If the average man picked his wife as carefully as he does his stenographer, there would be fewer proceedings in the divorce courts.

So many garbs it has, in fact. In grades from hot to cold, The weather bureau must be packed in as full as it can hold.

Nursing baby?

It's a heavy strain on mother.

Her system is called upon to supply nourishment for two.

Some form of nourishment that will be easily taken up by mother's system is needed.

Scott's Emulsion contains the greatest possible amount of nourishment in easily digested form.

Mother and baby are wonderfully helped by its use.

Mr. Pace Replies to Mr. Lyon.

At the request of Rev. J. R. Pace we publish the following in face of the fact that enough has been said about the Creedmoor Dispensary:

In Mr. Lyon's article of March 15th he says: "I am always willing to act fair." Now as long as he is willing to "act fair," I will point out a few things in his last article that he will see is very unfair. He has charged me with some things that is not true. Mr. Lyon says: "He has never been accused of hitting anything." I have been accused for the past twenty years of hitting people in my preaching. Scarcely a month passes but some one tells me that I hit him. I have been told time and again since I wrote my first article against the Creedmoor Dispensary that I had hit Mr. Lyon. One said: "You roasted him." Another said: "You burnt him up." And still another said: "You layed him in the shade," and I could give others. Was that a fair charge?

I had a bad pen when I wrote my last article and the printers left out the word minister and Mr. Lyon says: "Mr. Pace seems to think he is the Gospel," and yet from the connection it was plain enough for any one to have known better. Was that fair? He says: Mr. Pace begins to sling his mud at the good people of Creedmoor when he tries to brand the good people of Creedmoor as fit subjects for Sodom and Gomarrah, because a majority of the best people in and around here favor a dispensary at Creedmoor he brands them as a lawless set. Now I will show him that these charges are not true. All the readers of the Public Ledger know that Mr. Lyon favored a dispensary on the ground that the people of Creedmoor section would not keep the laws. And he wants to saddle me with his mud slinging. I was after him for his charges of lawlessness against the people of Creedmoor section when I wrote what I did about Sodom and lawless set, and I did not charge any one with lawlessness. I had been told by some of the good people of Creedmoor that they had been misrepresented, and I said in my article I believed they had been and the question I asked the Mayor of that town, how many persons he had had before him for violating the law in the past twelve months? was suggested to me by one of the good citizens of Creedmoor. Now is it fair to brand the people of your own section with lawlessness and then charge some one else with it?

Now if it will do you any good to sling mud at your own people and brand them with lawlessness and charge it up to me go ahead. He says: "He has never heard from him against the Oxford dispensary." When the Oxford dispensary was established it was a question of bar rooms or dispensary. To have fought the dispensary then would have been to work for the bar rooms. A big majority of the people of Oxford are church members and good people. I am very sorry that it can be thrown up to us that we have a dispensary. I am opposed to the liquor traffic in all of its forms, because I believe it is the greatest evil on earth. I have wrote what I have for the purpose of doing good. I have done what I believed to be my duty as a minister and citizen of Granville county.

I now close this discussion with the best of feelings towards everybody.

CURES ALL SKIN TROUBLES.

Sulphur the Accepted Remedy for a Hundred Years.

Sulphur is one of the greatest remedies nature ever gave to man. Every physician knows it cures skin and blood troubles. Hancock's Liquid Sulphur enables you to get the full benefit in most convenient form. Don't take sulphur "tablets" or "wafers," or powdered sulphur in molasses. Hancock's Liquid Sulphur is pleasant to take and perfect in its action. Druggists sell it.

A well known citizen of Danville, Pa. writes: "I have had an aggravated case of Eczema for over twenty-five years. I have used seven or eight bottles of the Liquid, and one jar of your Hancock's Liquid Sulphur Ointment, and now I feel as though I had a brand new pair of hands. It has cured me and I am certain it will cure any one if he persists in using Hancock's Liquid Sulphur according to directions."
