OXFORD, N. C., FRIDAY NOVEMBER 13, 1908.

NO. 53

Winston-Flanagan.

The following invitation has been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flanagan request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Laura May to Mr. James Horner Winston on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November at seven o'clock at Eighteen Hundred and Forty-one Sheridan Road in the city of Chicago.

At home after December the first, Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. Winston is the son of Judge R. W. Winston, of Durham, and is closely related to the Horners and Winstons of Oxford. The marriage will be an affair of great prominence in social circles. The acquaintance of Mr. Winston and Miss Flanagan began in rather a romantic way. They met on an eastern bound ocean liner several years ago when Mr. Winston was on his way to Oxford, England, and Miss Flanagan en route to Paris for special course of study in music. Miss Flanagan, whose home is in Chicago, is a very talented musician.

The Durham Herald says: "It were like carrying coal to Newcastle to speak of either the bride or bridegroom in Durham. Miss Flanagan is known to a large circle of Durham people and by her very superior accomplishments and the choice of Durham's most promising young man, leaped into the hearts of them all. She would be a striking figure in any company and her romantic marriage to Mr. Horner Winston is epochal in Durham's social history."

She will wed a young man matching some fine, manly virtue to her every charm. Love is the word, everybody loves him born a gentleman of the perfect mould, the son of intellect and gentility coming from two distinguished state families, and a scholar of the first rank. All that the one is the other is. It is the very poetry of happy mating."

Who Morehead Is.

Our new Congressman is but little known in this part of his district. John Motley Morehead is the grandson of the first Whig governor of North Carolina, and the son of Col. John L. Morehead, of Charlotte. He is a graduate of the class of 1886 in the University. He is a resident of Leaksville to which place he moved about ten years ago. Mr. Morehead is a heavy stockholder in and is the vice-president of the Leaksville Woolen Mills, and is a man of considerable means.

Fourteen years ago he married Miss May Garnett, of Georgia. They have three children, two sons and a daughter.

Allen-Lyon.

Bullbeck's church, Granville county, was the scene of a quiet but pretty marriage on November the fourth when Miss Mamie Lyon became the bride of Mr. Caiaphas Allen.

The hour for the ceremony had not yet arrived before many friends had assembled to witness the joining of the lives of these two young people. Around the chancel palms, potted plants, and cut flowers had been tastefully arranged, producing a beautiful effect.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered as follows: The ushers, Messrs. Henry Bullock and Pearson Harris, Vassar Winston and Roy Moss, passed down the aisles and took their places in front of the chancel. Then the bride, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Fleda Lyon, came down the right aisle, as the groom with Mr. Graham Mangum came down the left aisle. They met in front of the chancel and there the words which bound their lives together were spoken by Rev. Mr. Robinson, pastor of bride and groom.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Allen took the train, amid showers of rice, for Washington and other places of interest.

Cupid at Work.

Last Sunday evening Mr. D. P. Peake, a young farmer of Berea, and Miss Lodemia Slaughter, daughter of Mr. S. M. Slaughter, having decided to travel the future road of life together, drove over to the home of J. G. Shotwell who very quickly made them man and wife. After congratulations the young couple went on their way rejoicing.

The Next Congress.

The democratic party has gained seven seats in the next House of Representatives. The returns have been completed and the democrats will number 175 and the republicans 218. In the Senate there will be 32 democrats and 60 republicans. The latter party still is strong enough to maintain the same control of last session, but the gains made by the democrats are worrying them nevertheless.

The fifth, eighth and tenth districts in North Carolina dropped out of the democratic column. In the fifth, Morehead defeated Brooks by over three hundred; Cowles won over Hackett in the eighth by sixteen hundred; and Crawford lost the tenth to Grant by a few hundred. So North Carolina is represented by seven democrats and three republicans.

Judge Graham for Speaker.

Says the Durham Sun: "Hon. A. W. Graham, representative elect from Granville county to the General Assembly, will be a candidate for Speaker of the House. Gus Graham—we all call him that, for he is a near neighbor and a man highly esteemed over here in Durham—is well equipped for this position and we would be glad to see him get it. He is a splendid parliamentarian, thoroughly acquainted with constitutional law, and with his long experience in legislative bodies, will make a model presiding officer. The Sun presents his name to the members of the next North Carolina Legislature. They could not do better than elect him."

The Sun is eminently correct. No better presiding officer could be selected than our townsman, and the Ledger heartily joins the Sun in asking that the legislature so honor Judge Graham. His qualifications as described by the Sun are too well known to need discussion, but it is very gratifying to see them expressed.

Death of Child.

The five year old son of George Stem died at the home of his father, Gray street, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The remain were this morning taken to the old home near Storn, Granville county, where the interment takes place this afternoon. The little fellow had been afflicted for some time and his death was not unexpected, as he suffered from a complicated trouble. Several friends accompanied the remains on the sad trip to Granville.—Durham Sun.

Adams and Robison Glared.

This morning as a Record man was racing along the street in pursuit of news he spied ex-Judge S. B. Adams coming along south Elm. At the McAdoo office building he turned in the areaway, which is about four feet wide. As he entered ex-Judge W. S. O. B. Robison, of counsel for Butler in the now famous libel suit brought by Judge Adams, came down the elevator and was coming toward the street. The reporter stopped to see if they would "speak as they passed by," but nary a speak. Both men glared at each other, heads up. But as they passed Judge Adams brushed against Judge Robison. Quick as a flash both men turned and the latter, pointing his finger at the former, made some remark inaudible very far away. Judge Adams, however, was more noisy and said, "Then get out of my way!"

There they stood, glaring at each other, while the Record man expected to see a first-class fight and had his pad out ready to chronicle it, but not a blow was struck and in a second or two each turned and went his way.—Greensboro Record, 4th.

Hearing Before Referee.

The case of J. C. Horner vs the Oxford Water & Electric Co. is up for a hearing before Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, of Greensboro, as referee. The evidence is now being taken and will be concluded probably this morning.

The suit is a test case and was brought to determine whether the right of putting the service on a flat or metre basis is vested in the Company at their option or whether any private citizen can demand service either way as suits him. The town has appropriated the sum of $100 to assist Mr. Horner in bringing suit and securing counsel.

Mr. Horner is represented by Messrs. Graham & Devin and Gen. B. S. Royster, Messrs. John W. Hinsdale, of Raleigh, and Newcome, of Washington City appearing for the Company.

RATIONAL CURE FOR ECZEMA.

No More Dosing the Stomach—Cure the Skin Through the Skin.

When you have a scratch on your hand you wash it out and cleanse it and then the skin cures itself. You do not take blood medicine to cure a festering wound.

The best skin specialists today are agreed that the only way to cure the skin is through the skin.

The fact that eczema is a skin disease and not a blood disease is evident from statistics which show that nearly all eczema sufferers are perfectly healthy in all other ways except as to the skin. If the eczema patients were really suffering from an inward malady, the entire body and not only the skin would be diseased.

You can prove immediately the relief of a true skin cure by using oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription.

This liquid attacks the disease germs, numbing them, while building up the healthy tissue of the skin. We have now handled this meritorious and thoroughly scientific remedy for so long and have seen its reliable result so many times that we freely express our confidence.

Happenings at Horner's School.

Oxford, Nov. 7.—Last Saturday night a delightful Hallowe'en party was tendered by the principal to the cadets and their friends in Oxford. Different games appropriate to the occasion were indulged in, and with a considerable number of Oxford's fairer sex to add grace to the gathering there is no wonder that the event proved a most enjoyable one in every particular.

Tuesday afternoon the following cadets were appointed to office: In "A" Company—Captain, R. S. Reinhardt, Jr.; first lieutenant, M. E. Blalock; second lieutenant, W. O. McGowan; first sergeant, E. A. Daniel; second, R. P. Eubanks; third, H. B. Bentley; first corporal, G. Watt; second, C. C. Armstrong; third, F. E. Little; fourth, J. M. Emmett. In "B" Company—Captain, H. B. Ferguson; first lieutenant, H. M. Stubbs; second, J. O. Polard; first sergeant, A. E. Mellon; second, R. B. Scott; third, R. C. Fields; first corporal, E. P. Blades; second, N. J. Shepherd; third, W. A. Robinson; fourth, Ray Thompson. W. D. Boykin and J. A. Hancock were at the same time reappointed as adjutant and bugler sergeant, respectively.

Thursday afternoon the first inter-company football game was played. The game was really closer than the score, 17 to 0, indicated, with Company "B" the victor. The three touchdowns of "B" were made by Hancock (2) and Harkins (1). Stubbs kicked two goals.—Correspondent to the Charlotte Observer.

Mrs. Hunt Improving.

Although yet dangerously ill, we are glad to learn there are some signs of improvement in Mrs. D. N. Hunt, who has been very sick for a week. Raymond, the third son has been summoned from Central Academy to carry his father's mail. William, the second son, who is in Kansas, has been wired to come home. Mr. Hunt desires to thank the good people for their kindness, their sympathy, the beautiful flowers that come daily, and for their prayers.

Death of a Little Child.

On the morning of November 1st, the Angel of Death came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stem and claimed their only little son, George Alton. Little Alton was only four years and five months old. He had been sick for some time and suffered from a complicated trouble, but through all his sufferings he never murmured or complained. He was an unusually bright little fellow.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Arnette, and all that was mortal of the little one was quietly laid to rest Monday afternoon in the family burying ground near Stem. We would say to the grief-stricken loved ones, Weep not for your loved one—think of little Alton as safe in the arms of Jesus. A FRIEND.

Carmack Dies in Street Duel.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—As a sequel to the recent bitter Democratic primary for the gubernatorial nomination in Tennessee, Hon. Edward Ward Carmack, former United States Senator from Tennessee, was shot and killed in a street duel here this afternoon by Robin Cooper, a young attorney. Young Cooper was wounded in the shoulder by a bullet from Carmack's revolver and is to-night under police surveillance in a local hospital. His condition is not serious.

Carmack was wounded three times, in the neck, the breast and the left shoulder. Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, father of the younger man, was with his son during the affray but did not fire a shot. It is said he stood by with pistol in hand. He is detained to-night at police headquarters. The direct cause of the killing is a recent series of editorials in The Tennessean, a daily paper of which Mr. Carmack became editor after his defeat for the nomination for Governor. The editorials in question had been vigorous in their comment on Colonel Cooper and his alleged connection with what Mr. Carmack termed the "Democratic machine" and its methods. Colonel Cooper, who is well known in business, newspaper and political circles in Tennessee and the South, had, it is said, notified Mr. Carmack that the references to him must cease. Another such editorial appeared this morning.

The men fought at close quarters and there were but few witnesses. It was past 4 o'clock in the dusk of the afternoon. They met on Seventh avenue north, directly in front of the Polk Flats, a fashionable apartment house. Mr. Carmack had just lifted his hat to Mrs. Charles H. Eastman, a friend, who was passing. In a moment the firing began and Mrs. Eastman was a horrified witness at close range. So close was she that one of the Coopers is said to have charged Carmack with being a coward and hiding behind a woman. Cooper's friends charge that Carmack fired the first shot, but the dead man's friends stoutly protest that his opponent was the first to shoot.

The tragedy created the most intense excitement throughout the city and within a short time the streets in the neighborhood were thronged.—Ex.

Clerk Elect J. G. Shotwell was in town Saturday. Mr. Shotwell will move in town very shortly to take charge of his office in December.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Oxford People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy. If there are settlements and sediments. Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes. Doan's have done great work in Oxford.

D. S. Fuller, Broad St., Oxford, N. C., says: "For a long time I knew that my kidneys were disordered, this fact being plainly proven by the secretions which were unnatural, too frequent, and deposited a heavy sediment. Dull backaches also afflicted me and the sharp pains through my loins made it almost impossible for me to stoop or lift. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills and being impressed, I procured a box from R. L. Hamilton's drug store and through their use was cured. They not only disposed of the back ache, but strengthened my kidneys and benefited me in every way. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as the best kidney remedy I ever used."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
