

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, healing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.

Greenville Bond Case.

The contestants in the bond election in Pitt county lost their suit last week. Judge Lyon decided that the law was regular and the election held according to law. An appeal was taken and thus the matter goes to the Supreme Court. It will be recalled that the contestants are striving to set aside the bond issue by which the Eastern Training School was located in Greenville.

Love's Young Dream.

"But, you see, I don't love you," objected the fair young woman.
"Then why," demanded the indignant youth, "did you eat a total of sixty pounds of candy at eighty cents a pound, that I bought for you during the last year?"
"Because," she answered softly, with a soulful expression on her lovely face, "because I do love candy!"

Can Hardly be Supplied.

New uses for corn tends to keep the price up, and it makes no difference how great the supply is the demand can hardly be supplied. The supply this year is said to be short, and with the demand for corn for manufacturing purposes, the prospects are that corn will be corn—in price. Many people probably are not aware that millions of bushels of corn are now being used for manufacturing starch, glucose, grape sugar and other products, even the stalks and cobs being utilized in some products.

The Devil's Bible.

The volume which is called "the devil's Bible," is in the library of the royal palace of Sweden. It is a huge copy of the Scriptures written on 300 prepared asses skins. One report says that it took 500 years to complete this copy, which is so large that it has a table by itself. Another tradition says that it was completed in a night, due to the assistance of his Satanic majesty who when the work was finished, gave the monk a portrait of himself for a frontispiece. The illuminated likeness of the devil still adorns the front page of the work.

What Pat Was Bobbing For.

Two Irishmen were being chased by a mad bull, when one climbed a tree and the other dropped in a hole in the ground. Seeing what had happened the bull turned and waited. The man in the hole shot his head above the ground, but the vicious animal made him take it back. Pat did this time after time until John, the man up the tree, becoming vexed, said: "Pat, you don't fool, quit bobbing up there and let the bast go on! If you keep this up we'll be here forever and a day."
As Pat shot his head out again he said: "To h'll with your talk. Mind your own business, there's a bear in this hole."—Charlotte Observer.

Twenty 'Possums in One Family.

George Fulton, colored, who lives on the old Fulton place, near the city, is not only a good farmer, but has a good eye as well as a tooth for 'possum, and when George gets straight after one of these "varmints," there is generally something doing. A few weeks ago George captured a female 'possum with her pouch fairly running over with young ones. He placed her in a box and since then the little ones are out of the pouch twenty in number. This is perhaps the largest 'possum family in existence and George is justly proud of his possession, for, if he can get them to the years of accountability, his hospitality will be sought by his neighbors.—Mt. Airy Leader.

Definitions of Home.

Home—A world of strife shut out and a world of love shut in.
Home—A place where the small are great and the great are small.
Home—The father's kingdom, the mothers world and the child's paradise.
Home—The place where we grumble the most and are treated the best.
Home—The center of our affections around which our hearts best wishes twine.
Home—The place where the stomach gets three meals a day and our hearts a thousand.
Home—The only place on earth where the faults and failings of humanity are hidden under the sweet mantle of charity.

Fight Between Man and Snake.

Being almost whipped to death by a coach whip snake is the experience claimed by J. A. Mordant, a well known citizen of Marshall county, Ala. Mr. Mordant, in speaking of the incident, said he had been calling on his pastor and when walking towards home through a cotton patch, he came upon a snake that measured about 13 feet in length. Seizing a rock, he threw it at the snake and when the reptile showed fight he turned and ran, but the snake overtook him. The snake made two coils around the man's body and began to whip him. Mordant had nothing to defend himself with but a small knife and for a time he was doubtful whether he would be whipped or squeezed to death before he could inflict a fatal wound on the reptile. Almost exhausted, he sunk to his knees and succeeded in cutting the snake's head from the body. He was exhausted by the experience, but after recovering he came upon the mate of the dead snake. This time there was no battle because Mr. Mordant was the best sprinter.

HOBGOOD-GLENN NUPTIALS.

Two Leaders of Greensboro Social Circle Plight Their Troth.

Greensboro Correspondent of Charlotte Observer of Oct. 9th says: One of the loveliest marriage ceremonies witnessed in Greensboro for some time was the one solemnized in the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at 5 o'clock when two of Greensboro's most popular young people, Miss Lucy Glenn and Capt. F. P. Hobgood, were happily united. The ceremony was performed in a plain, but nevertheless very impressive manner by the bride's pastor, Rev. Melton Clark. Quite a crowd was present to witness the ceremony, among them a number of out-of-town people from various parts of the State.

Just half an hour before the time set for the bridal party to enter Mr. Wm. H. Jones, of Norfolk, uncle of the bridegroom, began the rendition of an elaborate musical programme as follows: "March From 'Aida,'" by Verdi; "The Answer" by Wolstenholme; "Introduction to the Third Act of Lohengrin," by Wagner; "Intermezzo from Suite," by Rogers; "Meditation," by Borowski; "March from 'Jorsalfar,'" by Greig. To the strains of Greig's "Norwegian Bridal Procession," rendered on the great pipe organ by Mr. Jones, the bridal party entered the church. Leading down the left aisle came Gen. B. S. Royster, of Oxford, and Mr. John A. Gilmer, of this city, and at the same time from the right door and down the right aisle came Col. S. W. Minor, of Durham, with Mr. R. W. Glenn, of Greensboro, brother of the bride. Then down the left aisle came the matron of honor, Mrs. Robert G. Sloan, sister of the bride, and behind her came the bride, Miss Lucy Glenn, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Robert G. Glenn. At the altar they were met by Captain Hobgood, who entered with his brother, Dr. James Edward Hobgood, of Oxford, from a door just to the right of the altar, and here the bride was given away by her father. The altar around which the marriage parties gathered was a perfect bank of ferns and palms and from this the minister spoke the simple words that joined the hearts as one.

At the close of the ceremony the parties marched out of the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March; and were hastily driven to the home of the bride on North Elm street where a reception was tendered the newly-wedded couple and the families of the contracting parties.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white tulle and Brussels lace with a black picture hat, and carried a large bunch of La France roses.

At the home of the bride on North Elm was an elegant display of presents, which were outward expressions of the high esteem in which the contracting parties are held.

After receiving the hearty congratulations from a host of friends the happy young couple left this evening on southbound train No. 35 for the sapphire region, where they will stay for some time. They will be at home in Greensboro after November 1st at their residence on the corner of North Edgeworth street and Bellamade Avenue.

The bride is a young lady of many charming traits and is surrounded by a host of admiring friends and relatives. Captain Hobgood is one of the most successful and promising young lawyers in the city, having located here a number of years ago after having studied law at Wake Forest College. For a number of years he has been captain of the Gate City Guards and for several years has had the enviable honor of sending to the annual encampment the best drilled company in the State. Both of the young people occupy a very high position in the social circles of Greensboro and State.

Here is a Tangle.

An old man of fifty and a young man of twenty-eight, both widowers. The young man has a stepdaughter thirty-eight years old, that he marries to the older gentleman, and in return takes the old man's daughter for a wife. Now what relation are those four people to one another.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tun- nelson, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.
