Holt in his home at Graham, his assailant had been arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the crime of burglary in the first degree. The day of execution was set on the 6th of December, just one month from the day the crime was committed. The verdict satisfies the public, the people being thoroughly convinced that Walker is guilty, and the evidence as brought out at the trial admitting of no reasonable doubt of his guilty.

Took His Own Life.

Leaving behind him letters to the effect that being out of a job with no money and tired of life and that he did not want to give his old mother any more trouble, Herbert L. Matthews, a young white man 23 years old, took his own life in Raleigh, on the night of November, 10th, by drinking twenty grains of strychnine in a glass of coca cola. He drank the deadly draught at a soft drink shop on Wilmington street just as an officer came up to place him under arrest for leaving a horse untied on the street.

The Melver Fund.

Contributions for the Melver memorial statue fund are coming in every week to Superintendent of Public Instruction Joyner. During the past weeks $300.00 has come in in pledges and contributions.

Among these contributions is $100 from General J. S. Carr, who never fails to respond liberally to every call for any worthy object in the State that he loves with the devotion of a loyal son.

Among the contributions, too, are a number of small contributions from rural school teachers. No contributions to this fund are more highly appreciated or represent more love and sacrifice than these small contributions from the hard earnings of poorly paid school teachers. There are nearly 10,000 teachers in North Carolina and it is expected that a large majority of these teachers will contribute something to this fund to the memory of their best friend.—News & Observer.

D. T. CHEATHAM.

48,000 DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY.

No Falling off in Democratic Vote From 1904.

The official returns for the election last Tuesday show that the Democrats carried the State by forty-eight thousand majority. At no time during the campaign did even the most sanguine Democrat predict that the majority this year would be anything like as large as 49,256, the majority which Governor Glenn received in 1904. The best posted and most sanguine leaders like State Chairman Simmons expected as high water mark a majority of about 41,679, the majority which Judge Parker had over Roosevelt in 1904. That majority in the "off year," when in half the counties the victory for the Democratic local ticket was plain sailing, would have been regarded by the Democrats as a complete magnificent victory.

Johnston, formerly the banner Democratic county, dropped to about 250 majority. Disaffection over the liquor question is the cause. Wake is the banner county this year, with about 2,300 majority, and Mecklenburg is next with about 2,000.

Person county elected all of her Democratic candidates, with the exception of S. C. Humphries for the House. He was defeated by H. J. Whitt, Republican, by 115 majority.

The next General Assembly of North Carolina will be overwhelmingly Democratic. The Senate will consist of 46 Democrats and 4 Republicans, and in the House there will be 104 Democrats and 16 Republicans.

Congressman Thomas, in the third district, has about 5,000 majority; and Mr. Small, in the first district, has about 7,500.

The Republican majority in Sampson, Marion Butler's home county, was reduced about 250. Forsyth county gave an average Democratic majority of about 250.

Alamance elected six Democrats and five Republicans, giving the Democratic Judges and Corporation Commissioner a majority. Mr. J. D. Kerdle, editor of the Alamance Gleaner, was re-elected Clerk by seven majority.

The Ashe county Democrats, who have kept the faith in days of trial when less resolute men would have given up hope, have cause for a big Thanksgiving this year, having carried the county for the first time in twenty years.

Thanks Brother.

Handsome New Stores.

The two new stores of Dr. E. T. White when completed will be an ornament to Main street. The fronts will be of iron and white brick and the door and windows of handsome plate glass. It is a pity that the two old stores in the same block could not have been replaced with the same kind of stores at the same.

Woman Shot in a Public Road.

Friday night about one mile west of Mt. Airy, an outrageous assault was committed. As Mr. W. J. Turner and Misses Bethania Ashby and Minnie Burke were returning from a social gathering at Mr. B. M. McGees, a farmer living a mile or two from town, at a point near the Old Hollow church, a man in a crouching position by the roadside sprang out and attempted to seize the buggy lines from Mr. Turner. Meeting with strong resistance and the horse springing out of reach of the unrecognized assailant, he began shooting at them as they drove towards town. As many as ten to fifteen shots were fired. Two bullets struck Miss Ashby, inflicting serious, but it is hoped, not fatal wounds.

Near the scene of the shooting there was a load of blockade whiskey, which was seized by the officers later in the night and brought to town. Suspicion rested upon Elmo Brim, who was arrested, tried next day and committed to jail without bail, pending such time as is necessary for the physicians to determine the consequences of the wounds. There is no possible motive for young Brim to have assaulted these parties. From the evidence brought out on the trial it is conclusive that he mistook them in the darkness for other parties whom he intended to assault. The people of the whole community are terribly indignant over the outrageous affair.

A TRIP TO THE COUNTRY.

A Number of Improvements Being Made by Farmers, etc.

The editor accompanied the Dr. S. D. Booth, the most efficient Health Officer of Granville, to the Wilton section Tuesday to look after a poor unfortunate woman, who had lost her mind, and we were pleased to see many improvements being made along the road.

We found that Clay, a station on the Durham & Northern Railway, had become a large shipping point for lumber, as Mr. G. O. Pitts and Mr. Jonah Veazey have large mills near by and are cutting large quantities of timber for shipment.

Messrs. Jack Overton, —Jenkins and J. W. Floyd are building nice two story residences, which will soon be completed, while others were adding new rooms to their homes. At Wilton Mr. Nat Faucett, the popular merchant will soon have a nice new store completed, making 4 stores for Wilton.

We are much pleased to note these evidences of prosperity in this section of Granville, and hope they will continue. One of the attractive new places near Wilton is the home of Dr. J. A. Morris, a member of the Board of Education, and popular and successful physician. His phone system, which he has built over a good portion of that territory and connected with Oxford has proved of great convenience to the people of that section of the county. The doctor has his central office in his residence, and looks quite city like as he has about 25 wires running into his central office, which of course must keep his most excellent lady quite busy answering calls as we take it she has charge of the office.

We were glad to find the road from here to Wilton in good condition with some recent improvements made near Clay.

A very neat and attractive school house has been built at Corinth church, and nicely painted.

The Negroes Real Friend.

Another funny feature of the campaign just closed is that it was Republican papers that were kicking because the State, under Democratic rule, spends money to educate the negroes. It may be that in time the negro will discover who are his real friends in the South.—Durham Herald.

It Will do Him Good.

The editor of an exchange says: Let the young man about town, out of a job, try a year on the farm. Plowing behind a mule will give him a new constitution, take the kinks out of his head, the frogs out of his throat, the gas off his stomach, the weakness out of his legs, the corns off his toes, and give him a good appetite, an honest living and a sight of Heaven.

Five Negroes Drowned.

Five negroes, filled with bad whiskey and corn shucking sugar, were drowned about midnight Saturday at the Point Ferry six miles from Salisbury. Jack Rantz, a colored woman, the wife of Clint Sears, Henry Sears, wife and son made up the quintette that went to the bottom of the Yadkin river when the unfortunate and inebriated crowd rocked the boat and turned it over.

Thankful He is Living.

Thanksgiving is the next thing on tapis. The whole country can give thanks. The farmers for good prices for farm products; the mill men for sustained demand for their manufactured goods; the republicans because they did not lose control of the next house of representatives and the democrats because they will have an increased membership in that body, and the poor devil of a newspaper man that he is still alive and able to work night and day.—Wilmington Messenger.

Bullock Wounds Father-in-Law.

On Monday afternoon a man named Simeon Bullock, who lived in the Eastern part of Orange county, met his father-in-law, Wiley Simms, with whom he had been on bad terms for some time and after passing him, wheeled and shot him in the side and back with a shotgun. The shot were probed for and many extracted. Simms is resting easy and may recover. Bullock made his escape and is still at large. He is about 6 feet 1 inch high, has mustache, turning gray, walks erect and usually wears a prince albert coat. He has a stiff thumb on his left hand. Any information as to his whereabouts will be appreciated by the sheriff of Orange county, at Hillsboro.

English Comedy Friday Night.

On next Friday evening the brilliant English Comedy, "David Garrick" will be presented upon the local stage under the auspices of Granville Grays, Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The play is a brilliant one, ranking with the best comedies in the English language and will be presented by Mr. Edward D'Oize, a young actor who comes highly recommended.

He is a southerner, born and raised in New Orleans. His father, who was an officer on Gen. Bragg's staff during the war of Secession, is a native of Baltimore, and his mother was from Wilmington, N. C. Mr. D'Oize adopted the stage as a profession when he was quite young, and almost his entire career, which embraces a period of fourteen years had been in Shakespearean Drama. He has been prominent in the supporting companies of many of the greatest actors of the present day and has starred successfully at the head of his own company through Canada, New England and the South, in Hamlet, Othello, the Merchant of Venice, Richeieu and David Garrick.

Mrs. D'Oize accompanies her husband and will be seen in the eccentric roll of Araminta Brown, which she has played a great number of times.

The supporting cast is made up of the most talented amateurs of Oxford. Miss Lizzie Hilliard will play Ada Ingot, and Miss Lillian Williams, Mrs. Smith the mother of seven children.

Simon Ingot, the ambitious father, will be in the hands of Mr. Crawford Cooper, and Squire Chivy will be played by Mr. Frank Pinnix. The comical trio, Messrs. Smith, the wine merchant, Brown, the silk merchant, and the stuttering Jones will be admirably played by Messrs Roy Wright, John Booth and L. V. Webb. Thomas, Mr. Ingot, Ritter and Mr. Garrick, Valet George will be played by Messrs. J. H. Waller, M. E. Donald.

The following is from the Baltimore American: A very creditable performance of "David Garrick" was given at Chace's Theatre by Mr. Edward D'Oize, an attractive young actor of much ability. To successfully give "David Garrick" requires no little versatility, and judging by his performance of last evening this Mr. D'Oize possesses. His acting in the drunken scene was commendable, in that he never allowed it to be overdone, even in the part requiring most strenuous work, keeping it well within the bounds demanded by art. His acting in the quieter scenes was also well done. Mrs. D'Oize as the artificial araminta was excellent and carried off a large share of the honor of the evening.
