OXFORD PUBLIC LELGER FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1909

Laxative for Women Free

There is a great difference in the ourposes to which a laxative should be put. Tablets and pills, salts, etc. are usually violent 'purgatives or cathartics, and altogether too powerful for the average person.

A woman at all times needs only a mild laxative-in fact, none other is needed by anyone, weak or strong though they may be, for the object is simply to nove the bowels, and if a gentle laxative will do it, what is the use of a violent well-deserved vogue among women and dien and old folks-people who must essarily be careful of what they take. It is a liquid laxative tonic and adnittedly the greatest stomach, liver and wel remedy before the American people. The price is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle, t comes in both sizes, and all drugats sell it. Its pleasant taste and gentle tion make it an ideal remedy for women constipation, torpid liver, sour stomsick headache, heartburn and such digestive complaints. Its use for a ort time will remove the trouble enfindly so that future medication will be stomach and intestinal muscles so they act naturally again. That this so is the experience of many heads of milles, like Mrs. Brannan, of Alvarado, Mrs. K. L. Stout, of Louisville, Ky. and numerous others; in fact, way out in Williams, Cal., as Mrs. J. E. Blackmore, that place, writes, the whole town ems to be using it.

If the remedy is new to you and you want to make a trial of it before buying, send your name to the doctor's address as below and a free test bottle will be sent Then, if results are satisfactory you can buy it of your druggist.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

For Sale by Crenwillo Drug Co.

If your ideas are not worth 2 cents write them on a postal card.

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Folevs Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric floor and remained on one spot, like acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine a pointer which has found game. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. J. G. Hall, Oxford, and Sanderford's drug store (reedmoor.

Guarding a Nail. A gentleman in Jerusalem told me that he found a Turkish soldier on guard in some part of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, where it was not isual for a sentry to be, and inquired of him why he was there.

He pointed to a nail in the wall and replied, "It is my duty to watch that nail."

Asked why, he explained that the Latins or the Greeks-I forget whichhad driven the nail with the view of hanging a picture; that a rival sect had furiously objected, saying that if was an interference with their prop erty and wanted to pull out the nail that thereupon the Turkish govern-Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has earned ment had intervened and set him to watch the nail and see that no picture was hung upon it and that it was not pulled out.

To allow the picture to be hung would have been to admit the claims of those who drove in the nail. To allow it to be pulled out would have been to admit the claims of those who objected to the driving in of the nail Therefore the nail must be preserved necessary. Its tonic properties build up | and the picture must not be hung, and to see that this was so an armed sentry must watch day and night. For aught I know he may be watching still.-Rider Haggard's "A Winter Pilgrimage."

Traced by a Bluebottle Fly. The great objection to the use of poison for rats is that they retire to their homes and die there, to become a nuisance and a menace to health. Friends of the writer were compelled to have the floor and wainscoting of their dining room removed for this reason. A wiser man, knowing that a pair of poisoned rats had got under his floor, summoned not a carpenter, but a naturalist, to his aid. They knew that the rats were under the floor, but the difficulty was to fix the spot. There seemed to the owner of the house no alternative to the removal of the whole floor; hence his appeal to the nature detective. The latter would not hear of the floor coming up. He cried out for a bluebottle fly. One was captured unhurt and turned loose in the room. After a little preliminary hawking the bluebottle darted to the

THE UMEROKEE ROSE.

Romantic Indian Legend of This Beautiful Flower.

There is a beautiful romance connected with the Cherokee rose. A young Indian chief of the Seminole tribe was taken prisoner by his enemies, the Cherokees, and doomed to torture, but fell so seriously ill that it became necessary to wait for his restoration to health before committing him to the fire.

As he lay prostrated by disease in the cabin of the Cherokee warrior the daughter of the latter, a young, dark faced maid, was his nurse. She fell in love with the young chieftain and, wishing to save his life, urged him to escape. But he would not do so unless she would flee with him.

She consented. Before they had gone far, impelled by regret at leaving home, she asked permission of her lover to return for the purpose of bearing away some memento of it. So, retracing her footsteps, she broke a sprig from the white rose which climbed up the poles of her father's tent and, preserving it during her flight through the wilderness, planted it by the door of her new home in the land of the Seminoles. And from that day this beautiful flower has always been known throughout the southern states by the name of the Cherokee rose.-Philadelphia North American,

A SCRAP OF PAPER.

Charred and Discarded, It Brought Wealth to a Poor Widow.

Some years ago a poor widow kept a small shop in a Berlin suburb. One evening as she was serving a customer a workingman stepped into the shop were near the lawyer, at once attractand asked permission to light his pipe. ed his attention. Drawing a piece of paper from his pocket, he twisted it up and, after push up, so ye can dhraw your money lighting his pipe, threw down the spill at onct." and walked off with a word of thanks. When sweeping the floor the follow- Roger," replied Mary placidly. ing morning the widow took up the charred paper out of idle curiosity and. husband, "that they'll lose your monunfolding it, saw that it was a lottery ey for ye if ye don't hurry t' dhraw it ticket, only a portion of which had out?" been burned. She folded it up, put it "An' shure, Roger." retorted Mary, away in her pocket and had almost "ain't they better able to lose it than forgotten it, when the result of a large we are?"

light, that it had won a prize of $50,-

000. She claimed the prize, and, al-

When John Was In Doubt.

-Exchange.

George and St. Andrew on a blue ground in the corner. In 1777 the crosses were replaced by stars, as the Declaration of Independence rendered the retention of the English element unnecessary and inconvenient. In thus adopting the arms of his ancestors as no doubt intended the flag merely as a private signal for his own personal following, but it was at once adopted as a national emblem. Probably there is not another case in the world's history in which the private arms of an obscure family have attained such worldwide eminence and repute.

Origin of Old Glory.

united colonies raised a standard at Washington's headquarters.

the stars and stripes.

The Bank Could Stand It.

A western lawyer tells of a remarkable instance of the convincing power of feminine logic as evidenced by an occurrence which he once witnessed while standing on the edge of a crowd that was besieging the doors of a bank supposed to be on the point of suspending payment.

A conversation between a rosy cheeked Irishwoman and her husband, who

"Mary," said the man, "we must

"But I don't want to draw it out

"Don't ye know, Mary," persisted the lottery drawing caught her eye in the Roger was stunned by this unan-

An Amateur Conjurer.

In the reminiscences of Lord Ronald During a little pedestrian trip a gen-Gower is found a story of the origin of tleman came unexpectedly upon a country race course and on one por-The "star spangled banner" of the tion of the ground found a thimblerig American republic had its origin from establishment in full work. Notwithan old brass on the floor of an ancient | standing the remonstrance of his comchurch in Northamptonshire., The brass panion, the gentleman, who was a bit covers the tomb of one Robert Wash- of a madcap, insisted on watching the ington and is dated 1622. On it ap- game, pears the Washington coat of arms, "Now, would the gent like to wager consisting of three stars, with bars or a crown he could find the pea?" restripes beneath them. On the first day | marked the expert. of the new year, 1776, the thirteen

"Yes," was the reply.

The money was on both sides deposited, and the pedestrian, lifting up the This introduced the stripes of the thimble, pointed out the required pea present, but retained the crosses of St. and took the stakes.

> A second bet, "double or quits," ended, to the surprise of the expert, in the same result

Then a third wager, "a pound or nothing," steadied the nerves of the loser, and the trick was accomplished with great caution. The gentleman his own distinctive badge Washington lifted up the thimble and showed the pea, at the same time pocketing the stakes.

> "S'help me," etc., "I didn't put it there." exclaimed the bewildered artist.

"No, but I always carry my own pea," rejoined the man who had come out right as he went on his way with the spoils of war.-London Tit-Bits.

In Modern Egypt.

Douglas Sloden's book on Egypt contains some curious anecdotes. For instance: "My doctor was called to see an Egyptian who was in a very low state. 'What is the matter?' he asked. 'I think it is only depression. I have been a fool and lost a law case. would not backsheesh the other man's lawyer, and he backsheeshed mine.' Later on when another Egyptian told my friend that he had won a law case my friend said, 'I suppose you backsheeshed the other man's lawyer?' The Egyptian gave a beautiful smile and said. 'How did you know?' "

And again: "I was at Luxor when they were recruiting for the army. If a young man was found to be physically fit his relations were plunged in grief. Professional mourners were hired to squat outside the police station where the recruiting took place, fore described. yelling and weeping. If, on the other hand, he was rejected as undersized compels us to admit that we cannot perform miracles. We cannot make an old woman's photograph look like that of a young miss. But we can make it look like a charming old lady, So come here if you want truthful as well as charming

FRANKNESS

3

PHOTOGAPHS.

They'll be portraits your friends will know at a glance as well as admire.

J. D. Brinkley,

Photographer.

Notice of Execution Sale.

North Carolina Jesse Jones

Granville County) J. A. Forbes. By virtue of an execution to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Granville county ia the above entitled action, I will on MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1909 at 1 o'clock p. m at the court house door of said county sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution all the right, titles, and interest which the said J.A. Forbes has in the following described realestate, to-wit: A certain lot or parcel of land adjoining the lands of B. G. Rogers. S. C. Lyon and D. & N. R. R. South of Creedmoor, being the lot conveyed by B. G. Rogers to J. A. Forbes upon which has been erected, a house for shop, shed over planing mill and engine and boiler, which said lot contains about 4 acres.

The foregoing execution being founded upon judgment for laborer's Hen for work on the buildings hereinbe-

S. M. WHEELER, Sheriff. Dec. 18th, 4t.

------A fresh young man is apt to spoil in life.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures constipaion and liver trouble and makes the boweis healthy and regular. Orino is superior to pills and tablets as it does not gripe or nauseate. Why take anything else! J. G. Hall Oxford and Sanderford's drug store, Creed 71 101.

Every time a man picks up a little experience he drops a few dollars.

Foleys Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and ind uned lungs are healed and screngthened and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the vellow package J. G. Hall, Oxford, and Sanderford's drug store. Creedmoor.

He makes no friends who never made a toe.

Social functions of whiter midnight lunches, loss of sleep tell on health. Holisters Rocky Mountain Tea clears the blood, aids digestion, relieves fatigue; makes and retains your health. Greatest tonic Tea or Tablets, 35 cts J. G Hall.

There is no doubt that Davis is the place to buy all kinds of wire fences. He huys only by the car and he can save you money. Write him at once, Clarksville, Va.

The two cold days, Sunday and Monday, did much towards making Ridley's pond a good skating rink, but the ice did not become thick enough to allow the young folks to enjoy the sport. Numbers of them tried, and one of them came to grief. Mr. Bert Taylor got a cold bath in the morning and seemed so pleased with it that he went back to the pond the same afternoon and tried another.

Does the Baby Thrive

If not, something must be wrong with its food. If the mother's milk doesn't nourish it, she needs Scott's Emulsion. It supplies the elements of fat

"Your rats are under there," said paper. the naturalist. They cut down through that board, and there were the rats.-New York Mail.

The First Pantomime.

John Rich has the credit of producing the first pantomime ever seen in England. This was performed on Dec. 26, 1717, at the theater in Lincoln's Inn Fields. Rich had found himself unable to compete with the legitimate drama at Drury Lane, so he bethought himself of the comic masques occasionally performed in London and combined with their scenic and mechanical effects the maneuvers of the pantomime ballet. The result was "Harlequin Executed," which the advertisement of that day described as mistress and began: "a new Italian mimic scene, between a scaramouch, a harlequin, a country farmer, his wife and others." There was all the business with which we were familiar from childhood, huts turned into palaces, shops into gardens, houses into trees. Of course the "earnest student of the drama" pro-Mebbe ye can till me." tested against this innovation, but Harlequin, Columbine & Co. have maintained their hold on public favor until the present year of grace.

He Knew Them.

This was overheard in the lobby of a big hotel in Cincinnati when a bus load of traveling salesmen came from the station. Every man of them as he signed the register paused to shake hands with the hotel clerk-fatherly old fellow who had been there many years. "Ah." said one of them to the clerk, "it's a good thing you're still on deck, Uncle Dave. I don't think the house could run without you.' "Couldn't it, though!" said Uncle Dave "You fellows would come in here, and if there was a strange clerk you'd say, 'Where's Uncle Dave?' And the clerk would say: 'Why, didn't you hear? He died a month ago.' And then you'd say: Well, I'll be darned That's too bad. Say, when 'll dinner be ready?"

Dressing the Sponge.

When sponges are first torn from the sea bed they are of a dark color and living. By tramping and pressing them with the feet a milky substance pozes out, whereupon the sponge dies. They are then immersed in the sea for a space of eight or ten hours. The lark, skinny substance is then removed by scraping, and gradually, through cleaning, drying and bleaching, they take on the fine yellow color which characterizes many of them.

swerable logic, and after a few more She then remembered the crumbled words the two withdrew. Fortunateticket in her pocket, and on producing ly the bank survived its difficulties, it found, to her amazement and de- and no depositor lost a cent.-Harper's.

A Purse For the Bride.

though she advertised widely for its Some brides may be inclined to reoriginal owner, with the intention of gret that the old marriage custom of sharing it with him, she was left in the dow purse has fallen into disuse. undisturbed possession of her fortune. It was the custom of the bridegroom to fill a purse with a goodly sum of money and present it to the bride on the wedding day as the price of the John was a coachman who took life purchase of her person. It sounds like most seriously and, being very particu- slavery, like the buying of goods and lar, would return frequently in the chattels, yet the bride had a nice litcourse of the day to make sure he un- tle sum of money for her own use. derstood the orders that had been Some of the oldest inhabitants of given him in the morning. One after- Cumberland may remember a similar noon he presented himself before his custom in that county. The bridegroom provided himself with a num-

"Mrs. T., Oi'm not quite certain ez ber of gold and silver pieces, and at to Mr. T.'s ordher this mornin'. Oi the words "with all my worldly goods was droivin' him to the thrain, an' he I thee endow" he handed the clergy noticed that the horse was lame, an' man his fee and poured the other he told me to do somethin' to him, coins into a handkerchief held out for mum; but, sure. Oi don't know whither | that purpose by the bride. In other he told me to shoe him or to shoot him. places, again, the bride had the right to ask her husband for a gift of money A shoeing was evidently required, or property on the day after the wedbut the execution of the order and ding, and he was bound in honor to likewise of the horse was deferred un- grant the request .- London Answers.

> Sixty Kinds of Bananas. To most persons in the temperate zones a banana is a banana. But the figure in this country, and when he truth is that there are over sixty most of which have been introduced extremely delicate and delicious flavor. while other kinds are used, if at all There is scarcely a city house lot or care, new plants or suckers shooting up to replace the ones which have fruited and been removed .- Los Angeles Times.

The Bee's Market Basket.

Every bee carries his market basket around his hind legs. Any one examining the body of the bee through a microscope will observe that on the hind legs of the creature there is a tips, so as to form a sort of cage. This "I should say it is. Shows how my is the bee's basket, and into it after or a weakling or tainted with a loathsome disease, his relations and friends flew to him rejoicing and kissed him and hung on his neck."

"Goes" of Whisky.

Forty "goes" of whisky had been consumed by the licensed victualer, and still he was sober-at least so he told the city coroner. "Goes" is a common term in this connection, but it lacks the full appropriateness to the situation of its Scottish equivalent in the story of another big drink told by Dean Ramsay. It was at a party near Arbroath, held to celebrate the reconciliation of two farmers who had long been enemies. When the party at last broke up, at a morning hour, the penurious lady of the house, who had not been able to sleep a wink for anxiety. called over the stairs to the servant: "How many bottles of whisky have they used. Betty?"

"I dinna ken, mem," was the answer 'but they've druncken six gang o' wa ter."

To the poor girl, who had to "gang" to the well for the qualifying fluid. these were "goes" indeed.-London Chronicle, Expert Figuring.

A well known actor tells a story of a ne'er-do-well in a little New England town where he has often spent his summers. "I was walking down the main street one day," said he, 'when I saw old Silas grinning from ear to ear. I hardly thought that he was that glad to see me. So after speaking to him I said: 'Why the smile that won't come off, Silas? What has happened to make you so happy this morning? 'I've been a-gittin' married this mornin',' was the unexpected reply. 'Married! You?' I exclaimed. Why, Silas, what on earth have you done that for? You know you can' even support yourself as it is.' 'Waal, said Silas, 'you see, it's this way; ken purty near support myself, an' I kind of figured out that she could finish up the job.' "-Argonaut.

A Sensible Person.

An old Scottish lady during her last Illness was assiduously attended by a physician, to whom she invariably gave a guinea when he came to see ber. He told the friends with whom she lived that her death would probably be very sudden, and one day when she seemed to have become unconscious the doctor was hastily sent for. On his arrival he found that his patient had ceased to exist, and, taking hold of her right hand, which was closed, but not rigid, he calmly ex-

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator d, b, n, of estate of Sol O'Briant dec'd, late of Granville county, this is to notify all peesons having claims against the estate of the said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 1st day of January, 1010, or this notice will be plead in the bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to sald estate will please make in mediate payment. This the 1st day of Janury 1909. E. B. MEADOWS, Adm'r., d b n of Sol. O'Brient, dec'd. A A Hicks, Atty jan 22 6t

Notice of Administration,

Having been duly qualified as administraor of the estate of late Eugene T Crews, Sr. I hereby give notice to all persons holding laims against said estate to present them to me on or before the 9th day of January 1910 or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. And all persons in any way indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment to me. This the 9th day of Jan. 1909. EUGENE T. CREWS, Jr., Admr. A. A. Hicks. Atty. Jn'y 22,6t

Public Sale of Valuable Standing Timber in Granville County, N. C.

By virtue of authority vested in me by deed of trust executed by L. P Coleman and Florence P. Coleman, his wife d: ted Nov 4th 1907, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for Granville County. N C., in book 69. page 427. etc., default having been made in payment of the notes secured therein now due and payable, and being required thereto by the holder of said notes, I shall expose for public sale to the highest bidder at the Court House door in Oxford, N. C., on between the hours of g a. m. and 6 p. m of that day all of that certain timber standing on a certain tract of land lying and being in Granville County, N. C., containing 626 acres. more or less, of which about 200 acres only are cleared, the balance covered with large pine timter of good quality except about 50 acres of oak timber, conveyed in the deed above mentioned, to which reference is made for a more particular description for the boundaries thereof. The tract of land on which said timber is located is known as "The Peace Tract" and is situated about 2½ miles from Gela Siding on the Southern Railroad, between Stovall and Lewis stations on said road, aud the timber thereon is estimated by the present owner to be about 3,500,000 feet. Logging conditions are good.

THURSDAY, FEB. 25th, 19 9

Said timber will be sold upon the followng terms to-wit: Under the deed for enough in cash to pay the amount due upon the debt secured therein and interest, the costs and expenses of sale including a commission ot 5 per cent to the Trustee, about $6,500 oo in cash, and the balance upen such terms as the said L. P. Coleman may direct, or upon his failure so to do, as may be fixed on day of sale by the Trustee; but esier terms may be arranged on day of sale C. J. FAULKNEK, Trustee.

January 14th, 1909.

Time Of Lodge Meetings.

does appear he is not treated with known varieties of the fruit, with as proper respect. Ideal laziness is an great or greater variation in character art as difficult as playing on the violin. as in the different kinds of apples. A writer in the Washington Star tells | Hawaii is said to have something over of one member of the Sons of Rest forty distinct varieties of the fruit who deserves recognition. "I s'pose John is still taking life by the whites. Some of these are of "Yes," answered the woman who only when cooked in various ways. "John has only two regrets in life. [country "kuleana" or homestead which One is that he has to wake up to eat, does not have a clump or two of baand the other is that he has to quit eat- nanas, which grow with practically no asked the man who digs up such

"Sure, I do. Why not?"

father was tarred and feathered for fringe of stiff hairs on the surface, the beating his wife. That's not a very hairs approaching each other at the family is getting better each general a successful journey he will cram tion. I'm an improvement on the enough pollen to last him for two or wagon.

til Mr. T. returned.

ing to sleep."-Youth's Companion.

things.

"Well, I've found that your greatgreat-grandfather was hanged for mur der, your great-grandfather was imprisoned for robbery, and your grand-proud record, is it?"

whole bunch-never been in jail yet. three days.

easy?" said the woman in the spring was carrying an armful of wood.

Serious Interruptions.

The truly lazy man is not a common

Ancestral Pride.

"Do you still want this geneaology?"

<section-header><section-header><section-header><text><text></text></text></section-header></section-header></section-header>	The Office Boy Instructs. Contributor—I ,should like to leave these poems with your editor. What is the usual procedure? I haven't done any magazine work before. Of- fice Boy—Well, the usual custom is to leave 'em an' call back in a day or so- an' git 'em.—Exchange. In the Dark. Uncle Joe—Yes. Teddy, it is quite possible that there are people in the moon. Little Teddy—Well, what becomes of them when there isn't any moon? Savage. Caller—Sir, I am collecting for the poets' hospital. Will you contribute anything? Editor—With pleasure. Call tonight with the ambulance, and I will have some poets ready.—Judge. It is great cleverness to know how to conceal our cleverness.—La Rochefou- cauld.	on the side of a pie this the bottom and on the side of a pie tin; fill with apple quarters stewed till tender and return to the oven, putting a little cinnamon sugar and bits of butter over. When it is baked enough to set, draw it out and cover with a thick layer of grated cheese. Return to the fire and let the cheese melt and brown. Serve imme- diately.—Harper's Bazar. A Reminder. "Pa," said Bert, "won't you double my allowance?" "Why should I, sonny?" "Oh, I thought if it was bigger it would be more on your mind and you might remember to give it to me some- times."—London Telegraph. The intellect is perfected not by	Sleight of Hand. Hyker – I attended a successful sleight of hand performance last night Pyker-So? Hyker-Yes. I lent a con- jurer a counterfeit dollar, and he gave me back a good oneExchange. Trying to Explain. Howell-What did you mean by say- ing that I would never set the world on fire? Powell-I meant that you were too much of a gentleman to do itExchange. First, Forgive. When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any, that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespassesSt. Mark	Martha-You don't mean to say you have accepted that Mr. Spooner? Why, he is so awkward, you know! I saw him holding an umbrella over you the other day, and all the water it caugh: he allowed to drain right on to you Nancy – What better proof could I have that he is in love with me? He hadn't the least idea that it was rain ing, the dear man!-Boston Transcript. Not Surprised. Mrs. Gramercy-She must have been surprised when her husband gave her such an expensive present. Mrs. Park -Not surprised, my dear, but suspi- cious.	<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text>
				Contraction of the second s	