Mr. Long Back.

Mr. W. J. Long has returned from his spring buying tour in the Northern Markets. He says that the goods are coming in so fast that he can hardly get them opened up fast enough. His purchases have been very heavy and Long, Blalock and Haskins are prepared for a continuous rush.

Mr. Long's trip has been very fatiguing and he expects to go back to Richmond to continue the treatment for his digestive trouble.

To those owing taxes for 1908 you have only a few days in which to settle your them without cost. I beg you to settle before the books go out. After then you may expect to find your property levied upon.

Yours truly,
S. C. HOBGOOD, Tax Collector

Oxford needs citizens who will TALK Oxford.

New Advertisements.

Business folks are beginning to get the spring joyousness and are becoming talkative. They seem to be as lively as crickets.

Samuel Davis, the hardware man at Clarksville, has a big exhibition to be held on the 19th. His announcement will be found on another page and will be worth your while to read.

Long, Blalock & Haskins have goods rolling in and their force is as busy as bees in a tar barrel. They have a big advertisement on another page, in which they tell what beautiful and good things they have to offer the public. Look it up.

The Savings Bank and Trust Company have a new financial talk that can easily be found and is worth reading.

The Granville Real Estate & Trust Company, a progressive, business-like firm, would like to get your ear to pour in some sound real estate chat.

J. L. O'Quinn, the flower man of Raleigh, has made a change in his notice. Look it up.

Resolutions of Thanks.

Armory of Granville Grays, Oxford, N. C., March 8, 1909.

Whereas the ladies of Oxford have recently shown their interest in and appreciation of the Granville Grays by giving an entertainment for their benefit; and whereas the members of the Company desire to express their thanks to those who aided in this entertainment, therefore be it resolved:

1. That we hereby tender to the ladies of Oxford who so generously and kindly gave this entertainment for the benefit of the Granville Grays, our sincere thanks for this work in our behalf.

2. That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Company.

3. That copy be furnished the Public Ledger with request to publish the same.

Unanimously adopted

Evangelistic Revival.

The Rev. Dr. Wharton, of Philadelphia, is conducting a series of revivals at the Baptist church and two services a day are being held. These are well attended; last Sunday night every inch of available standing room was crowded, and the congregations during week services have been large. Members of all denominations are attending and numerous converts have been made. The services will close about Saturday when Dr. Wharton will leave for Raleigh.

Boys' Corn Growing Contest.

Interest in the Boy's Corn Contest is growing rapidly. From all over the county contestants are entering. It was announced in last week's Ledger that there are three State prizes, $50, $30, and $20 for the first, second, and third best acres respectively. These prizes apply to the whole State. The county prizes, announced elsewhere, are open only to the boys in this county. The buggy offered by The Taylor-Cannady Buggy Company and the harness given by Horner Bros will be awarded as first prize to the boy making the largest yield. The others will be divided into two or more prizes to be given to those who come next in order. Application blanks are ready for distribution. Don't forget that unless your application is on file you will not be counted in the contest. The boys who expect to win in this race must use brains as well as muscle. Get down to work and see who will ride in that new buggy and enjoy the other good things.

For further information write to J. F. Webb.

Mr. N. F. Bennett, of Stem, planted twelve thousand hills of tobacco, less than three acres, last season, and made 2,727 pounds of tobacco, which brought him $615.14, an average of over 23 cents per pound for his crop. He used Obers guano, of course. How is this for quality and weight? 3t.

Prizes for Smart Boys.

Several Granville boys are going to get some choice prizes this year. Last week we printed the announcement of the State's determination to offer three prizes totalling $100 to the 3 boys in the State who raised the best acre of corn during the year. Of course, the conditions as laid down in the announcement must be observed.

The idea has struck Superintendent Webb so forcibly that he has interested himself in the contest. The result is that our local business men are going to give very handsome and valuable prizes. All the boys between the ages of twelve and seventeen should make arrangements to get control of one acre and plan out their work.

Superintendent Webb will be glad to send out blanks to all the juvenile farmers who want to enter the contest. These business men whose names follow have promised to give the prizes as enumerated below. Many others will later add other premiums and the sum total of all the offerings will run up in the hundreds of dollars.

The prizes to be offered so far are: Taylor-Cannady Company—Buggy value of $75.

J. F. Edwards—Anything in store up to $7.

Horner Bros Co.—Set of Harness, value $15.

Baird & Chamblee—Boys Shotgun, value $6.

Baltimore Firm Buys Stock.

At Wednesday noon the stock of goods of Todes, Caplan & Co. was publicly sold at auction when Messrs. B. Cohen & Son, of Baltimore, Maryland, bid in the property at $4,600. There was an enormous crowd in the store and the bidding was done by many others beside the Cohens and Todes & Caplan. Among the visiting bidders were: Messrs. Harris, of Warrenton; Kindley, of Fayetteville; Gaugh, of Lumberton; Rosengarten, of Raleigh; Long, of Roxboro, and Adder, of Belhaven. In addition to these several local business men were interested in the bidding.

The stock of goods inventoried $6,648.33 and the percentage was upwards of 70 per cent which is very good.

Mr. Simon Cohen, a junior member of the firm said that it was hoped to start business just as soon as the sale is confirmed. The firm has been given a 3 year lease by Dr. E. T. White, owner of the building, the dating to be from April 1st.

Great Revival in Oxford.

For the benefit of the great number of people in the country who are interested I will say we have a great meeting in progress at the Baptist church conducted by Evangelist Wharton, of Philadelphia. This is indeed a union meeting, for there's a welcome for all. Dr. Wharton is a man of great power and there is the strictest attention paid. The singing is fine, the service is inspiring, the preaching could not be better. A great number have given their names to join the different churches. Hours for preaching, 4:30 p. m. and 7:30 at night. The church is filled at every service and you will have to come ahead of time to get a good seat, (one near by). We are not informed as to whether there will be any service Saturday, but the closing service will be at eleven o'clock a. m. next Sunday. May the Lord continue to bless the work.

Tuesday evening a contract for the building of a $3,000 Confederate monument was given to Mr. A. S. Blount, of Suffolk, and the old order for a cheaper design was withdrawn. The contract was signed by Mayor Devin on the part of the town, Chairman Lassiter, of the Board of County Commissioners, and Mrs. W. H. Mr. Blount will return Saturday with drawings and work will be begun at once, in order to have the corner stone laying on Decoration day as announced.

Mr. Graham Roberts III.

Mr. Graham Roberts is in Virginia Hospital in a very critical condition due to a cancerous affection for which he was operated upon Tuesday. He went to Richmond Sunday and Dr. F. L. Dr. Booth says he will have to undergo another operation if he recovers from the present one.

Mr. Roberts' friends are exceedingly distressed to learn of his illness and wish for him a speedy recovery.

We know he is well experienced in his work. He is also president of the Laymen movement. A large congregation was present to hear him and seemed to enjoy his talk very much.
