

Drugs, Seeds And Stationery.

Turnip Seed, Clover Seed, and Millet Seed, Fresh and new at Hamilton's Drug Store. Call and get his prices.

The largest stock of Stationery and School Supplies in Oxford just received at HAMILTONS.

He has special values in pound packages and fine Stationery.

Don't buy your school supplies without seeing his large stock—new and up-to-date.

To those who are going off to school let me supply your needs in the toilet and sundry line, Combs, Brushes, Soaps, Dental Supplies, etc.

SAFETY RAZORS.

These razors are sold on a guarantee. Come and get one only $1 each.

Remember I am still giving away Rocking Chairs and Hat Racks. They are well worth your attention. I have some big values for my customers this fall.

R. L. HAMILTON Wanted

:-3:-

HOUSES TO RENT. For Sale.

Several desirable building lots and residences.

J. A. NILES REAL ESTATE

—AND—

Brokerage.

Office in White Building.
Agent Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co.

J. L. O'Quinn & Co. The Leading Florists of NORTH CAROLINA.

All cut flowers in season,
Roses and Caranations
A Specialty.
Wedding bouquets and Floral Designs arranged in the most artistic style, at short notice.

Palms and Ferns,

And all pot plants for house decorations. Bedding plants in great variety, Rose Bushes, Shrubries, Evergreens, Hedge Plants, Shade Trees. Vegetable Plants in season. Mail, telegraph and telephone orders promptly executed by

J. L. O'QUINN & CO.,
Raleigh, N. C.
Phones 149. mar. 22.6m.

SHORT POINTED LOCALS.

BRIEF LOCAL HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK.

Items to Keep Reader Informed of What is Going on in Around Town and Country.

The editor is sorry to learn that Col. L. C. Edwards continues very sick.

Read the change in the advertisement of John A. Niles in another column.

Mr. L. Hunter showed us Tuesday morning a twin squash, the first we ever saw.

Mrs. D. N. Hunt is again numbered with the sick, and hope she will soon be well.

See Administrator's notice of James L. Daniel and Nannie W. Terry in another column.

Your attention is called to a notice of publication by C. F. Crews, Clerk, in another column.

Mrs. Ernest Cheatham, who has been quite sick for several days, we are glad to learn is better.

As the President of the frozen water trust has everything going his way now he has advanced the price of ice.

It is doubtless true that the world is getting better—better skilled in the arts of lying, stealing and deceiving.

We are glad to see that the holes on College Street are being filled up, and the business streets nicely cleaned up.

Rev. C. G. Christian has accepted a call in Virginia and will leave Oxford about the first of September for his new charge.

When you buy of your home merchants you are helping the town and thereby sharing in the profits of your own purchase.

We do not need money ourselves, but the fellow we owe wants us to pay. Pay your subscription and help the other fellow out.

The fellow who falls in love with a lady whose husband is removed from this earth, follows the path that leads he knows not where.

Mr. R. L. Hamilton bought quite a nice pony while on his visit to good old Johnston county, and will join the pony brigade in Oxford.

Girls, it is our opinion that you had better be an old maid than the wife of some worthless man, and there is a great quantity of them in circulation.

Every one is interested in an item of local news. If you know of any local happening that is not generally known communicate the fact to this office.

Found on the street a few days ago a fountain pen and a glass dropper, the owner of which can get the same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

As the time is near at hand for the children to go to school if they will call at the First National Bank they will be supplied with a nice book bag as long as they last.

If the town don't have the ditch filled up across Asylum Street first thing the Commissioners know some one will sue the town for damages on account of falling into the deep hole.

Mr. R. L. Brown and family are now delightfully located in their nice new home on Hillshoro street, and may peace and happiness continue to abide with these good people.

Prof. Darius Eatman, of Wake Forest college, has retired from the chair of pedagogy to take a course in that study in Columbia university. He has secured a scholarship there.

Mr. Charlie Caughman accidentally fell out an upstairs window in the Oxford Hotel Saturday night and was right badly hurt, but is rapidly recovering from the effects of his fall.

Married by Rev. W. S. Hester at his home, near Salem church, Miss Lelia Knight and Mr. Roger A. Faucett, both of Granville county. The happy event took place some days ago.

While the Excursion train over the Oxford & Clarksville road from Jamestown was passing close to Oxford Saturday some one threw a rock at Sectionmaster Hearst stunning him right badly. It was a mean trick in the man that did it.

More new tobacco was sold in Oxford Tuesday at high prices.

You are requested to read the change in R. L. Hamilton's advertisement.

The large delegation from Oxford to Jamestown last week had a grand time.

There would be fewer undesirable mother-in-laws if there were more good son-in-laws.

B. S. Royster, Commissioner, advertises some valuable land for sale in another column.

Our beautiful pair of fire horses have become finely trained and are the pride of our progressive town.

The devil has a mortgage on every man who makes money his god. The devil has many mortgages.

If you are too thin skinned to stand a little criticism it would be well for you to keep out of politics.

A reliable, sober single man is wanted for driver of the Fire Wagon. Apply to the Mayor or Chief of Police.

We are requested to announce that Rev. John E. Wool will preach at Geneva church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The good and much beloved Mrs. M. E. Bobbitt, who has been numbered with the sick, we are pleased to learn is much better.

Mrs. S. D. Booth mourns the death of her devoted pet pug dog. It was about 14 years of age, and died from the effect of paralysis.

When a girl has a broken heart over a man she can't marry, it's a sign her parents will have to buy her some new clothes before she gets over it.

Mrs. W. H. Hunt delightfully entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Douglas Bonitz, of Chicago, who is visiting relatives in Oxford.

"My face is my fortune, sir," said the pretty summer girl.
"And mine is, too," said the handsome summer man. "Let us put our fortunes together."

Mr. Marvin Minor has returned to Oxford from Raleigh and accepted a position with Mr. Z. W. Lyon at the Johnson Warehouse. We are glad to have him back in town again.

It is announced that some scientist has declared that kissing will cure freckles. This will simply give some young fellow the opportunity of trying to persuade his girl friends to take the freckle cure.

Oxford will grow and you just as well come off your knocking perch and stop your old croaking machine. Will say you need not be surprised to see another good sized factory located in Oxford in the near future.

Getting Ready to Run.

Sheriff Howard has gotten tired of riding in a buggy, and being desirous of reducing himself down again to running weight has bought "Jigstep," the fast pacing horse of Oxford. The boys say that Sheriff Howard cannot claim that "Jigstep" was raised in every township in the county.

Lookout for Your Winter Suit.

Of course you are beginning to think about a new fall and winter suit of clothes, and therefore direct your special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Baird & Perkinson on the 8th page. Read it and be certain to call on their expert Tailor and select your suit as they guarantee a fit.

Letter Coming 59 Years.

A long delayed letter arrived in Oxford on the 12th of August to the astonishment of Postmaster Peace. It was addressed to Miss Sarah T. Clark, care of T. L. Venable, Oxford, N. C., and postmarked Syracuse, N. Y., June 11th, 1848. The question now arises "where has this letter been for the past 59 years?"

Good Sales Friday.

Oxford was quite lively Friday as there were a large number of farmers in town selling new tobacco. The auctioneers had a chance to stretch their throats some, and live sales were made at all four of the warehouses, tobacco selling from $3 to $15 per hundred. Don't forget Oxford when you get a load ready for market.

Give Birth to Triplets.

The wife of Albert Glover, a worthy old colored man, gave birth Monday morning to triplets, two boys and one girl, and at last accounts mother and the three children were doing well. Quite a number of people have called to see the three "lap organs" that weighs about 6 pounds a piece.

MOVING OF BUSY THROUGH.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND THOSE YOU DON'T KNOW.

The Faces of Those Caught in Passing Coming and Going by Our Man-About-Town.

Mr. John Bullock, of Bullock, was in town Monday.

Mr. B. M. Caldwell, of Gela, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Sadie Gee is on a visit to friends at Centerville.

Mr. Willie Minor, of Durham, was an Oxford visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carroll went to Panacea Springs Monday.

Miss Florence Lyon, of Stem section, was in Oxford Saturday.

Misses Annie and Mildred Taylor are visiting friends in Canada.

Miss Tempie Gee, of Fishing Creek township, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. R. J. Hart and son, of Dexter, were in town Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Chapman left Saturday on a trip to West Virginia.

Master Wilbur Smith has returned from a visit to his father at Macon, Ga.

Mr. R. W. Boyd, carrier on Route 6, is enjoying his 15 days leave with pay.

Mrs. A. A. Hicks returned a few days ago from a visit to New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Peace, of Fayetteville, were Oxford visitors the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Horner, of Henderson, were the guests of Mrs. Ella Peace Friday.

Mr. Lawson Knott, of Wendell, was in Granville the past week on important business.

Miss Eliza Pool, of Raleigh, was the pleasant guest of Mrs. Cliff Robards the past week.

Mr. L. Hunter and Miss Norfleet Hunter took in the Jamestown Exposition last week.

Miss Daisy Holeman returned a few days ago from a visit to friends in the Culbreth section.

Miss Emma Peace, one of Brassfield township's splendid ladies, graced our streets Saturday.

Misses Hettie Lyon and Willie Lee Thomas have returned from visiting friends out of town.

Mr. W. P. Wilkerson, county commissioner from Oak Hill Township, was in Oxford Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. West Jones, of Wake county, are visiting friends in Fishing Creek township this week.

Mrs. Eugene Currin and daughter, of Durham, visited Mrs. J. M. Currin on High street this week.

Mrs. Kate Hays Fleming and Miss Frances Hays are spending the week at Buffalo Lithia Springs.

Mr. Thos. Jones, of Goldsboro, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. L. F. Smith at the Exchange Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burwell and daughter, Miss Norma, returned Saturday from Jamestown Exposition.

Misses Maud Parham and Elizabeth Pearson after spending the week at the Exposition returned Saturday.

Miss Isabel Hays Fleming returned home last week after having spent a month near Enfield with an uncle's family.

Mr. Douglas Bonitz, of Chicago, joined Mrs. Bonitz in Oxford Monday and his friends were pleased to see him again.

Mrs. Walter Stark returned Friday from a visit to relatives in Baltimore and to her son Mr. Edward Stark, at Asbury Park.

Miss Elizabeth Briggs, of Raleigh, and Miss Lellie Horner, of Henderson, are visiting Mrs. Ella C. Peace for a few days.

Mr. Edward Cannady, a very successful buggy tourist, returned Saturday from an extended trip over a number of the Southern States.

Mr. Arch Taylor, of La Cross, was on our streets Friday.

Miss Jennette Biggs returned Tuesday from a visit to Miss Sarah Daniel near Satterwhite.

Misses Mable Williams and Cora Renn, of Dabney, were on our streets Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. J. W. Barnes, of Lucama, has accepted the position as drug clerk with Mr. J. G. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock and children visited relatives near Stem the first part of the week.

Supt. C. T. Goode has returned to Oxford and is busy getting ready for the opening of the Graded School.

Miss Wingo, one of Richmond's attractive young ladies, is the pleasant guest of Misses Webb on Main street.

Misses Sophia Taylor and Irene Hines, two of Oxford's prepossessing young ladies, are visiting friends in Henderson.

Mr. Lonnie Mangum and sister, Miss Maggie, of Providence, were in town Wednesday and called on the Public Ledger.

The old flock of the greatly beloved Rev. J. S. Hardaway were most highly pleased to have him with them during the past week.

Mr. Claud King left Wednesday for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the National Target Practice Meet, and will have a pleasant trip.

Mr. R. L. Hamilton returned from Jamestown Exposition Saturday, having entirely recovered from the effects of the collision on the Southern.

Messrs. F. B. Blalock and John Haskins, two of Oxford's nice old bachelors, returned Monday from a delightful 10 days stay at Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Vest, of Haw River, passed through Oxford some days ago enroute to Jamestown and were joined at Oxford by Miss Lola Franklin.

Miss Annie Crews returned to Oxford from Norfolk last Friday, and is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Garland Mitchell at South Hill, Va. She reports having had a perfectly glorious time at the Exposition.

Mr. H. O. Furman, one of our old knights of the gripsack, is finishing up his years work on the road by visiting nearby towns which he can reach daily from Oxford, and will soon be enjoying his annual vacation at home.

What Work Will Do.

Mr. Francis B. Hays has returned to New York after a three weeks' visit to his relatives in Oxford, Buffalo Lithia Springs and Petersburg, and to the "Jintown" Exposition.

Since leaving Oxford in 1891 Mr. Hays has worked up from a beginners place as assistant to the editor of The Druggists Circular to the managing editorship of the publication, in which position he has several assistants under him. Notwithstanding his success in New York Mr. Hays says that there is no place equal to Oxford, and he would be glad to be able to cast his lot among home folks again and lead a less strenuous business existence.

Prompt treatment of a slight attack of Diarrhoea will often prevent a serious sickness. The best known Remedy is Dr. Seth Arnold's Balsam. Your apothecary J. G. Hall warrants it to give satisfaction.

Panacea Water

is conceded to be the only water that is a sure Specific for Chronic Diarrhoea and Dysentery.

For teething children and Cholera Infantum it has no equal. Teething children should drink no other kind during the summer months.

Dyspepsia and kindred diseases in all their forms succumb to its use. For sale by

J. G. Hall.

The best ice cream in town so the ladies say and all fountain drinks.

New line tablets, stationery and other supplies arriving almost daily.

We have a supply of Calladiums, tube roses and carma bulbs. Also any kind of flower seed.

Use Dentifoam for the teeth contains no acid or grit. Recommended by all dentist. Try a bottle and be convinced.

The knives that cut,
The Razors that cut,
The Scissors that cut, are all guaranteed at Hall's Drug Store.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses that fit your eyes. Satisfactory fit every time or your money back. Prices right 25 cts to $10.

Prescription Department.
Is under my special care. Purity, accuracy and 28 years experience is what I offer you. Send your prescriptions to me and you will get exactly what your doctor wants you to have

J. G. HALL,
Druggist, Oxford, N. C.

WHAT WOULD YOU HAVE?
Soda, Lemonade or what? Either is good for you and won't intoxicate. You can't spend money more profitably this hot weather than by buying OUR COOLING AND REFRESHING DRINKS.

They reduce the temperature, refresh the body and keep you in good humor. Buy our soft drinks and smile and be happy.

Allen-Harris Co.

Next Bank of Granville.

We have the agency for Granville Co. for the best make of

Wind Mill

Outfits, TOWERS, TANKS, ETC. Give us a

Chance

to demonstrate this and we feel sure that you will be pleased.

IF IT STRIKES YOU that it would be a good idea to water your lawn or wash your sidewalk with a hose, instead of lugging buckets of water

WE ARE THE PLUMBERS YOU WANT.

We'll do all the pipe laying necessary. Won't make any more muss than we can help either. Will start quickly and get through promptly. One thing more. We will make a bill you won't kick about paying.

C. A. STACY CO.