A Communication.

To the Editor: Just a word in regard to the nomination of a candidate for Solicitor. To me, the situation appears to be just this: we have three candidates for the nomination and so far as I know, each of them is a competent, upright honest man. Cars Derailed on Southern.

Spreading rails due to rotton cross ties caused 10 cars and the engine of a freight train over the Southern road to be derailed at Manchester, Virginia, Sunday morning. This accident held up the regular passenger train that is due to arrive here in the afternoon, and it failed to come until 1:30 on Monday morning. Numbers of passengers going south were badly inconvenienced by the mishap.

During all of Sunday afternoon the local express agent, Frank Spencer, was kept on the waiting list, the arrival the train being expected at any minute, and he was a thankful, if sleepy man, when it did thunder in at
