Just as Scores of Oxford People Have

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure every kidney ill. Oxford citizens endorse them.

J. U. Patterson, Hillsboro St., Oxford, N. C. says: "I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, as since using them, my health has greatly improved. I was a victim of kidney trouble for a long time and was unable to obtain relief, despite the fact that I used every remedy that was brought my attention. The principle symptom of my complaint was a lameness across the small of my back and upon rising in the morning, I could hardly commence my day's work. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and obliged me to get up several times during the night. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills and being impressed in their favor, I procured a box at R. L. Hamilton's Drug Store and began their use. I was cured and at the present time I have no backache, my kidneys are normal and my health is good."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Posters-Milburn Co., New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ABOUT THE CANE.

Judge Graham Cared by Maurice T. Smith Camp No. 1277, Confederate Veterans of Granville.

At the unveiling of the Monument erected by the efforts of the noble women of Granville County United Dughters of the Confederacy, it was decided by the veterans to purchase a beautiful gold-headed cane and present it to Judge Graham for his pure love to care for aged and infirm veterans and their families.

The old boys decided on the day of the unveiling without giving him any hint of their intentions to purchase through Mr. Stinson, of the Oxford Jewelry Co., a gold-headed cane to cost $25.00. So on Tuesday of our last Court the cane came and as no one else could be had to make the presentation speech, I decided to do so in my inexperienced way by telling the old boys that Judge Graham's being our Commander, and not being a soldier was not on account of his choice, for he never accepted the office without offering his protest, saying that he was not during the war a Confederate soldier, though he had five brothers in the Confederate army and each one of them was wounded; yet from the fact, he hesitated to accept it and I could have explained to Gov. Kitchen while making his dedication speech when he alluded to the fact that he and Gen. B. S. Royster, had never been able to join the Confederate Veterans' Association, but Judge Graham had beat them, for he was not a soldier but had succeeded in getting into the organization. For all know that Judge Graham has on every year when the time came around for us to reorganize, he told us to put in some body else, that it was embarrassing to him to hold the place under the circumstances.

Well do I remember when he was first made Commander and the Camp went in a body to Louisville, Kentucky, that there was a veteran who Judge Graham saw that the soldier was anxious to go but could not on a count of not having money enough to pay his railroad fare. Judge Graham promptly paid his way for him, this costing nearly $15.00.

It ought to be heralded all over the State that Judge Graham has worked as hard, if not harder than any one man to get pensions for old soldiers and their families. Also do I remember at Asheville some years ago when the Camp went in a body to our State reunion, that after getting to Asheville all broken down, tired and hungry. When we first refreshed at head quarters, it seemed for a while that we would get no place to sleep, nor anything to eat unless we went to a hotel. So Judge Graham said: "Boys make yourselves as comfortable as you can be, and I will see what can be done for your comfort." Very soon he was back and said: "Fall in boys, follow me." It seemed very much like we were going into action, but instead of trouble and fighting, he carried us to a large roomy building and there we found merchant who was selling mattresses, beds, and bed clothing, as fast as he could work with all of his clerks and other men he could employ, fixing for our comfort and rest. Right then I resolved ever to keep him as Commander, for life if he could be persuaded to accept.

So now as facts are stubborn things let's all let well enough alone and keep him for our Commander for life, for I am sure we can't do as well in our ranks. And now gain as I can't help feeling that my time is nearly out, I wish to say to 'my old comrades, Good bye, farewell boys, our meeting in this world is about over and let us, like the immortal Stonewall Jackson, be ready to pass over th-river of rest under the shade of the trees." Your old comrade, J. P. Cannady.

FATHER 80-MOTHER 76

The aged father and mother of a prominent Boston lawyer safely carried through the last two winters by

Vinol

The son says: "My father and mother owe their present strength and good health to Vinol. During the last two winters neither of them had a cold, and were able to walk farther and do more than for years. I think Vinol is perfectly wonderful. It certainly is the greatest blood-making, strengthening tonic for old people I ever heard of."

We want every feeble old person in this town to try Vinol. We will return their money without question if it does not accomplish all we claim for it.
