SCHOOLS AND ROADS.

Schools and Roads-Community Life, Civic Obligation Take Peace Seif-Central Individualism.

"People are judged by their roads, hurches, and schools." "I believe that high taxes for schools and roads is the highest condition of any political party." These two utterances been in its history, and that is saying made on the same day, at the recent Good Roads Congress held at Ash-First Districct in Congress.

The relation and interdependence of schools and roads in the rural districts is so intimate and vital should be linked together in the thoughts and speeches of all true patriots. I do not intend here to make roads or good schools, for I am almost persuaded that the interest in both is growing as rapidly in Granit should grow.
